The Historical Society of Berkeley Heights (HSBH) will open the door of the Little-Lord Farmstead Museum, at the corner of Horseshoe Road and Mountain Avenue, to the public beginning in April. The 257-year-old farmstead is the oldest continuously occupied farmstead in Union County. For 110 years it was occupied by descendants of Charles Wait Lord, who purchased the land in 1867. His great-granddaughter, Elizabeth Ann Wemett, sold the property to the Township of Berkeley Heights in 1975, and in 1977 the Historical Society established the museum.

Progress has been made in maintaining the house and the grounds. The photograph shows part of the new roof that was installed in May over the north wing of the house. Long term damage to the previous roof permitted water entry into the building. Three trees close to the house, including a pine that was split by a lightning strike, were removed by the men of the Berkeley Heights Public Works department. The HSBH received a Union Country grant which will be used to repair damage to the east side of the house, with the town providing assistance in gathering bids. Plans are also being made to replant Osage orange trees which were common on the property for decades. Two such trees were lost to storms over the past year.

The Historical Society of Berkeley Heights is registered as a 501-C(3) organization. All donations are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. The Society is looking for part time volunteers of all ages to assist with research and restoration projects.

MIKE DEL DUCA HONORED BY ROTARY

Club President; Mike Del Duca.

Mike Del Duca, manager of the Berkshire Hathaway Real Estate office in New Providence and a member of the Rotary Club of Berkeley Heights since 2006, has been honored for his dedication to the club's Medic-Alert program.

The Medic-Alert program for solo seniors in Berkeley Heights and New Providence provides a neck-worn pendant and matching telephone that will call the wearer's local police dispatch in the event of a fall or other significant accident while at home. Over 200 residents in the two towns are provided with Medic-Alert systems, which require both initial installation and wearer instructions, and annual check-ups and maintenance. Almost single-handedly, Mr. Del Duca has spearheaded and maintained this initiative for the past 10 consecutive years.

The Paul Harris Fellowship chosen by the Rotary Club to honor him recognizes $1000 contributed to The Rotary Foundation, a 501(c)(3) with 100 percent and four-star ratings by CharityNavigator in Mr. Del Duca's name.

Red Oak College Planning

Please join us for a FREE Educational College Financial Planning workshop that will focus on high school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. We'll discuss the FAFSA form and all the other information you need to understand in order to maximize the amount of financial aid you are eligible to receive!

Even if your family is not eligible for need-based aid, we will cover the best strategies on how to pay for college in the most cost efficient basis - without it putting a strain on the rest of your finances.

In this workshop, you will learn:

- How to increase your college-related tax deductions and tax credits
- How to pick colleges that will give you the best financial aid packages
- How to send your child to an expensive private university for less than a state school
- Which assets are taken into consideration when the U.S. Department of Education calculates your Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
- How to pay for college in a failing economy without relying on 529 plans, expensive private student loans or raiding your retirement accounts
- How to get ahead by developing a customized plan to meet all the college costs you will incur as a family
- How to lower your "out-of-pocket" costs and get the maximum amount of money from each school

Here is what parents like you are saying about our FREE
College Funding
Workshop...

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS GREAT DECISIONS PROGRAM FOR 2018

The League of Women Voters of Berkeley Heights, New Providence, and Summit is sponsoring the Great Decisions Program for 2018. Great Decisions, produced by the Foreign Policy Institute, is America's largest discussion program on world affairs.

The program runs on Wednesdays thru March 28, 2018 at 7:30 p.m. There is no session on February 28, 2018.

Meetings are held at The DeCorso Community Center, 15 East Fourth Street, New Providence (take Springfield Avenue to Livingston Avenue and Fourth Street is a short distance in).

The cost for the eight-week session is $95. ($85 for League and SCC/AAUW members). You may attend individual sessions and pay $20 per session; and students $10 per session.

Register online at www.lwv-bhnps.org or mail a check made payable to the League of Women Voters, Patricia Dixon Black, 45 Woodland Avenue, #28, Summit, NJ 07901.

The Foreign Policy Institute provides an excellent manual, which you receive upon registration. A video clip is shown at the beginning of each session. The facilitator encourages a lively discussion. After each session, participants fill out an opinion ballot which are sent to members of Congress and appropriate government departments.

This year's topics are as follows:

February 7: Russia's foreign policy

February 21: China and America: the new geopolitical equation

February 28: Media and foreign policy

March 7: Turkey: a partner in crisis

March 15: U.S. global engagement and the military

March 21: South Africa's fragile democracy

March 28: Global health: progress and challenges

For more information, contact Susan Ferris Rights at 908-568-1884 or visit:

Distant Horizons, an exhibition of landscape paintings by Katie Weiss will be on display at Prince Street Gallery, 530 W. 25th Street, Suite 402, NYC, through February 14, 2018.

Based on the artist's experience of the open landscape as seen in both the Nebraska prairie and the Meadowlands of New Jersey, the paintings in this exhibition are a celebration of horizontality. Working within the tradition of Western landscape painting, the artist seeks to convey the sense of movement, light and depth that characterizes these spaces.

In an artist statement, Weiss wrote, "My paintings are motivated by an emotional response to my surroundings. I attempt to paint what I see, whether it is a live subject, photograph, or drawing. At the same time, memory and emotion are integral to the process, as is the nature of paint itself. I build up layers of paint until the image comes together as a coherent whole. My hope is that the painting is able to connect with the viewer's own experience and that it rewards looking. Pure pleasure in the act of seeing is one of the qualities I love most about visual art."

Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Additional information can be found at katieweissart.com or email the artist at: kweiss3@verizon.net org.

FREE TAX RETURN HELP FOR AREA RESIDENTS

New Providence, Berkeley Heights, and other area residents can obtain free assistance in preparing and filing their individual 2017 tax returns. There are no age or income limitations for participation in the program, but taxpayers with complex returns may be advised to seek paid assistance. Free assistance will be provided at the New Providence Senior Citizens Center (NPSCC), 15 East Fourth Street, New Providence, by volunteer tax counselors under a program sponsored jointly by the AARP, the Internal Revenue Service, and the New Jersey State Division of Taxation.

Assistance will cover individual federal and NJ state income taxes, the NJ Homestead Property Tax Rebate, and the Property Tax Reimbursement Program (PTR – 1 & 2), as applicable. All returns will be filed electronically, resulting in refunds being received typically in about four weeks after filing. Any taxes due would not be payable until April 18, 2017. Taxpayers will be provided with vouchers to be submitted by that date with any payments due.

Tax counselors will be available on Mondays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., from Monday, February 5, 2018, through Monday, April 16, 2018. Taxpayers seeking assistance in preparing and filing their returns may call the NPSCC at 908-665-0046, between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, for an appointment, or they may sign up at the center. The Internal Revenue Service is again advising taxpayers to file their returns as early as possible to reduce the potential for identity theft.

Taxpayers must bring government-issued photo identification, social security cards of persons filing the return and of any dependents listed on the return, copies of their 2016 federal and state returns, and any 2017 federal forms W-2, 1099-R, 1099-INT, 1099-DIV, 1099-B, SSA-1099, etc., documentation of the amount of rent or real estate taxes paid in 2017 and of other expenses if the taxpayers wish to itemize deductions; and, if they wish to have any refund directly deposited to their checking account, a check showing their bank's routing number and their account number. In the case of taxpayers filing joint returns, both taxpayers should be present to authorize the electronic filing.

FREE CHILD, TEEN, AND ADULT GRIEF SUPPORT

Free support groups are available for children, teens, and parents coping with loss due to death or illness on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday evenings from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at Imagine located at 244 Sheffield Street in Mountainside, NJ.

Imagine is a free year-round peer grief support program for children age 3-18 and young adults 18-30 who have had a parent, brother, or sister die, or who are living with a family member with a life-altering physical illness. Concurrent support groups are available for parents and guardians in both programs. Imagine also provides educational workshops and on-site bereavement and crisis support for businesses, corporations, schools and community agencies.

Imagine supports children and families coping with loss and fosters resiliency and emotional well-being for all those who grieve.

If you or someone you know could benefit please contact Imagine at 908-264-3100 or email info@imagineinNJ.org.
