THE MEMORIAL DAY PARADE COMMITTEE URGES CRANFORD TO "FOLLOW THE PARADE TO THE CEREMONY"

Submitted by: Don Sweeney new member of the Memorial Day Parade Committee.

The Memorial Day Parade Committee encourages parade crowds to follow the Parade to the Ceremony.

The Township of Cranford's respect to the fallen heroes of American war heroes is displayed each year through the annual Memorial Day parade and the emotional ceremony that directly follows it at Memorial Park on the corner of Springfield and Central Avenues. For those who have made the ceremony at Memorial Park part of their Memorial Day morning, year after year, the reason to be there is evident. For those who have never attended, allow us to share why we feel it is time that you may consider giving an hour to the memories of these fine men and woman that have given the ultimate sacrifice so that we, as American citizens, can live the privileged life that we enjoy every day.

Where there are so many reasons why we love living in Cranford, the one that stands out to me is that it is a small American town that has such deep roots into American history. There is no time throughout the year that allows us to display those attributes more than on Memorial Day. The ceremony starts with a song from the Cranford High School band and another by the Madrigals ensemble. Next a middle school student that has been selected through a contest, recites from memory Lincoln's Gettysburg Address followed by the reading of the 86 names of Cranford's own war heroes that have given their lives so that we can enjoy ours. This was done, in some years, by Cranford American Veterans who have known the faces of some these young men earlier in their lives. A series of wreaths are now laid at the war memorials in the park and a solemn 21 gun salute is presented as a wreath is floated in the Rahway River for those heroes lost at sea.

This portion of the ceremony ends with an emotional playing of taps. At this point the Grand Marshal of the parade, usually a Cranford resident selected for their service to our country, speaks about what Memorial Day means to them. These speakers have been remembered by me for years to follow. A short prayer from a Cranford clergy and a performance of God Bless America puts a wrap to an amazing morning in Cranford NJ. It all takes less than an hour, an hour that our family has never missed since we moved to Cranford 25 years ago.

If you have lived in Cranford and never witnessed this, what makes Cranford different from most every community, then you should consider picking up your chair from along the parade route and follow the parade. You'll experience the trail through our town's beautiful streets to the patriotically decorated Memorial Park. There you will be part of the Americana that makes Cranford a special place to live. Put your chair down on the beautiful lawn and enjoy Cranford. You'll be glad you did. I'll see you there.

As a new member of the parade committee I wrote this letter to the editor last year to start the campaign to increase the number of people that gather at Memorial Park after our amazing hometown parade. We lined the streets of town with eye catching lawn signs to remind people of our goal. We heard much response to our request. The expectations were high to see the difference the campaign would bring. Memorial Day delivered us a nasty early morning storm that forced the cancellation of our beloved parade. The ceremony however was conducted in its entirety in the lobby of Cranford's Community Center atrium lobby. It was plain to see the community got the memo. The lobby was filled to capacity; people were standing outside on the sidewalk and in every doorway to the main room. It was a sight to see. All 86 memorial flags that represent each of our town's fallen heroes were being held at attention by our town's Boy Scouts & Girl Scouts around the perimeter of the grand room. This was the first time in our memory that all the flags were displayed at the ceremony.

I encourage everyone to come out and see just one of the events that make Cranford a special place to live. If it's your first time, I guarantee it won't be your last.

CRANFORD'S ANNUAL RELAY FOR LIFE EVENT

On May 19th – May 20th, Cranford residents, along with friends and family, will join together at the American Cancer Society Relay For Life of Cranford at Hillside Avenue School to raise funds and awareness in an effort to help create a world without cancer. The event starts on May 19th at 5 pm, and ends on May 20th at 5 am.

Founded by Dr. Gordy Klatt in Washington in 1985, the Relay For Life movement is the world's largest fundraising event to save lives from cancer. During Relay For Life events, members of each team take turns walking or running around the track or path. Teams participate in fundraising in the months leading up to the event.

Funds raised help the American Cancer Society provide free information and support for people facing the disease today, and fund cancer research that will help protect future generations. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, the Society has invested more than $4.5 billion in research since 1946, and have funded more than 20,000 scientists at more than 1,000 institutions nationwide.

In addition to the support of the community, Relay For Life of Cranford is also supported by many local businesses and organizations.

Take action this year and help make cancer a priority by participating or donating to the Relay For Life of Cranford.

ARLENE FRICKE CELEBRATES 50TH WORK ANNIVERSARY

Arlene Fricke, resident of Cranford, NJ, is celebrating her 50th work anniversary this month with the New Brunswick based law firm Hoagland, Longo, Moran, Dunst & Doukas. As if this milestone wasn't noteworthy enough, Arlene's work anniversary actually exceeds the firm's own 40th anniversary which they are celebrating this year.

This is because Arlene was there when it all began. From a 3 attorney firm in Elizabeth, NJ to the 80+ attorney firm with 6 offices that it is today, Arlene was instrumental in the expansion during a time of typewriters and carbon paper. She still mainly supports the same attorney, Ted Hubert, as she has for the bulk of her career, and has seen their relationship come full circle as his son is now a lawyer at the firm as well. She calls this "simply special."

After her graduation from Berkeley Secretarial School in 1967, Arlene obtained a position at the law firm of Ryan Saros Davis & Stone in Elizabeth, NJ, which later became Longo & Stone. In 1977, Longo & Stone merged with the firm Cohen Hoagland & Keefe out of New Brunswick to form Hoagland, Longo, Oropollo & Moran in 1977. The firm from there became what it is today, and renamed itself Hoagland, Longo, Moran, Dunst & Doukas in 1992.

When asked about her time when the firm was much smaller, Arlene said, "One of my fondest memories was when we would stand around the library table early in the morning with the partners to open the mail. We would create an assembly line together to sort and distribute. Today we have a mailroom!"

Not only was Arlene the mailroom, but as a secretary/legal assistant, she did accounting, took care of the firm's calendar including lawyers' daily assignments and any other hat she needed to wear when necessary. She admits that it was a bit simpler in the days of snail mail and manual billing, and when answers and responses were not expected to be instantaneous. However, she prides herself on the ability to adjust with the times, and the new systems and machines that came with it.

Arlene recalled the evolution of dictation. In secretarial school she learned "Gregg Shorthand" which to any millennial today looks like chicken scratch on a piece of paper. For Arlene, this was the easiest method to capture everything the attorneys needed to have typed up. That then evolved into attorneys dictating onto cassette tapes that Arlene would then put into a clunky machine that she would listen and type from. Now, dictation machines are portable and virtually weightless but Arlene finds herself being able to resort to some Gregg Shorthand in a pinch!

When asked about her take on the direction of the firm, Arlene explains that she is very happy with it and that no matter how the firm expands, the tight-knit culture remains the same. She states, "Hoagland Longo has been my family. When I tell people that I have had one job my entire life, they are very surprised. When you work at a job that you like, and for people who you like and who appreciate you, then I think you have a formula for a good job".

On behalf of Hoagland, Longo, Moran, Dunst, & Doukas, we would like to formally thank Arlene for her services the past 50 years. She has been a vital asset to the expansion of the firm, and a true part of our core. Congratulations!

WALNUT AVENUE 2ND GRADE GIRL SCOUTS TAKE ACTION!

Cranford Brownie Troop 40772 met with the Superintendent of schools and a School Board member to discuss the 12 letters that they previously received from the girls. These Brownies caught the attention of the Board and their Principal by raising awareness to areas in need of improvement in their school. More importantly, not only did they address school life issues, the girls came up with solutions and ways that they can help.

Each Girl Scout had the opportunity to share with the Board what was most important to them about how they can help to make a change for the better in their school. A few items that the girls wrote about were fixed as a result of their letters, so they were thrilled to see results as well as the response from the Board. Together they brainstormed ways that they can take action in their school and involve the entire school.

These girls now have the knowledge and power to influence and make changes to help others and we are going to take that forward. They plan to spread their knowledge and ideas by visiting the classrooms of their fellow students to talk about ways they can all contribute to making their school a better place. They also plan to make signs to remind everyone that they all can have an impact.

This activity, part of their Brownie Quest Journey, has demonstrated to the girls that they can have an impact in their community with their words and their actions. We are honored to have the Board take this time to help our girls achieve great things and strive towards helping others. These girls can do anything with the courage, character and confidence they have.

ANNUAL TOWN-WIDE CRANFORD COOKOUT SCHEDULED FOR MAY 21ST

Movie Night at Hanson House to Kick-off Family-Friendly Weekend Events

Cranford's annual cookout will be held on Sunday, May 21st, from 4:30-7:00 p.m. Cranford families are invited to join in the fun as Cranford's police, fire and municipal employees grill for the town! The town-wide family dinner event will include free food, live music, crafts, face painting, a dunk tank and much more entertainment for the whole family! This year, the Alliance is asking attendees to wear their Cougar Colors and Paws to show community support!

The Cranford Municipal Alliance introduced the town-wide cookout in the Spring of 2015 to help promote its biggest initiative, family dinner night. The event has gained popularity since inception and attracted over 2,000 attendees last year.

"The Alliance introduced family dinner night a few years ago and since then, it's evolved into so much more," said William Ilaria, Chairman of the Alliance. "Cranford is a tight-knit community and by working together, we are providing our children with a safe environment to flourish in. It's been proven that family dinners are the best prevention strategy for families trying to keep their children alcohol and substance free and we're hosting one of the largest community cookouts in the area to remind everyone of the importance of having a routine family dinner."

Other family-friendly activities will be underway throughout the weekend, including a movie night at the Hanson House on Saturday, May 20th, at dusk, sponsored by the Hanson House Conservancy. A family yoga class will be held by the Conservancy's own yoga instructor, Bridget Briant on Sunday, May 21st, before the CMA town-wide cookout. In addition, a walk to explore historic sites throughout the town sponsored by the Historic Preservation Advisory Board will take place on Sunday the 21st.

For more information, please visit www.facebook.com/cranfordmunicipalalliance or Cranford.com.

About the Cranford Municipal Alliance:

RECENT CHANGES TO A PARENT'S CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION

By: James McGlew II, Esq.

Parents who are either currently going through a divorce or were divorced many years ago often ask "at what point do I no longer have to pay child support for my children?" It surprises some parents to learn that there has been no specific age at which time parents are no longer obligated to pay child support.

Parents who are already divorced should review their settlement agreement which usually spells out the conditions which must be met for the child to be deemed "emancipated." It is at the time of emancipation when parents no longer are financially responsible to support their children.

A recent change in New Jersey law provides more certainty. As of February 1, 2017, unless otherwise specified in a Court order or judgment, the obligation for a parent to pay child support stops without a Court Order on the date of a child's marriage, death or their entry into military service.

The provision that applies to many families is that the obligation to pay support for a child shall also stop automatically when a child reaches 19 years of age, unless:

- another age for the end of this obligation is provided for in a court order, which age shall not go beyond the child's reaching 23 years of age;
- a formal written request is submitted/filed with the Family Court to continue support for the child, by the parent with whom the child primarily resides, before the child reaches 19 years of age; or
- the child for whom support is being paid does not reside with such a parent as a result of placement through the Division of Child Protection and Permanency (formerly the Division of Youth and Family Services, DYFS).

If a parent receives such a formal written request as noted above, he or she can object to the termination of child support. To do so, the parent shall submit a request, in writing, with documents to show proof of all of the following circumstances which may apply:

- their child is still attending high school; or
- their child is enrolled a post-secondary education institution or program and is attending the school on a full-time basis; or
- their child suffers from a physical or mental disability, as determined by a governmental agency, and that the disability existed before the child turned 19 which renders the child in need of, and entitled to, continuing child support.

In providing these written requests to the Court, a parent must also propose a future "good faith" date when they believe such child support should end.

Even with these recent modifications to the law, a custodial parent also retains the right to file an application with the Court to extend the time to have child support paid beyond the child's 19th birthday in the event there are exceptional circumstances. It will then be the Court's prerogative to determine if and to what extent such circumstances will be controlling.

Child support orders are generally modified when a child goes to college. The obligation to support a child does not cease at that time but child support is factored in as a component of the child's overall needs.

Each child's individual circumstances will affect the timing of their emancipation. Even with the revisions to the law, careful consideration must be given to all factors affecting the child and his or her needs. Our firm prides itself on treating each matter individually and advocating on behalf of our clients and their children to achieve the most equitable result.

Lindabury's Family Law Group has decades of experience negotiating, enforcing and amending child support obligations. We provide the full range of divorce and family law services and are easily accessible from our Westfield New Jersey office. Call today to schedule a consultation with James McGlew at (908) 233-6800.

CENTENNIAL VILLAGE GROUP TO HOST 7TH ANNUAL VELOCITY 5K RACE

On Sunday, June 4, the Centennial Village Group will host its 7th annual Velocity 5K race. The chip-timed race starts at 9 a.m. and provides a flat tour of part of Cranford's South Side, starting at Lincoln School on Centennial Avenue in Cranford, and looping through Centennial Village and Mohawk Park.

The top three male and female runners overall will receive a prize and medals, and awards will be given to the top three males and females in the following age groups: 14 & under, 15-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60-69, and 70 and older. There will also be a prize for best decorated Cranford spirited stroller, along with a raffle for prizes from local businesses in which all runners will automatically be entered.

Last year's race saw over 150 runners from Cranford and surrounding towns. Participants in the family-friendly race ranged from high school students, to parents with kids in strollers, and senior citizens. Residents along the route came out to support the runners, cooling them down with mists of water and shouting to cheer them on. The Centennial Village Group expects an even larger turnout of runners and supporters for this year's race.

To pre-register for the 5K, visit www.racenj.com/Centennial. Pre-registration is open until May 21, 2017. It costs $25 for adults, $15 for youth aged 18 and under, and includes a tech t-shirt. Race-day registration will also be available, starting at 8 a.m. and costing $30 for adults and $20 for children. Email cvgvelocity@gmail.com with any questions regarding the race.

The Centennial Village Group is made up of Cranford volunteers dedicated to the revitalization and beautification of the Centennial Avenue business district. In addition to the Velocity 5K Race, the Group holds an annual MusicFest to raise funds for their continual efforts to improve the community.

For more information about the Centennial Village and the group, visit www.facebook.com/CentennialVillageGroup.

9 TO 5, THE MUSICAL, AT CDC THEATRE

AUDITIONS FOR TWO PRODUCTIONS AT CHC

Standing on Ceremony and The Shape of Things

CDC Theater, New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre, will hold auditions for two exciting special productions that will take place in the early part of the theatre's 99th season.

The 2017 Short Play Festival featuring Standing on Ceremony: The Gay Marriage Plays, and other short pieces, will hold auditions on May 7 at 7:30pm and May 8 at 7:00pm with performances planned for September 7, 8 and 9. This special event is a non-equity, non-paying production and 50% of the ticket profits will be donated to the Gay, Lesbian, Straight Education Network, or GLSEN. Auditions and performances will take place at CDC Theatre, 78 Winans Ave in Cranford, NJ. Additional information can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org or the Cranford Dramatic Club Facebook page.

In a second special event, director Cynthia Ross and cast will ask the questions. How far would you go for love? For art? What would you be willing to change? What price might you pay? Such are the painful questions explored by Neil LaBute in The Shape of Things. A young student drifts into an ever-changing relationship with an art major while his best friends' engagement crumbles, so unleashing a drama that peels back the skin of two modern-day relationships.

Auditions will be held on May 15, 16 at 7:45pm at the theatre's 78 Winans Ave location, with performances on August 10, 11 and 12 at 8:00pm.

Additional information can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org or the Cranford Dramatic Club's Face Book page.

In May, at CDC Theatre in Cranford, three unlikely friends will take control of their office and learn there is nothing they can't do, even in a man's world. 9 to 5 The Musical, with music and lyrics by Dolly Parton and book by Patricia Resnick, is based on the seminal 1980 hit movie. Set in the late 1970s, this hilarious story of friendship and revenge in the Rolodex era is outrageous, thought-provoking and even a little romantic.

"Having loved the movie, I was excited to see show when it was on Broadway, and was not disappointed. "Already in rehearsal at the theatre's home at 78 Winans Ave. in Cranford, Clifford Parrish, who is both the director and musical director of the show, shared some of his reasons for coming back to work on a show at CDC Theatre. "The audience was really with these women as their story unfolded. Even though we've come a long way on women's issues since 1979, the story still needs to be told. Even though it's a comedy, this show is about women's empowerment. The Dolly Parton score is also a lot of fun, with some truly beautiful ballads. I am excited about working with a tremendously talented cast!"

The large cast features frequent performers at CDC and some new faces. Kara Wilson, Melissa Timpson and Hannah Schroeder take the leading roles of Judy, Violet and Doralee. Richard Colonna will be their lecherous boss Mr. Hart and Arlene Britt his adoring employee Roz. Jason Cilento is Joe, a handsome accountant smitten with Violet while Mark Piltz plays Doralee's supportive and attractive husband Dwayne, with Will Roper as Violet's teenage son Josh. Joel Redmount will play Hart's boss and Chairman of the Board, Mr. Tinsworthy and Danielle Gruskiewicz is Hart's unsuspecting wife. The ensemble and featured roles will be brought to live by Michele Greenspan, Katherine Brown, Joanna Riley, Carolyn Milhiser, Beth Kasper, Zach Mazouat, Edgar Hidlago and Tommy Lackamy.

The production will open on May 5 and run weekends through May 20. Additional information and tickets can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org.

Funding has been made possible in part by the NJ State Council on the Arts, Dept. of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs

JENNIFER CAPPUCCI SET TO PLAY AT FRANKLIN & MARSHALL COLLEGE

Submitted by: Ann Franklin

Jennifer Cappucci

Jennifer Rose Cappucci of Cranford, N.J. has committed to play NCAA basketball at Franklin & Marshall College in the fall. Jen, an honor student at Mount Saint Mary Academy, has maintained a brilliant balance of academics, volunteerism and leadership on both the soccer field and basketball court throughout her high school years.

A multi-sport athlete, Cappucci showed amazing promise as a young athlete playing in the Cranford Premier Soccer, Cranford Rec and PAL basketball leagues. She was coached on the soccer field, from Kindergarten through 8th grade, by her dedicated father, Michael. The Cranford Lightning team dominated their flight in the Mid New Jersey Youth Soccer League for years. Jen says, "I can credit my father with teaching me the fundamentals of sports. He is a wonderful man, father, athlete and coach. He fostered my passion for both soccer and basketball. He not only taught me skill set, but taught me to embrace the importance of practice, dedication and remaining humble. He emphasized that I must always model good sportsmanship and most critically, explained the inherent value of being a member of a team and the responsibility that accompanies functioning as a TRUE team player."

Throughout high school, Cappucci earned recognition at the club level as a valued member of FC Premier's Legend. A three-year Varsity starter and Captain of the Mt. St. Mary Academy Lions, she led her soccer team to victory this Fall as they captured the title of Skyland Conference Champions and were Semi-finalists of both the County and State Tournaments. Cappucci was named to the All Skyland Conference 2016 Soccer team. MSMA Coach Phil Iuliano praised, "Jennifer's commitment level, passion for the game and leadership qualities both on and off the field are superb. Her outgoing personality and genuine concern and care for others has earned her the utmost respect from her peers, teammates, and coaching staff."

In addition to the soccer field, Cappucci was a force to be reckoned with on the basketball court. At five feet, three inches tall, this four year Varsity player dominated as point guard and Captain of her beloved Lady Lions. She rightfully earned top honors and was named to the All Skyland Conference 2016-17 Basketball team. At the club level, Jen finished her AAU career as a member of the esteemed Adidas sponsored, NJ Panthers. "Jennifer may be tiny, but this girl is a warrior!" Cappucci says that she "is really excited for the future. "I am fortunate to have had incredible support from my parents, siblings, coaches and teammates over the years. I have learned invaluable lessons as a member of sports teams. I am thrilled and honored to be given the opportunity to embrace my dream of being a college ball player. I can't wait to be a contributing member of the Franklin & Marshall community."

CHS ACADEMY OF PERFORMING ARTS SHOWCASE: LETTERS TO SALA

Cranford High School's Academy of Performing Arts (APA) is proud to present Letters to Sala, a drama about the Holocaust, Friday May 26, 2017 at 7:30 p.m. CHS Auditorium, 201 West end Place. Tickets can be purchased at the door for $5.00 per person or online at <https://chs.booktix.com/>. This full-length production is the culmination of the APA Acting and Technical Theater students' work.

Letters to Sala, based on a true account, is the remarkable story of a young girl's survival during wartime Germany. Five years. Seven Nazi labor camps. Over 350 hidden letters. Sala Garncarz Kirschner kept her secret for over fifty years, concealing her incredibly painful history in a Spill and Spell box. Everything changes when Sala reveals the cache to her grown daughter, Ann. Letters to Sala draws from the emotional journeys that begin for both Ann and Sala when the letters resurface. Through scholarly research, Ann discovers that her mother has made a historically significant impact on Holocaust documentation. As Ann processes her own reaction to her mother's story, her daughters, Caroline and Elisabeth, also realize for the first time the weight of their Jewish heritage.

Simultaneously, Ann's study of the letters throws Sala into the past again. She relives her youth, recalling her naïve desire for adventure, the disillusionment of her life in the work camps, and her loss of communication with the outside world as the war progressed around her. Playwright Arlene Hutton drives the two stories to a single question: What is to be done with these letters? If Sala risked her life to hold onto them as a young woman imprisoned in a work camp, are they merely the emotionally rich relics of her past life? Or are they worthy and important historical documents that demand to be shared with the public? Three generations of Kirschner women must work together to sift through the past and come to terms with the true gravity of Sala's letters."

This showcase stars the talents of Lili Rebelo as Young Sala, Olivia Olivella as Sala, and Niamh O'Donovan as Ala Gertner. Featuring the talents of (in alphabetical order) Haley Baranowski, Alexa Bobko, Jordan Burd, Kyra Goga, Anna Kalafatis, Judith Kirkikis, Kelly McMahon, Brian Nigro, Laura Salway, Brenden Scalea, Katrina Wischusen, Noah Wohlsen, & Sophie Zacharda.

RESIDENT COLLABORATES ON NEW RELEASE

Cranford resident and songwriter / producer Justin Gabriel Ardolino collaborated with New York City singer / songwriter Kiirstin Marilyn on a heartfelt tribute to her grandmother with the release of Kiirstin's song "She".

"The song's main theme centers around the sacrifices that Kiirstin's grandmother made in order to escape Estonia after World War II," Ardolino explains, "and her arrival in America as an immigrant."

The song was recorded and arranged at Ardolino's home studio in Cranford, where he co-wrote and co-produced the track with Kiirstin.

It took on a whole parallel meaning and became an anthem for all women - a testament to the power of female resilience in the face of misogyny.

Additional engineering and recording was provided by Cranford native David Mambach at his studio MacroSound.

Additional instrumentation was provided by Grammy award winning Benny Reiner, who is currently performing in the Broadway production of Hamilton. Reiner also mixed and mastered the track. "She" is the first single on Kiirstin's forthcoming album "Worldly Affairs." For more information visit KiirstinMarilyn.com.

CRANFORD PD EQUIPS OFFICERS WITH CONDUCTIVE ENERGY DEVICES

Following months of research and consultation with the Union County Prosecutor's Office, the Cranford Police Department became the first Municipal Police Department in Union County to equip trained officers with Conductive Energy Devices (CED), commonly known as the brand name Tasers. Officers began carrying CEDs in April, upon completing a two-day training course conducted by the Union County Prosecutor's Office CED Training Task Force. CEDs will be carried by on-duty uniformed personnel during the course of their normal duties.

Chief James Wozniak selected veteran uniform officers to be authorized CED users, after each completed Crisis Intervention Team training. The Crisis Intervention Training is a 40-hour program focused on mental illness and crisis de-escalation techniques.

The goal of the CED program is to provide officers another tool and option to stop an incident before it escalates to the use of deadly force.

In 2016, the New Jersey Attorney General's Office revised its guidelines to allow for police use of the devices.

"As with other tools carried by our officers, this is one that I hope they never have to use. However, the implementation of these devices allows us to prevent potentially violent situations to escalate to a level where deadly force may otherwise be necessary," Chief Wozniak said. "It allows an added level of protection for our officers and our residents. The Union County Prosecutor's Office was a great partner in assisting us in getting our CED program off the ground. The training staff was an excellent source of knowledge, and their program administrator, Captain James Russo, was invaluable."

ST. MICHAEL'S SCHOOL WARRIORS FOR WARRIORS RUN

On Saturday, May 20th, Armed Forces Day, the Home School Association of Saint Michael School in Cranford will host a spring USATF Certified 5k and 1 mile "Fun Run" to benefit both Operation Shoebox NJ and Saint Michael School. The event will be held at Nomahegan Park located at 1024 Springfield Avenue in Cranford, NJ. All are invited to participate in this community event.

For the 5K race, awards will be presented to Top Overall M/F finishers and Top M/F finishers by age group. All participants in both the 1 mile "Fun Run" and 5K will receive dog tags.

Registration will be available prior to the start of the fun run at 8:30am. The 1 mile run will begin at 9:00am. After May 1st the cost of the "Fun Run" is $25.00; the 5k race will begin at 9:30am, the registration cost is $ $35.00. Online registration is available at: www.compucore.com.

Founded in 2005, Operation Shoebox NJ is an all-volunteer grass roots organization dedicated to collecting donated supplies and shipping care packages to U.S. troops based in Iraq, Afghanistan and other Middle East countries. They are committed to sending care packages overseas as long as there is a need. Several times each year, volunteers gather to sort donated supplies and pack them in boxes to be shipped. They rely on the compassion and patriotism to maintain their supply line and to assist with the shipping cost of sending the care packages to our brave men and women. Over the last 12 years Operation Shoebox has shipped more than 100,000 packages to U.S. Military personnel.

One of the missions of Saint Michaels School is to promote the spiritual, academic and personal formation of their students. The students are encouraged to live these teachings beyond the doors of the school and into local and world communities. One way to do this is through volunteering and helping others. Saint Michael School will be donating a portion of the funds generated by this race to the Operation Shoebox NJ organization to help with the shipping costs of the care packages.

HUNSINGERS HONORED FOR PRESERVATION OF HOLLY STREET HOME

On April 2, the 2017 Cranford Preservation Award was presented to Terri and Tom Hunsinger for their restoration of their home at 203 Holly Street. The Award ceremony, sponsored jointly by the Cranford Historical Society and the Cranford Historic Preservation Advisory Board (HPAB), was held at the Hanson House in Cranford and was attended by the Hunsingers and their family, their contractor, members of HPAB and the Historical Society, and Mayor Tom Hannen and HPAB Township Committee Liaison Patrick Giblin.

The restoration of the turreted Queen Anne-style house was done by John Savoca Construction of Scotch Plains starting early this past summer. He duplicated the original trim, moldings, columns, and turnings, using a company in Canada. He had to modify some of the elements such as the railings to meet current codes, but did so in a way that was sympathetic to the original. He replaced much of the façade, including the various types of shingles on the façade of the house. Painting was done by Leon Painting of Kenilworth based on a design from The Color People in Denver, Colorado.

Christine Glazer, Trustee and Program Chair of the Cranford Historical Society, welcomed the attendees and commended the Hunsingers for their interest in preservation. She read the citation, and mentioned the importance of retaining the history of Cranford.

In her comments on the award, Maureen Strazdon, Chair of HPAB, noted that the house has been owned by only three families over almost 130 years – the Porcellas, the Dooleys, and now the Hunsingers. Members of the Porcella family lived there from the time it was built in 1888 by Sanitago Porcella, a very successful businessman and a social and financial force in Cranford, for the next 75 years. The family of Dr. Thomas E Dooley, a dentist who practiced in Linden and who was Vice President of the Cranford Board of Education, lived there starting in 1963 until 2013. And finally, the Hunsingers moved in 2012.

Ms. Strazdon also noted that in November 1966, the Board of Education proposed leveling 203 Holly as well as seven other houses backing up to the River on Holly Street to build a new school on the five acres. The proposal was vigorously opposed by a quickly-formed homeowner's protective association, chaired by Dr. Dooley, and in early 1967, Dr. Dooley was named to the School Board. The houses, including the wonderfully restored house at 203, were spared.

Founded in 1927, the Cranford Historical Society is a private organization whose mission is to preserve and perpetuate the history of Cranford. For more information, visit www.cranfordhistoricalsociety.com.

The Cranford Historic Preservation Advisory Board (HPAB) is a Township committee established in 1993. HPAB's mission is to aid in the preservation of Cranford's architectural heritage through documentation of significant structures, education of the public as to the value of preservation, and advice to the Township on laws and activities impacting preservation. You can find more information on HPAB at www.preservcranford.com.

THREE CRANFORD RESIDENTS NOW CASA VOLUNTEERS

Union County Superior Court Judge James Hely administered oaths to 16 community members on March 20, 2017 — among them Laura La Fronz, Joanne Truncali and Bohdan Lukaszewsky of Cranford — who stepped up to volunteer as extra eyes and ears for Family Court judges on cases involving Union County's abused, neglected or abandoned children now placed in foster care.

The new child advocates completed 30 hours in a new, flexible training option that comprises fewer in-person sessions than the traditional session, but incorporates an online learning component for scheduling flexibility. After the new advocates took their oath and received a commemorative CASA pin and certificate, they gathered with staff and board members for a celebratory luncheon, during which they were matched to their new case.

Volunteers with varied backgrounds make successful advocates and this class is no exception: Advocates range in age from 21 to 81; are parents and non-parents; recent retirees and students; and careers include business professionals, a teacher, nurse, attorney and professor; as well as homemakers. Languages spoken include Spanish, Chinese, Ukrainian and German. Most have no prior knowledge of the foster system, and at least two of the volunteers are immigrants.

CASA volunteers have court-ordered access to all parties in a child's life, including foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, and incorporate into court reports findings from these contacts as well as time spent with the youth. Volunteers advocate both in the community and court to ensure their youth's needs are met and their time in care is as short as possible. There are 600 Union County children currently in foster care and CASA of Union County serves approximately one-third; its mission is to provide an advocate for every foster child that needs one.

For details on future trainings, contact Courtney at 908-527-7045 or cgreen@casaoofunioncounty.org. To inquire about other ways to support CASA of Union County, contact Executive Director Marla Higginbotham at 908-527-7041 or marlah@casaoofunioncounty.org.

HOW TO SHOP LOCAL . . . THE EARLY 20TH CENTURY WAY

Gail Alterman, Costume Curator at the Cranford Historical Society, will present a program entitled "How to Shop Local . . . The Early 20th Century Way" on Wednesday, May 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Cranford Community Center. The Community Center is located at 220 Walnut Avenue.

Ms. Alterman will focus on the way people shopped - locally - one hundred years ago. What stores and products were available in Cranford and the surrounding area? Where did people shop? Using ads from the Cranford Chronicle and other archival sources, Ms. Alterman will show how people shopped and what they bought in an age when shopping was done locally and when a trip to a large department store was an excursion.

Ms. Alterman has a Master's Degree in Costume History and Design from New York University in conjunction with the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She has been a consultant for various historical societies regarding the care and storage of costume and textile collections.

The program is sponsored by the Cranford Historical Society and the Cranford Public Library.

Admission is free and all are welcome. For more information about the Cranford Historical Society, visit their Web page at cranfordhistoricalsociety.org.

To celebrate Girl Scout Week, all three 7th grade Cadette troops from Orange Avenue School got together to serve their community by baking breads for Cranford Family Care and making spring themed cards for seniors and residents at Cranford Atria.
