GREEN BROOK POLICE DEPARTMENT AWARDS CEREMONY

Submitted by Captain Samuel J. Caramela

The Green Brook Police Department is proud to announce the hiring of a new officer and the issuance of commendation awards to officers for exceptional acts performed over the past year.

During the Green Brook Township Committee meeting held on December 18, 2017, Mayor Patrick Boccio performed a swearing-in ceremony for the department's newest member, Officer Anthony Domanoski, who joins the Green Brook Police Department after earning a degree in Criminal Justice from Ocean County College and graduating from the Monmouth County Police Academy. Prior to serving in Green Brook, Officer Domanoski served with the Allenhurst and Manalapan Police Departments as a Class II officer.

The annual Green Brook Police Department Awards Ceremony was then led by Chief G. Christopher Kurz who stated "This ceremony is to recognize officers who've performed exceptional acts beyond the regular call of duty during the past year. Though I'm proud to say our officers continually strive to provide a high level of service for our community, there are times when the unexpected occurs and the officers are challenged to perform acts that save lives or otherwise keep people safe."

The awards were then presented in order of occurrence as follows:

Sergeant Gregory Victor, Detective Gary Maurer, Officer Randy Stratton, and Officer Kevin O'Connor each received a Life Saving Award for their actions on December 22, 2016 in saving the life of a male suffering from an opioid overdose, during which cardiopulmonary resuscitation was performed and Naloxone Hydrochloride was administered.

Officer Jonathan Camp received a Letter of Commendation for his actions on April 1, 2017 resulting in the arrest of a male suspect for possession and distribution of C.D.S.

(above) Officer Timothy Stringer and Officer Vincent Luberto each received a Life Saving Award for their actions on May 21, 2017 in saving the life of a female involved in a motor vehicle accident, during which cardiopulmonary resuscitation was performed and Naloxone Hydrochloride was administered.

(above) Officer Anthony Pepe, Officer Jonathan Camp, and Officer Matthew Torbik each received a Life Saving Award for their actions on September 30, 2017 in saving the life of an unresponsive male, during which rescue breathing and Naloxone Hydrochloride were administered.

(above) Officer Kevin O'Connor and Officer Michael Kula each received an Honorable Service Award for their actions on July 15, 2017, resulting in the apprehension of a male suspect wanted for multiple automobile thefts in surrounding jurisdictions.

Christopher Auriano and Officer Randy Stratton each received a Life Saving Award for their actions on August 27, 2017, in saving the life of an unresponsive male, during which rescue breathing and Naloxone Hydrochloride were administered.

(above) Sergeant Gregory Victor and Officer Christopher Dill each received a Life Saving Award for their actions on September 2, 2017, in saving the life of an unresponsive male, during which rescue breathing and Naloxone Hydrochloride were administered.

(above) Upon conclusion of the ceremony, Chief Kurz thanked the Township Committee and all in attendance for taking the time to be a part of recognizing the officers for their outstanding work performed during the year.

BOY SCOUT SEEKS FUNDING FOR GREENHOUSE PROJECT

Submitted by Gregory Diamond

Green Brook Boy Scouts have a history of doing worthwhile projects in and around the local community.

Glen Diamond has been a resident of Green Brook his entire life. He is a member of Boy Scout Troop 129 which meets weekly at Green Brook Middle School (GBMS), where he also attended middle school up until 2014. He is now a senior at Watchung Hills Regional High School. Glen has been involved in scouting since third grade.

Before finishing school and moving on to college, Glen is working towards achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. One of the requirements to earn the rank of Eagle Scout involves completing a service project to benefit the local community. For his project, Glen is working on purchasing and constructing a greenhouse for GBMS. This would give the teachers and students at GBMS an additional place for learning activities outside the classroom. Glen hopes to complete this project in the spring of 2018.

Currently this project is in the fundraising stage, and any donations towards the cost of this greenhouse project would be greatly appreciated. For more information, and to learn how to support this project, please go online to: gofundme.com/glens-eagle-scout-project

WATCHUNG HILLS REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL 2017 MIDDLE SCHOOL CONCERT

Submitted by Denis Kelly, WHRHS

As 8th grade students in Warren Township, Long Hill Township, Watchung, and Green Brook Township settle into the last half-year of their middle school career, they do so having received the gift, three days before Christmas, of being able to feel "Warrior Pride" as the future Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Class of 2022.

(above) During a break in the main performance space, which gave production crews an opportunity to rearrange chairs and music stands for instrumental bands, a smaller musical group of student musicians, The Sax Quartet, occupied the interest of the audience by performing several jazzy numbers. Among them was, appropriately, "Take Five," Dave Brubeck's best-known composition.

(above) Eighth grade students from Middle School in Warren Township, Long Hill Township, Watchung, and Green Brook Township, all soon-to-be First Year high school students, were the guests of honor at the 2017 Middle School Choral & Instrumental Concert, December 22, 2017, at the WHRHS Performing Arts Center (PAC).

The soon-to-be First Year high school students, were the guests of honor at the 2017 Middle School Choral & Instrumental Concert, Friday, December 22, 2017, at the WHRHS Performing Arts Center (PAC). They were welcomed by the Warrior Music Department, whose participants performed selections and highlights from the Winter Instrumental and Choral concerts that entertained audiences on December 7 and 14, 2017, respectively.

Likewise a small number of WHRHS Dance students and members of the Marching Band Color Guard provided choreography for some of the selections at the concert. Several behind-the-scenes student production crew volunteers helped make the concert a smooth performance.

Among the choral music highlights at the Middle School Concert was a reprise of the Choral Concert's crowd-pleaser, "Bohemian Rhapsody," by Queen. The anthem had figured prominently in the movie, "Wayne's World," and the theme of the concert was "Music in the Movies." The "Bohemian Rhapsody" arrangement at the concert appropriately included student musicians on piano, electric lead guitar and bass guitar, and a drum kit.

Likewise, among the highlights from the Instrumental Concert performed at the Middle School Concert was the Wind Ensemble's rendition of perennial favorite, "A Christmas Festival," by Leroy Anderson. During a break in the main performance space behind the curtain on stage, during which production crews rearranged chairs and music stands to support different set-ups for the various instrumental bands, a smaller musical group of student musicians, The Sax Quartet, performed several jazzy numbers. Among them was, appropriately, "Take Five," Dave Brubeck's best-known composition.

As future Warriors filed out of the auditorium to return to their middle schools and then to their holiday week off, current Music Department students lined their way out, giving them greetings from WHRHS. Many encouraged the Class of 2022 to consider joining them next year as singers, instrumentalists, dancers, Marching Band and Color Guard members, and even production crew volunteers.

FOLK MUSICIAN TRACY GRAMMER COMES TO WATCHUNG ARTS CENTER

Celebrating the release of her new CD, "Low Tide", Tracy Grammer comes to the Watchung Arts Center for a performance on February 11, 2018 at 3 p.m. Tracy will be joined by singer and multi-instrumentalist Jim Henry. The audience will have an opportunity to meet Tracy Grammer at the special dessert reception following the performance.

Tracy Grammer rose to acclaim as half of the "postmodern, mythic American folk" duo, Dave Carter & Tracy Grammer. From 1998-2001, the duo released three internationally celebrated, folk chart-topping albums featuring Carter's mythopoetic Americana songcraft and in 2002, toured with Joan Baez, both as featured artists and Baez's band members. Called "the new voice of modern folk music," the duo was clearly in its ascendancy when in July 2002, Carter suffered a fatal heart attack while the duo was on tour. He was 49; Grammer, 34.

Determined to honor the duo's journey and bring Carter's songs, and those of other favorite writers, to broader audiences, Grammer has kept to the road, releasing solo albums as well as selections from the Dave Carter & Tracy Grammer archives.

Grammer has become one of folk music's most beloved artists. Renowned for her springwater-clear alto, perfectly intoned violin, and guitar playing that is by turns percussive and delicate, Grammer is also a masterful storyteller with an ease and charisma on stage -- not to mention a riotous sense of humor -- that hardly belie her modest beginnings as Carter's reclusive accompanist. Stories about the duo's first meeting, Carter's quirks and fancies, or Grammer's own misadventures and missteps are woven thoughtfully into the set list to create a uniquely personal evening that connects audiences to performer, to the Carter/Grammer legacy, and most importantly, to one another.

As one fan put it, "With Tracy, it's never just about the music. It's a soul journey."

Tickets are $20 in advance, $22 at the door. You may purchase tickets securely through Eventbrite. For more information, please call 908-753-0190 or e-mail us.

The Watchung Arts Center, located at 18 Stirling Road in Watchung on the Watchung Circle, is a multi-disciplinary arts facility serving Watchung, the surrounding communities and the Tri-State Area. To obtain more information about upcoming performances, classes and workshops, and monthly art exhibitions, please visit WatchungArts.org or call 908-753-0190.
