ST THERESA SCHOOL PRESENTS PETER PAN

St Theresa School in Kenilworth recently presented an outstanding performance of Peter Pan. Director Mrs.Christine McCarthy did a brilliant job along with the help of her family and alumni of St. Theresa School.

Tickets sold out fast for the two night show that a third show had to be added.

Fiona Morales, an 8th grade student who has performed in five productions at St.Theresa's, played Peter Pan. She sang into the hearts of every Peter Pan fan starting with the song "I've got to crow," with a natural talent in convincing everyone that she was flying to Neverland.

Captain Hook was performed by Michael Huss and Adam Grova playing his funny sidekick Smee.Wendy was played by Gianna Vaynberg. Michael Darling was played by Gavin Gatchalian and Zachary Devanney played John Darling.

Gabriela Ronquillo, who played Tiger Lily, did an outstanding job with an "Ugh a Wug" Indian dance that was choreographed exquisitely.

The play was filled with Lost Boys, Pirates and lots of song and dance. Let's not forget "Tinkerbell" being saved by the clapping of everyone in the audience that still believes in fairies.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Kenilworthians, it's about time we had some consistent weather, April and May have been hot and cold, figuratively and literally. Now that the warmer weather is here please be mindful of the heat, stay hydrated when going outside remember sunscreen.

I have some exciting news, I know Kenilworth is noted for its restaurants but recently we made another list worth recognizing. LendEDU, Hoboken based company recently ranked Kenilworth as #178 out of 565 municipalities as being the best New Jersey town with the most delis. Go to <https://lendu.com/blog/ranking-new-jersey-towns-deli-density-index/> for the complete list. Some deli's in town are Michigan Deli, Massimo's, Sub Where Else, Mike's Place, Café Liberty and Pat's Corner Café (by the way Pat's is now open until 9 pm selling ice cream and milkshakes, just in time for the summer!) Kudos to our deli's and all the great places in Kenilworth. You can call us lots of things but you can never say you left town hungry!

Congratulations to our two new Police recruits joining the ranks, Anthony Tancs and Leo Filipe, they will be graduating Academy on June 7.

Last year we had great success with our Walk to Wellness and is participating in the Summer Slim Down Challenge for our employees sponsored by the GSMJIF. Kenilworth is making a commitment to taking care of the people taking care of the Borough every day.

This is also a repeat from last month, but one I think is worth writing again. Kenilworth utilizes the Swift 911 system to get information via landline phone or to cell phones if you wish. Sign up is free and is located on our Kenilworth Borough website. Our goal is to get everyone signed up and we will have information and a sign-up center at the Seniors as well as the Library so we can help those who might be confused as how to do it. In times of crisis, the ability to get information quickly and accurately is imperative, this system allows the authorities to reach as many people as possible.

Here are some important events and dates for Kenilworth on the Calendar for the Month of June;

June 7: Battle of Connecticut Farms Remembrance day. Kenilworth's Proclamation giving our Borough recognition for being a part of the Battle of Connecticut Farms in 1780. While it was not "Kenilworth" at that time, in and around our Borough the Militia was responsible for halting an advance of 5000 Hessians en route to Morristown to attack Washington's Continental Army.

June 10: Relay for Life Walkathon from 6 pm to 6 am at the High School Field. Please go on www.RelayForLife.org/Kenilworthnj for more details.

June 15: Kenilworth Public Library is hosting "Taming of the Shrew" at 7 pm presented by the Hudson Shakespeare Company – admission is free, check in at www.kenilworthlibrary.org for more details.

June 18: Happy Fathers Day! Dad's it's your turn this month, here's to all you Dad's out there.

June 22: Last day of school for the kids! Please be careful driving around town. Congratulations to all the graduates!

As always visit our website at www.kenilworthborough.org for more details about these events and more.

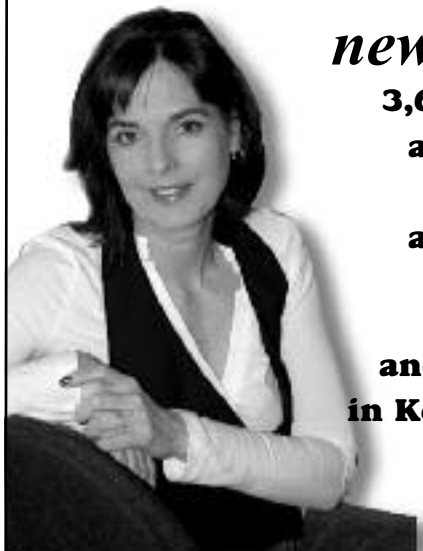

In closing, please stay safe out there, stay alert. Kenilworth's strength is our community spirit, we all need each other.

God Bless you all and God Bless America

Mayor Anthony DuLuca

RELAY FOR LIFE SET FOR JUNE 10TH & 11TH

St. Theresa School in Kenilworth kicked off a simplified version of Relay for Life on Friday, May 12th. The American Cancer Society will have a Relay for Life on June 10-11 at Brearly High School. This event is meant to raise awareness about cancer and a fundraiser for The American Cancer Society for research. Students from PreK 3 to 8th grade wore purple ribbons and walked around the school collecting beads counting the number of times they went around the building.

The school parish has a team representing St. Theresa's Church in which Luminaria Bags will be decorated in memory of someone who has deceased from cancer or in honor a survivor of the disease. Sr. Monique Haurt, FMA organized the walk for the children to participate in.

WHAT, WHERE, AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH – HISTORIC STREET NAMES

Kenilworth Life • Page 11 • June 2017

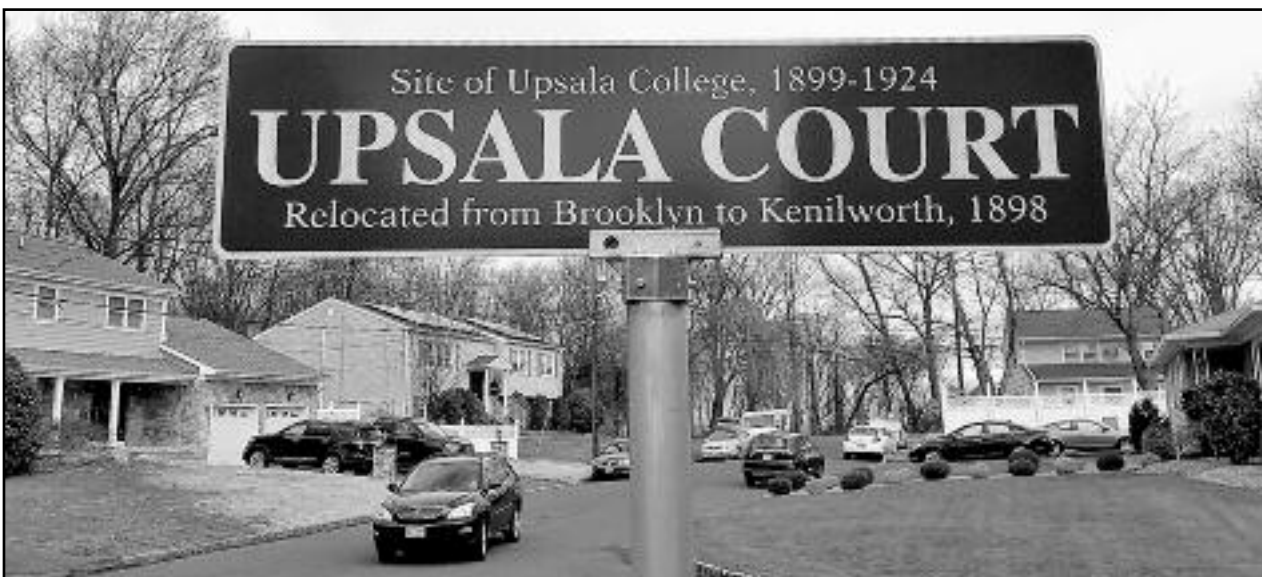

Historian and author
Walter E. Boright, Ed.D.

Several weeks ago, the Borough installed twelve new street signs commemorating over 200 years of local history. The project was coordinated by Lt. Wayne Fennes of the Kenilworth Police Department, with installations by the Kenilworth Department of Public Works.

The streets are: ARTHUR TER. for James Arthur I (1866-1931), builder of 100 houses in 100 days in 1899 and developer of the New Orange Park section of town; BORIGHT AVE. for Walter E. Boright, Sr. (1909-1981), mayor, three terms, 1956-1961; BOYD TER. for Charles C. Boyd (1850-1919), first mayor, 1907-1909, and then 1916-1919, fought for town's independence; BRASSER LN. for John Brasser (1881-1963), jolly real estate agent active in the 1940s to 1960s; FAITOUTE AVE. for Moses Faitoute (1799-1875) and family whose 198-acre farm was along both sides of Faitoute Ave.; HALSEY AVE. for James W. Halsey (1821-1886), farmer of the mid-1800s whose farmhouse later became the original Kenilworth Inn; 145-acre farm ran from S. 21st St. to the Rahway River; HOILES DR. for William J. Hoiles, second mayor, two terms, 1910-1913, and a third, 1922-1923; LEE TER. for resident Robert E. Lee, artist, sign painter for Blue Ridge Manor company, inventor, and great-nephew of General Robert E. Lee; LISTER TER. for William M. "Tailored Financing for Today's Small Business"

844.WRFUNDS / 844.973.8637

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant's initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

Bubble artist and entertainer Jeff Boyer recently presented Bubble Trouble, an amazing show at the Kenilworth Public Library, bringing together education and fun for local children and parents! This program was funded by a Wells Fargo Community Connection Grant, and supported by the Friends of the Kenilworth Public Library.

“PAINTINGS OF THE JERSEY SHORE”

The Gallery-on-the-Boulevard at the Kenilworth Public Library is now featuring stunning paintings of iconic New Jersey locations by artist Stephen D’Amato. “Paintings of the Jersey Shore” features familiar images from Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Spring Lake Sea Girt, Cape May and the Wildwoods.

“My focus is primarily is with street scenes, buildings and waterfront areas,” D’Amato said in a written statement. “When looking for interesting subject matter: I sometimes gravitate toward the decay and worn look of an abandoned dock, seedy boardwalk shops, or a loosely dangling street sign.”

Mr. D’Amato has exhibited his work in New Jersey and New York City. He studied art at Syracuse University, Rutgers University and the Art Students League of New York, where he focused on drawing, anatomy and painting. His seaside scenes, painted between 2004 and 2016, will be on display in the library through July 2017.

In choosing locales for new paintings, “I look for a connection to the past, both aesthetically and historically, said Mr. D’Amato. “I feel an affection and spiritual connection with these areas and I continue to search for ways to convey it.”

LIBRARY GETS SPECIAL VISITORS

Three beautiful alpacas from Highland Airst Alpaca Ranch located in Hackettstown, NJ recently visited the Kenilworth Public Library. Children and adults had an opportunity to learn about alpacas, and view them up close. This program was presented by Joy Scott who owns the Highland Airst Alpaca Ranch with her husband, Colin.

KARATE WORLD CELEBRATES 25 YEAR ANNIVERSARY AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Submitted by: Master Dunn's Black Belt ladies

Kenilworth has been home to Karate World for over 25 years. Master Jeffrey Dunn, his Instructors, students and friends came together in November of 2016 to celebrate that Silver Anniversary! It was a very special event indeed because so many of his longtime students and friends came from near and far in a show of love, dedication and respect for a man that had such a positive impact on this community and on the individuals and many families desiring to learn martial arts.

If that weren't occasion enough, that night, Karate World also held a Black Belt test at this celebration. If you know anything about this special man, he sets big goals, dreams very big and that spirit and desire to grow and share in the martial arts has never wavered. Speaking of those dreams, Master Dunn has recently created his own competition team called, Team Tradition and on Saturday April 29th of this year, this team competed in its first AAU tournament and did very well. Back at Karate World, we were all excited to hear just how well, Team Tradition Members did on their debut of the tournament circuit. While at this event, Master Dunn was honored by receiving The Lifetime Achievement Award in his long time support for fostering the growth of the Amateur Sport of Taekwondo and of his loyalty to the Amateur Athletic Union Taekwondo's National Program! The award was presented to Master Dunn by Master Kevin Balon 7th Degree Black Belt and Director for the New Jersey AAU Taekwondo Program.

All of his longtime students couldn't agree more that Master Dunn indeed is committed to excellence and we are so thrilled that he was honored with this recognition! Way to go Master Dunn and congratulations Sir.

ROMEO AND JULIET: PERFORMANCE AND BOOK CLUB AT THE KENILWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARY

Kenilworth's beloved Shakespeare series Bard on the Boulevard is back, and the Kenilworth Public Library Book Club is participating with a very special event! On Tuesday, July 11, 2017, all are welcome to join us at the library (located at 548 Boulevard) for two back-to-back programs. First, at 6:00 pm, our Book Club will discuss Juliet's Nurse by Lois Leveen. Immediately afterwards at 7:00 pm, the library will host the Hudson Shakespeare Company for a performance of Romeo and Juliet. As in previous years, this program has been made possible with the support of the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

Romeo and Juliet, Shakespeare's timeless tale of star-crossed lovers, will be directed by Noelle Fair and performed by the Hudson Shakespeare Company's talented cast. The Hudson Shakespeare Company has been involved in productions both classic and modern since 1992. Their skilled players and directors combine the comic and tragic to produce unforgettable performances.

Juliet's Nurse is the same "tale of woe", told through the eyes of Juliet's faithful confidant by bestselling author Lois Leveen. Multiple copies of the book are available at the library's front desk. The Book Club, which has been in existence for 15 years and has discussed over 100 books, is open to everyone. Their eclectic range includes fiction, nonfiction, popular authors and hidden gems.

Please call (908) 276-2451 for more information, or contact Library Director Michael Maziekien at maz@lmxac.org.

Funding for "The Bard on the Boulevard" has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

BARD ON THE BOULEVARD RETURNS TO THE KENILWORTH LIBRARY ON JUNE 15 WITH THE TAMING OF THE SHREW

Kenilworth's beloved annual Shakespeare series Bard on the Boulevard returns to the library on Thursday, June 15, 2017 with a one-night-only performance of The Taming of the Shrew. The Hudson Shakespeare Company will join us this summer for two performances, each held at the Kenilworth Public Library at 548 Boulevard, Kenilworth, NJ 07033. As in previous years, this program has been made possible with the support of the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

This summer's performances are:

- The Taming of the Shrew
Thursday, June 15 at 7:00pm
- Romeo and Juliet
Tuesday, July 11 at 7:00pm

Described on the Company's website as "a culture shock of epic proportions," The Taming of the Shrew tells the story of the lovelorn Petruchio (Michael Gardiner) and Katharina (London Griffith), the woman who wants nothing to do with him. Featuring a matriarchal society, devious dealings, and design inspired by the films of Italian auteur Federico Fellini, Hudson Shakespeare Company's inspired performance is sure to be a highlight of the season. Company artistic director Jon Ciccarelli will direct.

The Hudson Shakespeare Company has been involved in productions both classic and modern since 1992. Recent Bard on the Boulevard plays have included a series of Shakespeare's Histories, as well as Macbeth, Two Gentlemen of Verona, and Pericles. Their skilled players and directors combine the comic and tragic to produce unforgettable performances.

Please call (908) 276-2451 for more information, or contact Library Director Michael Maziakien at maz@lmxac.org.

Funding for "The Bard on the Boulevard" has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.
