RAHWAY FIREFIGHTERS WIN TOP HONORS IN COOK-OFF

Fifth annual event to benefit NJ State Firefighter's Mutual Benevolent Assoc. and Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation

On Monday February 23, 2015, firefighters from around New Jersey competed at the Cooked and Uncorked Food and Wine Festival benefiting New Jersey State Firefighter's Mutual Benevolent Association (NJSFMB) and Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation. The competition is part of the culinary extravaganza where participants experienced the tastes and flavors of more than twenty-eight of New Jersey's finest restaurants, caterers and dessert shops, as well as 34 tables of liquor vendors all in one location. Rahway restaurants that participated included Kim's In The Mix, Cubanu, and Luchiano's.

The event, which drew more than 1,000 people from throughout New Jersey, was held at The Pines Manor in Edison. Some of the quotes heard were "Amazing Event", "The Food and Beverages were incredible", "The Fire Departments out did themselves this year", "Tried so many different kinds of beverages", "I'll be back next year and bring my friends".

The Ultimate Fire Department Cook-off was an integral part of the evening as twenty-five fire departments competed for top honors in "Gourmet Cooking", "Firehouse Cooking", and "Peoples' Choice". Rahway competed against teams from Union, Cranford, Bayonne, Carteret, Elizabeth, Hillside, Hamilton Twp., New Brunswick, Long Branch, Linden, Plainfield, South Orange, Trenton, Roselle, Millburn, Rahway, Maplewood, Nutley, and Paterson.

The Rahway Fire Department placed 2nd in the category "Firehouse Cooking". The team consisted of chefs Randy Peterson, Javier Gonzalez, Ateve Niro, Patrick Moffitt, Dave Delaney, and Charlie Leone.

Rahway's menu was a traditional clambake which consisted of snow crab, littleneck clams, shrimp, chorizo sausage, garlic cloves, red potato and fresh corn on the cob, portioned in individual sacks and steamed in an Old Bay and citrus fruit brine, served with clarified butter and Old Bay spice packs. The dish was complimented with chef Moffitt's home made sangria. Rahway Local 33 would like to recognize and thank the American Legion Post 5 for their generosity in enabling them to prep their meal in their gourmet kitchen.

Established in 1987, Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation serves as the education, research and fundraising arm of The Burn Center. It provides essential financial support to burn patients and their families, fire safety programs for the community, training programs for professionals, as well as medical equipment for The Burn Center.

11 CRITICAL HOME INSPECTION TRAPS TO BE AWARE OF WEEKS BEFORE LISTING YOUR HOME FOR SALE

Rahway NJ - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help homesellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To order a FREE Special Report, visit www.njhomeinspectiontraps.com or to hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report call toll-free 1-888-243-5861 and enter 3000. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

Friday, February 13, 2015, will go down in Rahway High School's history books as the night Senior Ashley Spinks scored her 1,000th point for the girls' basketball team. This has been a goal as long as Ashley remembers. Coached by her father, Henry Spinks, since she could hold a basketball, Ashley is only the second girl in the school's history to claim this feat. Ashley has been chasing her dream since she joined the team in middle school.

Ms. Spinks, due to a miscalculation, went into the home game against Plainfield thinking she needed 55 points to reach her goal; therefore, she felt no pressure and was able to play her usual game. In reality, she only needed to score 6 points. She was shocked and confused when the game stopped and her team jumped on her. Coach Brown presented her with a commemorative basketball to note her accomplishment, amidst the cheers and congratulations of the crowd. Ms. Spinks, when interviewed, stated, "I could not have accomplished this goal without the support of my team, Coach Brown, and my father. Their love and support has allowed me to conquer this long-held dream. I am so happy." "Since I was a freshman, I knew I wanted to make this happen and have worked as hard as I could." It is interesting to note that as soon as the game was over, Ashley quickly changed and ran down the hallway to the auditorium where she was hosting the King of Hearts event. As soon as she took the stage with not a moment to spare, she was met with a standing ovation from the audience for her incredible moment in Rahway High School history.

SPRING FEVER

After a long cold snowy winter, spring is finally in our sight, the favorite season of millions of people around the world. Before long many flowering plants will bring spectacular color to our parks and gardens.

Now that spring is about to arrive it is time for the garden clean up. Although many will work from dawn to dusk to get it done, I prefer to focus on one section at a time. This gets the job done in a few days and permits me time to do the chores I enjoy.

It wouldn't seem like spring without a pot of colorful pansies by my front door. Pansies are a welcome sight to family and guests when they arrive. To keep pansies happy hide a jug of water close by for easy daily watering and deadhead old flowers once a week.

The most popular spring flower for many of us is the 'TULIP' (Tulipa). Tulips are a bulbous spring flowering plant with boldly colored cup-shaped flowers.

After arriving in Europe during the late 1500's as a gift from the Sultan of Turkey, tulips became very popular among the rich. When tulips finally reached Holland they became the focus of a craze known as 'Tulip Mania'. Tulips were bought and sold for hundreds of dollars at such a rapid pace that Tulip mania is considered the first 'economic bubble'. Great family fortunes were gained and lost by trading this bulb and its seeds. In February 1637 the entire trend collapsed within a few days leaving many bankrupt.

In modern times most of the tulips we purchase still come from Holland and are a major international export.

In April and May tulips are sold as potted plants and cut flowers. They are affordable and always appreciated as a special gift.

To get the most from your cut tulips try to buy flowers that are still tight. They will open quickly. Give them a fresh 'straight' cut and place them in a vase with cool (not cold) water and flower crystals. In a few days your tulips will require fresh water.

After potted tulips have bloomed they are depleted and will not do well as a garden plant. Sadly, they are not worth the effort it takes to plant them.

Please support our local garden centers.

They depend on our seasonal business and sell the largest selections of plants, flowers and vegetables.

*Happy Gardening,

RAHWAY RESIDENTS AMONG CLASS FROM TRINITAS SCHOOL OF NURSING

With nursing diplomas and Associate in Science degrees from Union County College (UCC) in hand, the January class of the Trinitas School of Nursing celebrated their completion of the program at graduation exercises. The class included 75 women and 13 men, continuing a trend of increasing numbers of men seeking nursing careers. The graduates included Rahway residents Madonna Briana D. Domingo and Aizle Marie Vargas.

Trinitas School of Nursing currently holds full continuing accreditation from The National League for Nursing (NLN) Accrediting Commission, Inc. through Fall 2020. AWARENESS FOR WOMEN'S HEART HEALTH

Heart disease and stroke kill 1 in 3 women, yet it's 80% preventable. They joined the nationwide movement and honored women by each donating $2. In exchange for their donation, they were able to wear jeans to work that day, the school nurse took their blood pressure, they received a heart healthy cookbook and even a little treat. Collectively, a donation of $102 was sent to the American Heart Association.

Just Be You Performing Arts, a new community based organization for children with an interest in the performing arts, conducted a free acting workshop at the Rahway Public Library on February 21, 2015, in celebration of the city's Black History Month activities.

During the Black History Month workshop, the young actors learned how to perform a monologue from plays and poetry written by influential African-American playwrights, such as Lorraine Hansberry and August Wilson. Most participants had no formal acting training, yet the workshop gave them an opportunity to try something new.

"When I was looking for an artistic activity in town for my son I didn't find one. This motivated me to develop Just Be You performing Arts. We are fulfilling a need in Rahway, by providing an affordable, year round arts program for kids", said Founder and Executive Director, Mahogany Reynolds-Clarke, an actress and instructor, who started JBY as a community outreach activity.

The vision of the organization is to provide an enriching artistic experience, in a safe, fun and positive environment. Throughout the year, the children will give performances and showcases in the community. This helps them prepare for a career as a performing artists and will enhance the city of Rahway.

"Just Be You Performing Arts can play an important role not only in building the next generation of young artists but in developing untapped human capital that benefits our community," said Lawrence E. McCullough, Ph.D., Executive Director Union County Performing Arts Center.

Future workshops will consist of, acting technique, vocal coaching, dance choreography, and runway modeling training. The primary goal is to build self-esteem, and to encourage the young artists to embrace their talents, and use their creativity in a positive way.

"JBY can be an asset to the young people in the community by keeping them engaged and off the street", said Damon and Mary Lynn Williams, parents of an aspiring young actor named Lance, who attended the workshop.

PERFORMING ARTS AT RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL "CUTS LOOSE" WITH "FOOTLOOSE"

MARCH 27, 28 @ 7:30 and MARCH 29 @ 2PM

Tickets on Sale Now !

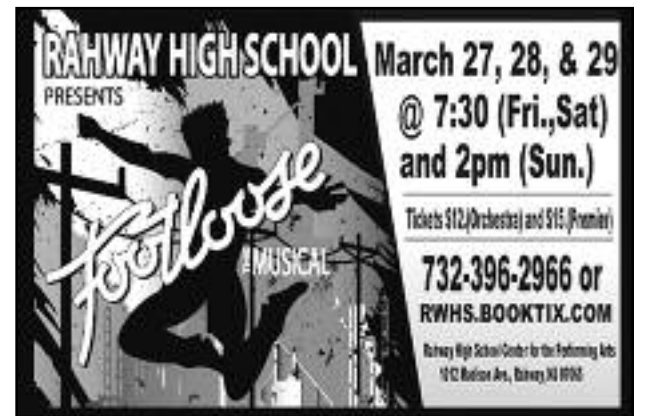

Inspired by the wildly popular 1984 movie, "FOOTLOOSE," thrilled Broadway audiences for nearly two years. It's a story of American spirit – a carefree city kid transplanted to a conservative rural town where rock 'n Roll and dancing are forbidden, takes on authorities, makes all the right moves, and wins the girl.

"FOOTLOOSE," the stage adaptation by Dean Pitchford and Walter Bobbie, is based on the original screenplay by Dean Pitchford. The Musical features all the chart topping music from the film ("Almost Paradise," "Holding out for a Hero," "Let's Hear it for the Boy," to name a few.) The score contains Music and Lyrics by Tom Snow and Dean Pitchford.

Rahway High School's production is Directed and Choreographed by Alison Dooley with Musical Direction by Robert Van Wyk. The company of "FOOTLOOSE," includes Dion Grier as Ren McCormack, Katelynn Perez as Ariel, Mariah Grajales as Rusty and Mechi Brown as Williard. There are an additional 32 members of the cast and some High School Faculty members who have been so generous to join us to portray adult characters in our show.

Tickets are priced from $10-$15.....So please plan to join us and "CUT LOOSE" with "FOOTLOOSE."

MILTON FRIEDMAN: FROM RAHWAY HIGH TO NOBEL PRIZE

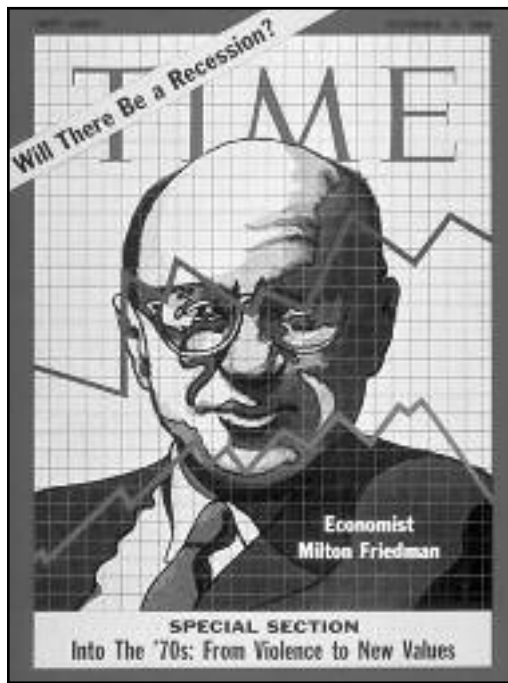

Submitted by Al Shipley, City Historian and Rahway Library Research Consultant

On Tuesday evening, June 19, 1928, commencement exercises for the Rahway High School graduating class of 1928 were held in the Franklin School auditorium. Of the sixty-eight graduates, 16-year-old senior, Milton Friedman, garnered the most prestigious awards. Not only was Friedman the valedictorian, but he also received $10.00 in gold for the highest average in Math and was awarded a prize for maintaining the highest average in Science over his four years in high school. It is little wonder that this promising young student would one day become a world famous economist and public intellectual who would ultimately be presented a Nobel Prize.

Born in Brooklyn, New York in 1912, the Friedman family came to Rahway when Milton was still an infant and moved into a small building on Main Street, between Monroe and Poplar (the building, which was razed by the mid-1990s, stood on a portion of the site of what is now Luciano's Italian Restaurant). The family lived in an apartment above a dry goods store which was operated by Milton's mother. Mr. Friedman was in the garment business, working in Rahway and often commuting to New York City.

By the sixth grade, Milton was already demonstrating his academic brilliance. He had done so well in the sixth grade at Washington School that he was excused from his final examinations. The precocious young student asked his teacher if he might take the seventh grade final exam, "just for fun." He was given permission and ended up scoring higher than any of the seventh graders. As a result, school officials allowed him to skip a grade.

Upon finishing high school, Friedman attended Rutgers University and graduated in 1932 with a double major in Mathematics and Economics. He considered entering a field where he could utilize his math abilities, perhaps as an actuary, but it was the height of the Depression and his professors instilled in him the notion that the economic difficulties could be solved with the implementation of creative economic principles. Friedman took the advice of his mentors and accepted a scholarship to the University of Chicago where he earned an M.A. in Economics in 1933. He would later go on to earn a PhD at Columbia University.

Conservative in his views, Friedman advocated minimizing the role of government in a free market as a means of creating political and social freedom. His views on monetary policy, taxation, privatization, and deregulation would influence the policies of governments around the globe including the United States. During his career he became a major advisor to President Ronald Reagan serving on the President's Economic Policy Advisory Board. Often referred to as the "guru" of the Reagan Administration, President Reagan honored him with the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1988.

Friedman's ideas also influenced many world leaders including Margaret Thatcher of Britain, Brian Mulroney of Canada, and Augusto Pinochet of Chile.

Friedman was also an outspoken proponent of a volunteer military and during the administration of Richard Nixon he headed a committee to research a conversion to a paid/volunteer armed force. Friedman considered his part in eliminating conscription as his proudest accomplishment.

On October 14, 1976, he was the sole recipient of the Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences. Officials of the Swedish Royal Academy of Science selected Friedman, "For his achievements in the fields of consumption analysis, monetary history and theory, and for his demonstration of the complexity of stabilization policy."

In 1980, the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) aired a ten-part television series titled "Free to Choose," which presented Friedman's economic and social philosophy. Friedman and his wife, Rose, co-authored a companion piece to the series that became the best-selling non-fiction book of 1980. Since its publication, the book has been translated into 14 languages.

Milton Friedman passed away on November 16, 2006. According to the "Economist," a scholarly publication based in London, Milton Friedman was "the most influential economist of the second half of the 20th century, possibly of all of it." Former Federal Reserve Board Chairman, Alan Greenspan, when commenting on Friedman, stated, "There are very few people over the generations who have ideas that are sufficiently original to materially alter the direction of civilization. Milton is one of those very few people."

With his roots in Rahway and his formative educational training in the Rahway schools, the city can claim this remarkable world figure as one of its most notable citizens.

SPRING AND THE BOOK SALE ARE COMING!

By Marilyn Scalia

With all the snow and cold we've had, most of us are looking forward to the coming of Spring. Although Spring means warmer weather and the end of snow (at least for this year, and not a moment too soon), it also means the coming of the annual Friends of the Rahway Public Library Book Sale. Each year we offer an extensive collection that includes, but is not limited to, mysteries, novels, science fiction, self-help, and children's books for those who like to read, learn and be amused. In addition to books, CDs, DVDs and even vinyl records have been included in the sale. This year the Book Sale will be held from April 16th through April 18th, with a special preview session on Wednesday, April 15th, for those who are members of the Friends. New members may join the Friends that evening to take advantage of the preview sale.

Currently, we are looking for book (and CD, DVD, and record) donations. Why don't you begin your Spring cleaning early, review the titles you no longer need or want and consider donating them for the sale. You can sweep them out of your house and into the sale, thereby giving you room for the books, etc. you purchase from the sale. We will have a selection of hard cover and paperback books covering many topics: you may find the travel book you need as you plan a trip or that special book you remember from your childhood for your child or grandchild. You may have the opportunity to buy an entire collection for a fraction of the regular cost; last year we offered the Nancy Drew series for a remarkably low price!

So mark your calendars for the arrival of Spring in March and our Book Sale in April. The sale will take place from 6 – 8 PM on Wednesday and Thursday, April 15th (the preview day) and 16th; from 10 AM – 4 PM on Friday, April 17th; and from 10 AM – 2 PM on Saturday, April 18th. Hardcover books will be $2 and paperbacks, 50 cents.

As I mentioned in the last column, the Friends planned a new event this year: A Murder Mystery Dinner. Ticket sales were strong and the acting troupe played to a full house. We want to thank all who bought tickets, Patria for hosting the dinner, and our sponsors, Station
