2017 WHRHS GRADUATION

Under brilliant mid-morning late-June skies, and in front of family, relatives, friends, administrators, teachers and each other, more than 540 students received their diplomas on Thursday, June 22, on the field in Tozier Stadium at the 60th Commencement of Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS).

Principal George Alexis said humans are drawn to stories. "They delight us. They teach us. They touch our souls. They help us make sense of the world, and remind us we are part of a larger world."

A graduate of WHRHS himself, Alexis said the Class of 2017 had left its mark on the school, which first opened its doors to students in 1957. He urged the Class of 2017 to continue to reason critically, ask questions freely, solve problems, be curious, explore new ideas, forge their own narrative journeys boldly, and write their own stories. "Do your best," Alexis said.

He ended, quoting the late beloved Juan Carlos Cruz, the Spanish Teacher, soccer and track coach, cultural ambassador, mentor and friend who died unexpectedly and quite young in October. The quote is something many members of the Class of 2017 had heard Cruz say often, urging students to put everything into what they were doing. Alexis said, "As Señor Cruz would say, "Empty The Tank!"

TEDX YOUTH@WHRHS

Student empowerment was not just on the agenda, it was the agenda Monday night, June 19, at “TEDx Youth@WHRHS, an independently organized TED event,” at Watchung Hills Regional High School.

The TEDx event, which was the brainchild of 2017 WHRHS graduate Vineet Parikh, championed student empowerment, innovation and inspiration. Youth@WHRHS was an example of immediate discussions about how student inspiration, innovation, and empowerment can be turned into real, everyday improvements for WHRHS.

According to the TED organization, TED is a nonprofit devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks, 18 minutes or less. TED began in 1984 as a conference where Technology, Entertainment and Design (TED) converged, and today covers almost all topics — from science to business to global issues — in more than 100 languages. Meanwhile, independently run TEDx events help share ideas in communities around the world.

“The students organizing the TEDx event, even though some were young, as young as sophomores, were nevertheless very resourceful in helping us to articulate a vision about empowering students at every opportunity,” said Director of Curriculum and Instruction Mary Ellen Phelan.

TREAT IT AND BEAT IT

by Jyotsna Thapar, DPM

For some individuals, removing their shoes can be embarrassing because they suffer with foot odor. With over 250,000 sweat glands generating a pint of sweat daily, unless there is an evaporation option, bacteria that live on the skin in that area will ingest the sweat and produce the "isovaleric acid" that causes foot odor. Another possible culprit is a fungus that causes a skin infection, commonly referred to as athlete's foot. Poor hygiene and over-wearing shoes and socks may also result in foot odor. Washing with antifungal foot soap; applying antibacterial foot powder; and wearing clean socks and dry, breathable foot wear daily can all help alleviate a foot odor issue. If you have foot odor, see your podiatrist.

The entire staff at ANKLE & FOOT SPECIALIST OF NJ, LLC, is pleased to welcome you to our column. Of considerable significance in caring for feet of any age, or any gender, is choosing the right podiatrist. Bearing in mind how much our feet do for us, the least we can do is to provide them with a comfortable environment, preventive care before problems occur, and professional care when they do. Comprehensive, compassionate foot care is available at:

ONE LITTLE, TWO LITTLE, THREE . . .

Submitted by Green Brook Historical Society

Once upon a time the Green Brook Township area was not inhabited by strip malls, crazy drivers on Route 22 and housing developments. Nor were there the settlers and Quaker families that proceeded us around the time of the Revolutionary War. The land was occupied by tribes and camps of Indians. During the early part of the 1600's, the Indians were the owners of this territory. They were especially drawn here by the availability of water from springs and the Green Brook, the plains suitable for growing their crops and the mountains for hunting. Also in consideration were the gaps in the First Watchung which allowed for trails to get to other regions.

In 1681 the English settlers bought the large tract of land from Bound Brook to North Plainfield including the water, as well as the land to the mountains, from two chieftains of the Raritan Indians tribe which occupied the lands. The purchase price was not disclosed. Now as a total aside, we would like to correct an unrelated myth. It is assumed that the Dutch bought the whole island of Manhattan for $ 24 from the Indians. A true steal would it be true. Apparently true is that the Dutch paid that sum for possession of Manhattan. Unfortunately that tribe was not the tribe that had the control or ownership of the island. So the ownership tribe couldn't understand why these white men were squatting on their territory. Therefore they periodically launched attacks to drive them out. In turn, the Dutch were confused by the attacks on lands they thought they had purchased.

But back to this area. Broken pottery, stone implements, arrowheads and other relics were found in the vicinity of Sebrings Mills suggesting an Indian encampment in that location.

There were two large encampments near Grant and Clinton Avenues in Plainfield. Relics found all along the Green Brook are evidence of natives' presence in our area. The settlers in this area found the Raritan Indians trustworthy, friendly and peaceful which made them compatible with the Quaker way of life. In the late 1700's, the Indians gradually saw their lands taken away and so they peacefully left and moved to Western Pennsylvania. Another chapter in our history was over.

The Green Brook Cultural Heritage and Historic Preservation Committee and The Green Brook Historical Society meet the third Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at Green Brook Town Hall located at 111 Greenbrook Rd., Green Brook, NJ. We are always looking for people interested in history and culture to join our group, as a guest or a member. For more information about the Green Brook Historical Society, visit www.gbhsnj.org.

SAGE ELDERCARE NAMES ALICE SLOOP AS DIRECTOR OF HOMECARE

SAGE Eldercare named Alice Sloop, RN, CALA, as the new Director of HomeCare, a pioneer in home care services offering a broad range of services from hourly to live-in aides, and short-term and long-term care.

Sloop, a resident of Green Brook, New Jersey, has many years of experience working with the geriatric population and those with memory impairment. Her most recent work experience includes Director of Nursing for Home Care Assistance in Warren, Clinical Liaison for Bridgeway Senior Healthcare, and Vice President of Operations for Memory Care Living in Ramsey, New Jersey. She replaces Shirley Cabildo, who is relocating to Florida.

“With more than 20 years of nursing and administrative experience with home care, geriatrics, and dementia-related fields, Alice is a welcome addition to the SAGE team,” said Angela Sullivan, SAGE Eldercare Executive Director.

HomeCare at SAGE is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Home Care and offers a range of flexible personal care service options by Board of Nursing Certified Home Health Aides, supervised by Registered Nurses.

Trusted since 1954, HomeCare at SAGE includes hourly, overnight, and live-in aides for short-term assignments or ongoing needs and a bath service. For more information about SAGE HomeCare, please call 908.273.8400.

ABOUT SAGE

“Tailored Financing for Today’s Small Business”

www.whiterosefunding.com

844.WRFUNDS / 844.973.8637

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant’s initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

CDC THEATRE INVITES DIRECTOR’S SUBMISSIONS FOR ITS 100TH SEASON

CDC Theatre in Cranford NJ is New Jersey’s longest continuously producing community theatre and we are looking for Director’s submissions for our 2018-1019, which will be the theatre’s 100th! We will consider directors within a broad range of experience and are looking for people who will bring their enthusiasm to our theatre and the community.

Our season runs from September through June during which we typically program two musicals, a play and a children’s production. Directors interested in working with us are asked to submit no more than three shows for our Program Committee to consider, along with a synopsis of each show. We also ask that you include your resume, a brief statement of your interest in the shows and why you chose to submit to CDC Theatre.

The deadline for submissions is September 1. Directors who have submitted a project that is of interest to CDC Theatre will be contacted via e-mail on or about October 1 so that we might schedule an interview.

Forms and additional information may be found by visiting our website at www.cdctheatre.org.

“Drumming Circle and its Health Benefits” by Sharon Silverstein, Living at peace
August 14 – 10:30 am.

A Drumming Circle feeds the mind, body and spirit. It’s a holistic experience that leaves a person feeling a sense of joy! It’s an ancient approach that uses rhythm to promote healing and self-expression. Drumming has been known to induce deep relaxation, lower blood pressure and reduce stress. Drumming has also been used as a form of communication and community building. The lecture portion of the program has open attendance. Advanced registration is required for participation in the inner drumming circle, which has a 20 person maximum. Other percussion instruments will be provided for the outer circle, for an additional 25 participants.

“Food Too Good To Waste” by Chante Glenn, MA, Program Coordinator, Family & Community Health Sciences, Rutgers Cooperative Extension.
August 21 – 10:30 am.

This is a PowerPoint presentation discussing how to save money by avoiding food waste. The issue of food waste is one that begins well before the home. Chante will share some strategies for shopping, proper storage and different uses for leftover foods. She will also briefly discuss composting kitchen scraps.

“Build a Better Breakfast” by Jessica Guarnieri, Registered Dietitian, ShopRite/Wakefern.
August 22 – 11:00 am.

Join Jessica as she shows you ways to shake up your breakfast routine! She’ll show off some protein and fiber packed meal ideas that will help to keep you full and satisfied all morning long.

“Carnival of Sound”, Roman Carnival Overture, by George Marriner Maull, Artist Director of the Discovery Orchestra.
August 28 – 10:30 am.

Composed in 1844, it is a stand-alone overture intended for concert performance, made up of material and themes from Berlioz’s opera Benvenuto Cellini, including some music from the opera’s carnival scene-hence the overture’s title. Join us as George takes us through the blueprint of this overture and teaches listening skills that will help the attendees to connect with classical music.

OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE OF GREEN BROOK PROVIDES DINNER AT FISHES & LOAVES CAFÉ

Managing Partner Brad Kalthoff and Kitchen Manager Anthony Cipriani of the Outback Steakhouse in Green Brook recently provided a delicious chopped steak dinner to over 100 guests of the Fishes and Loaves Café in Piscataway.

Having been homeless at one point, an Outback employee wanted to pay it forward and sought the help of their employer. Within a month, the menu was set and plans were made for a delicious dinner from salad to dessert. Patrons of the cafe were most appreciative of the meal, and hope Outback will visit again in the future.

The Fishes & Loaves Café monthly supper is a ministry of Fish, Inc. Dunellen Area and Our Lady of Fatima RC Church, to serve those in need who reside in the surrounding communities and those who are homeless.

The café operates the third Friday of each month in the cafeteria of Our Lady of Fatima RC Church, 501 New Market Road, Piscataway serving 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

GREEN BROOK DAY CAMP

Photos by Green Brook Education and Athletic Foundation.

The Green Brook Day Camp is enjoying its second fun-filled summer at the Irene E. Feldkirchner School in Green Brook.

Miss Nicole Cruts, the Camp Coordinator, leads a staff of junior counselors, qualified school paraprofessionals, and certified teachers in activities including arts and crafts, indoor and outdoor games, playground and water fun, Tuesday trips to the Warrenbrook Pool, and Wednesday excursions to attractions such as the Turtleback Zoo, Funplex, Seven Presidents' Oceanfront Park, and Dorney Park.

Green Brook Day Camp is offered by the Green Brook Education and Athletic Foundation, and proceeds support academics and sports in Green Brook. Children aged 5 through 14 are eligible, and camp runs through September 1. Information is available at www.gbeaf.org.
