Have you ever wondered what that yellow house on Horseshoe Drive in Berkeley Heights, near the pond and baseball fields, is? It is the Littell-Lord Farmhouse Museum, and the core building that resided on that spot for over 2-1/2 centuries. The land it occupies is the oldest continuously occupied farmstead in Union County, having been in use from around 1760 until the land was purchased by the Township of Berkeley Heights in 1975.

Around 1760 Andrew Littell built the central portion farmhouse and established a farm, made possible by a natural spring on the land. The spring still exists and provides water for the lake, also on the property. The Littell Family owned and resided on the farm until 1817. The land passed through several families until the Lord

Family purchased the farmstead in 1867. They added a Victorian parlor and made other additions to the house. They also built the summer kitchen and the next door guest house, now a private residence. Other additions were made in the 1920s. In 1975 the last resident of the Lord Family sold the land and the buildings to the Township of Berkeley Heights. The Historical Society of Berkeley Heights was formed to create and maintain the museum within the house.

On June 18, between 2 and 4 p.m., the Historical Society of Berkeley Heights will open the house and grounds for visitors to take a step back into history and see firsthand what life was like before not only i-phones but any phones, automobiles, or airplanes. Admission is free (donations welcome).

IMAGINE CELEBRATES THEIR VOLUNTEERS AND LOOKS TO THE FUTURE

Over 100 volunteers and their family and friends filled the new space at Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, on April 27th for the fifth annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. Dinner, music, coffee and awards were provided to show the volunteers how special and appreciated they are!

The evening was catered by Castle on a Cloud who donated all of the food, desserts and staff. Guests were also treated to live music by The Have Some Hotel band who donated their services, and delicious coffee from Rockin' Joes in Westfield, also donated. The event theme was candy, to exemplify how "sweet" the volunteers are, and they received awards such as the Starburst Award for painting all of the color on the walls of the new center and the Rock Candy Award for the pure energy they provide to the youngest of participants.

"Our volunteers are priceless," said Mandi Zucker, Imagine's Program Director. "As our programs continue to grow, we absolutely could not make it happen without the time and commitment from the volunteers. We use over 100 volunteers every two weeks to facilitate our support groups, work in the office, serve on committees, the Board of Trustees, and set up and clean up the space before and after the groups meet. We hope this event shows our volunteers, in some small way, how much we appreciate them and how grateful we are to be able to do this work along side them."

Imagine's next Volunteer Facilitator Training, which will prepare us to start up our fifth Night or Support serving 60 new children and adults, is July 7-10th, from 9:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m. daily. One recently trained facilitator, Stephanie Naphtali of Wyckoff said, "The training restored my belief in the compassion of all. It was a transformative experience. I learned so much and my life has been enriched by the knowledge I learned."

Please contact Mandi Zucker at 908-264-3100 or mandi@imaginej.org if you would like to learn more about the training and the commitment involved to be a facilitator or visit our website at www.imaginej.org.

VERY SPECIAL "ALADDIN JR." COMING TO UNION COUNTY JUNE 29-JULY 1

The CAU Community Players will be staging a very special production of "Aladdin Jr." at the Rahway High School Center for Performing Arts June 29, June 30 and July 1. Show times are 7:30 p.m. on June 29 and 30 and 2:00 p.m. on July 1. Saturday's performance will be Family Day. Members of the audience, including children, will be able to have their photos taken with members of cast prior to the show.

The CAU Community Players is a troupe of individuals with developmental disabilities and actors and actresses from the broader community. Formed in 2012 by nonprofit Community Access Unlimited, the troupe allows CAU members to engage in the pleasures of acting, singing and dancing with people from the wider community and to be judged for their talents rather than disabilities.

CAU is a statewide nonprofit providing support programs and services to adults with disabilities as well as youth served under the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to enable them to live independently in the community, providing supports in areas including housing, vocational skills and life-skills training, education, advocacy and recreation.

Each year the CAU Community Players select a play that is representative of the agency's message of inclusion, acceptance and believing in oneself, as well as everyone's worth regardless of disability. Based on the Disney movie, which itself was based on the folk tale of the same name, "Aladdin Jr." is the story of a street urchin, a princess and a genie all overcoming their respective obstacles to escape the traps of their lives and achieve their fullest potential and happiness.

Tickets are available for $10 by visiting www.caunj.org, clicking on Upcoming Events, then CAU Community Players Present Aladdin Jr., then the 2017 Ticket Ordering Form. Or contact Cara Pavia, director of marketing, at 908.354.3040, ext. 4376 or cpavia@caunj.org.

About Community Access Unlimited
Community Access Unlimited (CAU),

celebrating its 38th year in 2017, supports people with special needs in achieving real lives in the community. CAU provides support and gives voice to adults and youth who traditionally have little support and no voice in society. CAU helps people with housing, life skills, employment, money management, socialization and civic activities. CAU also supports opportunities for advocacy through training in assertiveness, decision-making and civil right. CAU currently serves more than 6,000 individuals and families, with the number served growing each year. For more information about CAU and its services, contact us by phone at 908.354.3040, online at www.caunj.org or by mail at 80 West Grand Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07202.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS SEEKING MODERATORS

The League of Women Voters of Berkeley Heights, New Providence and Summit invite you to attend a debate moderator training to be held on Sunday, June 11th from 12:30-4 p.m. at the New Providence Memorial Library located at 377 Elkwood Ave, New Providence, NJ.

Why should you participate?

Candidate meetings have been around almost as long as the League of Women Voters. In 1924, a small booklet published by the League of Women Voters, suggested that we:

“hold pre-election meetings and invite all candidates to speak; collect and give out nonpartisan information on candidates and issues; conduct candidate meetings as a service to the voters because it gives them a means of forming a first-hand judgment of the candidates, and as a service to the candidates because it gives them an opportunity to present their views to audiences of varied political affiliation.”

The directive and the reasoning have not changed through the years. Hundreds of League candidate nights are held each year. They are considered special events in the election calendar and for very good reasons. League debates are fair. They are unbiased. They are conducted for informational purposes, without a hidden agenda, and are controlled by principles of nonpartisanship.

We need you to help with running these valuable events!

Please RSVP to Susan Ferris Rights at susanferris123@gmail.com or 908.568.1884. Cost is $10 for materials. You are welcome to bring a brown bag lunch. Snacks and drink provided by LWVBHNPS.

WRF | WHITE ROSE FUNDING

“Tailored Financing for Today’s Small Business”

www.whiterosefunding.com
844.WRFUNDS / 844.973.8637

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant’s initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

RELAY FOR LIFE

At the time of this writing the American Cancer Society posted on their website that 544 participants raised $150,311.59 for the Relay for Life of Berkeley Heights, Mountainside, New Providence and Summit which was held on May 13, 2017 from 4 p.m. to midnight.

The event was moved indoors to Governor Livingston High School in Berkeley Heights due to poor weather conditions but that didn't dampen the spirits of the 75 teams, the survivors and their families, and the many volunteers and supporters who joined in the effort.

The Relay For Life movement unites communities across the globe to celebrate people who have battled cancer, remember loved ones lost, and take action to finish the fight once and for all. Relay For Life events are community gatherings where teams and individuals camp out at a school, park, or fairground and take turns walking or running around a track or path. Teams raise funds in the months leading up to the event.

Relay For Life is the world's largest fundraising event to fight every cancer in every community, with four million participants in 6,000 events worldwide in 2015.

Donations can still be made by visiting relayforlife.org/BerkeleyHeightsNJ.

PEPPERTOWN PARK BOCCE TOURN JUNE 10

As their fundraising kick off, Berkeley Heights Peppertown Park Renewal Committee is hosting the very first Bocce Tournament and Festival on Saturday June 10th, in Peppertown Park from 11:00 to 4:00 pm. Peppertown Park is located between Plainfield Ave. and Sherman Ave. The Bocce tournament will pay homage to the past, as the park is rooted in Italian legacy and tradition. It was once home to the Petrone family farmstead and its name is derived from all of the pepper plants that grew on the land.

Located in the heart of downtown Berkeley Heights, Peppertown Park is the ideal place for a cultural hub, as well as a family friendly, four season use park, that when completed will be enjoyed for decades to come. The renovation process will happen in phases. The committee is comprised of many volunteers and the original concept design plans were created by Donovan Hall, a town resident and business owner. Established by an ordinance of the Berkeley Heights Town Council as an advisory Committee, the volunteers also formed a 501(c)3 charitable organization. It hopes to partner with the community, through fundraising efforts and grants to make the renewal a reality. Tax-deductible donations for the renovation efforts can be made online at PeppertownPark.com or may be sent/payable to: Peppertown Park Renewal Committee, 29 Park Ave., Berkeley Heights, NJ 07922.

Teams and individuals are invited to play. Children can play in the cornhole tournament. Food will be available for purchase featuring the Italian specialties of local restaurants. It's a family friendly event and everyone is invited to attend. Details and registration for the Bocce Tournament and Festival can be found on the website at www.peppertownpark.com

Submissions are due on Tuesday, June 13, 2017
