The Fanwood Fire Department dedicated its new Engine 7, a 2017 KME 1500 gallon-per-minute pumper on September 9th. It replaces a 1983 Mack pumper, the old Engine 7.

Fire Chief John Piccola hosted the event at fire headquarters which included remarks by Mayor Colleen Mahr and a blessing by Rev. David Jahnke of Fanwood Presbyterian Church. In lieu of a traditional wetdown, there was a kind of mini-wetdown performed by Scotch Plains Fire Chief John Lestarchick. The pumper was purchased by the Borough of Fanwood at a cost of approximately $460,000.

Council members Tom Kranz, Russ Huegel and Kathy Mitchell were also on hand, along with officers from the Scotch Plains and Plainfield Fire Departments.

FANWOOD RESCUE SQUAD RECEIVES DONATION

Chelsea Senior Living's annual golf outing raised over $20,000 for volunteer first responders in the 13 New Jersey communities which are home to Chelsea assisted living residences. The golf outing, held Wednesday, September 20, attracted 100 golfers from various companies and Chelsea sponsors who played 18 holes at Fiddler's Elbow Golf Club in Bedminster, NJ, then enjoyed lunch and prizes.

"We are so grateful for the volunteers who serve our communities," said Roger Bernier, President and Chief Operating Officer of Chelsea Senior Living, said at the event. "Their timely responses when our residents become sick or need to go to a hospital are reassuring to all of us. Thank you!"

Each volunteer squad will receive $1,500 from the event.

SEPTEMBER 11 REMEMBRANCE AND FUNDRAISER

The Chelsea at Fanwood, a senior living facility, observed the anniversary of 9-11 with an outdoor ceremony featuring a tree planting and a fundraiser for the Fanwood Fire Department and Rescue Squad called Heroes for Heroes.

Chelsea staff sold sandwiches for $7 each outside their front door on South Avenue while members of the Fire Department brought Engine 7 for tours. The event raised a total of $400.

CHELSEA RAISES $1,200 FOR WORTHY CAUSES

The Chelsea at Fanwood assisted living residence raised $1,200 through events that benefitted Alzheimer's New Jersey and Fanwood's volunteer first responders.

A sandwich sale called "Heroes for Heroes" benefitted the Fanwood Fire Department and Rescue Squad. Hero sandwiches were sold for $7 each right outside the Chelsea's front door on South Avenue to passing motorists and others. The fire department's new Engine 7 and a crew were on hand. The event raised $400.

On Tuesday, Sept. 18, The Chelsea hosted a tricky tray auction with gift baskets of donated prizes that included wine, food, gift certificates and jewelry. Participants donated $10 at the door and had opportunities to buy tickets to "bid" on gift baskets. The event raised $800.

All proceeds count towards the Chelsea's goal of raising $1,500 for the company's annual Lace Race, a walk for Alzheimer's at Thompson Park in Monroe on October 10th, which last year raised more than $40,000 for Alzheimer's New Jersey.

TINY TIM NEEDS YOU

Submitted by Bernadette Hoyer, Tiny Tim Fund Board

The annual Tiny Tim Fund Caroling Night is scheduled for Wednesday, December 6, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Residents of Fanwood and Scotch Plains are needed to form groups to sing seasonal songs door to door and solicit donations for the Tiny Tim Fund. A group can consist of family members, friends, co-workers or any combination of participants. Caroling and collecting can be done in the neighborhood of the group leader's choice.

The Tiny Tim Fund is a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to help families pay for the medical needs of children from Fanwood and Scotch Plains. The organization has been providing financial assistance to local families since 1983.

The annual Tiny Tim Caroling Night is the organization's sole fundraising event. Many groups of adults and children are needed to make the evening a success. All donations collected are used for the medical needs of local children.

Anyone interested in doing a community service while having fun in the spirit of the season can form a group or volunteer to join an existing one.

To register a group, reserve materials and/or to obtain further information please contact Flavia at 908-753-4228 or by email at flaviablechinger@gmail.com or Mari at 908-233-6513 or mlwmcd@aol.com.

Tiny Tim Board members are preparing materials for the Dec. 6th fundraiser and are looking forward to hearing from interested volunteers. (above l-r) Tuula Ruhlandt, Mari McDevitt, Barbara Anilo, Carol Kiley and Bernadette Hoyer.

FANWOOD HOSTS HOME-BASED BUSINESS RECEPTION

Fanwood Mayor Colleen Mahr and Economic Development Director Liz Jeffrey hosted an informative roundtable for Fanwood's home-based businesses on Thursday, September 28th. The informal gathering, inside Fanwood's historic Carriage House on Watson Road, was a networking opportunity for the town's sometimes hidden entrepreneurs. About 20 business owners enjoyed wine and cheese and heard Jeffrey run down the latest on Fanwood's business growth and resources available through the town and the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce whose Executive Director, Gene Jannotti, was present. Also in attendance was Ellen Cagnassola from the Small Business Development Center at Kean University, which offers free resources including classes to small business owners.

SCREENAGERS GROWING UP IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Presented by SPF Public Schools and the Educational Enrichment Foundation of Scotch Plains

It should come as no surprise that our teens and teenagers are spending more and more time online. In fact, a recent report released by Common Sense Media states that young people spend a shocking 6 to 9 hours a day using media (2015). Although the internet is a vast repository of knowledge, how do our students know what is safe, reliable, and valid when doing research for school? How will they learn to conduct themselves on social media with care and compassion when provided with the mask of anonymity? Most importantly, how can we keep our children safe with the virtual world at their literal fingertips? With technology moving at seemingly the speed of light, it is the responsibility of schools, parents, and the community to help our students become and remain good cyber citizens and stay safe in the virtual and real world.

Recognizing this responsibility, last year Park and Terrill Middle Schools in the Scotch Plains-Fanwood School District received a grant from the Educational Enrichment Foundation (EEF) to show Screenagers, a documentary by the award-winning physician and filmmaker Delaney Ruston, about students growing up in the digital age. This documentary addresses the impact of screen time on kids, focusing on topics like social media, video games, academics, and internet addiction and featuring analysis from experts in the field and personal stories from those who have been affected by this growing epidemic. The screening is a part of Park and Terrill's larger efforts to educate students, parents, staff members, and the community on issues of cyber safety and citizenship.

We have scheduled two screenings of Screenagers - October 18 in the SPFHS Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. and October 19 in Terrill's Auditorium at 9:30 a.m. These events are open to everyone, including students, parents, teachers, community members, etc.

FANWOOD PERFORMANCE SERIES PRESENTS DIANA JONES AND JAMES DALTON

On October 14, the Fanwood Performance Series will host musical artists Diana Jones and James Dalton. The performance begins at 7 p.m., doors will open at 6:45 p.m. Suggested donations are $15 for adults, $10 for seniors and students, though any amount over the suggested donation is appreciated. The Performance Series takes place at the Patricia M. Kuran Cultural Arts Center, also known as "The Old Carriage House". The Arts Center faces Watson Road; however, it is part of the Fanwood Borough Hall property and the actual address is 75 North Martine Avenue, Fanwood.

For additional information and directions go to www.fanwoodperformanceseries.org or on Facebook at Fanwood Performance Series.

(above) Diana Jones is an award-winning singer-songwriter based in New York and Nashville. She grew up in the Northeast with no art or music in her home, the adopted daughter of a chemical engineer. During her childhood and adolescence, she felt an almost mystical, seemingly inexplicable attraction to rural Southern music, but it wasn't until her late 20s, when she located her birth family in the foothills of the Smoky Mountains in east Tennessee, that her deep affinity for traditional folk and Appalachian music began to make sense. Her 2006 recording, My Remembrance of You, earned her a nomination as Best Emerging Artist at the Folk Alliance Awards, leading to tours with Richard Thompson and Mary Gauthier, appearances at folk festivals on both sides of the Atlantic, and covers of her songs by Gretchen Peters and Joan Baez. Diana's (2016) release is Diana Jones Live in Concert, out on Proper UK and Goldmine Records US. Check out her web site at: www.dianajonesmusic.com

(above) James Dalton is a performer. He is a storyteller and a poet, a musician and a giver. He's huffed it around, reaching audiences the hard way: one person at a time, on stages and subway platforms, in living rooms and radio studios. Stomping his feet, hootin and hollerin, banging on guitars, strumming autoharps and making mandolins weep. Sharing secrets and laughs, mixing breathtaking vocals with exciting harmonica playing. Across many states and countries, James Dalton has had the privilege to make music with such artists and characters as Valerie June, Ron Pope, Jerry Joseph, Nicole Atkins, David Bryan (Bon Jovi), Bill Sims Jr, Dave Schools (Widespread Panic), Chris Thomas King, Bernard Purdie, King Famous, Vinny Lopez (E Street Band), Michael Powers, Keaton Simons, Jenny Conlee-Drizos (the Decemberists), Jon Fishman (Phish) and numerous others. JAZZY 1920'S WHODUNNIT, THE WILD PARTY OPENS 99TH SEASON AT CDC

In Andrew Lippa's The Wild Party, decadence and excess roar across the stage in this steamy prohibition tale based on Joseph Moncure March's 1928 narrative poem of the same name. This darkly brilliant show, featuring one of the most exciting, pulse-racing scores ever written, will open the 2017-2018 season at CDC Theatre in Cranford, NJ. This marks the 99th season at New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre.

"The musical is like a Jazz Age take on Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream; a potent cocktail of an all-night party in late 1920s Manhattan," says director Sean Lough. Adapted from a book-length poem written in and about the Roaring Twenties, The Wild Party tells the story of one wild evening in the Manhattan apartment shared by Queenie and Burrs, a vaudeville dancer and a vaudeville clown. In a relationship marked by vicious behavior and recklessness, mirroring the times in which they live, they decide to throw a party to end all parties. As the guests arrive, we meet an assortment of people living on the edge. Queenie and Burrs set out to make each other jealous, but Queenie begins to fall in love with her conquest named Mr. Black. After a long night of decadence, Burrs' jealousy erupts and he comes to a violent end at Mr. Black's hand. In the stark light of a new day, Queenie moves out into a brighter world, although not necessarily a brighter future, leaving the passed-out revelers in her wake. An award-winning score by Andrew Lippa provides excitement and drive for this tale of passions out of control. Capturing the sound of a bygone era with a nod to the present one, he makes us realize that moral decadence is not only limited to our past.

"We were blown away by the local talent at auditions", Lough continued, "this piece has a white-hot jazz score played to perfection by Jack Bender's smoking-hot eight-piece band — and every role needs a real triple threat: someone who can sing like Idina, dance like Chita and act like Streep. We have amazing local talent from Cranford, Westfield, Fanwood, as well as New Brunswick and Queens. If you love film noir or suspense thrillers, Wild Party is the perfect musicalization of the dark themes that make those genres so emotional. And yet it's as fun and fearless as anything being written for the theater today."

The production will run from October 13 through October 28 at the theatre's 78 Winans Ave home. Additional information about the show and how to get tickets can be found by visiting www.cdctheatre.org.
