ANDY WOLMAN RECOGNIZED AT KENILWORTH CHESS CLUB

The Kenilworth Chess Club has kicked off their 2018 season celebrating its 45th year anniversary. On hand for the festivities was Linden native Andy Wolman, one of the founding members. Wolman has been a fixture in Clark, New Jersey, where he owned and operated his barber shop Checkmates Hairstyling, from 1976 to 2012. He still cuts hair in Clark at Mane Expressions, just one block down from his old shop on Westfield Avenue. Wolman is one of the sole founding members still active in the club, other founders have passed away or relocated.

The club was formed in 1972 amid the chess craze in America spearheaded by Bobby Fischer's march to the World Championship. For 45 years the club was a force to be reckoned with as its member roster included many Master level players, including State Champions.

The club has a reputation for being friendly and accommodating. It welcomes non-members with no obligation or cost. It's a place where beginners can learn in a casual setting without being intimidated. Strong players are generous with their time in analyzing and giving instruction.

The club's website, kenilworthchessclub.org, is well read and features an award-winning blog by Michael Goeller and has other instructional features. Players are welcome to just pop into the Kenilworth Chess Club with no formalities every Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Kenilworth Community Center located next to Borough Hall on the Boulevard and the corner of 24th Street.

Arthur L. Johnson (ALJ) students held their "Your Change Can Change the World" fundraiser in December 2017 and collected $805 to buy gifts for families in need. Students collected change during lunch to raise the funds. Each class adopted one family and received a wish list. Wishes ranged from socks, sweatshirts, and basketballs to Barbies, make-up, and ShopRite gift cards. One boy asked only for a ShopRite gift card because his mom recently lost her job. Several other school organizations and classes including Miss Mills' class, SMAC, football, Spanish National Honor Society, Science National Honor Society, the Science Department, Italian Club, Key Club, and French Club also collected on behalf of the families. Faculty, staff, and administration used an Electronic Giving Tree to provide gifts for six additional families. A district-wide jeans day was also held where the money raised was used to buy coats, toys, and additional ShopRite gift cards.

Anne Marciano, ALJ math teacher and fundraiser organizer, stated, "I am so proud of all of our students. I started this program as a way to make the students more aware of the situations that other children are in during the holidays. I wanted them to donate their money so it would mean something to them. As our posters say, your change can change the world."

Marciano would also like to thank the Clark ShopRite who supports the program every year. They donated $250 worth of gift cards.

LIBRARIAN VISITS PRESCHOOL FOR STORY TIME

Stephanie Azzaro,, Children’s Library Associate at the Clark Public Library, visited the Clark Preschool for story time and a brief talk about the library. The children were delighted with Ms. Stephanie’s book selection and her animated storytelling. A field trip to the library is planned for the spring.

Reading to your child is one of the most important things you can do to prepare them with a foundation for academic excellence. Some benefits of reading to preschoolers are a higher aptitude for learning, reinforcement of basic sounds that form language, and the attainment of valuable communication skills.

On February 25, 2018, please join the Clark Public Library for “Take Your Child to the Library Day.” Each child that checks out a book on this day gets entered into a drawing to win a $25 Barnes and Noble gift card! To further celebrate this special day, Unique Creatures will bring six different live animals to the library. The program begins at 2:00 p.m.

ARTHUR L. JOHNSON STUDENTS FEATURED IN CIVICS UNPLUGGED

Arthur L. Johnson (ALJ) seniors Maryann Makosiej and Brenner Gull were recently featured in a student orientation video for Civics Unplugged, a program designed to bring together students from diverse backgrounds to discuss a variety of civic-related topics. Seventy-two students from New York and New Jersey convene once a month to engage in a dialogue about issues such as immigration, trade, and voting rights.

According to Civics Unplugged, its goal is to “deepen and broaden civic capacity in students, schools, and society.” Students are encouraged to think deeply about complex issues impacting our society and engage in powerful conversations providing multiple perspectives.

Makosiej stated, “I love Civics Unplugged. I find that I leave with more questions than answers but perhaps that is the point.” Gull agreed saying that it teaches students, “how to respect and value other people’s opinions.”

Frank Stebbins, ALJ Civics Unplugged Advisor and co-head of the Civics Unplugged Education Committee stated, “Regardless of whether or not students are planning on entering the world of political science, students are obtaining resources that will benefit them in having actual dialogue to engage in real conversation about difficult topics.”

The orientation video providing a glimpse into the program can be found on the ALJ website: alj.clarkschools.org/

CLARK SHOPRITE MANAGER RECEIVES UNICO AMERICANISM AWARD

One criteria of the award is fostering 'goodwill to mankind'. Clark UNICO chapter president Joe Arancio introduced Dominic and explained all the reasons for the club's choice. Arancio stated in part "The purpose of our decision was not based on how busy or how much profit the supermarket does in Clark. The man behind the helm is a genuine soul – one that understands and exemplifies the meaning of generosity, support and giving back to the community."

HIGH SCHOOL HOSTS ALUMNI PANEL FOR JUNIORS AND SENIORS

The Arthur L. Johnson (ALJ) High School Guidance Department recently hosted an ALJ Alumni Panel where former Crusaders shared with current juniors and seniors what they learned about applying to college and attending their first semester.

The panel, led by Erica Stasio, ALJ

School Counselor, included a series of topics including choosing a school, living away from home, and deciding on a major. Other topics included how ALJ prepared them for college and applying for scholarships.

"The alumni panel is a way to bridge the gap between students who recently left ALJ and students who are leaving soon. Their insight is invaluable and relevant. We hope the current ALJ students take in what the alumni have to say and consider their advice as they decide on their plans for next year," stated Stasio.

Her "folky-soul" sound is reminiscent of Carol King, Norah Jones, and Alicia Keys, and "her warm groove creates an atmosphere of love that's irresistible." Her musical influences range from Carlos Jobim, Ella Fitzgerald, Indigo Girls, to India Arie. Bandmates are: Meredith Foreman, drums; Brad Schwartzseid, bass; and Raul Abbad, guitar.

At her 2016 and 2017 performances at the Roadhouse, Michaela demonstrated her solid songwriting and performing capabilities, accompanied by an extremely talented band.

An original art exhibit by local artist Kerrie Wandlass will be on display at the Roadhouse Gallery of Fine Arts.

All ages are welcome. It's a wholesome show, so bring the entire family!

Doors open 7:30 p.m. The show starts at 8 p.m. Admission is $20/$15 for students with ID.

ABOUT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

Dedication best defines the Salem Roadhouse Café: dedication to excellent music and dedication to the community. As its tenth year begins, Salem Roadhouse Café reaffirms its commitment to both.

Started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, the Roadhouse Café continues to operate as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That may be its social mission... but the Roadhouse Café is and has been a performance venue beloved by the musicians who play there because of its special intimacy with the audience.

Church music, it's not

The Roadhouse Café has always offered its stage to local and independent main stream musicians. It's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music, in a world of clubs and bars. Jazz, rock, folk and other groups have performed. During the past ten years well over 100 different entertainers have appeared. Local fine artists also display their works.

Community orientation

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, and others. Thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.

'CRIMES OF THE HEART' OPENING IN FEBRUARY AT CDC THEATRE

Beth Henley's 'Crimes of The Heart' will be the first production of 2018 at CDC Theatre in Cranford. Warm-hearted, irreverent, zany, and brilliantly imaginative, this black comedy examines the plight of three young Mississippi sisters betrayed by their passions.

In the CDC Theatre production Maeve Brady, Rebecca Dolan, and Katherine Brown are the three MaGrath sisters and each offered some insights into the production. "I'm so thankful to have found a wonderful theatre community such as CDC Theatre," said Katherine Brown who is preparing to appear as Babe, the youngest sister who is facing trial for having shot her husband. "'Crimes of The Heart' appealed to me because the cast is so small and the audience can really get to know the characters. Each sister is in a different part of her life, and faces different challenges, but they all come together as a family to confront them. As the youngest sister, I feel Babe looks to her older sisters for support and for validation of her choices. She has had some hard times but strives to stand up and survive. She is stronger than she seems. I hope to bring some humor and humanity into this challenging role. I am excited to open the show and share Babe's story."

Rebecca Dolan steps into the role of Meg, the self-centered middle sister who ran away to Hollywood. "CDC was where I began to love theatre," Rebecca shared recently. "My first show here was The 'Miracle Worker' when I was 11. I was an acting major at Marymount and have worked at Paper Mill, George Street Playhouse, & Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey. After earning Masters in Drama Therapy at NYU, I worked as a clinician in inpatient psychiatry. I currently work with a non-profit in the city called Enact, where we use theatre and drama therapy in NYC classrooms to provide trauma-informed social-emotional learning. I auditioned for this play because I was drawn to the concept of how these sisters have lived through trauma and difficult times, but are coming back together and figuring out how to survive and move forward. Meg's story of returning home after a long time away and facing what she left there resonates with me personally and I know it will with our audience. It's lovely to be in a space where people devote their time to theatre simply because they love it."

Maeve Brady "returns" to CDC Theatre in the role of Lenny, the oldest sister who has sacrificed her life to care for the grandfather who raised them. "I was in third grade the last time I performed on the CDC stage and I am so glad to be back! Between now and then I got a degree from Princeton where I had some of the best theatrical experiences of my life. These included helping to run a Summer Stock company where I first worked on 'Crimes of the Heart', also as Lenny. I am so excited to be able to do this play again. Character driven dramas are my favorite and these characters are definitely dealing with their fair share of drama. What really makes this play special is how the sisters are able to find moments of joy as they come together again. As an actor, navigating the changing relationships in the midst of all of the history these sisters have with each other is the best type of challenge."

Rounding out the rest of the cast are Danielle Mastropiero as Chick, Joe Leo as Doc, and Zach Mazout as Barnette. The production will run from February 16 through the 24th and details and tickets can be found by visiting cdctheatre.org. CDC Theatre, New Jersey's oldest continuously producing community theatre is located at 78 Winans Avenue in Cranford.

BROGAN AND RANDAZZA TO BE HONORED BY UC BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

MLB Umpire Phil Cuzzi to Speak at Hot Stove Dinner - Sunday, February 11, 2018

The Union County Baseball Association is proud to announce that the special guest speaker for this year's Hot Stove League awards event will be Major League umpire and New Jersey native, Phil Cuzzi. The UCBA will induct four new members into the Union County Baseball Hall of Fame and honor local athletes at the organization's 82nd annual Hot Stove League awards dinner on Sunday, February 11, 2018 beginning at 1:00 p.m. at The Gran Centurions in Clark, New Jersey.

The special guest speaker will be Phil Cuzzi of Nutley, a Major League umpire for 22 seasons, who worked behind the plate in Game One of the 2017 World Series.

The four new Hall of Famers are Bill Feehan, a longtime firefighter for the City of Elizabeth, who played for Roselle Catholic High School and helped Kean College win two ECAC championships; Jack Goldberg, a First Team All-State slugger for the Union High School Farmers, who later played in the minors for the Atlanta Braves; Ernie Hoffer of Linden, a three-sport athlete who earned All-County and All-State honors in 1960 and 1961 as a third baseman; and Curt Wallace, who distinguished himself as a hitter at Edison Tech in Elizabeth and in inter-county leagues before going on to play, manage, instruct, and scout in six countries.

Outstanding athletes from throughout Union County also will be honored at the afternoon awards ceremonies on February 11 for their accomplishments in high school, college and other leagues. Among the honorees will be teammates Shannon Brogan and Gianna Randazza of Arthur L. Johnson High School in Clark, who will share the Banyasz Brothers Award for most valuable scholastic softball players; Brian Oblachinski of Cranford, who will receive the Edward R. Cooper Award for outstanding high school baseball player; Katarina Polyviou of Cranford, who will receive the Joseph R. Lombardi Award for outstanding female athlete; and Nate Roe of Plainfield, who will receive the Chris Zusi Award for outstanding male athlete.

Shannon Brogan finished her high school softball career at ALJ with a .425 batting average and 152 hits. At shortstop, she helped lead the Crusaders to the Union County championship in 2016 and a return trip to the tournament in 2017. She now plays for Moravian College.

Brian Oblachinski was a stellar shortstop and leadoff hitter for the Cranford High School Cougars last year. He posted a .396 batting average with 33 runs scored and only eight strikeouts. Brian stole 15 bases in 15 attempts. He now plays for Montclair State University.

Katarina Polyviou is a standout two-sport player at DeSales University. In May, she was named to the All-MAC Freedom Second Team in lacrosse. In the fall, she was named to the All-MAC Freedom First Team in field hockey and she was profiled in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" feature.

Gianna Randazza, three-time Union County

Player of the Year, graduated as ALJ's all-time leader in hits (192), runs batted in (179), runs scored (140), triples (17) and home runs (26); and as a pitcher, wins (59), strikeouts (532), and no hitters (5). Gianna now plays for Boston College.

Nathaniel Roe enjoyed his best season on the pitching mound as a 2017 Atlantic League All-Star with the New Britain Bees. A Rutgers grad, Nate finished the year with a 7-6 record, one save and 60 strikeouts in 79 innings, primarily in relief, after spending the offseason in the Australian Baseball League.

Tickets for the 82nd annual Hot Stove League awards dinner may be purchased online at www.UCBA-NJ.org. For more information call Jim Iozzi, UCBA president, at 908-917-2523.
