GIRL SCOUTS CREATE “LEARNING GARDEN” FOR SCHOOL

Cadette Girl Scouts Lauren England, Madison Pardo and Gabriella Scipioni, lead by Girl Scout Leader Alicia Scipioni, wanted to take action to help end hunger and to help educate children about making healthy eating choices. They ultimately decided to create a sustainable garden for the Valley Road Elementary School which would also help them earn their Silver Award. The Silver Award is the second highest award of the Girl Scouts of the USA, and the highest award that a Girl Scout Cadette can earn. Only Cadette Scouts ages 11–14 or in grades 6-8 can earn the Silver Award. The girl scouts wanted to give back to their community and create a garden for their former elementary school. The Scouts named the garden “The VRS Learning Garden.” It is their goal for the garden to become a STEM project for students and a source of food that can be donated to local food pantries.

To accomplish their project, the Girl Scouts reached out to Mrs. Pinto (formerly Miss Fisher), a second grade teacher who was also excited about the idea and became their advisor during the planning and creating of the project. Mrs. Pinto will use the garden with her second graders as a cross-curriculum project that will encourage not only good nutrition, but also give them a hands on approach to learning. The students can predict, observe and collect data as they work with the garden. They can also donate the foods they grow to local food pantries, as a way of paying it forward.

The garden was created in a large 25 foot U-shape within the school’s courtyard so students can easily assemble around it to harvest and plant crops. At completion of their project, the Cadettes were excited to present Mrs. Pinto with picture books she can use in her classroom to further enhance her students’ learning. Many people lent a hand in helping the girls receive their award. Mr. Fisher, who is a farmer, was very resourceful. He helped the Cadettes enrich the soil, decide which seeds to plant first and helped set-up a self-watering system.

The Girl Scout Cadettes would like to thank parent volunteers Valentino Scipioni and Mark England for teaching the girls carpentry skills so they could build the garden from scratch using railroad ties and make signs. They would also like to thank principal, Joseph Beltramba and the Clark Board of Education for all of their support throughout the project. Lastly, the girls would like to thank Bartell Farm and Garden Supply of Clark and Home Depot of Colonia for all of their donations.

MRS. CONNER'S FRESH BATCH OF SMART COOKIES

Mrs. Nina Conner's fourth grade students at Frank K. Hehnly Elementary School in Clark began the school year with creating new goals. After brainstorming their full year growth objectives, students were prompted to write how they would achieve this goal at home and at school. Students identified, "becoming a better reader," "a master of multiplication," and "winning the MVP Physical Education Award" among their many goals.

The students' goals are displayed on a bulletin board outside their classroom. Mrs. Conner will refer to the bulletin board in the upcoming months and remind her students, "Perseverance and hard work will be required if they want to achieve their goals."

Much harder work than baking a perfect sheet of cookies!"

(above) Mrs. Conner and her fourth grade language arts students posing in front of their "Fresh New Batch of Cookies" themed bulletin board.

CLARK ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS PROMOTING A HEALTHIER GENERATION

The Clark Public School District has made strides this year in supporting healthy eating habits and continues to acknowledge the growing number of students with serious food allergies in the community. This past school year, both Frank K. Hehnly and Valley Road Schools worked together towards a healthier, safer school environment.

Students' birthdays are now recognized with non-food celebrations and may include parents coming into classrooms to read a story or participate in an activity. In addition, the PTAs continue to sponsor three celebrations a year where snacks are selected from a list of foods which not only follow the State's nutritional guidelines for sugar content and other unhealthy ingredients but are also free of the top allergens affecting school-aged children. This list was most recently updated after a meeting in May with parents, teachers, administrators, and school nurses and is monitored regularly.

To further support these efforts, these schools have joined the Alliance for a Healthier Generation and have action plans in place to make their school communities even healthier. The goal is for them to become one of the 35,000 schools recognized nationwide as a Gold, Silver, or Bronze National Healthy Schools Recipient.

The Clark Schools look forward to a healthy, productive year ahead and will continue to work towards their goal of receiving a National Healthy School Award.

KUMPF MIDDLE SCHOOL EARNS SCHOOLS TO WATCH REDESIGNATION

On Wednesday, September 20th, Carl H. Kumpf Middle School in Clark, NJ, was redesignated as a School to Watch during a banner ceremony held at the school. The event, a celebration of achievement for the entire school community, was attended by students, parents, faculty, administration, and board members. Ms. Gail Hilliard-Nelson, Schools to Watch State Director, presented the school with a banner representing the school's redesignation.

Assistant Principal Amanda Davidson stated, "We are so excited to receive our Schools to Watch Redesignation Banner. I'd like to thank the teachers, students, and parents who worked tirelessly on the application process and site visitation. It was wonderful to see the entire building come together for this."

Kumpf Middle School was first designated a School to Watch in 2014. Schools to Watch is an initiative launched by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform. Through the Schools to Watch initiative, the National Forum identifies schools across the United States that are well on their way to meeting the Forum's criteria for high performance. According to the Forum, high-performing middle-grade schools are:

Academically Excellent - These schools challenge all students to use their minds well.

Developmentally Responsive - These schools are sensitive to the unique developmental challenges of early adolescence.

Socially Equitable - These schools are democratic and fair, providing every student with high-quality teachers, resources, and supports.

The Forum believes: To achieve this level of performance, high-performing schools establish norms, structures, and organizational arrangements to support and sustain their trajectory toward excellence. They have a sense of purpose that drives every facet of practice and decision-making.

Principal Rick Delmonaco stated, "It is an honor to be recognized as a School to Watch. It is a testament to the dedication of the teaching staff and all they do to make Kumpf School a great place for students to learn."

ALJ ATHLETIC BOOSTER CLUB KICK OFF MEETING

On Wednesday, September 6, 2017, the Arthur L. Johnson High School Crusader Athletic Booster Club held their first meeting of the year. In attendance at the packed house were coaches, players, and parents who had the opportunity to meet the coaches and listen to them speak on behalf of their teams in addition to listening to a guest speaker who talked about maximizing your high school athletic experience.

The program continued with Chris B. Williams, a guest speaker that has inspired audiences across the country through keynote addresses, corporate training sessions, student leadership conferences, awards ceremonies and other events with his powerful, insightful and relatable messages of leadership development and personal growth.

As a positive energy coach, motivational speaker, entrepreneur and mentor, Chris B. Williams captivates with an optimistic outlook on life. Whether working with teenagers, college students, athletes, organizations or anyone seeking inspiration, he engages and elevates everyone he encounters.

For Chris, positivity starts at home. Born and raised in Philadelphia, he was an All-City and All-State basketball player before receiving a full scholarship to Manhattan College where he led the team to the NCAA tournament, winning the MAAC Championships in 1993.

Charismatic, charming, energetic and always smiling, Chris is an in-demand speaker, known for tackling a wide range of topics from Living with Positivity to Leadership, Relationships, Dreaming Big, Ethics and Professionalism.

Among the many organizations that have already benefited from his words of encouragement are the Disney Dreamers Academy with Steve Harvey, Rutgers University, the New Jersey Institute of Technology, the City University of New York, Amida Care, the Miami Heat, the New York City Department of Education and various high schools, colleges and churches throughout the country. Over the years, he has worked with Cuttino Mobley, Steve Lappas and Fran Fraschilla and has been featured on ESPN.

Gus Kalikas, Athletic Director at ALJ, had this to say about the event. "The Booster Club was thrilled to be able to bring Chris B. Williams into our school district to talk to our student athletes, parents, and coaches. The messages of the evening resonated with our audience in all aspects of one's life. I am sure that everyone in attendance will implement some of these valuable ideas and incorporate them into their everyday lives."

The Booster Club and Arthur L. Johnson High School would like to thank Chris B. Williams for an educational and tremendous evening for all who attended.

From the Superintendent of Schools, Edward Grande

Dear Members of the Clark Community,

The most remarkable aspect of being an educator is that each September we get to start anew, building on the strengths of the past but making the necessary adjustments to become even stronger as we move ahead. For that reason, the opening of our new school year has been accompanied by the traditional excitement for me. I would be remiss if I did not thank our twelve-month and ten-month/two-week administrators and support staff for all of their diligent work this summer. Their efforts are a central reason why we were ready for an outstanding beginning. Our maintenance team led by Mr. John Pingor is deserving of a special acknowledgement for their preparation of our buildings and grounds. They engage in projects throughout the year so that our students and staff are provided with enhanced facilities. The importance of this physical upkeep of our schools should never be devalued.

Schools reopened for students on Thursday, September 7. This first day of school is always a most special one and one that we, as a school district, are excited for. This year was no exception. Getting to see a large number of our parents and guardians at our various Back-to-School Nights will be equally rewarding. ALJ's is scheduled for Monday, September 25, VRS's for Tuesday, September 26, FKH's for Wednesday, September 27, CHK's for Thursday, September 28, and CPA's for Wednesday, October 4. Please know that we, as an administrative team, have an open door policy and are here to address any concerns that you may have. It is our sincere hope to continue to "inspire greatness" through the work that we do.

Respectfully yours, Edward Grande

JAZZY 1920S WHODUNNIT THE WILD PARTY OPENS 99TH SEASON AT CDC

In Andrew Lippa's The Wild Party, decadence and excess roar across the stage in this steamy prohibition tale based on Joseph Moncure March's 1928 narrative poem of the same name. This darkly brilliant show, featuring one of the most exciting, pulse-racing scores ever written, will open the 2017-2018 season at CDC Theatre in Cranford, NJ. This marks the 99th season at New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre.

"The musical is like a Jazz Age take on Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream; a potent cocktail of an all-night party in late 1920s Manhattan," says director Sean Lough. Adapted from a book-length poem written in and about the Roaring Twenties, The Wild Party tells the story of one wild evening in the Manhattan apartment shared by Queenie and Burrs, a vaudeville dancer and a vaudeville clown. In a relationship marked by vicious behavior and recklessness, mirroring the times in which they live, they decide to throw a party to end all parties. As the guests arrive, we meet an assortment of people living on the edge. Queenie and Burrs set out to make each other jealous, but Queenie begins to fall in love with her conquest named Mr. Black. After a long night of decadence, Burrs' jealousy erupts and he comes to a violent end at Mr. Black's hand. In the stark light of a new day, Queenie moves out into a brighter world, although not necessarily a brighter future, leaving the passed-out revelers in her wake. An award-winning score by Andrew Lippa provides excitement and drive for this tale of passions out of control. Capturing the sound of a bygone era with a nod to the present one, he makes us realize that moral decadence is not only limited to our past.

The production will run from October 13 through October 28 at the theatre's 78 Winans Ave home. Additional information about the show and how to get tickets can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org.
