LORRAINE LOZA SWORN IN AS FOSTER CHILD ADVOCATE

Union County Superior Court Judge Daniel R. Lindemann recently administered oaths to 16 Union County residents — among them Lorraine Loza of Kenilworth — to serve as extra eyes and ears for Family Court judges on cases involving abused, neglected or abandoned children currently in foster care. This marks the 30th training class since Court Appointed Special Advocates of Union County began in 2005. A 17th volunteer was sworn in at a later date.

The new CASA volunteers completed 30 hours of training over six weeks. After performing the oath, Judge Lindemann stepped off the bench and thanked each advocate for committing to serve children in need of a voice. A member of the nonprofit's board participated, and each new advocate was provided a commemorative pin and certificate. During a celebratory luncheon that followed, advocates were matched to their new case. Before starting that work, though, they observed court proceedings to see other CASA volunteers in action. Already, most are in the trenches, working their cases and making inroads for their assigned youth.

Volunteers with varied backgrounds and experiences make successful advocates, and this class is no exception: Ages range from 33 to 80 and include parents, empty-nesters and non-parents; careers include health professionals, school personnel, attorneys and stay-at-home parents. Several experienced abuse in their own childhoods, and one was a CASA years ago who returned to help another child now that her schedule allowed. Most have no prior knowledge of the foster system.

CASA volunteers have court-ordered access to all parties in a child's life, including foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, and incorporate into court reports findings from these contacts as well as time spent with the youth. Volunteers advocate both in the community and court to ensure their youth's needs are met and time in care is as short as possible. There are 600 Union County children in foster care; CASA of Union County advocates for approximately one-quarter of those and its mission is to provide an advocate for every child that needs one.

The next training class kicks off Sept. 27 in Westfield. For details on that training class, or other ways to help stand up for foster children, contact Lisa at (908) 527-7048 or lporis@casaoofunioncounty.org.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Hello Kenilworthians! Summer 2016 has come to a close, I hope everyone had a safe and enjoyable Summer with family and friends and a great Labor day. But September is here and you know what that means, it's back to school and less than 4 months to Christmas! But who's counting, I don't want to stress anyone out.

September 8 is the start of school here in Kenilworth and if you're driving to work please keep in mind that around the school zone things get a little hectic, especially during this month. Everyone driving your children to and from school try to give yourself some extra time, I know it's hard but nothing is worth rushing and comprising the safety of our children, deep breaths parents you'll get thru it I promise. Children impress your teacher on the first day and remind them that the Autumn Equinox is on September 22, that is the official start of fall.

It has been 15 years since 911, please remember this day in your thoughts and prayers and to our military who are still on the frontlines on the war against terror, Never Forget.

On Saturday September 24, 9am to 12 is the Michael J Vitale Annual Health Fair at St. Theresa's school, stop in and get checked out.

Looking forward into October, on the 1st and 2nd is the Community Wide Garage Sale, registration deadline is September 23rd. Following that will be our Fall Bulk Clean up, North side of town will be October 5 and South side of town is October 12. For more details, time and dates please go on our website at www.kenilworthborough.com.

I'm sure some of you have noticed quite a few black pipes on the side of the road. NJAW will be doing a large water main replacement at various locations throughout the borough. This is a big improvement and it is my hope that it will be done with the utmost safety and consideration of our residents. Please be patient, there will be slight interruptions and some inconveniences, however our pipes are in serious need of replacement, good things done right take time. The Project is expected to continue into October and weather permitting we will be right on schedule. For more detailed information, there is a write up on our web site www.kenilworthborough.com that explains the project. Residents can also call the Customer Service Center at 1-800-272-1325 for more information.

Reminder to all residents, September is also the Hurricane Season, with any luck we won't have any bad storms come our way, take as many precautions as possible, Have A Plan! It only takes one storm to change your life, your home and your community. There are many websites out there that give helpful tips and ideas to prevent a disaster from happening, everything from properly securing your home to preparing for outages and emergency evacuations.

To everyone that has been doing thoughtful things and taking time out to volunteer or support all the functions and events, the success of Kenilworth starts with you, the people! Your pride shows and I consider myself lucky to be part of this town and its residents and business owners. Visit our stores and businesses and support our young people in sporting events, plays and other functions our strength is community. Business owners, we have two great organizations to be a part of, The Rotary Club and the Chamber of Commerce, go check out a meeting of one or both, you may find new ways to network and grow your business.

God Bless you all and God Bless America

Mayor Anthony DuLuca

JEANS FOR TROOPS

In honor of Memorial Day, Mary Ellen Duggan, assistant to the business administrator at Kenilworth Schools, decided to have a fundraiser to support the hospitalized veterans at Lyons Hospital in Basking Ridge and the local Kenilworth VFW who runs programs for them. She called the fundraiser, "Jeans for Troops". She sent emails to all staff members in the school district, which includes Harding Elementary School and David Brearley Middle/High School. In order to wear jeans and patriotic wear to school on the Friday before Memorial Day, they would donate to the fund.

support the hospitalized veterans. On behalf of the VFW and all the members, he wishes to thank Ms. Duggan and the Kenilworth School District for their support.

There was an overwhelming response to her email and Ms. Duggan presented Commander Jeans of VFW Post 2230 in Kenilworth with a check to help with expenses when they travel to Lyons once a month to spend time with the veterans and bring them sneakers and food. The VFW also hosts dinners throughout the year for veterans where they are bused to Kenilworth VFW and the VFW members cook dinner for them and provide entertainment.

Commander Jeans stated that these funds are very much appreciated and will be used to

SEVENTH ANNUAL LIBRARYFEST

The Seventh Annual LibraryFest was recently presented at the Kenilworth Public Library. This event gave children enrolled in the Summer Reading Club and their families the chance to celebrate their reading accomplishments this summer.

Highlights from this open house community event included an interactive science program about power and energy. Scienceteller Andrew Piccirillo introduced several exciting, hands-on experiments that had the audience laughing, learning and having fun.

Children had an opportunity to visit with

Tracy, the unofficial mascot of the Kenilworth Public Library, along with Sparkee the mascot of the Somerset Patriots.

Children also received a special balloon sculpture made just for them by Wings of Magic's Mark Dolson, and Tweedles (Patti Meyer); marveled at the sleight of hand of magician Francis Menotti, and received a special gift from the library.

LibraryFest has been funded by The Friends Of The Kenilworth Public Library, and a Recycling Grant given to the Borough of Kenilworth.
