CELEBRATING CLARK TOWNSHIP'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY

On Saturday, January 31, 2015, the Clark Benefit Fund hosted their Annual Winter Benefit Celebration at the Gran Centurions in Clark. A new twist this year was the Township of Clark joined together with the Clark Benefit Fund, in celebrating the township's 150th Anniversary.

The sold out crowd danced the night away with the ever-popular and famous band, "The Nerds", accompanied by "Supersonic DJ".

The funds raised will enhance youth and community programs in Clark including a variety of community associations, local athletic organizations, youth and educational programs.

(right) Clark Recreation Director Ralph Bernardo was honored for his community service during the event. Pictured along with Ralph are some members of the Executive Committee of the Clark Benefit Fund which included: Henrietta Pozyc, Cindy Fresco, Geraldine Bonaccorso, Christine Drajin, and Donna Rogleri.

ANNUAL DAY OF SERVICE IN HONOR OF MLK, JR.

The Interfaith Human Relations Committee of Cranford Clergy Council invited the public to its 3rd Annual Day of Service, in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. on Monday, January 19th. The event was held at the First Presbyterian Church of Cranford where participants were engaged in various service projects such as assembling home and personal products baskets and crafts for a local women's shelter, assembling food backpacks for children in need, sorting food for Cranford Family Care, creating gifts for the veterans at the VA Hospital in Lyons, NJ as well as the participants of the Meals on Wheels program and the residents of Cranford nursing homes.

The Interfaith Human Relations Committee of the Cranford Clergy Council consists of members from all houses of worship in Cranford, and Osceola Church in Clark. The group has sponsored anti-bullying events, service days, and interfaith religious services. In 2013, the group held the Sept 11th Memorial Service, an interfaith Thanksgiving service and raised $10,000 of funds for the Cranford CROP Walk. This year, the group plans to hold a book club and a Holocaust Remembrance Service, amongst other events.

To learn more about the Interfaith Human Relations Committee of the Cranford Clergy Council, contact Cindy Hannen at cindy@patwin.com, or call her at (908) 272-9133.

GIRL SCOUTS 3RD ANNUAL POWDER PUFF DERBY

Clark, Garwood, and Winfield Girl Scouts held their Annual Powder Puff Derby inside the Clark Recreation Center on Saturday, January 31st. Seventy-five cars entered the race and zoomed down the track. Guest Judge Tracy Eltringham, a Volunteer for the entire Girl Scout Unit, was excited to be chosen to vote for cars that would win certificates for having other special qualities besides speed. "Our hopes were that the girls would see that the time spent designing and creating their cars with their family members, was more valuable than just winning a race," said Alicia Scipioni the main organizer for the event. As Steve Donkersloot (MC for the Derby) said throughout the day, "If you are having fun, you already won!"

Some of the awards received were: Sara Donkersloot for Sparkliest Car, Alyssa Collins for Best Character Car, Sophia Riccio for Coolest Design, Kaitlyn Lagun for Best Girl Scout Themed, Isabel Cortese for Best of Show, Keira Kaminskis for Most Creative, Julia Kleczynski for Best Paint Job, Emma Czeh for Best Design, Erin Kaplan for Most Scout Made, Annabella Velaj for Humorous Car, Rachel Papa for Best Named Car with her car "Whole Latte Speed, "Judge's Favorite" went to Sophie Tripp with her bathtub car "Larry." Last but not least, "Flat Tire" went to AnnDee Jennings with AJ's Dragon.

The Fathers' Race evolved into a Family Race. Many moms and siblings wanted to get in on the action too. David Guarino won Funniest Parent Car and Kelli Kaminskis won for Most Creative Parent Car.

Once every level competed, all the first place cars raced against each other to see who had the fastest car. Coming in 1st Place Overall was Isabella Scipioni (Brownie), 2nd Place Gabriella Scipioni (Cadet), 3rd Place Reese Sebok (Daisy) and 4th Place Madelaine Edmondson (Junior).

The CGW Girl Scouts said they would like to thank the Clark Shop Rite and Vaccaro's Bakery for their generous donations. Big thanks were given to the Track Crew: Rudy Scipioni, Matt Normann, Steve Donkersloot, Robert Kleczynski, Tim Cahill, Diane Moore, Joe Moore and Boy Scout KJ Kaminskis for helping not only during the entire race, but also at weigh-in the night before. The race wouldn't have been possible without their help.

Another thank you went to Stephanie Kleczynski who worked tirelessly to get donations for the kitchen, which served as a very profitable fundraiser for the scouts. All proceeds will go to further improve the derby and to help alleviate costs to future Girl Scout events.

MIKE TULLY SPEAKS TO CRUSADER ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

On January 21, 2015, members of the Crusader Athletic Leadership Council met in the Arthur L. Johnson High School IMC. This is the fourth year for the Crusader Athletic Leadership Council, an organization that has been founded to help educate our student athletes on some of the expectations that we have for them as they compete interscholastically in a variety of athletics. We hope that by informing this council of some of our expectations, we will be able to foster an open and healthy relationship amongst our student athletes, the school culture, and the community of Clark.

Not only will this be of great help to all Arthur

L. Johnson student athletes and coaches, but it will offer up a vast array of opportunities for the members of the Crusader Athletic Leadership Council, including the ability to place this activity on future college applications.

The organization meets monthly and will discuss a variety of topics and issues. The Council had the pleasure of meeting and interacting with guest speaker Mike Tully at the last meeting, who talked to the C.A.L.C. Members on numerous topics in regards to leadership and high school athletics, including having the Total Game Plan in regards to how you attack each and everything you do.

Coach Mike Tully has studied peak performance for three decades, first as an international sports writer and then as a championship coach. Coach Tully covered Olympic Games in Lake Placid, Los Angeles, Sarajevo and Seoul, as well as more than 100 consecutive World Series games. Now he takes the insights gained from the greatest athletes in the world and brings them into high school and college gyms.

Gus Kalikas, Athletic Director at Arthur L. Johnson High School, had this to say about the event. "The C.A.L.C. was thrilled to have Mike Tully come and speak to us on multiple topics relevant to high school athletics today, including leadership. Mike reached all of our students and left them with great strategies that will not only help on the fields, courts, and mats, but also in the game of life. He was a true professional and inspires while delivering a wonderful message."

CAT IN THE HAT VISITED THE CLARK PRESCHOOL

On February 3rd, NJEA's Cat in the Hat visited the Clark Preschool for the 18th Annual Read Across America. The Seussical celebration kicks off read across the nation which aides in the improvement of literacy skills. Reading is an important focus in the early grades and students who are absent miss critical instruction time. Research shows that early literacy plays a key role in enabling learning experiences that are linked with academic achievement, reduced grade retention and higher graduation. Our guest reader, Jill Curran, the BOE Vice President, read The Cat in the Hat. The Cat portrayed the character by miming the narration "kicking off" the March literacy celebration to build a nation of readers.

Students at Valley Road School in Clark participated in the twenty-fourth annual Radiant Peace Education Awards. Since 1990, The Radiant Peace Foundation International Inc. gives students from first grade through twelfth grade the chance to submit essays, art and projects into the Radiant Peace Education awards. These creative works completed by students have to be based on the Radiant Peace theme. Over the years, the Radiant Peace Foundation has reached thousands of students across the United States and in recent years, they have reached students from other countries as well.

The Radiant Peace International Foundation's mission is to inspire, encourage, and promote Radiant peace in our everyday lives. According to the organization, radiant peace is a "natural, whole, harmless, not dualistic, benevolent energy within all our hearts relating use all and making us whole." With this in mind, students in fourth and fifth grade in Valley Road School were offered the opportunity to create and submit artwork for the contest. Students worked with their art teacher, Michelle Matesic, after school to create artwork that resonated with the radiant peace theme. The students used multiple mediums to create different artworks such as paintings, drawings, and sculptures.

Every entry that is entered receives a beautiful iron on patch from the Radiant Peace Foundation International and outstanding entries are awarded certificates and prizes. Out of the entries submitted from Valley Road School, two fifth graders were given awards. Ashley Belverio received an honorable mention for her sculpture that portrayed two helping hands holding the earth with a girl and her pet beside it. Fifth grader Shannon Heaning also received an award; she was named a national winner for students in fifth through eight grades for her artwork. Shannon created a sculpture of a girl helping a boy up with a dove flying overhead. Their work was chosen out of many entries that are sent in from across the country.

Their art teacher, Michelle Matesic, commented on their accomplishments, "I am very proud of the students who worked hard and submitted artwork into the contest. Also, it is great that Ashley Belverio and Shannon Heaning received national recognition for their artwork. I believe it is truly an honor to have their work chosen out of the multiple entries that are submitted!"

SECOND ANNUAL READING AUCTION

This week students in Ms. Guarino's third grade class at Frank K. Hehly Elementary School wrote to over 200 companies across the country requesting donations. In an effort to increase the enjoyment of leisure reading and motivate students to be fascinated by books, third grade students began reading towards our second annual class Reading Auction. Students began preparing for the auction since school began in September by logging the minutes they read at home each night. Students earn $5 of fake auction money for every parent-approved 30 minutes of reading they completed outside of school hours. The donations we will receive from these companies will serve as "auction items" for students to "buy" with their earned money. Students are motivated each night to continue reading to earn money for this event!
