THE GREEN DOT PROGRAM AT JOHNSON HIGH

All junior health classes at Arthur L. Johnson High School in Clark met with Kathryn Cleary, a representative from the Union County Rape Crisis Center on March 20th, 21st and 22nd. They have been facilitating the Green Dot Program for selected sophomore and junior students this school year as part of a grant the UCRCC has received. In addition, as part of the grant the New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault has partnered with the New Mexico Media Literacy Project to develop a media literacy and gender equity curriculum to offer to Union County school districts. Scotch Plains Fanwood High School, Linden High School and Arthur L. Johnson High Schools have volunteered to participate in both programs.

The curriculum's objectives help students explore how media supports or challenges the social norms that affect our attitudes and behaviors towards one another. Also, how to rebuild media messages that reflect the positive aspects of self-esteem and healthy relationships.

ST. AGNES STUDENTS SHARE THEIR ARTWORK WITH THE WORLD

Move Over Famous Artists! St Agnes School artists are taking over the spotlight! Alys Tyler, the school's Art Teacher, has teamed up with Artsonia, www.artsonia.com, the world's largest online kid's art museum, to display the students' artwork.

Anyone can view the school gallery online at: www.artsonia.com/schools/StAgnes7. Visitors can browse the artwork in the school gallery by grade level, or by specific exhibits. St Agnes School students join thousands of students from over 130 countries whose artwork is showcased on Artsonia. "This program is a wonderful way to get parents and family members more involved in Art Education," said Alys Tyler.

All of Artsonia's artwork (20 million and counting) are viewable online, and any teacher or parent can create an online art gallery for their child or school. Artsonia provides several online features such as fan clubs and personal guestbooks, as a way for families to encourage the creativity and imaginations of their young artists. In addition, family members can purchase keepsakes imprinted with the child's artwork, with Artsonia donating 20 percent of their annual product revenue back to school art programs.

Headquartered in Gurnee, Illinois, Artsonia was established in 2000 as an online kid's art museum providing free, educational resources for kids, families and schools to create art projects. Since its inception, Artsonia continues to integrate technology in the classroom, develop multi-cultural understanding through art and increase family involvement in children's education.

VALLEY ROAD SCHOOL'S MYSTERY NIGHT

As a kickoff to the NJASK (New Jersey Assessment of Skills and Knowledge) season, students in third, fourth and fifth grade turned into detectives during a recent Mystery Night hosted by the Valley Road School's PTA and Reading Committee. VRS teachers, staff and parents performed a play about a girl named Josie who thought she saw "A tent full of aliens." The students were led into different classrooms to examine different crime scenes in order to try to solve the mystery. The students needed to use their deduction, reasoning and listening skills in order to help them figure out if the evidence they found was from a prank, nightmare or from aliens. Teachers who performed in the play were: Mrs. Peitz, Miss Cemelli, Mrs. Dzurovcik, Mrs. Kelleher, Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Carrano. A special thanks was made to both Kerri Minchak and Sonya Solenski for organizing the fun and educational event.

Summertime...and the living is easy, but not for the many working parents looking for worthwhile ways for their children to spend their time. The NJ Center for Media Arts, located at 1203 W. St. Georges Avenue in Linden offers many opportunities this summer for children (and adults) of all ages to discover new talents and abilities, while developing those they already have. ## FINANCIAL INVESTMENTS

Students from Arthur L. Johnson High School have been studying a unit on stocks in their Money Management class with their teacher Mrs. Golinowski. Today they went to the Information Media Center to use the computers and any of the financial resources available to them such as the New York Times, Fortune Magazine, and Consumers Reports to research a stock they would like to buy. They were to research a company that they thought would be a good investment. They were told to research the companies past three years earnings, current price of their stock, the 52 week high and low price, if the company paid dividends and if so how much, and what is the stock's current price to earnings ratio. Based upon their findings they had to justify why they were going to invest in this stock.

GIRL SCOUTS VISIT THOMAS EDISON MUSEUM

Fourth graders from Clark's Girl Scout Troop 40659 enjoyed a visit to the Thomas Edison Museum and Light Tower last month. Accompanied by leaders Maria Moricz and Paula Louro, the scouts toured the newly-renovated Menlo Park Museum, which depicts the site's history as the world's first research and development laboratory.

The twelve Junior Girl Scouts enjoyed hands-on demonstrations of Edison's inventions, including early phonographs and electrical circuit systems. "We learned that Edison did not invent the light bulb, but he perfected it," remarked 10-year old Liana. They also learned that Thomas Edison earned the title "Wizard of Menlo Park" by dazzling visitors to the site with outdoor parallel-circuit lighting, a technological advancement in the early part of the century.

The Hehnly School scouts listened to century-old phonograph recordings and completed a portion of their Product Designer badge by participating in this outing.

STUDENTS RECOGNIZED FOR ARTS ACHIEVEMENT

The Art Educators of New Jersey hold an annual exhibit every March titled Youth Art Month, or YAM. YAM showcases artwork from various schools in the county, and celebrates the achievements in art that our students have accomplished. This year, Union County held their YAM exhibit at Elizabethtown Gas Co. in Union, NJ. Three students from Carl H. Kumpf Middle School, in Clark, were chosen to have their artwork displayed.

PUPPETRY CLUB HELPS THE CLARK GIRL SCOUTS

Submitted by Alicia Scipioni, Girl Scout Troop Leader

Junior Girl Scout Troop 791 is currently working on completing their Girl Scout Journey called Amuse. The Journey requires the girls to understand the many roles women and girls play in the world around them and the leadership skills used to play them. The girls also become aware of how stereotypes could hold themselves and others back from trying on roles, and they take action to help stop stereotypes. In an effort to stop stereotypes, the Junior Girl Scouts decided to create puppet shows for younger girl scout troops to teach them these important life skills. The Arthur L. Johnson Puppetry Club were eager to help the girls not only create puppets for their show, but to also teach them the important basics about being a puppeteer. The high school students brought along some of their favorite puppets and also helped the girls complete their skits.

The Junior Girl Scouts are now very excited to perform for the Daisy and Brownie girl scouts come April and are very grateful to have had the experience of working with ALJ High School's Puppetry Club.

NEW MUSEUM PASS AVAILABLE AT LIBRARY

The Friends of the Clark Public Library is pleased to announce the acquisition of a Library Membership Pass to the Montclair Art Museum. The pass was generously donated by Friends member and longtime library advocate Henry Varriano.

The Montclair Art Museum (MAM) is esteemed for its holdings of American and Native American art, its exhibitions, and its family and public programs. The Museum was a pioneer: one of the country's first museums primarily engaged in collecting American art and among the first dedicated to the study and creation of a significant ethnographic art collection. This pioneering spirit still reverberates in the Museum's pursuit and presentation of high-quality art that characterizes and celebrates America's diversity, including the recent launch of New Directions, a series of solo exhibitions of the work of contemporary artists and the cornerstone of MAM's newly created contemporary art program. MAM's collection has grown to over 12,000 works. The American collection, features excellent works by Benjamin West, Asher B. Durand, John Singer Sargent, Edward Hopper, Georgia O'Keeffe, Andy Warhol, and Roy Lichtenstein, as well as younger and emerging artists such as Louise Lawler, Chakaia Booker, Whitfield Lovell, and Willie Cole.

The pass will be available only to resident adult Clark Public Library cardholders in good standing. The pass will be checked out for four days and will be available on a first come, first served basis. For more information, please contact the Information Desk at 732-388-5999.
