1979 ALJ ALUM PUBLISHES 10TH BOOK ON POP CULTURE

Jay Blakesberg, Photographer/Author to Appear at Clark Barnes & Noble on Nov. 9th

Arthur L Johnson High School's very own alum from class of 1979 has really made a name for himself as a photographer, author, creative director, and the list goes on. Jay Blakesberg's name got perhaps the most notoriety it's ever gotten this past summer when he landed a major gig as the exclusive photographer for the Grateful Dead's 50th Anniversary Fare Thee Well tour (five-show run). Blakesberg's work was plastered on every piece of press that resulted from that tour. It was through his eyes and camera lens that those who couldn't make it to the sold out shows or fork over the money for the streams would perceive these historic concerts. But the Fare Thee Well gig didn't come easy; it was a culmination of over 35 years as one of the hardest working and most creative photographers in not just the jam band and Grateful Dead scene, but in the music industry as a whole.

Jay is returning to his hometown of Clark to speak at ALJ high school, his alma mater on Monday, November 9th at 1:30pm, then he will be appearing at Barnes & Noble that same night at 7:30pm for a slideshow lecture about his 35-year journey in rock and roll photography documenting from the Grateful Dead to his latest book, Hippie Chick: A Tale of Love, Devotion and Surrender, a coffee table book for which he shot all the photography. The event is FREE to all, and Jay will be signing copies of the book after the presentation.

Photos aren't the only form of expression in Blakesberg's book. It also features several written works including a forward by Grace Slick, an afterward by Grace Potter, and three essays by journalist Edith Johnson. Johnson, who pens the Festival Girl blog, wrote three essays that break down the book's subtitle, exploring the concepts of love, devotion, and surrender through eyes of a hippie chick. Johnson was also responsible for gathering the quotes that are peppered throughout the book which Blakesberg considers the thread that holds his project together, lending honest insight to his images.

While he was still in high school, Jay had a propensity for photography and loved rock and roll. In 1978, a year before he graduated from ALJ, his dad lent Jay his Pentax camera. He photographed a concert at the Capitol Theatre in Passaic, NJ at which Jorma Kaukonen (of Hot Tuna and Jefferson Airplane) was performing. After the concert, Jay and his two ALJ buddies followed Jorma's limo into NYC and when he stopped at a deli to get some food, they followed Jorma in and took his picture. The photo ended up being published in Relix Magazine as a "letter to the editor". Then in the fall of 1979, after just having graduated from ALJ, Jay was hired to photograph a Grateful Dead Concert in Rochester, NY for the Aquarian Weekly newspaper. The paper ran two photos and paid Jay $7.50 for each one.

To date, Jay has published a total of ten photographic volumes of pop culture with Hippie Chick as the most recent. And for those who are wondering, he is also planning to release a Fare Thee Well coffee table book on December 1 with a forward by ultimate Deadhead Bill Walton. WHITE DIAMOND HOLDS ITS FIRST ANNUAL "TYLOR'S BURGER BATTLE"

- Kevin, Tammy and Brandon.

The winner of the 1st Annual Clark White Diamond Tylor's Burger Battle. Mike was able to eat 11 hamburgers in 10 minutes.

On October 14, 2015 White Diamond held its first annual "Tylor's Burger Battle" in memory of their son, Tylor Collins. Tylor fought a tough battle against Ewing Sarcoma (bone cancer) for two years prior to his passing on April 25, 2015, one day shy of his 17th birthday. Tylor leaves behind his parents, Kevin & Tammy Collins and his brother Brandon. Tylor was a student at ALJ High School where he had many friends, not only in the students, but the staff as well. Tylor would be a senior this year and graduating in June of 2016. The Collins' have found themselves surrounded by many friends, ALJ and the township of Clark, who have all supported them during this difficult time. After the passing of Tylor his mother, Tammy, was determined to keep his memory alive and she is doing just that! "A parent's biggest fear is losing one of their children, mine now is that he will be forgotten."

Along with the help of two very special people, Kathie Simas and Sharon Mills, a teacher at ALJ who tutored Tylor during his illness, started putting their heads together and came up with "The Tylor Collins Scholarship Fund." The team of women, along with help from many others, have truly dedicated themselves to this very worthy cause. There have been other fundraisers but none that compare to "Tylor's Burger Battle." This was a night filled with family and friends of Tylor's competing to eat as many small hamburgers as possible in ten minutes. The restaurant was crowded with many competitors, onlookers and friends to cheer each other on. It truly was a fun-filled night for all.

White Diamond donated its facility as well as all the burgers that were eaten that night with 100% of the proceeds going to "The Tylor Collins Scholarship Fund." Mike Boulanger a dear friend to Tylor, walked away the winner that night eating nearly twelve burgers. Boulanger walked away a very proud winner with his trophy in tow, yet donating back the cash prize of the night.

The ladies intend on hosting this event for many years to come so keep your eyes posted for next year. Tammy says, "We all know Tylor was looking upon all of us last night smiling so proudly, he would have loved this event, especially the fact that Mike won; I know he was helping Mike shove those burgers down." The team behind this scholarship fund are working very hard to prepare for their next event, which will be a tricky tray held at the Gran Centurions in March. The Collins family would like to extend their gratitude to all of those who have helped along the way in putting these events together, especially Kathie Simas (& family), Sharon Mills, Chris & Savannah Coop, Anthony Parin, Kristina Geiger, The National Honor Society and the ALJ Key Club.

CUB SCOUT PACK 145 OF CLARK

CUB SCOUT PACK 145 OF CLARK is keeping busy--- Registration was a HUGE success this year! We held open registration at the Clark Recreation Center, visited back to school night and had our first pack meeting where several new scouts joined us as well as signed up. Our September pack meeting was held at the Dr. William Robinson Museum, 593 Madison Hill Road, Clark ... many more boys showed up to register and enjoy a Marshmallow Roast, (photo of the boys having fun roasting their marshmallows). All interested were treated to a tour of the Dr. William Robinson Museum, too!

In a few weeks we will be going on our Fall tent camping trip to Mt. Allamuchy in Stanhope. Its CSI, (Cub Scout Investigations), themed. There are too many activities to list, but I know the scouts are looking forward to BB guns and fishing as well as many other surprise activities. We will be performing community service after the UNICO Festival to help do our share in cleaning up the area, as well. Then we will have our October Pack meeting at the Clark Recreation Center which a huge costume party which is always a blast!!!

Scouting helps develop academic skills, self-confidence, ethics, leadership skills and citizenship skills. While various activities and youth groups teach basic skills and promote teamwork, Scouting goes beyond that and encourages a deeper appreciation for service to others in their community. Scouting promotes activities that lead to personal responsibility and high self esteem. As a result, when hard decisions have to be made, peer pressure can be resisted and the right choices can be made.

Some of Pack 145 activities include field trips, community service projects, camping adventures, arts & crafts, sports, skits, story telling, hiking, archery and Pinewood derby races to name just a few. Cub Scouts is open to all boys entering first through fifth grade that attend the Clark school system. For more information on Cub Scouts please visit: www.cubpack145.info

UNICO FEAST A SUCCESS

The 9th Annual UNICO Italian American Feast took place Columbus Day weekend, Friday October 9th thru Sunday, October 11th on the Clark Municipal Building grounds located at 430 Westfield Ave. Continuous entertainment was held each day and night with fun for all ages. All of the rides, games and attractions were back with a few new additions including Three Piece Nugget playing on Friday night, Sounds of the Streets on Saturday night and The Cameos on Sunday. New food vendors were also in attendance.

Ralph Bernardo said, "The annual feast is Clark UNICO's largest fundraiser. Monies raised are given back to the Township of Clark in donations and scholarships. UNICO is one of the last remaining Service organizations in the area. That is what makes UNICO unique in that we are proud of our Italian heritage and live our motto of "Service above self."

Book Club for Adults

Monday, November 16 at 7:00 p.m.

Join us for the next meeting of our adult book club. We will be discussing "I Shall Be Near To You" by Erin McCabe. The novel, inspired by true accounts, follows the extraordinary experiences of a woman who disguises herself as a man in order to fight next to her husband in the American Civil War. Please speak with a librarian for information on obtaining a copy of the book.

Lego Club

Friday, November 20 at 3:15 p.m.

We provide the Legos; you provide the creativity for children in grades K - 5. No registration.

The Clark Public Library is pleased to announce that we have added hundreds of titles to our online eBook collection from StarWalk Kids Media. StarWalk Kids Media is a new provider of high quality, engaging eBooks. This new digital collection delivers eBook titles from a wide variety of well-known children's book authors and illustrators. Each title has been carefully created for a true digital reading experience: children can read for themselves, read-along at their own pace accompanied by professional narration, or simply follow the narration throughout the book for a read-to-me experience.

As part of our subscription, the service is open 24-7 to all children, teachers and parents at the library and from home. There is a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction eBooks that you and your children will love reading! This program works on all desktop and laptop computers, tablets, and most mobile devices that have an Internet connection and support for color and sound. When using an iPad, Android, Nook, or Kindle Fire tablet (2nd generation and up), just download the free SW Kids Reader app and start reading.

HEHNLY STUDENTS MAKE HUMAN PEACE SIGN

With respect and treating others fairly infused into their everyday at the Frank K. Hehnly School, students showed a symbol of their caring ways towards the world during this year's Week of Respect by creating a human peace sign. Under the direction of Mrs. Badillo, School Counselor, over 500 students assembled on the school's playground to create this symbol of hope.

"I am so proud that our teachers talk about respect, responsibility to our community, and tolerance each and every day at Hehnly School," explained Shirley Bergin, Principal. "We make it a part of our daily vocabulary and urge our students to bring what they learn in school to the outside world. At Hehnly we encourage our students to become productive and caring citizens of the world."

HEHNLY STUDENTS COLLECT FOOD FOR THE POOR THROUGH APPLEFEST

The Kindergarten classes at the Frank K. Hehnly School recently had the chance to donate over 500 cans of food for charity. The cans were collected as payment for items at their annual Applefest; an event where kindergarten students and their families are asked to create projects that they “sell” in exchange for cans of food. The foods are donated to the local food pantry for distribution.

“It is so important that we teach children at the earliest of ages how to help others,” explained Shirley Bergin, Hehnly School Principal. “Applefest is a great way to encourage students to sell their creations in order to gather food for those less fortunate.”

Parents of the kindergarteners were invited to stay and assist their child with his or her sales. The entire student body participated in this event as customers and purchased items with boxes or cans of food.

HEHNLY HEATS UP WITH FIREFIGHTER VISIT

Clark, NJ – Students in Ms. Luccarelli's second grade class enjoyed a special visit from Union Township Fire Fighter Anthony Schmidtberg during Fire Prevention Month. Mr. Schmidtberg spoke to the students about the importance of fire safety and brought in his equipment to allow the students to see and feel the gear.

"It's very important for us to teach the students about fire prevention," explained Shirley Bergin, Principal. "It is equally important that students become familiar with the equipment and gear that fire fighters use in the event they are in an emergency situation."

EVERY BEDROOM NEEDS A WORKING SMOKE ALARM

October was fire prevention month and the Clark Fire Department's visit to the schools is always a big hit! Their focus is on fire safety, prevention and overall personal safety. There are many things that people can do to improve their safety at home and school from FIRE.

Fire prevention month was sponsored by the National Fire Prevention Association (NFPA). Fire prevention was established to commemorate the 1871 Great Chicago Fire. The 2014 fire prevention theme is: "Hear the Beep Where You Sleep: Every Bedroom needs a Working Smoke Alarm." A week long of fire prevention activities happened in the Preschool Annex classrooms. The Clark Fire Department visited the Preschool on October 5 along with Sparky the fire dog video, a fireman dressed in full gear, demonstration of the sounding fire alarm and hands on experience with the fire hoses. Sparky the dog video kept the children riveted on key messages and the activities provided multiple ways to absorb concepts providing maximum impact.

Sparky's ABC's of Fire Safety was a perfect way to introduce the children to fire safety concepts.

-A is for Alarm that let you know there is a fire in your home!

-B is for Beep, Beep, Beep the sound the alarm makes.

-C is for Calm, as in calmly get outside when the smoke alarm sounds.

Free kid safety information for the parents was distributed to the children. "When it comes to smoke alarms it's about location, location, location."

GO CRUSADERS!

The Arthur L. Johnson High School Crusaders varsity football team beat the Hillside Comets in the Annual 2015 UNICO Bowl Game Saturday afternoon, 10/24, in Hillside.

The final score was 34-15. "The two schools have been playing this friendly game for over 20 years," Clark UNICO President Ralph Bernardo said. "The winner gets to take home the trophy to their school and gets the bragging rights, too."
