LINDEN INDUSTRIAL ASSOC. HOLDS 82ND ANNUAL MEETING

The 82nd Annual Meeting of the Linden Industrial Association (LIA) was held on April 20, 2017 at the Ill Amici's Ristorante in Linden.

Guest speakers included Mayor Derek Armstead, City of Linden, and Michael Corbett, US DOL, OSHA who gave a presentation on safety in the workplace.

Presentations were made for "Business and Community Contribution" awards. One recipient was John Griffiths, Epicor, Inc.; and the other was Patti Murgo, Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery, in recognition of their contributions to their respective employers and the City of Linden.

Patti Murgo, Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery was presented with a Business and Community Contribution award. A statement from Phillips 66: "Operations Accounting Supervisor Patti Murgo received the award for her commitment to make the City of Linden where she works and lives a better place. Patti's community service on 8 civic commissions, 2 health and safety commissions and 2 community organizations, well exceeded over 250 community service hours in 2016 on her personal time. For our company, Patti demonstrates the Phillips 66 value of Community Service Commitment. Her dedicated advocacy for health programs and civic volunteerism is helping the community where Bayway Refinery employees work and live, and enhances our company reputation and working relationships with the City of Linden leadership. For the City of Linden, her dedicated community service commitment results in achievements of public health protection and new city leadership that she passionately believes will make her hometown a better place to live!"

John Griffiths, Plant Manager and Safety Director at Epicor was presented with a Business and Community Contribution award. Rose Bussiculo, President of Epicor, had this to say "Epicor is a VPP OSHA Star Site and considers our employees the most important assets. Epicor proudly maintains a long-term safety record due to the dedicated efforts of John and those of our diligent and safety conscious employees. Epicor's policies are enforced, implemented and practiced. Aside from his efforts at Epicor, he made significant contributions to Linden's business community through the LIA-led program that successfully got multiple Linden companies recognized by OSHA as Voluntary Protection Program Star honorees."

The Gateway Regional Chamber of Commerce, the umbrella organization for the Linden Chamber of Commerce, hosted its 28th Annual Mayors Dinner in April, at the Renaissance Newark Airport Hotel. More than 400 people listened as mayors or their designees from 20 of Union County's 21 municipalities provided updates on the states of their communities.

Awards were given out for Mayor of the Year, Business Administrator of the Year, Public Safety Official of the Year, Business Development Official of the Year and Best Speaker, which usually goes to the most entertaining and/or imaginative speaker.

This year's winners included Richard Puschel, a Linden resident, being named Economic Development Official of the Year.

"Businesses and government leaders work hand-in-hand to strengthen their communities and those partnerships lead to commerce, jobs and taxes that help ease the burden of property taxes on homeowners," said Jim Coyle, chamber president. "The Gateway Chamber is honored to represent the business community as we say thank you to these leaders for their support."

The Department of Public Properties and Community Services, and the Mayor's Youth Commission, invites the community to celebrate the 101st anniversary of the National Park Service and the 7th Annual Kids to Parks Day on Saturday, May 20th.

"I am inviting the Linden families to join me and the volunteers at Wilson Park for a fun filled day of activities. As America prepares to celebrate the anniversary of our national parks, my hope is that our Linden families will use this year's Kids to Parks Day to encourage their children to enjoy the great outdoors. Our park programs for both young and old alike has been one of the gems of our community for many, many years," Mayor Armstead said.

Kids to Parks Day promotes awareness of the importance of getting outdoors and visiting a park. This day encourages physical, emotional, mental and social development. It gives families an opportunity to get together to do fun things, at their local community's parks, enjoying one another's company while making memories that will last a lifetime.

According to Al MacDonald, Director of the Linden Department of Public Property and Community Services, This day encourages families to get outdoors and introduces a new generation of Americans to our park systems, where attendance has declined over the past decade. Additionally, it is to increase awareness of the values of recreation and play in developing strong family bonds."

Nancy Braxton, Linden's Supervisor of Recreation said, "Many character traits and interpersonal skills are developed within the family unit and are practiced and reinforced through recreational activities. Doing recreational and leisure activities as a family cultivates positive character development by encouraging responsibility, respect, honesty, loyalty, integrity, creativity and flexibility at the same time as having fun."

Linden Families please come and join us on Saturday May 20th from 12:00 to 4:00, at Wilson Park, between Orchard and Summit Terraces', behind the Linden High School Academy, for a fun-filled day of events, games, and prizes. Please don't forget your fishing pole, McGillivray's pond is stocked with fish. Hot Dogs will also be served. Hope to see you there.

DONATIONS RAISED BY K-KIDS CLUBS FOR CHS

On March 16th Children's Specialized Hospital (CSH) was presented with a big check for $1,755. Children's Specialized Hospital is the nation's leading provider of inpatient and outpatient care for children from birth to 21 years of age. The children who are treated at Children's Specialized face special health challenges which range from chronic illnesses and complex physical disabilities like brain and spinal cord injuries, to developmental and behavioral issues like autism and mental health. At 13 different New Jersey locations, our pediatric specialists partner with families to make our many innovative therapies and medical treatments more personalized and effective...so children can achieve more of their goals. "To learn more about Children's Specialized Hospital and how to get involved, please visit their website at www.childrens-specialized.org.

Donations were raised by the Linden Public Schools K-Kids Clubs during their Halloween parade, and the remainder was raised by the Kiwanis Club of Linden, inclusive of a generous contribution received from Infineum USA LP. School #4 contributed over $200 so our luncheon was held there. This year some schools used their donations for other causes – such as helping out a school family member who was sick. Special thanks to Sabrina Elson, our current Kiwanis club of Linden President, for her kind words and for her continual support of this project. This fun fundraising event has become a Linden public schools / Kiwanis Club of Linden tradition. We dine at Primavera's Café & restaurant for lunch on Thursdays.

Special thanks to all of our community for the support. Our success depends on our community. Plans are underway for our pancake breakfast in September on September the 16th and our Taste of Linden on November the 6th or the 13th so look for the updates. We dine at Primavera's Café & restaurant for lunch on Thursdays.

Please call June Lazaro, secretary and membership chair at 908 930-8310 with questions or if interested in joining our club.

“REAL TALK” EVENT FOR YOUTH HELD AT PAL

The Linden Police Athletic League hosted their first “Real Talk” event in March. The event was geared toward helping teens build the courage and confidence to make smart decisions in challenging situations. “It’s rough to be a kid today” said Police Officer and PAL Director Danny “DK” Kuczynski, who organized the event. “I see these kids all the time, and when I started to see some of them make decisions that could get themselves in trouble I asked for help.”

Dozens of Police Officers joined community leaders and role models who spoke openly with the audience about a number of different topics related to decision making. “This is an important message for kids to hear” said Police Chief Jonathan Parham. “For it to be effective they have to hear it from someone who can say they’ve been there.” Guest speakers Deon Candia, O’Neil Thomas Jr. and Waliyy “Main Event” Dixon shared their stories and explained how decisions made today can have an impact on lives long into the future. One of the most captivating speakers of the night was Greg Zambrana, who spoke frankly about how bad decisions derailed his once promising baseball career and landed him in state prison. “I was 300-859 for six years. I didn’t even know what my name was no more. That’s all I was, a number,” said Zambrana.

The PAL plans to build off of this event and offer more events like it later in the year. “You are the future, and everyone here tonight is here for you,” Mayor Derek Armstead told the audience “Not to lecture you or to judge you, but because we love you.”

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant’s initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

LINDEN POLICE HOST INAUGURAL “COFFEE WITH A COP” EVENT

On Wednesday, April 19th the Linden Police Department held their first “Coffee with a Cop” at Starbucks in Aviation Plaza. There was nothing formal about the event, just a chance for the community to meet with Officers and talk with them over a cup of coffee. Chief Jonathan Parham explained “For many people, their only experience with Police Officers is during a crisis or emergency. By sitting together and getting to know each other in a casual setting we can begin to break down barriers that exist between our Officers and the community.”

The event was sponsored by Starbucks, who offered free coffee and snacks to the dozens of people in attendance. “We were so happy to be able to host this event” said Store Manager Danielle Robertson “Linden is such a great town, and to see everyone hanging out having a good time together was really fun.” For many, the highlight of the event was when Officer Ryan Scott donned an apron and went to work behind the counter. The crowd cheered him on as he attempted to make Starbucks new Unicorn Frappuccino. “It’s a lot harder than it looks” said Scott.

The first “Coffee with a Cop” was held in Hawthorne, CA in 2011. Since then the program has expanded to become one of the most successful community policing programs across the United States. Chief Parham said he was pleased with the turnout for the event, calling it “One in a series of community-focused events the Department has planned for this year.” The Chief also said the Department has plans to host additional “Coffee with a Cop” events later this year.

HOMELESS VETERAN TURNS HIS LIFE AROUND WITH THE HELP OF CAU

Following the accident that left him unconscious for five days and unable to recognize his family, Donovan was unable to return to work as an operating engineer at Newark Liberty International Airport. Soon the father and veteran found himself homeless.

"I had everything once, a house, family, backyard pool and a good job," he said. "But I lost everything and ended up homeless."

Yet Donovan never gave up. With the help of his sister and a family friend, he was referred to and became a member of CAU, which operates a Home First: Financial Stability Program through which the agency serves as the member's representative with the Social Security Administration (SSA).

Through the program, CAU first becomes the member's Representative Payee with the SSA. Upon receiving the participant's benefits each month, CAU pays their rent and utilities directly to their landlord and utility provider and makes the remaining funds available to them for personal use. CAU staff also work with the participant to create a budget plan that provides financial stability.

In addition, CAU staff provide guidance to the participant on how to obtain and maintain other county and state benefits, including Section 8, food stamps, low-income housing and more.

"The Home First Program is open to anyone in the community who needs this type of assistance but it is especially helpful for the homeless," said Samir Abdul, senior accountant at CAU and program administrator. "The program authorizes us to serve as their representative with the Social Security Administration, including providing bookkeeping reports that are necessary for them to maintain benefits.

"Equally important, this program allows us to help people who are homeless due to no cause of their own to achieve financial stability and turn around their lives. That's very rewarding for us."

"I do not know what would happen to me if CAU hadn't become part of my life," Donovan said. "I am very thankful to CAU and my entitlement specialist, Yanna Espinal."

Community Access Unlimited (CAU) is a statewide nonprofit providing support programs and services to adults with disabilities as well as youth served under the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to enable them to live independently in the community, providing supports in areas including housing, vocational skills and life-skills training, education, advocacy and recreation.

ABOUT COMMUNITY ACCESS UNLIMITED

Community Access Unlimited (CAU), celebrating its 38th year in 2017, supports people with special needs in achieving real lives in the community. CAU provides support and gives voice to adults and youth who traditionally have little support and no voice in society. CAU helps people with housing, life skills, employment, money management, socialization and civic activities. CAU also supports opportunities for advocacy through training in assertiveness, decision-making and civil right. CAU currently serves more than 6,000 individuals and families. For more information about CAU and its services, contact us by phone at 908.354.3040, online at www.caunj.org or by mail at 80 West Grand Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07202.

technology and have maintained their videoconferencing relationship. Students use technologies like cell phones, text messaging, Facebook, Twitter, and email to stay connected. One terrible tragedy, one amazing connection.

LINDEN VETERAN COUNCIL MEMORIAL DAY HONOR TO ALL VETERANS WHO MADE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE FOR OUR FREEDOM

Submitted by Ron Stefanowicz, Commander Linden Veterans Council

Memorial Day, Monday, May 29th is a special day. It is a day of honor and reverence; it is a solemn day. Today we must recognize an unfortunate fact of life: our beloved country was formed and is protected by the blood of warriors. As unfortunate as this is we can be thankful, because over the years America has answered the call every time our way of life has been threatened. No one has more succinctly and accurately described what someone puts on the line when they sign a contract to serve in the armed forces than legendary General Jim Mattis of the United States Marine Corps. In an address to Iraq and Afghanistan veterans, Mattis articulated, "You signed blank checks payable with your lives to the American people." With a simple analogy he captures the moment of signing, when a civilian Department of Defense employee hands a young man or woman a black pen, in a cubicle somewhere inside a military entrance processing station. You take the pen, and you think nothing of it, because your mind is already made up. Unbeknownst to many, their fate is sealed with the final stroke of that black pen.

There are many veterans among us today, but Memorial Day is not our day, it is the day that has been made for the ones who left home, but did not return. We gather in order to remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for us, and to pay them homage. Memorial Day was first observed on May 30th, 1868, after being proclaimed by General John Logan, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. Logan's stated purpose for observing the holiday was to, "gather around the sacred remains" of our "comrades who died in defense of our country", "garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of spring time, and raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor." Logan suggested a respectful and gracious disposition for the day, affirming we ought to, "cherish tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes."

How do we measure the sacrifices spoken of by General Logan? We could start by counting the number of deaths in service to this country – somewhere around 1.1 million. We could count the number of fathers, brothers, husbands, mothers, sisters, or wives that never came home from a war zone. If we envision a military funeral, we can count the number of times an American flag is folded before it is handed to a new widow. We could count the number of shots fired after she receives the flag, or the number of notes in taps. Maybe we can count the number of nights she goes without sleep, the number of times she asks God, "Why?", or the number of tears she cries. We could count the number of little league games a boy's father will not be there for, or the number of walks a mother will not be able to go on with her daughter. If we were able to add all of these things up, perhaps it would give us some idea of the sacrifices that have been made for our freedoms. However, in reality such things are not quantifiable. We cannot count the grief in a mother's heart when she finds out her son or daughter is not returning home from a foreign battlefield. We cannot count the thoughts that go through a soldier's head as he gasps for his last few breaths of air while his buddies try in vain to save his life. Truly, the sacrifices made by this nation's heroes and their families are immeasurable.

These are the grim realities of our freedom. Freedom ranks among the greatest of gifts known to man, but like anything of value, it has its price. Those who have lost a loved one in service to our country are all too familiar with the price that must be paid. They know what it is like to have their worst nightmare come true when they see a government vehicle park in front of their house. When the doorbell rings they already know what the two uniformed officers waiting outside are going to say. Those who have not experienced such things will never understand freedom in the way those who have do, because no one can feel the pain they have lived through.

This begs the question, how do we show our gratitude to our men and women in uniform who have given their lives for us? As they are no longer physically with us, surely we cannot verbally thank them, except through prayer. It is impossible to know the intentions behind each person's service, and some who gave their lives for this country did not even volunteer to do so; they were drafted. In what way, then, can we thank them? There is a way to give gratitude to each man and woman who has died for this country, regardless of the reason for their service, or whether they were drafted, or volunteered themselves. Making this country something worth dying for is the ultimate service we can do for them. We each can do this in our own unique way according to our abilities, and when we do it redeems their sacrifices. As long as we bear this in mind and act upon it we are honoring our fallen heroes, but if we as a society do not show gratitude for their sacrifices, their memory fades. They gave the last full measure for us; their blank checks were cashed. Let us not commit the injustice of taking their sacrifices for granted. None of our fallen warfighters wanted to die for us. But if these things must happen, let them happen in the name of something befitting of such a noble and heroic act.

Truly, no American has loved their country more than the service member who has offered their last breath to secure that which we cherish. Everywhere we go they are with us. When you take your children to the park, when you have a birthday party for them, when they are opening their Christmas presents, please remember, there are heroes watching over them. When you go to a football game on Friday night, when you sit around a campfire with friends, or when you go for a walk with someone you love, give thanks to the warriors standing guard. You will not see them, as their hour has already passed. Yet, they abide in the recesses of our worldly perception. Underneath everything we hold dear is the blood of those to whom we owe our deepest respect and fidelity. If you stop and listen closely, not with your ears, but with your heart, you can hear the whisper of the army of the dead. As they leave behind a life on earth worthy of honor, remembrance, and gratitude, they unceasingly utter "I love my Country."

The Members of the Linden Veteran Council; American Legion, Post 102, Catholic War Veterans, Post 497, Linden Marine League, M. Danowski Detachment, Polish Legion of American Veterans, Post 91, Vietnam Veterans, Chapter 669, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 1397, Wish our Linden Residents a Happy Memorial Day and ask that all Remember in reverence our fallen hero's before we start our holiday festivities.

9 TO 5, THE MUSICAL, AT CDC THEATRE

In May, at CDC Theatre in Cranford, three unlikely friends will take control of their office and learn there is nothing they can't do, even in a man's world. 9 to 5 The Musical, with music and lyrics by Dolly Parton and book by Patricia Resnick, is based on the seminal 1980 hit movie. Set in the late 1970s, this hilarious story of friendship and revenge in the Rolodex era is outrageous, thought-provoking and even a little romantic.

"Having loved the movie, I was excited to see show when it was on Broadway, and was not disappointed. "Already in rehearsal at the theatre's home at 78 Winans Ave. in Cranford, Clifford Parrish, who is both the director and musical director of the show, shared some of his reasons for coming back to work on a show at CDC Theatre. "The audience was really with these women as their story unfolded. Even though we've come a long way on women's issues since 1979, the story still needs to be told. Even though it's a comedy, this show is about women's empowerment. The Dolly Parton score is also a lot of fun, with some truly beautiful ballads. I am excited about working with a tremendously talented cast!"

The large cast features frequent performers at CDC and some new faces. Kara Wilson, Melissa Timpson and Hannah Schroeder take the leading roles of Judy, Violet and Doralee. Richard Colonna will be their lecherous boss Mr. Hart and Arlene Britt his adoring employee Roz. Jason Cilento is Joe, a handsome accountant smitten with Violet while Mark Piltz plays Doralee's supportive and attractive husband Dwayne, with Will Roper as Violet's teenage son Josh. Joel Redmount will play Hart's boss and Chairman of the Board, Mr. Tinsworthy and Danielle Gruskiewicz is Hart's unsuspecting wife. The ensemble and featured roles will be brought to life by Michele Greenspan, Katherine Brown, Joanna Riley, Carolyn Milhiser, Beth Kasper, Zach Mazouat, Edgar Hidalgo and Tommy Lackamy.

The production will open on May 5 and run weekends through May 20. Additional information and tickets can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org.

Funding has been made possible in part by the NJ State Council on the Arts, Dept. of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs

AUDITIONS FOR TWO PRODUCTIONS AT CHC

Standing on Ceremony and The Shape of Things

CDC Theater, New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre, will hold auditions for two exciting special productions that will take place in the early part of the theatre's 99th season.

The 2017 Short Play Festival featuring Standing on Ceremony: The Gay Marriage Plays, and other short pieces, will hold auditions on May 7 at 7:30pm and May 8 at 7:00pm with performances planned for September 7, 8 and 9. This special event is a non-equity, non-paying production and 50% of the ticket profits will be donated to the Gay, Lesbian, Straight Education Network, or GLSEN. Auditions and performances will take place at CDC Theatre, 78 Winans Ave in Cranford, NJ. Additional information can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org or the Cranford Dramatic Club Facebook page.

In a second special event, director Cynthia Ross and cast will ask the questions. How far would you go for love? For art? What would you be willing to change? What price might you pay? Such are the painful questions explored by Neil LaBute in The Shape of Things. A young student drifts into an ever-changing relationship with an art major while his best friends' engagement crumbles, so unleashing a drama that peels back the skin of two modern-day relationships.

Auditions will be held on May 15, 16 at 7:45pm at the theatre's 78 Winans Ave location, with performances on August 10, 11 and 12 at 8:00pm.
