END HUNGER 3.6 PACKAGING PROJECT

Based on the resounding success of the End Hunger 3.6 Packaging Project of March 2017, the Rotary Club of Madison and the Madison Rotary Foundation announce this year's project to take place once again at the The Forum at Drew University on Saturday, March 10, 2018, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This year's goal is to surpass last year's total of 123,000 meals, by packaging 250,000 meals.

What does 3.6 represent? Every 3.6 seconds someone in the world dies of malnutrition or starvation. In Rotary District 7470 which encompasses five counties in north central New Jersey, it is estimated that over 200,000 men, women and children are food insecure. Over one million persons are living below the poverty level in New Jersey. Food insecurity experienced at any time across the lifespan has an adverse impact of health. A growing body of evidence suggests that the detrimental impact of food insecurity on health has important consequences for U.S. health care expenditures. These costs are borne substantially by Medicare and Medicaid. Over the long term, prevention of food insecurity is likely to be more cost-effective than treating the consequences of this crisis.

For example, Children: In addition to decreased intellectual and emotional development and poor academic performance, children living in food insecure households are at a higher risk of poor physical and mental health. Pregnant women: Infants born to food insecure mothers are smaller, sicker, and have an increased risk of birth defects. Adults: seniors who are food insecure have a decreased capacity to maintain independence with aging.

The End Hunger 3.6 project is a community event where volunteers package and distribute non-perishable, ready to cook meals, such as macaroni and cheese, rice and vegetables, pasta with tomato basil sauce, and oatmeal. All food is vitamin enriched, and GMO-free. The meals are distributed to soup kitchens and feeding stations throughout Rotary District 7470 as this is a district-wide project. Last year's recipients were, in Morris County: The Community Soup Kitchen, Table of Hope, Market Street Mission, and Faith Kitchen in Dover; in Essex County: St. John's Soup Kitchen, M.E.N.D. (interfaith Meeting Emergency Needs with Dignity), and the Salvation Army's numerous feeding facilities including a mobile van. Hunterdon, Sussex, and Warren Counties were served by NORWESCAP's feeding facilities; and Somerset County was served by God's Co-Op Pantry in Bernardsville.

In order to purchase ingredients for packaging, donations and grants are required. Donations of $500 or more will be acknowledged in Rotary's publicity materials. Madison Rotary Foundation is a 501(c)3 organization. Contributions are tax deductible and can be made on line or by mail to Madison Rotary Foundation, P.O. Box 211, Madison, New Jersey, 07940. Volunteers groups and individuals are needed for the day of the event. Please register by March 5, 2018 on Madison Rotary Website: www.madisonrotarynj.org. for further information, contact Ellsworth Havens, Chair of project at: ellsworthhavens@icloud.com

THE STORY OF LIGHT DURING THE CIVIL WAR

Submitted by Tara Heffernan

The Museum of Early Trades & Crafts (METC) invites the public to join us on Sunday, February 11, 2018 at 2 p.m. for a fascinating presentation, "Achieving Artificial Light: Lighting Devices and the Civil War" by David Cowell, Emeritus Professor of Political Science at Drew University, and antique lighting device expert. Professor Cowell will discuss the types of artificial light prevalent during the Civil War era and he will use several of his own historic lamps and other devices from his extensive collection to elaborate on the lighting of that time. Selections from Dr. Cowell's collection are currently part of "Spark! The Explosive and Dirty History of Light," METC's exhibit which is open until February 23rd. Admission is $8, $5 for Members and Seniors. Registration is required, and guests can register for this and other events at www.metc.org.

David Cowell, Ph.D. is a New Jersey native and while he's retired from the Political Science Department at Drew University, he now teaches in the Continuing Education Program at the Madison Public Library for Drew University. Dr. Cowell's career also includes serving locally as a Councilman for the Borough of Caldwell, and as trustee, member and curator of many historical organizations and societies including the New Jersey Historical Commission. His continued work as an active antiques dealer and manager of two antiques shows has allowed him to build an extensive collection of lighting devices.

"Spark! The Explosive and Dirty History of Light" tells the story of man-made light, from candles, to the whaling trade, through the late 19th century when Thomas Edison ushered in a new era of artificial light and technology. The exhibit will run until February 2018. Guests can take a self-guided tour book a guided tour in advance. The SPARK! Lecture Series has programs for the whole family throughout the rest of the year and into 2018.

For more information on the new exhibit and upcoming lecture series, please call 973-377-2982 or visit our website at metc.org.

CHILDREN'S BOOK TO BENEFIT ST. HUBERT'S

Growing up with a pet is one of the great joys of a young life.

The playing, the bonding, often the forming of the first real friendship provides a lifetime of memories.

The loss of a pet is usually a child's first experience with death and it can be traumatic.

Author Penelope Lagos of Chatham, New Jersey has written a book designed to ease the grieving process by offering a helpful resource for both parents and children.

Her recently published book, "I Miss My Best Friend" (GreenTree Publishers, 2017), is geared for children ages 6 to 9 but can be read by all ages. It comes from a very personal place in Lagos' heart: sadness over the recent passing of her own best friend, her dog Cassius.

With beautiful illustrations by Sophie Moracchinni, "I Miss My Best Friend" tells the story of the day Cassius came into the lives of Louie and Penny and spends his time with them in mischief and merrymaking.

"I Miss My Best Friend" can be enjoyable simply as a children's book, or it can offer help during a time of loss. The book explores grieving in a way young people can understand and relate to. It even offers parents a list of tips at the end to help them make the grieving process a little easier.

The book received a 5-star rating from Reader's Favorite (readersfavorite.com). It is available on Amazon (amzn.to/2yQs0wF) and Barnes & Noble online (barnesandnoble.com).

Locally, the book is available at Jabberwocky in Chatham, Sterling Hallmark at the Chatham and Stirling locations, and Buddy's Boutique at St. Hubert's in Madison. Ten percent of each book purchase goes to support the humane treatment of animals at St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center. This nonprofit organization exists to provide services that support the human-animal bond and seeks to foster an environment in which people respect all living creatures. For more information, visit sthuberts.org.

Lagos, a New Jersey native, graduated from Rutgers University earning a Bachelor's Degree in Communications and Theatre Arts. She is an animal advocate and strongly believes in being "a voice for the voiceless." She holds a certification in Canine Fitness and Conditioning as well as Advanced Pet CPR/First Aid. Her love of animals, and loss of her beloved best friend Cassius "The Legend" Lagos, inspired her to write "I Miss My Best Friend" and help others cope with the grief of losing a family pet. When Lagos is not spending time with her own furry friends, she is acting in independent films and commercials as well as volunteering at the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society (LLS). She was the recipient of an achievement award honoring critical funds raised for LLS.

Lagos can be reached through her website at penelopelagos.com.

Please join us for a FREE Educational College Financial Planning workshop that will focus on high school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. We'll discuss the FAFSA form and all the other information you need to understand in order to maximize the amount of financial aid you are eligible to receive!

Even if your family is not eligible for need-based aid, we will cover the best strategies on how to pay for college in the most cost efficient basis - without it putting a strain on the rest of your finances.

In this workshop, you will learn:

- How to increase your college-related tax deductions and tax credits
- How to pick colleges that will give you the best financial aid packages
- How to send your child to an expensive private university for less than a state school
- Which assets are taken into consideration when the U.S. Department of Education calculates your Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
- How to pay for college in a failing economy without relying on 529 plans, expensive private student loans or raiding your retirement accounts
- How to get ahead by developing a customized plan to meet all the college costs you will incur as a family
- How to lower your "out-of-pocket" costs and get the maximum amount of money from each school

AN AGE-FRIENDLY BUSINESS IS GOOD BUSINESS IN MADISON

Submitted by Laura Sostak

Attracting baby boomers and older adults can be a boon to business in downtown Madison and Chatham. With money to spend and discretionary time to spend it, older adults are an asset to the vitality of the local economy.

The Madison Chamber of Commerce and the Tri-Town 55+ Coalition are working together with local businesses to ensure that they are accessible, offer a comfortable atmosphere and provide great service to attract this growing population.

Businesses are taking advantage of their partnership with the Tri-Town 55+ Coalition and the Madison Chamber of Commerce. "For one thing, it's good for business. By increasing safe accessibility in and around your business, and creating an inviting atmosphere, you will be enhancing quality of life for the whole community and your business will become a desired destination," says Frank Iannarone, III, RPh., owner of the Madison Pharmacy and member of both Tri-Town 55+ Coalition and the Madison Chamber of Commerce.

Business owners were asked to assess key components of their facilities such as physical environment, staffing, marketing and customer experience. If these areas met the suggested guidelines established by the Tri-Town 55+ Age Friendly Business committee, the business received the designation.

All designated Age-Friendly businesses are promoted and supported through Tri-Town 55+

Coalition partners, events and activities. A list of participating businesses can be found on the Tri-Town 55+ Coalition's Age-Friendly Business webpage (tritown55plus.org). Several businesses offer special Senior Discounts to further attract the senior population.

Tri-Town 55+ Coalition is a non-profit, community based organization that partners with businesses, non-profit and public agencies to address the quality of life and diverse needs and interests of older adults and their families in the communities of Chatham Borough, Chatham Township and Madison Borough. The Coalition's first initiative is the Rides for Seniors on-demand, subsidized car service for age 65 and older residents of Madison and the Chathams. It launched in April 2017, and has provided over 2300 subsidized rides including bringing customers to local age-friendly businesses.

For more information or to have an age-friendly business evaluation, contact Karen Giambra at madisonchamber@gmail.com.

HOW TO CREATE A HEALTHY LIFE: FREE TALKS AT GRACE COUNSELING CENTER

Come join us for a series of monthly discussions to help you create a more meaningful life. Grace Counseling Center, 16 Madison Avenue, in Madison, New Jersey is offering these discussions free to the community. Each one focuses on an aspect of your life that can help you unleash true happiness.

Wednesday, February 7, 2018, 7 to 9 p.m.:
"You Said 'What?'"

True communication requires two people to share a deep level of understanding about their needs, concerns, or feelings. Often, we are not tuned in deeply enough to really share on this level. This seminar can help persons in special relationships (married, committed, friendship, parent, and adult child) enrich their lives through dialogue. For the greatest benefit, both parties of the relationship should attend together. Presented by: Catherine M. Morrisett, D. Min

Monday, March 19, 2018, 7 to 8 p.m.:
"Raising Resilient Children"

Raising children in today's world is complicated. One of the greatest gifts we can give them is the ability to be resilient. This workshop will explore the characteristics that define resilience and how to cultivate it in your child. Presented by: Nunzio Gubitosa, MA, M Phil, LP.

MADISON BOY SCOUT TROOP 25 ANNUAL CABIN CAMP

Submitted by Ruth Deane

Boy Scout Troop 25 from Madison, New Jersey, held their annual cabin camp out at Winnebago Scout Reservation last month. This annual camp out is popular with the scouts and is a big recruiting weekend for the Troop too. Potential Boy Scouts from Cub Scout Packs in Madison, Harding Township, Florham Park, and Morristown all braved the cold to sample a taste of what Boy Scouts is all about.

The scouts hiked to nearby lakes and saw the resident beaver dams; had a fire-building competition; played games in the cabin as well as the obligatory man-hunt, a favorite with the Troop 25 Scouts. The weekend was not only about having fun, but also learning important scouting skills such as map reading and orienteering.

And do not forget about the food. Scoutmaster Wayne Dieckmann warned scouts to come hungry in anticipation of Assistant Scoutmaster John Dew and Bill Daniel's and scouts famous gourmet cooking.

Despite the cold weather affecting car locks, the group returned home after doing their traditional "circle up" with "roses, thorns, and buds" from each person who attended. From the smiles on the scouts faces and the stories told at the following Monday meeting, it sounds like a great time was had by all.

Troop 25 meets on Mondays, 7:30 p.m., at the Presbyterian Church on 19 Green Avenue, Madison, New Jersey.

Please contact Wayne Dieckmann at waynexk120@optonline.net for information on the Troop.
