FRANK K. HEHNLy STUDENTS SALUTE OUR LOCAL HEROES

The students of Miss Nina Sinicropi's 5th grade class at Frank K. Hehnlly School in Clark have a busy schedule of interviews over the following months, and no they aren't applying for jobs. The 5th grade students will be interviewing local veterans, and active armed forces members in preparation for a Memorial Day event that is not to be missed. Multitudes of local veterans and servicemen and women of all ages, and backgrounds will be in attendance on May 23rd both to share their sentiment of the importance of the day, as well as to be deservedly recognized. Local and state politicians along with dignitaries have also been invited to share in this celebration of one of our nation's most patriotically important holidays. In the months leading up to this event, Clark students will be creating biographies of the past and present servicemen and women they interview which will be combined and published to form a showcase of the full spectrum of our local heroes.

Recently Miss Sinicropi's 5th grade students were visited by Private First Class Adam Kipnis and Cadet Sergeant Sara Vagie. Private First Class Adam Kipnis is an Arthur L. Johnson alumnus of 2009 who currently attends Montclair State University and works in computer detection systems repair in the United States Army National Guard. Cadet Sergeant Sara Vagie is an Arthur L. Johnson alumna of 2011 who is currently attending West Point and will graduate in spring 2015 as a second Lt. in the Army. Both armed forces members shared their stories, childhood, and some of their unique training, along with allowing students the chance to learn how to properly salute. Many interviews will be conducted in the coming weeks, but each will bring with it a unique sense of what serving our country truly means.

CHEERLEADERS PERFORM FOR SUPER BOWL FANS

The Arthur L. Johnson High School Varsity Cheerleaders from Clark were recently selected to become the welcoming committee for the Super Bowl media and fans at Newark Airport. Maggi Villane, the manager of Customer Care Programs and Partner Relations, was kind enough to be a guide for the Cheerleaders as they moved to multiple locations throughout the airport. The Cheerleaders performed in Terminal A between the hours of 6 and 8 p.m. on Monday, January 27th. The cheerleaders, accompanied by their coaches, Lindsey Barrett, Suzanne Hamilton, and Cristina Faro, welcomed the media and fans with Super Bowl cheers, chants, gymnastics, and stunts. Terminal A was decorated with balloons, Super Bowl signs, and a carpet resembling a football turf. Fans and travelers took time out of their busy schedules to gather around the cheerleaders and to enjoy some Super Bowl spirit!

(above) Katy Shriner, Brianna Torres, Ali Byrne, Alexis Ciccone, Jess Sbarro, Kelli Kraus, Jess Zambrana, Jenna Koppel, Krista Ginesi, Christie Bove, Michelle Brocato, Deborah Neri, Emily Curran, Catie Moran, Danielle Marzano, Deanna Bove, and Alex Ianco as they cheer for an audience of travelers in Newark International Airport.

“CRUISIN’ THROUGH WINTER”

Students from Joseph Sortino’s Physical Education classes at Frank K. Hehly School in Clark, New Jersey held a line dancing event on Friday January 17th to benefit “Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation”, an organization dedicated to raising funds and awareness of childhood cancer causes. The organization encourages others to get involved and make a difference for children with cancer.

Students and parents participated in the Cha-Cha Slide, Cupid Shuffle, Limbo and the Macarena and other fun line dances. Children learn the routines during their Physical Education classes as part of their curriculum. Mr. Sortino acted as D.J. while some of the fifth graders demonstrated the dance steps on stage. The event “kicked the winter blues” while supporting this life saving charity.

GIRL SCOUTS STRIVE TO HELP ANIMALS IN NEED

Furry friends feel the love of Clark Junior Girl Scouts. Troop 791 is hard at work to earn their Bronze Award this year. The girls decided to earn the award by working with pet shelters in the community at large, specifically Angel Paws and the Woodbridge Animal Shelter, in order to help animals in need. The girls posted flyers throughout the community and in the Clark Public Schools to generate people to come out on Jan. 18th, to donate various items that the pet shelters needed to care for their animals. The girls were amazed by the community's generosity and support. They received several bags of both cat and dog food, cat beds, dog toys, kitty litter and so much more. They can't wait to now tour those pet shelters while finding out firsthand how they have touched these precious lives and what more they can do to support these animals. They also want to thank everyone for their many contributions.

BAG OF SIDES A HUGE SUCCESS

The Clark Give and Share Program would like to thank all those who made the Bag of Sides program a huge success. The program solicited donations of boxed stuffing or potatoes, 1-2 cans of vegetables, a can of cranberry sauce and a can of turkey gravy to be distributed at the monthly St. John The Apostle food pantry.

Over 400 bags were made and distributed to needy families not only in November but also at the December food pantry.

Special thanks to Dawn Greco, Donna Kircher and her K-Kids, Arthur L. Johnson High School staff and students, Ms. Molly and the Kumpf Builders Club, Holly Melao, St. Agnes Parish, Mother Seton, St. John's Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and everyone who dropped food off at the Clark Department anonymously. Your generosity and kindness is appreciated.

The next St. John The Apostle Food Pantry will be on Tuesday, February 18, 2014 at the Clark Recreation cafeteria, 430 Westfield Ave., Clark between 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m.

There will be no special food collection for the month of February as the Clark Give and Share Program will be hosting its third annual "Drive By Food Drive" on Saturday, March 22, 2014 between 9:00 a.m. -11:00 a.m. at the Clark Municipal Building, 430 Westfield Ave. Clark.

Anyone with questions, can contact Nancy Raymond, Health Officer at 732-428-8405.

CUB SCOUT BREAKFAST

Cub Scout Pack 145 held their Annual Pancake Breakfast last Saturday at the Clark Recreation facility. Hundreds of residents came out to support the scouts enjoying a pancake breakfast complete with bacon, coffee and juices. Scout Master Scott McCabe has run the successful event for years and says it gets bigger each year. The Pancake Breakfast is just one of the many events that pack 145 participates in throughout the year.
