KENILWORTHIANS HONORED DURING COUNCIL MEETING

The Mayor and Council of the Borough of Kenilworth honored several people during a public meeting held on December 13, 2017.

Library Director Michael Maziendien was presented with a proclamation for his accomplishments, initiatives, and service to the Kenilworth community and all wished him sincere best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors. Michael Maziendien became the Cranford Public Library Director on January 2, 2018.

Maziendien stated "I've been with the Kenilworth Library for 4.5 years and for me the library is the wonderful people that I work with, the tremendously supportive board, the wonderful people at the Borough across the street, and all of the volunteers and people that use the library."

Also honored during the meeting was "Employee of the Year," librarian Kathleen Czarnecki who is also a Kenilworth resident.

A letter from Mayor Anthony DeLuca stated in part: "You are well known throughout the Borough for your dedication, empathy and patience in assisting patrons of all ages navigate such challenging processes as job searching, online research and readers advisory. You are respected by your colleagues and appreciated by your Director and Board. You actively seek to continue learning new skills such as the 3D design and printing, photo editing and so much more, all with the intent to better serve the citizens of Kenilworth. Throughout it all your positive attitude and professionalism shine through."

On accepting the award Kathleen stated "It's a great honor, I am really blessed, I love Kenilworth and I love the library." She drew everyone's attention to a crowd in the audience and continued "Library Trustees, Friends of the Library, library staff and director Michael Maziendien, I want to share it (the award) with everyone because the library is awesome. We love our people."

John Gasper was named Volunteer of the Year for 2017.

award stated "This person day in and day out gives of himself without the thought of monetary value or accolades or anything else other than doing what's good for Kenilworth. John Gasper is a person who when you ask something of him, he comes out and does it."

John Gasper, who is a Boy Scout Master, said in accepting his award "I say this to all my scouts here, this is what I hope you step up and do."

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Happy New Year Kenilworth! I hope the Christmas holiday was good to you all. May this year bring you all good health, fortune, and plentiful blessings. The new year is a time to honor and reflect on our past successes and failures; to let go and to celebrate the potential of a positive future! 2017 brought our borough some challenges but I am looking forward to an exciting third year as your Mayor. So, let us all say goodbye to the old and bring on the new year!

Thank you to all the municipal employees who throughout the year keep our town up and running. It is by your work ethic and professionalism that our borough maintains a standard second to none. Kudos to the many people who have come out and volunteered in the various events throughout Kenilworth; it truly "takes a village." Many things have happened with you all donating your precious time and effort to make special moments.

I am looking forward to working with everyone to continue to make Kenilworth one the best places to live, work, and to raise a family. Effective communication and a positive attitude are what makes our community thrive. I am grateful and honored to be your Mayor, and I am proud to live in a town with so many wonderful people. 2018 will have its challenges; it will have its successes. Throughout the year keep in mind that Kenilworth's success depends on all of you. Sure one person can make a difference, but if we work together we can accomplish anything!

In closing, let me say that life is too short to go through it bitter and resentful; every day is a gift. I hope and pray that all will realize the good things we have, even the little things and be grateful we are all still here to enjoy them. I believe from the bottom of my heart, that with all our strength, resources, and capabilities, and by working together, using our intelligence, and experience, we will overcome any challenges and bring our best foot forward for the better of Kenilworth!

God Bless you all and God Bless America!

Mayor Anthony P. DeLuca Jr.

Maryanne
Christiano-Mistretta

Hello Readers!

I'm ecstatic to introduce myself as the new editor for Renna Media. It's such an honor working with Joe and Tina Renna; they are awesome!

Joe has asked me to write a little bit about myself for our readership, which is probably a great idea since I'll often be out and about in the community.

Residing in Kenilworth, NJ with my husband, Dennis, and our beloved cat Nicholas, my interests, besides writing and editing, include animals, music, and living a healthy lifestyle.

Writing professionally since 1995, I'm an award-winning journalist. I received my award from The NJ Society of Professional Journalists for investigative journalism. I'm also an author, public speaker, and poet (recently selected to read at the All About Eve Arts Festival at the West End Theatre in Long Branch, New Jersey).

Having a great passion for music, I've developed a unique library program called "The Learn & Listen Series" which pays homage to legendary musicians.

The two-fold presentation begins as I host, sharing a musician's biography – which I wrote – followed by actual live music from local New Jersey and New York talent. Librarians can choose from a variety of singers such as Ella Fitzgerald, Nat King Cole, Sammy Davis Jr., John Lennon, Freddie Mercury, Johnny Cash, Janis Joplin, and David Bowie.

I'm blessed to be able to work with performers like indie recording artist Keith Beck; jazz sensation Stephen Fuller (front man for Amani); singer/performance artist, Anna Oh; and three-time Grammy winning producer, Rob Fusari.

"Learn & Listen" also includes Jayne DiGregorio and Rich Timberlake, who work behind-the-scenes filming for an upcoming documentary.

In addition to the "Learn & Listen" series, I also lecture on "History of the Newspaper Industry," "Going, Going, Gone: What the Next Generation Won't Remember" (seniors love that one!), and there's also a healthy foodies series, which includes sampling.

Now, if you've read this far, you may be asking yourself – how can this woman work so much and still have time to edit 21 newspapers? As Joe Renna himself says – "It's not work, it's a lifestyle." I somehow get everything done ... and with a big smile on my face.

When you have a grand passion for what you do, it doesn't matter what day it is. It could be a Monday, or a Friday, and you're equally as happy. Sometimes I'm home all day working in my pajamas; other times I'm having a blast taking photos at a Winter Walk. Whether I sleep in or get up super early to attend a town meeting, it's all good. In this line of work, every day is different, and every day is exciting.

In just one month of working for Renna Media, I've attended many fun affairs and met incredible people. It brings a tear to my eye when a child cheers, "I'm gonna be in the newspaper!" after I take his or her photograph. That's what it's all about – the essence of presenting a good story to the community.

So, don't hesitate to send me your community news. We call on the arts, fundraisers, nonprofits, new businesses – anything positive that should be in your local newspaper.

Reach me at 908-858-4012, or email me at: Editor@RennaMedia.com

I look forward to hearing from you!

VOYAGE THROUGH THE COSMOS AT THE KENILWORTH LIBRARY

Gallery-On-The Boulevard located in the Kenilworth Library will present an exhibit "Voyage Through the Cosmos" by astrophotographer Helder F. Jacinto.

Jacinto has always been interested in astronomy and read many books on the planets and the cosmos. Although he owned telescopes, he never considered astronomy as a hobby until he visited the Sperry observatory at Union County College.

He joined an on-campus astronomy club, Amateur Astronomers Inc. and learned to take images of the night sky. On clear nights, the sky calls and he sets up his telescopes and cameras to capture breathtaking images.

His work has been published on NJ.com, Sky and Telescope and Amazing Sights in the Night Sky. He is also a member of United Astronomy Clubs of New Jersey.

The show will open January 5th and continue through March 30 2018. It is open to the public during regular library hours. For more information call 908-276-2451.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HOSTED KENILWORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLIDAY MEETING

Shirley Maxwell, Vice President of Kenilworth Historical Society hosted the Chamber of Commerce Meeting held in December. The meeting was held inside the Oswald Nitschke House, a clapboard wood frame farmhouse built in 1880, located at 49 South 21st Street in Kenilworth. The house was festively decorated for an old-fashioned Christmas.

Craig Day, Kenilworth Historical Society Trustee, portrayed a Victorian version of Santa Claus. He wore a custom-made outfit and spoke of the history of Saint Nicholas.

Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta, a resident of Kenilworth, introduced herself as the new editor at Renna Media.

The next Kenilworth Chamber of Commerce Meeting will be held January 10, 2018, 8:30 to 10 a.m. at the Kenilworth Public Library, 548 Boulevard, Kenilworth.

“YARNIES” DONATE HAND-CRAFTED ITEMS FOR SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

Members of Kenilworth Public Library “Yarnies” group were quite busy this year. We were able to donate hats, scarves and mitts to the Social Concerns Committee at St. Theresa's Church. These items will be distributed to St. Joseph's shelter in Elizabeth.

Our next gathering will be Thursday, January 25, 2018 at 6:00 p.m. We still have kits available containing yarn and a suggested pattern. Pick up a kit, knit or crochet an item and return your project to the Kenilworth Public Library. It's getting cold outside and every item created will help keep someone warm.

Everyone is welcome to attend our new fiber crafts monthly program at the Kenilworth Public Library: Yarnies: Library Fiber Nights will take place in the library on the last Thursday of each month from 6:00 to 7:45 p.m. You don't need any crafting experience to enjoy these special evenings of creative exploration. Feel free to bring a project to work on. Watch demonstrations of knitting, crocheting and weaving. Try your hand at spinning on a spinning wheel. Bring a finished item to show others. If you enjoy the fiber arts, or want to learn more about them, this is the event for you.

Our next meeting is planned for Thursday, January 25, 2018.

CDC THEATRE CONTINUES WINNING SEASON WITH CRIMES OF THE HEART

Rehearsals are underway for Beth Henley's "Crimes of the Heart" at CDC theatre in Cranford, New Jersey. Warm-hearted, irreverent, zany and brilliantly imaginative, the play teems with humanity and humor as it examines the plight of three young Mississippi sisters betrayed by their passions. "Crimes of the Heart" won Best Play from the NY Drama Critics Circle, was nominated for a Tony Award, and Beth Henley won the Pulitzer Prize in 1981. The 1986 film version was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Screenplay.

"The Pulitzer Prize is given to honor a distinguished play that deals in an original way with American life. It is no wonder Beth Henley was given this honor at the age of twenty-five for her very first professionally-produced play," stated Director Maurice Moran. "The show is a tender, yet humorous, story of three sisters who help each other cope with loss and fear, those "crimes of the heart," overcoming the problems they face through the love they have for one another. We have put together a very talented cast who will touch your heart and make you smile as they enact this beautiful tale of family love."

The cast is made up of Maeve Brady, Rebecca Dolan and Katherine Brown as the three Magrath sisters, Lenny, Meg and Babe, with Danielle Mastropiero as Chick, Joe Leo as Doc, and Zach Mazout as Barnette. The production will run from February 16 through 24 and details and tickets can be found by visiting cdctheatre.org. CDC Theatre, New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre, is located at 78 Winans Avenue in Cranford.
