STUDENT MOVEMENT AGAINST CANCER

Student Movement Against Cancer (S.M.A.C.) is a club at Arthur L. Johnson High School in Clark that promotes cancer awareness and raises funds for various cancer charities. The student S.M.A.C. board consists of recently nominated President, Albert Martin and Vice President Julia Fioravante, along with a treasure, secretary, and media and design leader. With the support of club advisors, Ms. Molly Cuisick, guidance counselor, and Ms. Melissa Gabriele, English as a Second Language teacher, S.M.A.C. members are organizing fundraisers to donate to different cancer fighting foundations.

Members are aiming to make a greater impact by volunteering their time and donating to local foundations. The club's first fundraiser was held recently. Students at ALJ are being asked to "Link Together" and support those who have been affected by cancer. Paper links are available for purchase and will be displayed in the cafeteria in honor of those who have been touched by cancer. The clubs culminating fundraiser will be the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life that is being held at ALJ in June. All proceeds from this specific event will benefit the American cancer Society.

HEHNLY K-KIDS CELEBRATE JOINING OLDER AND YOUNGER GENERATIONS

The Hehnly K-Kids Club recently held a JOY (Joining Older and Younger Generations) Social. Members of the K-Kids were asked to invite a guest to celebrate the holiday season by playing BINGO and enjoying ice cream treats. The special memories shared were captured in a special photo and frame that each student received. Special guests, including many Hehnly teachers, were on hand for students who didn't have an older generation guest to invite

"It is important that we work to reinforce the relationships that our children have to the older generation," explained Mrs. Kircher, K-Kids Advisor. "Our children have so much to learn from the adults in their lives and this social provides an opportunity to reinforce that bond."

The Hehnly K-Kids Club, which is an extension of the Kiwanis Organization, supports community based needs through their clothing drive fundraiser.

WINNERS OF THE HOLIDAY HOUSE DECORATING CONTEST

Over 20 homes registered to be considered for the Annual Holiday House Decorating Contest sponsored by Clark Recreation. A committee of five drove around town and voted for homes in three categories including Most Outrageous, Most Traditional, and Overall Favorite. Some residents called in their favorite to give their opinion. "It was a tough decision" said Natalie Belverio, one of the judges, all of the homes that entered were terrific – one more beautiful than the next, however only three could win. After much discussion and selection the winners of this year's contest are:
