A NIGHT FILLED WITH HEROES AND HOPE

Last month, over 100 heroes gathered together at Wear the Cape, and kidkind founder, Leigh Ann Errico's Warren home, to celebrate the foundation's fifth annual holiday event. Guests brought donations for troops stationed overseas, as well as gifts for orphaned children in Trenton, NJ.

Mrs. Errico spoke of the kidkind foundation's good works and accomplishments that happened throughout the year, including the creation of a children's picture book, "It's Good to Be Kingd," written by Lauren DuBois Rosemond.

"It's Good to Be Kingd" is a book which teaches children to stop and think about their choices – whether they will be hurtful or helpful. The kidkind foundation donated the book to kindergarten classes in Bound Brook, Paterson, Trenton, and Camden, as part of its "100 Books" donation pledge to underprivileged schools throughout the nation.

Ms. Errico also praised those who donated other books in the name of kidkind foundation. Special mention was made of Ms. Vas Nair, who donated 20 copies of "It's Good to Be Kingd" to the Newark Public Schools.

Finally, Ms. Errico revealed kidkind foundation plans for 2018, which included creating a Hero Assembly for middle school students. This program comes on the heels of great success with the elementary level Hero Assembly that has already been presented to students in Bridgewater, East Brunswick, Fort Lee, Madison, Scotch Plains, Hazlet, and Garfield, most recently during the Week of Respect and Anti-Bullying Month 2017.

The night was even more magical thanks to kindness fortune-tellers who provided both young and old with Kindness Fortunes, which encouraged ways that guests could continue to be heroic in the future. Such fortunes included several taglines from Wear the Cape, including: you're "Better Than That™" – better than bullying – and "It's Cool to Be Kind."

For more information on how to donate to the kidkind foundation, bring a Hero Assembly to a school near you, and purchase or donate "It's Good to be Kingd" for a child in your life or for kids in need, please email leighann@wearthecapekids.com.

Hello Readers!

I'm ecstatic to introduce myself as the new editor for Renna Media. It's such an honor working with Joe and Tina Renna; they are awesome!

Joe has asked me to write a little bit about myself for our readership, which is probably a great idea since I'll often be out and about in the community.

Residing in Union County with my husband, Dennis, and our beloved cat Nicholas, my interests, besides writing and editing, include animals, music, and living a healthy lifestyle.

Writing professionally since 1995, I'm an award-winning journalist. I received my award from The NJ Society of Professional Journalists for investigative journalism. I'm also an author, public speaker, and poet (recently selected to read at the All About Eve Arts Festival at the West End Theatre in Long Branch, New Jersey).

Having a great passion for music, I've developed a unique library program called "The Learn & Listen Series" which pays homage to legendary musicians.

The two-fold presentation begins as I host, sharing a musician's biography – which I wrote – followed by actual live music from local New Jersey and New York talent. Librarians can choose from a variety of singers such as Ella Fitzgerald, Nat King Cole, Sammy Davis Jr., John Lennon, Freddie Mercury, Johnny Cash, Janis Joplin, and David Bowie.

I'm blessed to be able to work with performers like indie recording artist Keith Beck; jazz sensation Stephen Fuller (front man for Amani); singer/performance artist, Anna Oh; and three-time Grammy winning producer, Rob Fusari.

"Learn & Listen" also includes Jayne DiGregorio and Rich Timberlake, who work behind-the-scenes filming for an upcoming documentary.

In addition to the "Learn & Listen" series, I also lecture on "History of the Newspaper Industry," "Going, Going, Gone: What the Next Generation Won't Remember" (seniors love that one!), and there's also a healthy foodies series, which includes sampling.

Now, if you've read this far, you may be asking yourself – how can this woman work so much and still have time to edit 21 newspapers? As Joe Renna himself says – "It's not work, it's a lifestyle." I somehow get everything done ... and with a big smile on my face.

When you have a grand passion for what you do, it doesn't matter what day it is. It could be a Monday, or a Friday, and you're equally as happy. Sometimes I'm home all day working in my pajamas; other times I'm having a blast taking photos at a Winter Walk. Whether I sleep in or get up super early to attend a town meeting, it's all good. In this line of work, every day is different, and every day is exciting.

In just one month of working for Renna Media, I've attended many fun affairs and met incredible people. It brings a tear to my eye when a child cheers, "I'm gonna be in the newspaper!" after I take his or her photograph. That's what it's all about – the essence of presenting a good story to the community.

So, don't hesitate to send me your community news. We call on the arts, fundraisers, nonprofits, new businesses – anything positive that should be in your local newspaper.

Reach me at 908-858-4012, or email me at: Editor@RennaMedia.com

I look forward to hearing from you!

Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta

Being a good reader comes with lots of great benefits.

Is your child missing out?

Most reading struggles are caused by one or more weak cognitive skills. At LearningRx, we identify weak skills with a one-hour Cognitive Skills Assessment—then strengthen those skills with brain training.

Call us this week, mention this ad, and we'll give your child a Cognitive Skills Assessment for just $199 (that's 33% off the regular price!)

Give your child the benefits—and the joy!—that strong reading skills provide.

Learn first hand how we are different. Call today to book a free 15-minute session in Preschool Day, After School, or our upcoming presentation "What Makes Reading Hard" to be held on Feb 16.

CUB SCOUT PACK 182 VISITS SENIORS AT THE CHELSEA AT WARREN

Submitted by Tricia Patricco, Cub Scout Pack 182

“Scouting is Doing” The best way to spread Christmas Cheer is singing loud for all to hear! Warren Cub Scouts from Pack 182 visited residents at The Chelsea at Warren on December 20th to sing holiday carols and talk with senior citizens in their community asking questions and hearing stories. Joy on the faces of young and old were a heartwarming reminder of the “reason for the season.”

The seniors were presented with a giant holiday card from the scouts as well. Many thanks to Rosa Krause, Den Leader for organizing this wonderful event for the Pack.

A TRADITION OF GIVING

Submitted by Marie Forrestal

Photos by Warren Township Schools

(above) Members of the Mt. Horeb service club, Gators Give Back, collected and donated more than 17 boxes of pet food and other items for St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center in October. (l-r), Mia Liberti (Grade 4), club advisor Jill Andrews, Edward Walker (Grade 5), Arianna Hughes (Grade 5), and Lilian Finkelstein (Grade 4).

(above) Central School organized a two-week Coat Drive to collect lightly used coats, hats, gloves and other winter apparel for those in need. Pictured are fourth graders (front) Ekaterini Papasouliotis and (back l-r), Olivia Martignetti, Cecelia Miller, and Ashley Parker.

Whether collecting coats and other warm winter attire, canned goods for area food banks or gifts to make a child's holiday wish come true, Warren Township Schools and its student service clubs continued a rich tradition of giving this season.

Central School staffers, led by teacher Christina DeShields, participated in "Gifts for the Season" for the United Way of Somerset County while students, staff, and the PTO collected much-needed coats, hats, gloves and scarves for children and adults.

"Almost every day, I was emptying the collection bin because it was overflowing with donations from our students and parents," stated Central guidance counselor Alyssa Pech. "The donated winter apparel is going to be split between two charities in Newark and Plainfield."

Fifth grade service club members at Mt. Horeb, Woodland, and Angelo L. Tomaso schools each lead successful canned food drives to contribute to the holiday meals of those less fortunate. The Warren Middle School Buddy-to-Buddy Club stuffed holiday stockings with treats to share with others. And, at Woodland, fifth graders under the direction of club advisor Christina Beekman and teacher Jessica Randall, created colorful holiday cards for a critically-ill 11-year-old New Jersey boy in need of some holiday well-wishes.

Yet, the idea of giving back to the community and the world at large is a tradition that is fostered year-round in Warren Township Schools. The middle school "buddies" routinely partner with students at the nearby Developmental Learning Center for games and fellowship. At Mt. Horeb, members of the Gators Give Back Club collected, sorted and donated more than 17 boxes of pet food, treats and blankets to St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center in October while, in November, the group honored veterans from the Mt. Horeb school community with a "Wall of Honor" placed prominently in the school's lobby.

"Our largest fundraiser yet has been for The Food Bank Network of Somerset County," stated Mt. Horeb teacher and club advisor Jill Andrews. "We've been collecting items that the food bank is in need of such as socks for kids, Parmalat milk, cereal, tomato sauce and any other canned goods. So far, we have collected over five hundred items."

At Angelo L. Tomaso, the ALT Gives Back Club and advisor Nancy Andrews received recent recognition from the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society as the top fundraising school in New Jersey for its "Pennies for Patients" drive in 2016-2017. This year, the ALT PTO, led by parents Alexis Meslow and Lisa Moran, supported the Backpack Program, an initiative run by the Food Bank Network of Somerset County to provide eligible students with easy-to-prepare food items that are sent home in their backpacks each Friday. Additionally, "the ALT PTO collected toys for 100 children, along with 25 sweatshirts," stated ALT PTO president Nelly Pucci. "These children qualify for the Backpack Program. The students at ALT helped to decorate the gift bags for the toys."

WHRHS 2017 INSTRUMENTAL WINTER CONCERT

The Concert Band, Orchestra and Wind Ensemble each had their own segments during the Instrumental Winter Concert on Thursday, December 7, 2017, at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS). They won the hearts of the audience with entertaining and ambitious song selections, remarkable musicianship, and, in the end, a fetching, musical welcome to the 2017 Holiday Season.

The audience seemed to receive the student performances every bit as much as a fun, entertaining concert as it was also a public demonstration of how far these high school students had progressed music education-wise since the start of the school year.

Instrumental Music Teacher and Conductor Paul McCullen said some 65 percent of the Concert Band are First Year students.

The last song of the night, the Wind Ensemble's performance of Leroy Anderson's "A Christmas Festival," yielded a standing ovation and calls from the audience of "More!" That was reminiscent of last year's Spring Instrumental Concert. McCullen obliged, calling on the Wind Ensemble to play Leroy Anderson's other most famous arrangement, his iconic composition, "Sleigh Ride."

According to the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP) review of Christmas music, "Sleigh Ride" consistently ranks as one of the top 10 most-performed songs written by ASCAP members.

In the Program Notes for the Instrumental Winter Concert, McCullen writes: "The Concert Band this evening is presenting the lighter works of the concert and perhaps a tune or two you many know. A wonderful short overture, followed by pieces of the season, and closing with a slightly off-holiday movie that is slowly becoming a classic."

The Concert Band performed: "Westridge Overture," by James Barnes; "Fortress Variants," by Elliot Del Borgo, and the twin pieces for the season, "Continental Christmas Suite, by Elliot Del Borgo, and "The Nightmare Before Christmas," by Danny Elfman, from the 1993 movie of the same title, written by Tim Burton.

In the Program notes for The Orchestra, McCullen writes: "The Orchestra is presenting works throughout three periods in classical music, with a wonderfully balanced program of: A overture, music of the Renaissance, and closing with another wonderful full length work of the Baroque, highlighting some of our most talented.

The Orchestra performed: "Overture from The Mikado," by Sir Arthur Sullivan; William Byrd Suite," by William Byrd; and "Brandenburg Concerto No. 4," by J.S. Bach. The Orchestra had performed the "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3" last year, McCullen said. "Each one is different." It was the longest piece played at the concert, McCullen pointed out, stretching some 15 or 16 minutes, but throughout the Orchestra's rendition, one could hear a pin drop in the WHRHS Performing Arts Center. The performance featured three soloists, Carter Rosen, David Ki, and Tiffany Wang. In addition, two student musicians from the Wind Ensemble, Cherlin Zhu and Lindsey Shi, played flute, and WHRHS Choral Music Teacher Angela DiIorio Bird played harpsicord, using an 88-key electric keyboard, programmed to sound like a harpsicord.

In the Program Notes for the Wind Ensemble, McCullen writes, "The Wind Ensemble will be presenting two featured composers from last year, Dello Joio and Persichetti: along with music of the Renaissance. Additionally, some music to celebrate the beginning of the holiday season ahead."

The Wind Ensemble performed "The Earl of Oxford's March," by William Byrd; "Satiric Dances," by Norman Dell Joio; "Psalm for Band," by Vincent Persichetti; "The Eighth Candle," by Steve Reisteter; and "A Christmas Festival," followed the encore song, "Sleigh Ride," both by Leroy Anderson.

The student musicians in the WHRHS Concert Band are: oboe, Erica Hwang and Kaitlyn Roth; flute, Jasmine Aiello, Catherine Baker, Sarah Branco, Taylor Burton, Tina Chen, Erika Cheng, Susan Choy, Phillip Ding, Deekshita Gorrepati, Tamara Hadzic, Jenna Hansen, Deepa Irakam, Roopa Irakam, Sephanie Ju, Kathie Liang, Cindy Long, Alanna Margulies, Isha Nagpaul, Tien Nguyen, Maria Shanahan, Zoe Weng, and Maylin Zhu; clarinet, Patrick Alto, Katherine Buser, Ariana Gilligan, Daniel Han, Sarah Jardim, Kristina Lesaca, Nicoletta Koconis, Tarun Loganathan, Andre Christopher Meier, Jeremy Shamai, Wesley Tseng, and Justine Wang; bass Clarinet, Demetrios Gianakis, Achyuta Murli and Paul Zatorski; and alto sax, Benjamin Binstock, Seth Calindas, Conner Cheng, Nathan Chon, Tyler Horvath, Zachary Kopelman, Aditya Logariathan, Alexander Martino, Grayson Mejia, Manuel Melo, Ashwin Menon, and Victor Osoliniec; tenor sax, Kyle Merritts, Adam Moszczynski, John Schmitt, Vujay Subramanian, and Michael Waiman; baritone sax, Brynn

(above) The Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Concert Band, with more than 100 student musicians, filled the stage at the WHRHS 2017 Winter Instrumental Band, Thursday, December 7, 2017, at the schools Performing Arts Center (PAC). The band performed four pieces, "Westridge Overture," "Fortress Variants," "Continental Christmas Suite," and "The Nightmare Before Christmas."

(above) The WHRHS Orchestra stands and receives a standing Ovation at the completion of their three pieces at the Winter Instrumental Concert, Thursday, December 7, 2017. They played "Overture from The Makado," "William Burd Suite," and "Brandenburg Concerto No. 4, a piece extending some 15 or 16 minutes.

WHRHS 2017 CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Hundreds of students take advantage every year of some 70 Co-Curricular Activities at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS).

According to Dan Bertelli, who is the supervisor of Arts, Health/Physical Education and Co-Curricular Activities, students participate for a variety of reasons. Some students want to have fun, explore new horizons, meet new friends, and stay productive, while others want to experience working productively in a group. Some want to contribute to their class, their school, and their community. Many want to add to their resume, develop a marketable skill, and augment their classroom learning.

In addition to Co-Curricular Activities, there is, of course, also a long list of WHRHS Warrior Fall, Winter, and Spring interscholastic and club sports teams through which to develop skills, gain experience, record achievements and find fulfillment.

At a variety of public events during the school year, student representatives can setup displays, which highlight the function and benefits of these co-curricular activities. In addition, bulletin boards throughout the school give identity to the co-curricular activities, announce upcoming events and offerings of the activities, and congratulate and call attention to achievements and milestones.

All club and activity information can be found on the school's Web site. The Web site lists as Academic Co-Curricular Activities: Academic Team, Chemistry Olympiad, History Bowl Team, History Club, Math League, Robotics Team, Science Bowl Club, and Science League; and the various Academic Honor Societies, such as National Art Honor Society, National Honor Society, Tri-M Music Honor Society, and Waksman Molecular Biology.

Under Academic -- Diversified Interest, the Co-Curricular Activity list includes: Arrowhead Newspaper, Astronomy Club, Creative Writing Club, DECA Club, Economics Club, Entrepreneurship Club, Film Club, Folio (creative writing and expression), Forensics and Investigatory Club (F.I.C), Fusion, Future Business Leaders of America, Future Doctors of America, Lenape Yearbook, The Neuroscience Club, and Video Game Programming.

Under Diversified Interests the list includes: American Sign Language Club, Anime and Fandom Club, Asian Culture Club, Cosmetic Club, Culinary Club, Computer Science Club, K-Pop Club, Polish Club, Sports Fans Club.

In Student Government, there are: The All

School Council, Peer leaders, and Grade Level Councils for Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.

In the Performing Arts, there are: Marching Band, Choral Ensembles, Color Guard, Dance Ensemble, Instrument Ensemble, Jazz Band Ensemble, Script & Cue, Script & Cue Stage Crew, and International Thespian Society.

In Public Service there are: Action Against Hunger, America/MLB Players Trust Action Team Club, B.E.L.I.E.V. Club, CARE Club, Diversity Club, Environmental Club, H2O For Life, Habitat for Humanity, INTERACT Community Service Club, Peer Leadership Program, and Red Cross Club.

In Social Justice, there are: Gender and Sexuality Association (GSA), Junior State of America, Mock Trial, Model United Nations, and Young Democrats.

In recreational sports, there are: Ping Pong/Badminton Club, Ski and Snowboard Club, and Ultimate Frisbee.

The school's Web site also advises that any student or group of students that have an interest in starting a club can begin by downloading the Intent to Organize form. Applicants must fill out the form in its entirety.

For more information, students can contact the All School Council (ASC) office, during lunch or after school. ASC members can assist students through the process.

WHRHS FALL DRAMA PRODUCTION 'DRACULA'

The staging of the annual Fall drama, "Dracula," on November 16 to 18, 2017, at Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS), was a team effort, involving a full cast and crew of students, staff, volunteers, and supporters of the school's Script & Cue Drama Program.

The Director's Note in the play's program gave the time, place and setting of the drama: "The time is late-1887, and the places are Lucy's Home, an Insane Asylum near Whitby, England, and Dracula's Castle in Transylvania, Bulgaria. Set in oppressed Victorian times, Bram Stoker's Dracula is a story written through a combination of letters and narrative structure. Although episodic, the play follows Stoker's story closely. As in most versions, it concentrated on Dracula's venomous pursuit of the living. As he so eloquently states when moving to the crowded city of London, 'How I delight in thinking of the bustling streets, peopled with the mad whirl and rush of humanity. Oh, to be in the midst of that banquet of life!'"

The cast included: Nicole Bell as Mina; Jack Melillo as Harker; Kaelin Churchill as Lucy; Andrew Moberly as Seward; Sam Sinnott as Renfield; Justin Horowitz as Van Helsing; Giovanna DiSanto as Nurse Maria, Ben Allgor as Dracula; Kyra Anthony and Josephine Pascale as Lucy's Maids; Matt Oboh and William Broder as Waiters; and Sophia Su as Waitress.

Also, as Asylum Inmates, Massai Shuler, Matt Ohboh, William Broder, Kevin Lynch, Sophia Su, Maria Irvin, Sophia Patti and Carly MacManus; as Asylum Attendants, Chris Gagliano, Matt Massarisi, and Maria Irvin; and as Vixens, Summer Stuart, Nicole Vila, Anchal Shir, Kayla Martins, Natasha Bird, Brigita Przybylski, Christine Tanko, Claire Vickery, Emma Leary and Alison Wolf.

The Production Crew included: As Director, WHRHS Drama Teacher Doug Eaton; Lead Assistant Director, Emily Snead, 2nd Assistant Director Kathleen O'Mullan; Production Stage Manager, Mark Caamano, Set Design, Douglas Eaton; Scenic Artist, WHRHS Art Teacher Kate Griffin; Costume Design, Gail DeCicco; Lighting Design, Chris Valenti; Sound Design, Rick Clark; Lead Assistant Stage Manager, AJ Martin; Assistant State Manager Ryan Presgraves; Technical and Set CAD (Computer Aided Design), Chris Valenti; Video Projections and Lighting Effects, Chris Valenti, Rick Clark and Nick DiNizio.

The Production Staff included: Costume Manager, Brianna Caetano; Costumes Crew, Lucan Mammone; Property Manager, Jessica Pearlstein; Props Crew, Rachel Krouk and Jessica Pearstein; Sound – Mics, Michael Maloney and Krystyna Leski; Sound Effects, Casey Green; Lighting, Portia Rowley; Spot Light, Tyler Horvath and Patrick Dempsey; and Scenic Painters, Bobbie Waugaman and Fiona Mulvey.

Also, Hair and Makeup was Shelby Waddy, Bobbie Waugaman, Juliet Leary, Hollace Chase, Madelena Goffredo, Molly Davis, John Harrobin, Angelina Carrano and Claire Vickery; Rigging, Patrick Dempsey and Anthony Russo; Also, Running Crew was Nevya Menon, Arden Dettling, Portia Rowley, Anthony Russo, Gabriel Snead, Julia Celeste, Sara Barrientos, Rebecca Dickerson, Madeline Leong, Lindsey deCavaignac, Emma Giordano, Michael Wong, Rachel Krouk, Emily Dec, and Madeleine Johnson.

Usher Captain was Elizabeth Chapleski, and Ushers were Colin Beisler, Michael Wong, Angelina Carrano, Lucas Mammone, and Christina Carrano.

Script and Cue Business Manager is Dianne Krutz. Laura Zijdel produced the program.

Save the Dates. The annual Spring Musical production presented by Script & Cue will be "Guys and Dolls," presented on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, March 22, 23, and 24 2018 at 7 p.m., with a 2 p.m. matinee on Saturday, March 24, 2018. All are invited.
