THE SKY'S THE LIMIT FOR LUCKY LIBRARY PATRONS

During the May 10th Fanwood Scotch Plains Rotary Club meeting two Orion Starblast 4.5 telescopes were donated to the Fanwood Memorial Library and the Scotch Plains Public Library for patrons to check out.

The Fanwood Scotch Plains Rotary Club recently donated two Orion Starblast 4.5 telescopes to Fanwood Memorial Library and the Scotch Plains Public Library which library patrons can check out with a library card. Rotarian Wayne Zuhl was inspired by an article he read in Sky & Telescope Magazine about an astronomy club in New Hampshire which successfully implemented a program to provide free telescopes to libraries. According to Zuhl, the program has been "well received by libraries and patrons alike," contributing more than 100 telescopes to libraries throughout the state.

The telescopes cost approximately $400 each, including modifications specially designed by Wayne Zuhl and Jim Nordhausen of Amateur Astronomers, Inc. (AAI) in Cranford, to make them user-friendly for beginners. Features include a star map, lens pen to clean the eyepiece, head light for hands-free illumination, and an instruction manual with step-by-step directions for using the telescope. Patrons will also find helpful information about the donor organization and AAI.

Fanwood and Scotch Plains Libraries will loan the telescopes to residents and "bring joy and the beauty of the night to everyone," said Zuhl. Each library will have its own telescope so that aspiring astronomers can view the moon, planets, and other celestial wonders at their leisure.

Eventually, the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Rotary Club hopes to collaborate with other Rotary Clubs to expand the telescope project to include additional libraries in New Jersey. In true democratic spirit, future stargazers will soon have the opportunity to borrow a telescope with as much ease as a library book.

844.WRFUNDS / 844.973.8637

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant's initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

SPF HIGH SCHOOL DECA RECEIVES AWARDS IN CALIFORNIA

Seventeen Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School DECA students traveled to Anaheim California to compete in the International Career Development Conference. Over 10,000 students from fourteen different countries competed in various business, leadership and entrepreneurship events. Students compete in categories that require business presentations as well as core competency tests. Four students from Scotch Plains Fanwood High School were recognized for outstanding achievement at the conference. Senior Claudia Gentile was recognized for having one of the top three test scores in Principles of Hospitality and Tourism. Senior Max Mazursky was recognized for having one of the top three test scores in Sports and Entertainment Marketing Team Decision Making. In addition the team of Mazursky and junior Niva Patel placed amongst the top twenty teams in the Sports and Entertainment Marketing Team Decision Making event based upon their case study presentation and test scores.

Senior Matthew Fox was awarded the prestigious Larry Lorenzi scholarship. The Scholarship was awarded based on Matt's DECA involvement, leadership ability, community service and academic performance.

The scholarship is named after former NJ state DECA advisor and National DECA board member, Larry "Loris" Lorenzi who helped to expand NJ DECA.

The entire Scotch Plains-Fanwood chapter was recognized at the national conference for achieving Thrive level status. Thrive level chapters complete three projects throughout the school year in Entrepreneurship, Community Service and Promotion. Only twenty-two schools from New Jersey were recognized as Thrive level chapters.

DECA is the co-curricular Marketing and Business club of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs for careers in marketing, finance, hospitality and management. Mrs. Marjorie FitzGibbon is the club's advisor.

FANWOOD SHADE TREE COMMISSION ARBOR DAY OBSERVANCE

An Arbor Day observance was held on April 28th at Fanwood's Carriage House Park. The observance is a program of the Fanwood Shade Tree Commission, which recruits the Park Middle School Environmental Club to present a short program.

This year is the 24th consecutive year

Fanwood has been named a Tree City USA, a designation that sets Fanwood apart as a town that values trees and has an active program for tree sustainability. Children from Park Middle did a presentation on the Emerald Ash Borer, a beetle that is killing ash trees through this part of the country.

Cub Scouts from Pack 98 at Coles Elementary School provided a color guard. And Fanwood Councilwoman Kathy Mitchell read a proclamation from the Mayor and Council. Councilmen Russ Huegel and Tom Kranz were also present. Shade Tree Commission Chairman Steve Falco was master of ceremonies.

WWW II VETS SELECTED TO BE CO-GRAND MARSHALS OF MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Longtime Fanwood residents Joe Nagy and Ed Miller were honored during a memorial service held on Monday, May 29. They had been selected to serve as co-grand marshals of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Memorial Day Parade which was canceled due to rain. Also honored was Alan Ebersole, who had accepted the honor to be a co-grand marshal this year but died in late April at age 94. The annual parade commemorates the sacrifices of fallen service men and women.

Joe Nagy

Joe Nagy spent two years in military training before the age of 20 to aid in America's efforts to win World War II.

The 94-year-old Nagy originally worked in nearby Perth Amboy in the clay industry before being drafted into the Army in 1943 and training in Fort Dix. From there, he spent 90 days in Texas working in the Tank Destroyer Battalion and later served in a unit in South Carolina. His South Carolina unit was dismantled in 1944, and then went to train in Mississippi to become an infantry replacement.

He was part of the occupying force in Japan. In September 1945 -- just one month after the atomic bomb was dropped -- Nagy's unit conducted operations to bring peace to Japan.

"Japan was badly devastated. Tokyo was almost nothing," continued Nagy. "(In Hiroshima) One bomb and 120,000 people disappeared. You really recognized the futility of war in that moment."

Nagy remained in the reserves for 23 years when he returned home and eventually retired as a major.

Ed Miller

Ed Miller, originally a native of Kearny, New Jersey, had just finished high school when he was drafted into the Army Air Corps in 1943. Part of the sixth aircraft repair unit in San Antonio, following basic training and 17 weeks of machinist school, Miller worked alongside civilians in the biggest repair station of the army to ready equipment for the war.

"Right out of school, the Army needed machinists. In high school, I had worked for a fellow who made model airplane engines, so I luckily had a little experience," explained Miller.

Deployed to the Philippines in 1944, Miller was part of the 5th fighter squadron in support of the Chinese. Miller was assigned to the floating Air Depot of the Pacific to combat Japanese aggression in the South China Sea.

"We were there to support the invasion of Japan. That was our one and only focus," Miller said.

Upon his return home following victory, Miller moved to Fanwood and worked manufacturing steel in nearby Garwood. He successfully earned his degree in math and science from Jersey City State College.

(above l-r) The late Alan Ebersole, Joe Nagy and Ed Miller were selected in April to serve as the co-grand marshals of the 2017 Scotch Plains-Fanwood Memorial Day Parade.
