AWARD-WINNING TY STEPHENS PRESENTS SONG WORKSHOP

By Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta

The Chatham Community Players were excited to host “How to Choose Your Best Audition Song Workshop” on Saturday, January 13, 2018. The workshop was presented by Ty Stephens, an award-winning singer/songwriter, entertainer/recording artist.

Stephens credentials include: Grand Prize Winner Jazzmobile/Anheuser-Busch Solo Jazz Vocalist Competition, NYC, 2006; and First Place Winner R&B/Blues Category of the International Songwriting Competition 2002, for “Somethin’ Strange.” He’s also the co-writer and original cast member of “From My Hometown,” co-writer/production; choreographer and star of the long-running “Shades of Harlem” revue show; and co-writer/production, choreographer and currently starring in the new touring hit, “On Kentucky Avenue” (Songbirds Unlimited Productions/StepForward Entertainment.) Ty also appeared on Broadway in the original productions of “Sophisticated Ladies” with Gregory Hines and Phyllis Hyman; and “Marilyn, an American Fable.”

In 2010 Stephens joined with vocalists from Broadway’s “The Lion King” singing on the recording of the soundtrack for the World Cup. He has performed/appeared with Harry Belafonte, Gregory Hines, Phyllis Hyman, Toshi Kubota, Patti Austin, Jeffrey Osborne, Phoebe Snow, Smokey Robinson, Jon Hendricks; and at Carnegie Hall with Liza Minnelli and Natalie Cole (Laurie Strauss Leukemia Foundation Benefits).

The purpose of the workshop held at the Chatham Community Playhouse, 23 N. Passaic Avenue, Chatham, was to help aspiring singers find a song that fits based on his/her skill, taste and needs. The class was open to anyone 14 and older.

“It’s a process of finding a song that suits you or refining a song you sing. Getting to know voices and approach to singing and the whole idea of a song; songs chosen for themselves,” Stephens explained.

Stephens was assisted by Richard Cummings Jr. who played keyboards. Songs were chosen in advance and the workshop was limited to 15 to create an intimate setting and allow Ty Stephens to work one-on-one with the vocalists.

The group began the workshop singing “Getting to Know You” from “The King and I” prior to getting personal attention and recommendations from Stephens.

“I want to get a sense of their voices,” Stephens said.

Spencer Scalamoni, 16, of Roxbury, came to the class with aspirations of enhancing his skills. “Singing is what I do,” he said. “If you’re good at something, do it until you’re the best at it.”

His two songs were “Dust and Ashes” from “The Great Comet,” and “For Forever” from “Dear Evan Hansen.”

Stephens said they were “excellent choices” for Spencer because they were “age specific.”

Stephens added, teasingly, “Nothing like watching a young person doing something from ‘Man of La Mancha,’” illustrating that some young singers choose songs that are too old or dated.

This was the fourth workshop Chatham Playhouse has hosted. Workshop coordinator George Seylaz said that they plan to have more. “Maybe a dance workshop with Ty,” he said, excitedly.

In addition to the workshops, The Chatham Players will be presenting “Grease” at the playhouse from May 4 to 19, 2018, and a summer theatre camp for kids.

CHILDREN'S BOOK TO BENEFIT ST. HUBERT'S

Growing up with a pet is one of the great joys of a young life.

The playing, the bonding, often the forming of the first real friendship provides a lifetime of memories.

The loss of a pet is usually a child's first experience with death and it can be traumatic.

Author Penelope Lagos of Chatham, New Jersey has written a book designed to ease the grieving process by offering a helpful resource for both parents and children.

Her recently published book, "I Miss My Best Friend" (GreenTree Publishers, 2017), is geared for children ages 6 to 9 but can be read by all ages. It comes from a very personal place in Lagos' heart: sadness over the recent passing of her own best friend, her dog Cassius.

With beautiful illustrations by Sophie Moracchinni, "I Miss My Best Friend" tells the story of the day Cassius came into the lives of Louie and Penny and spends his time with them in mischief and merrymaking.

"I Miss My Best Friend" can be enjoyable simply as a children's book, or it can offer help during a time of loss. The book explores grieving in a way young people can understand and relate to. It even offers parents a list of tips at the end to help them make the grieving process a little easier.

The book received a 5-star rating from Reader's Favorite (readersfavorite.com). It is available on Amazon (amzn.to/2yQs0wF) and Barnes & Noble online (barnesandnoble.com).

Locally, the book is available at Jabberwocky in Chatham, Sterling Hallmark at the Chatham and Stirling locations, and Buddy's Boutique at St. Hubert's in Madison. Ten percent of each book purchase goes to support the humane treatment of animals at St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center. This nonprofit organization exists to provide services that support the human-animal bond and seeks to foster an environment in which people respect all living creatures. For more information, visit www.sthuberts.org.

Lagos, a New Jersey native, graduated from Rutgers University earning a Bachelor's Degree in Communications and Theatre Arts. She is an animal advocate and strongly believes in being "a voice for the voiceless." She holds a certification in Canine Fitness and Conditioning as well as Advanced Pet CPR/First Aid. Her love of animals, and loss of her beloved best friend Cassius "The Legend" Lagos, inspired her to write "I Miss My Best Friend" and help others cope with the grief of losing a family pet. When Lagos is not spending time with her own furry friends, she is acting in independent films and commercials as well as volunteering at the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society (LLS). She was the recipient of an achievement award honoring critical funds raised for LLS.

Lagos can be reached through her website at www.penelopelagos.com.

STUDENTS OFFER FREE HOMEWORK HELPERS CLUB AT LIBRARY

Submitted by Gretchen Dorrego

Three years ago, Chatham students, Sofia Dorrego and Amanda Gallop, were tasked with the challenge of identifying a service or improvement needed in their community and implementing change. This was all in an effort to obtain their Girl Scout Silver Award, the second highest honor a Girl Scout can achieve. Realizing there was really no resource for Chatham's elementary aged school children to seek support or help outside of the classroom, the girls jumped into action and successfully founded and ran a Homework Helpers Club at the Library of The Chathams.

Sofia, who has her heart set on majoring in Elementary Education in college, and Amanda, who wants to study Family Law, could have stopped offering this free service after they were given their Silver Award, but they found their work so rewarding and received such positive feedback from the children who attended that they have continued, with no plans of ending in sight. The Homework Helpers Club meets every other Wednesday, at the library, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Chatham students in grades K-5 are welcome to stop by for the entire time or just for a portion of it.

The girls are prepared to help with homework assignments but are also equipped with flash cards, educational games, coloring books, and puzzles. They will also be more than happy to sit and read with the children.

Please call the Children's Room at the Library of The Chathams to reserve a spot for your child in one or all the sessions or feel free to have them drop in on an as needed basis.

The Library of The Chathams is located at 214 Main Street, Chatham, New Jersey. For more information, call 973-635-0603.

AFTER SCHOOL ENRICHMENT FROM THE MUSEUM OF EARLY TRADES & CRAFTS

In the Fall of 2017, The Museum of Early Trades & Crafts' (METC) Education Department was excited to create a new offering as part of the After School Enrichment programs at both Milton Avenue and Washington Avenue Chatham schools. Twenty students at the two schools took part in "Museum Curators," which taught children about museums, collections, collecting and exhibit design. The students were able to create a variety of projects throughout the session, including stained glass, folio books and pinwheels. They also designed backdrops for their own personal collections, using techniques ranging from stenciling and rubbing, to collage and coloring. On the final day, each student displayed their creations and personal collections in individual exhibits. The delighted families attended this special event where they viewed the children's collections and exhibits.

For 2018, METC plans to continue its relationship with the School District of the Chathams with new programming for the Spring After School Enrichment session. "Hands-on History: Problem Solving in Early America" will provide an opportunity to learn what it was like to be part of an Early American family. Through a series of hands-on activities and projects, children will be able to explore the ways in which Early Americans adapted and solved problems without the technology we take for granted today. Some of these activities will include butter making, weaving, wool felting, toy making and more! They will also have an opportunity to handle a number of different Early American tools from the museum's collection and will learn that some of the concepts we use today, such as recycling, existed in the past as well.

SUMMIT MUSICIAN GETS CHILDREN MOVING AT LIBRARY

By Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta

“Music with Mr. John” is a monthly children’s program J.P. Arthur, of Summit, brings to Library of The Chathams, 214 Main Street, Chatham, New Jersey. Mr. John sings, plays guitar, and hands out dozens of inflatable toy guitars and guitar picks so children can “play” and sing along with him.

Featured songs include “Hello, Goodbye” by The Beatles; old children’s classics such as “Wheels on the Bus,” and the “Hokey Pokey”; and Mr. John’s originals, “My Guitar,” and “How Many Strings.”

The library was packed with over 50 children and their parents. Jaclyn Santora said her 15-month-old daughter, Teresa Santora “loves music” and “dancing to music.”

When J.P.’s not entertaining children, he plays in his indie band, The Deafening Colors; and they just released a full-length LP. For more information on The Deafening

Red Oak College Planning

Please join us for a FREE Educational College Financial Planning workshop that will focus on high school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. We'll discuss the FAFSA form and all the other information you need to understand in order to maximize the amount of financial aid you are eligible to receive!

Even if your family is not eligible for need-based aid, we will cover the best strategies on how to pay for college in the most cost efficient basis - without it putting a strain on the rest of your finances.

In this workshop, you will learn:

- How to increase your college-related tax deductions and tax credits
- How to pick colleges that will give you the best financial aid packages
- How to send your child to an expensive private university for less than a state school
- Which assets are taken into consideration when the U.S. Department of Education calculates your Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
- How to pay for college in a failing economy without relying on 529 plans, expensive private student loans or raiding your retirement accounts
- How to get ahead by developing a customized plan to meet all the college costs you will incur as a family
- How to lower your "out-of-pocket" costs and get the maximum amount of money from each school

Here is what parents like you are saying about our
FREE
College Funding
Workshop...

"Very informative.
The presenter told us many things that I was totally in the dark about".

Rosie Palumbo,
Parent of High School Junior

"Information was clear, easy to understand and straight forward. Excellent presentation
- no hidden agendas."

Lynn McKenna,
Parent of High School Senior

"Opened up opportunity to look at colleges we thought were out of our price range."

Barbara Eames, Parent
of High School Sophomore

"Covered a lot of ground - easy to follow and moved quickly."

Sara Pogue,
Parent of High School Junior

"Demystified the college
funding process"

Joseph Mozzella,
Parent of High School Senior
