DAPHNE LEE WINS MISS BLACK USA TITLE

On Sunday, August 20, 2017, professional ballerina, dancer and Rahway's Own Daphne Lee won the title of Miss Black USA. She represented her home state of New Jersey as Miss Black New Jersey USA. The pageant, a week-long event started on the 16th of August and running through finals night on Sunday August 20th, was live streamed as contestants vied for the title and a substantial cash prize in the form of a scholarship. Lee won scholarships that would assist in meeting costs for her graduate school of Hollins University and other pageant prizes. Lee is the first winner from the state of New Jersey to be crowned Miss Black USA in its 30-year history. Criteria for the pageant included onstage question and answer, fitness, talent, and evening wear. Lee even received the Trailblazer award for promoting diversity through the arts.

Biography of Daphne Lee (Miss Black USA 2017)

Daphne Lee (Rahway, NJ) began her dance training at the Rahway Dance Theatre under the direction of Ms. Jay Skeete-Lee. She graduated with honors from the Ailey/Fordham BFA program in dance and is a recipient of the Denise Jefferson Scholarship award. She is currently receiving her MFA in Dance at Hollins University. Ms. Lee received scholarships to Jacob's Pillow, Boston Ballet, and Dance Theatre of Harlem and is a regional gold medal recipient in dance for the NAACP ACT-SO competition. Ms. Lee was also featured in the opening video for the Mrs. Carter World Tour for Beyonce and was featured in a short film, "Life of An Actress" directed by Paul Chau. Daphne performed works by Robert Battle, Benoit Swan- Pouffer and Amy Seiwart among others and was an assistant choreographer to the Milwaukee production of the musical The Color Purple. She even judged the NAACP ACT-SO competition. She was a former member of Ailey II, Zest Collective, and the Oakland Ballet Company, and a back-up dancer for UK artist Sydney Jo Jackson. This is her third season with Memphis based company Collage Dance Collective and she is the current reigning Miss Black USA. During her reign, Lee has assisted in raising over $5,000 in scholarship money to help young women of color study dance through the Brown Girls Do Ballet organization. Her platform, Multiple Myeloma, gave Lee the opportunity to attend the Laughs for Life Event in New York City, which raised over $150,000 for medical research. (www.daphnemlee.com) She will now take on the Heart Truth campaign promoting a healthy lifestyle to stop heart disease, and is a Goodwill Ambassador to the Republic of Sierra Leone.

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED TO LOCAL STUDENTS

The Bayway Complex Community Advisory Panel (CAP) awarded scholarships to seven local students at a dinner hosted at the Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery. The students will receive $1,000 each for their studies in Process Technology or Engineering at a college or university this fall.

The scholarship winners are: Danny Goncalves - Linden High School; Jordan West - Rahway High School; Luzangela Martinez - Rahway High School; Javier U. Valdivieso Palacio - John E. Dwyer Technology Academy, Elizabeth; Daniela Perez - Thomas A. Edison Career and Technical Academy, Elizabeth; David

Ip - Staten Island Technical High School; Emily Chapman - St. Joseph Hill Academy, Staten Island.

Winners were selected based on their grades, leadership, school extra-curricular activities, community activities, and financial need. The scholarship awards were sponsored by the CAP member companies: Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery, Infineum USA L.P., Cogen Technologies Linden Venture, Eastman Chemical Company, Veolia North America, PSEG Linden Generating Station, and Linden VFT.

The Bayway CAP is a committee of community representatives from Linden, Rahway, Elizabeth, and Staten Island including neighbors, educators, retirees, public officials, emergency responders, and environmentalists who attend quarterly meetings that serve as a forum for dialogue between the community and company representatives.

TREES & SHRUBS AUTUMN PLANTING

Fall officially starts on September 21, but the autumn planting season in our area begins in early September as temperatures drop and conditions become favorable for planting.

Trees planted in the autumn have a major obstacle they must overcome. In a short period of time the ground will freeze and root development will come to a halt until next spring.

To help roots prepare for winter, trees and shrubs should be planted before October 1st, which is six to eight weeks before the ground freeze occurs in our areas. This gives the root systems time to adjust before the ground is frozen in mid-November.

When you plant take the time and give your trees every advantage you can. Research your tree to see if it has 'special' requirements such as soil and location.

Always make sure you break open the root ball. This will enable the roots to spread out in search of water and nutrients.

Trees planted in autumn need regular watering for the first few weeks. Newly planted shrubs struggle to get water from the ground to the tips. Watering will help your plants achieve this major function.

Mulching in autumn is also essential. While mulch is important in spring and summer to suppress weeds and control moisture, mulching in the winter keeps the ground frozen. When the ground thaws during winter warm spells, it can spark new growth which is then subject to damage when the ground refreezes. To avoid this problem plants are best mulched when the ground is first frozen in early winter.*

Conifers (evergreens) can be damaged by winter winds, snow and sun. Good planting practices will help these landscape plants survive the brutal months ahead.

You can help protect young evergreens by spraying them with an 'anti-transpirant' for extra protection from moisture loss and winter kill.

*Winter mulching is a good practice for spring flowering bulbs to stop them from breaking the ground early.

Happy Autumn,

James

A MESSAGE FOR COMMERCIAL
REAL ESTATE BROKERS, LANDLORDS, FRANCHISORS AND
PROFESSIONALS WHOSE CLIENTS
NEED A CERTAINTY OF FUNDING.

White Rose Funding is a direct and indirect lender that can provide funding for:

- Tenants in need of capital for a build-out, equipment or machinery;
- Franchisee and other Start-Ups in need of acquisition funding or working capital; and
- An established business that has sudden and temporary cash needs.

We provide flexible financing on fair terms that rewards the forwarder by offering:

- Financial remuneration to the forwarder; and
- A tailored solution for your client.

For example, a Landlord or Commercial Real Estate Broker is showing property to a prospective tenant, the location is ideal, but the build-out cost is likely beyond the tenant's initial budget. The Landlord seeks personal guarantees sensing there could be financial issues down the road. White Rose Funding could provide a term loan for the build-out, fixtures and equipment, and a working capital loan that will ring-fence the rent guarantee.

There is no cost to your client unless we provide the financing.

If the client does not enjoy prime credit status, we have relationships with preferred SBA Lenders that can make the process fast and efficient.

When you need access to an alternate lending source for your business needs, please consider White Rose Funding.

UNKNOWN WOMAN MURDER OF 1887 STILL OUTSTANDING CRIME IN CITY

Submitted by Al Shipley, City Historian and Rahway Library Research Consultant

It's hard to imagine that news of a strange crime which took place in Rahway 130 years ago could captivate attention and excite interest all across the United States and even reach countries on the other side of the Atlantic. But the brutal murder of a young woman and the ensuing layers of mystery that unfolded during the investigation, created one of the most intriguing murder mysteries of the nineteenth century.

On the morning of March 26, 1887, Alfred, Thomas, and Irving Worth set out along Jefferson Avenue for their two mile walk to work. As they reached Central Avenue, they spied something on the ground that appeared to be a discarded coat. The brothers approached the object for a closer examination and were horrified to discover a bloody corpse of a young woman.

Rahway Police Chief William Tooker was immediately summoned, but by the time he arrived at the scene, approximately 100 curious neighbors had beat him to the site. Many were hovering around the body and others were kicking through the scrub grass searching for clues. Tooker restored order as best he could and finally had the opportunity to examine the awful scene.

The ground around the body showed every sign of a terrific struggle. The woman had been brutally murdered. Her throat had been slashed from ear to ear and her face was discolored with bruises. She was blue eyed, brown haired, and appeared to be in her early to mid-twenties. She was dressed in a dark green dress, wore tan kid gloves and was clad in a pair of shoes which looked foreign made. Near her body lay a fur cape, a black straw hat, and a parasol. A small willow basket and nine eggs, all but three of which were broken, were strewn among the other effects.

While Tooker was making his survey, two men came up to him with objects they had uncovered. One handed him a small black bag which he said he found in the river by the Jefferson Avenue Bridge. The other man gave the chief an item of even greater interest. It was a bloody knife. These items; the clothes, the eggs and basket, the black bag and the bloody knife would make up the primary bits of evidence as the search would begin for the killer.

There was, however, an unusual and unsettling development. Of the several hundred who viewed the corpse during the course of the morning, no one recognized the woman. It was this unusual twist that would take the crime out of the realm of a local story and make it one that would pique the interest of a nation-wide audience.

By noon on the morning of the murder, beat reporters from the Elizabeth, Newark, and New York City papers had arrived and by the next day reporters from as far off as Boston, Philadelphia, and Washington D.C. were in town to try to break the story. Professional and amateur detectives hurried to the community. Rewards were offered by the state of New Jersey, the local city council, wealthy citizens, and crime magazines. Photos of the woman would soon be circulated throughout the major cities on the east coast and as far west as San Francisco. Readers in Salt Lake City, Fort Worth, Chicago, and Atlanta followed the story in their local dailies.

Public viewings were held in Ryno's Funeral Home on the two Sundays after the body was found with the hope someone would identify the victim. Although over 7000 visitors came to Rahway on each of those Sundays and stood on long lines to get a glimpse of the woman, no one could offer a conclusive identification.

The Rahway religious community, upset by the lack of dignity and decorum during the public viewings, urged the authorities to give the woman a proper funeral service and burial. The powers-to-be did allow a funeral service to take place on April 11, but would not give permission to bury the body. There was still a chance someone would recognize the victim.

Early on, a jury had been selected with the assumption that witnesses would be forthcoming.

On Monday, April 18, the first of a series of six sessions began. Twenty-five citizens were called to testify, but nothing ever came out of the inquest. As many as fifteen men were pursued as suspected killers. The ones apprehended were questioned and a few spent a night or two in jail. But in the end, no one was ever convicted.

On Tuesday, May 3rd, thirty-eight days after the body was found, the unknown woman was finally buried in a rear section of the Rahway Cemetery. Six New York reporters served as pall bearers. Of the three dozen people who attended the burial, two women swore they knew the name of the victim. The only problem—each argued it was a different person.

In the months that followed more leads would come forward. One story surfaced which named the owner the basket, and in June, a man in Salem, Illinois confessed to the crime. Both stories led to dead ends. Ownership of the basket was never proven, and when the confession of the Illinois man was checked out, it was surmised he was a “crank” looking for free passage back to the east coast. In the next fifteen years, identifications continued to come forth, but with the body interred and the passage of time, it was becoming next to impossible to give the woman a rightful name.

Who was the woman? Who killed her? What was the motive? No one to this day has been able to solve the uncanny mystery.

The Northfield Bank Foundation presented a generous donation to The Gateway Family YMCA in support of the Power Scholars Academy. The $15,000 donation was presented by Diane Senerchia, Executive Director, Northfield Bank Foundation to Krystal R. Canady, CEO, The Gateway Family YMCA. The donation provided supports the Power Scholars Academy summer learning program.

“As a charity, we are dedicated to nurturing the potential of every child and teen, improving the nation’s health and well-being, and giving back and providing support to our neighbors,” stated Krystal R. Canady, CEO. “The Northfield Bank Foundation has been a great supporter of our YMCA and the children we serve in the local community.”

The Gateway Family YMCA is the only YMCA in New Jersey chosen to host the Power Scholars Academy. Power Scholars Academy is a partnership between the Y and the national nonprofit BELL (Building Educated Leaders for Life), a five-week summer program designed to not only tackle summer learning loss in math and reading, but to also foster physical and social-emotional growth.

The Power Scholars Academy offers summer learning for youth in grades K-8 with the goal of increasing students’ academic success and boost self-confidence, while also engaging families in the education process. The program is designed to address summer learning loss for children in low-income households living in under-resourced areas and thereby enhance overall youth development, academic performance and graduation rates in the community.

The Gateway Family YMCA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, health and community service organization of caring staff and volunteers dedicated to strengthening the foundations of community and stands For Youth Development, For Healthy Living and For Social Responsibility. The Gateway Family YMCA impacts the community by providing quality services to people of all ages, races, faith or incomes.

To learn more about the Y’s cause or Annual Support Campaign, visit www.tgfyymca.org or contact The Gateway Family YMCA-Association Office at 908-249-4800.

RAHWAY DANCE THEATRE

Rahway Dance Theatre's Competition Troupe (RDT) is back like it never left! These dancers trained all year, 5-10 hours weekly in classical ballet, tap, and jazz to prepare.

RDT took a trip to the National Dance Showcase in Atlantic City in July for a 4 day circuit of dance! Their "Mini" and "Petite" groups grabbed the hearts of the crowd and they were coined the National Title winners. Like true professionals, these dancers set a goal and didn't quit until the job was done. Bravo!

RDT is looking forward to growth & new opportunities for their 2017-18 Season. The direction and focus of their instructors, the commitment of their dance families, and the support of the Rahway community is what keeps them going and will keep them winning!

Auditions for RDT's Competition Troupe will be open to ages 7-18 with at least 2 years of ballet training. All dancers must be enrolled in 5+ hours of technique classes weekly at Rahway Dance Theatre to remain on the team. Classes are also available for non-competitive groups (ages 3-18) and adults. Call or Visit for details!

AUDITIONS FOR A CHRISTMAS CAROL

CDC Theatre in Cranford will be having auditions for its December production of a musical version of A Christmas Carol. This high energy version of the classic, first performed at Madison Square Garden, is full of heart and optimism. The score was composed by Alan Menken (The Little Mermaid, Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin) with lyrics by Lynn Ahrens (Ragtime, Once on this Island, Seussical).

Auditions will be held at the CDC Theater, located at 78 Winans Avenue in Cranford, on Tuesday, September 19th at 7pm and Saturday, September 23rd from 11am-2pm. Performance dates are December 8, 9, 10, 14, 15, and 16. Actors are asked to please prepare 32 bars of a musical theatre song in the style of the show and provide clearly printed and legible sheet music in a binder (an accompanist will be provided). Please be prepared to dance at all auditions. Female dancers, please bring tap shoes as well as regular dance footwear.

THE RUNWAY IN RAHWAY - SEPT. 10, 2017

A platform for models of all shapes, sizes and ages, comes to the Union County Performing Arts Center Main Stage Café on Sunday, September 10, 2017. The Runway In Rahway is a premier boutique style fashion show featuring local boutiques and designers. Built on a foundation of diversity; the event will showcase models who are also moms.

Created and produced by Mahogany Reynolds-Clarke, the show made its debut in the fall of 2016 at the UCPAC Main Stage Café. Reynolds-Clarke is the founder and executive director of Just Be You Performing Arts, the production company that produces and runs the show. Initially, Reynolds-Clarke's vision was to create a fun fashion show for local boutiques and designers. This year, that vision has grown to include models age 5 to over 40; of diverse backgrounds.

Astrid Zuniga, a mother from Rahway, New Jersey, makes her debut in The Runway In Rahway. She joins several other mothers who were cast to model in the show. Reynolds-Clarke proudly calls Zuniga, a new member of The Runway In Rahway Fab' Model Mom's division.

Thanks to the collaboration between Just Be You Performing Arts and Beauty in Spirit, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to empowering women and children, some of the models cast in the show are devoted foster mothers.

Tickets for "The Runway In Rahway" can be purchased at www.ucpac.org/events. To see the complete line-up of the designers and boutiques in the show; as well as, information on how to be a vendor, visit their Facebook page, www.facebook.com/justbeyouperformingarts. Tickets can be purchased in advance online; or cash only at the door, for only $10. The event is infused with live entertainment performed by the emerging artists of Just Be You Performing Arts..

FAMILY FUN & FITNESS DAY AT YMCA

On September 23rd, The Gateway Family YMCA branch in Rahway will celebrate Family Fun & Fitness Day. Y Branches will be hosting events that are open to the community including family group exercise programs, healthy snacks, nutrition and fitness games, community vendors and games. The day is designed with activities to engage both the youth and the parent, and is open to all ages.

At The Gateway Family YMCA, cultivating healthy families is part of every program and event. "Seeing families come together in a healthy, fun way gives meaning to what we do here at the Y," stated Krystal R. Canady, CEO.

The Gateway Family YMCA offers a variety of programs and events to support healthy family living in the communities surrounding Elizabeth, Union and Rahway including Early Learning Readiness (ELR) a community program for preschoolers and their caregiver focused on school-readiness.

For more information about programs and services provided by The Gateway Family YMCA, please visit www.tgfymca.org or contact the Elizabeth Branch at 908-355-9622, Five Points Branch 908-688-9622, Rahway Branch 732-388-0057 or the Wellness Center Branch 908-349-9622.

LAW EXPLORER POST 629 ACCEPTING NEW MEMBERS

It is that time again when students will be returning to school and choosing their after school activities. Law Explorer Post 629, now on its seventh year, is gearing up for another year of exploring the field of law and government through trips, guest speakers, discussions and hands-on activities. Students who are interested in this career path or simply want to learn more about law and government are welcomed to sit in on one of the meetings and discover what the program is all about.

Law Explorer Post 629 is an after school enrichment program where youth have the advantage of seeing and experiencing law and government in a captivating, age appropriate way. The program is open to Union County youth, ages 14 - 20. The youth Explorers meet in the Law Offices of Lucia E. Perpina, Esq., 629 North Wood Avenue, Suite 5, Linden, NJ on Friday nights, from 6:00pm – 7:30pm. In addition to its educational goals, Post 629 also offers fun outings during the year which may involve hiking, bowling, camping or other non-law related activities to foster teamwork and cohesion within the group. The youth are also encouraged to select and organize a year-long community project (relating to law and/or government) in which all the members will take an active role. Post 629 is not a political group, does not have any political affiliations, and all members must be open minded and accepting of all people.

Post 629's adult volunteers welcome the opportunity to speak with parents and youth about the program prior to making any commitments regarding membership in the program. If you are interested in the program, you may call (908)718-5877 or simply stop by on a Friday evening. Weekly meetings have already begun and the program accepts members on rolling basis.

RAHWAY POLICE DEPARTMENT WARNS RESIDENTS ABOUT HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS AS WE ENTER HURRICANE SEASON

HOW TO PREPARE BEFORE A HURRICANE AND PROTECT YOUR FAMILY:

Talk with your family about what to do if a hurricane strikes. Discussing hurricanes ahead of time helps reduce fear, particularly for younger children.

Ensure that every member of your family carries a Safe and Well wallet card which can be found on the Red Cross website.

Make sure you have access to NOAA radio broadcasts which can be found online at NOAA radio station. Search for a NOAA radio app in the Apple Store.

Purchase a battery-powered or hand-crank

NOAA radio online in the Red Cross Store.

Keep insurance policies, documents, and other valuables in a safe-deposit box. You may need quick, easy access to these documents. Keep them in a safe place less likely to be damaged if a hurricane causes flooding. Take pictures on a phone and keep copies of important documents and files on a flash drive that you can carry with you on your house or car keys.

PROTECTING YOUR HOME:

Protect windows with permanent storm shutters or invest in one-half inch marine plywood that is pre-cut to fit your doors and windows.

Identify a place to store lawn furniture, toys, gardening tools and trash cans (away from stairs and exits) to prevent them from being moved by high winds and possibly hurting someone.

Clear loose and clogged rain gutters and downspouts to prevent flooding and unnecessary pressure on the awnings.

Remember that standard homeowners insurance doesn't cover flooding but flood insurance does. Get information at www.FloodSmart.gov.

For more information of Hurricane preparedness- see www.redcross.org.
