Superintendent of Schools, Margaret Dolan, Ed.D., and the Westfield Board of Education are the 2017 recipients of the Trustee's Award from the Westfield Historical Society. Presented at the annual dinner of the Historical Society on May 12, the award recognizes the "Board's notable contribution to the preservation of Westfield's heritage." For many years, the Board of Education's administration building at 302 Elm Street has provided space for the Westfield Historical Society's archives.

Upon receiving the award, Dr. Dolan remarked, "The Westfield Public Schools and the Historical Society have a lot in common. We both want to preserve and continue the tradition of excellence in this town."

"I can attest to the fact that as educators in Westfield, we have relied on the Westfield Historical Society to enhance our students' understanding of the town's earliest beginnings," explained Dr. Dolan.

"For decades, our teachers have brought students to the Historical Society offices as part of the social studies curriculum devoted to local and state history," she added.

Dr. Dolan also noted that with the proximity of the archives on the third floor of the Board of Education administration building for many years, students and staff have perused through the stored documents in preparation of school anniversaries, facility studies, and various presentations, including the video created in 2016 entitled "The History of Westfield Public Schools." (<https://vimeo.com/179058828>).

In addition to the presentation by the Westfield Historical Society whose dinner theme was "Education in the Community," Dr. Dolan and the Board of Education received a resolution from the State of New Jersey Senate and General Assembly commending the preservation of Westfield's heritage and for "demonstrating a remarkable measure of public spiritedness . . . and record of service, leadership and commitment."

Dr. Dolan pledged that the school district would continue to work hard to provide outstanding education in Westfield. "We strive to pave the way for our students to become responsible citizens in an ever-changing world, with an understanding and respect for the past," she stated.

In closing, she remarked, "Thank you again to the Westfield Historical Society for acknowledging the strong and valuable partnership that we share. I am certain it will continue to thrive for many years to come."

WESTFIELD STUDENTS PRACTICE LANGUAGE SKILLS DURING ITALY TRIP

To gain a deeper appreciation of the culture and language they have been studying in school, 13 students from Westfield High School traveled to Italy during Spring break with their teachers Maria Santilli and Lyn Aleksandrowicz. Pictured here in April near the Coliseum, the girls also visited the Vatican and the Sistine Chapel in Rome as well as historical town squares and monuments. After spending two days in Florence, they traveled to Venice via Verona where they visited the balcony of Romeo and Juliet. In Venice they saw a glassblowing demonstration and toured along the Grand Canal on a gondola. The towns of Assisi and Orvieto were also included in the culture packed itinerary.

LESSONS PLANTED TO REMEMBER ROOTS AND STAND TALL AND PROUD

In honor of Arbor Day a Tamaques Elementary school family donated 150 tree seedlings, purchased from the NJ Forestry Commission, for first graders to plant, nurture and observe for the next four years until they graduate. Led by Principal Duelks, the Tamaques first grade teachers and third grade teacher Frank Fuzy, along with all first grade classes, gathered on a sun-filled day to plant the 3-inch high Eastern White Pine seedlings, lining the width of the school's field. The experience acted as a launching point for many lessons, including those focused on the environment, math, science, literature and even self-esteem. As first grade teacher Mary Montes noted, "In the spirit of these seedlings, our students are learning lessons about remembering their roots and standing tall and proud."

UNDERSTANDING NEW JERSEY'S CHILD CUSTODY ARRANGEMENTS

By: James McGlew II, Esq.

In New Jersey, there are two basic concepts of child custody. The more familiar concept is "physical" custody which refers to where and with whom the child will live. When parents share "joint physical" custody, the child lives with each parent for a certain amount of time during the year. A parent with whom the child spends most of their time is designated as the Parent of Primary Residence ("PPR") or the primary caretaker. The parent with whom the child has time-sharing is designated as the Parent of Alternate Residence ("PAR") or secondary caretaker. Generally, unless there is a concern that the parent of alternate residence will harm the child, parenting time or visitation rights will not be withheld.

The less familiar but equally important concept is "legal" custody which refers to a parent's right to make decisions concerning their child, such as medical treatment, selection of healthcare providers, education, engaging in what might be considered hazardous activities and other significant decisions. In most cases, parents will have joint legal custody of a child and share the decision-making responsibilities. In some instances, however, the judge may award sole custody where only one parent has legal and physical custody. This is a relatively rare occurrence that is ordered only when the other parent is absent or legally unfit. A parent may be unfit if he or she has engaged in child abuse or neglect or is struggling with an addiction to alcohol or drugs. Absent such circumstances, a joint legal custodial relationship among parents is the preferred arrangement since it is likely to foster the best interests of the child.

A recent Court decision restated that "the prime criterion for establishing a joint legal custodial relationship between divorced or separated parents centers on the ability of those parents to agree, communicate, and cooperate in matters relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the child notwithstanding animosity or acrimony they may harbor towards each other. The ability of parents to put aside their personal differences and work together for the best interests of their child is the true measure of a healthy parent-child relationship."

Once the parties have agreed or a Court has ruled that they will have joint legal custody of their child, the issue becomes implementing and exercising such a joint custodial arrangement. Joint legal custody requires the parents to discuss and consult with each other regarding "major" decisions affecting the health, education and welfare of the child. Sometimes there is often a conflict as to what is a "major" decision versus a "day-to-day" decision. Such "day-to-day" decisions are generally determined by the primary custodian.

Major decisions can be as varied as the children they affect. The most common major decisions parents face are medical or health related issues of the child, choice or change of religious affiliation, choosing a summer camp, international travel, interstate travel for time-sharing when one parent has relocated, the appropriateness or cost of extracurricular activities, choice of private school and/or college, course of study or selection of major course of study at college, etc.

Unfortunately, the acrimony the parties displayed during the marriage does not always subside after the matter is resolved. The parents often continue the battle between themselves when discussing issues affecting their child. When discussion and compromise does not result in a resolution by the parties, our Courts are called upon to make decisions regarding these major issues regarding the child. This is seldom the best remedy.

If you find yourself involved in such matters Lindabury, McCormick, Estabrook and Cooper can assist. Our firm prides itself on treating each family matter individually and advocating on behalf of our clients and their children to achieve the most equitable result. Call James McGlew II at (908) 233-6800 or email to jmcglew@lindabury.com for a consultation. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant's initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

IMAGINE CELEBRATES THEIR VOLUNTEERS AND LOOKS TO THE FUTURE

Over 100 volunteers and their family and friends filled the new space at Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, on April 27th for the fifth annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. Dinner, music, coffee and awards were provided to show the volunteers how special and appreciated they are!

The evening was catered by Castle on a Cloud who donated all of the food, desserts and staff. Guests were also treated to live music by The Have Some Hotel band who donated their services, and delicious coffee from Rockin' Joes in Westfield, also donated. The event theme was candy, to exemplify how "sweet" the volunteers are, and they received awards such as the Starburst Award for painting all of the color on the walls of the new center and the Rock Candy Award for the pure energy they provide to the youngest of participants.

"Our volunteers are priceless," said Mandi Zucker, Imagine's Program Director. "As our programs continue to grow, we absolutely could not make it happen without the time and commitment from the volunteers. We use over 100 volunteers every two weeks to facilitate our support groups, work in the office, serve on committees, the Board of Trustees, and set up and clean up the space before and after the groups meet. We hope this event shows our volunteers, in some small way, how much we appreciate them and how grateful we are to be able to do this work along side them."

Imagine's next Volunteer Facilitator Training, which will prepare us to start up our fifth Night or Support serving 60 new children and adults, is

July 7-10th, from 9:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m. daily. One recently trained facilitator, Stephanie Naphtali of Wyckoff said, "The training restored my belief in the compassion of all. It was a transformative experience. I learned so much and my life has been enriched by the knowledge I learned."

Please contact Mandi Zucker at 908-264-3100 or mandi@imagineenj.org if you would like to learn more about the training and the commitment involved to be a facilitator or visit our website at www.imagineenj.org.

WESTFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY FIRST WEDNESDAY LUNCHEON - NORTHERN WOMEN IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE CIVIL WAR

As part of the The Westfield Historical Society's First Wednesday Luncheon series, Ms. Joanne Rajoppi, Union County Clerk, will be speaking on the subject of Northern Women in the Aftermath of the Civil War on June 7th, 2017 at 12 pm at Echo Lake Country Club. The book (of the same title, published by American History Press) is a sequel to New Brunswick and the Civil War: The Brunswick Boys and the Great Rebellion and follows the women of the Hamilton family - the wives and daughters of the Brunswick Boys - chronicling their challenges and struggles for survival.

Ms. Rajoppi has been the Union County Clerk since 1995. A lover of history, especially New Jersey history, she has been the chairperson for many historical programs over the years including the Union County Civil War Sesquicentennial Committee Exhibit and the Union County Centennial Courthouse Committee. She is also a recipient of the Westfield Historical Society Trustees Award. She serves as Vice President and Trustee of the Union County Historical Society.

Those wishing to attend the luncheon may make a reservation by calling Mary at 908-233-2930, by noon Monday, June 5th, 2017. The luncheon fee of $30 (WHS members) or $35 (non-members) includes a three-course meal, coffee/tea, and gratuity. The luncheon fee may be paid at the door. Westfield Historical Society memberships will also be available at the luncheon.

Echo Lake Country Club is at 515 Springfield Ave, Westfield, NJ. For Echo Lake Country Club dress code information, visit: www.echolakeecc.org.

PETER BRAUN WESTFIELD'S 2017 MEMORIAL DAY PARADE GRAND MARSHAL

The annual Westfield Memorial Day Parade was set to be held on Monday, May 29, 2017. It was canceled due to inclement weather. The Parade is sponsored by the American Legion Martin Wallberg Post #3 and the Town of Westfield. Peter Braun was chosen to serve as this year's Grand Marshal.

Duty, honor and country are not just words to a West Point graduate. They are a way of life!

Born in Philadelphia, Peter moved to Westfield with his family in 1948. He attended school here and graduated Westfield High School in 1961. His sport of choice during high school was football. Peter attended prep school at the Manlius School in upstate New York. He was accepted into the U.S. Military Academy at West Point where he graduated in 1966. At West Point he lettered in football. As a key member of the West Point football team he is most proud of Army's win against Navy in the 1964 Army Navy game. The Navy Team was led by its Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Roger Staubach. This stunning victory by Army made headlines across the country. Five of the Army starters played both offense and defense. A book published in 2014 written by Nicolaus Mills, "Every Army Man is with You" tells the story of this memorable victory, the men who made it happen and their path from the gridiron to the Vietnam War then home again.

Peter served at Fort Carson in Colorado, and then went to Quang Tri Province in Vietnam where he was an advisor to the South Vietnam Military. His final year in the service he became an assistant football coach at West Point.

After serving his country, he left the service in 1970 at the rank of Captain to start his civilian career.

Peter currently resides in Mountainside with his wife of twelve years, Lucille. Peter's brother, Michael, is an attorney in Chicago and his sister, Shelley, is a retired school teacher in Bridgewater, New Jersey. Peter has three children, Christina, Lindsey and Heather.

Peter began his career in institutional equities with Bear Stern where he focused on national money managers. He retired from there in 2010 as a managing director. Peter is currently associated with Financial Capital Management in business development.

To use Peter's words "I am deeply humbled to be selected as this year's Grand Marshal honoring the men and women veterans who made the supreme sacrifice for the freedoms we, Americans, hold so dearly."
