HISTORICAL SOCIETY PRESENTS “PAINTING NIGHTS”

The Kenilworth Historical Society once again will be presenting a series of “Painting Nights” with resident artist Patricia Hubinger to benefit the historic Oswald J. Nitschke House “living history” museum and cultural arts center. The enlightening, enjoyable, two-hour painting sessions, held in the Nitschke House cultural arts center, 49 South 21 Street, Kenilworth, New Jersey, gives participants of all ages, backgrounds and abilities an opportunity to create unique paintings under the guidance of a master artist instructor. The next “Painting Nights with Pat” will take place on Tuesday, March 27, and May 22, 2018 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Acrylic paint, brushes, canvases, easels, smocks, and other art supplies will be provided as part of the $25 admission price. Participants are asked to arrive by 6:15 p.m. and are invited to bring food and beverages. Advance registration is required, as seating is limited. To make reservations for any of the Painting Nights, and/or to receive information about future painting sessions, please call 908-709-0434. Gift certificates are available.

Proceeds will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society’s Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) “living history” museum and cultural arts center by helping defray the cost of an elevator that makes all levels of the newly restored site fully accessible to everyone.

The Kenilworth Historical Society is an independent, volunteer-based, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501(c)3 organization dedicated to the research, preservation and interpretation of the Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture.

KENILWORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING - MARCH 14

SPEAKER’S TOPIC: TUNE UP YOUR MARKETING PLAN

The Kenilworth Chamber of Commerce meets monthly on the second Wednesday of the month. The morning meeting starts at 8:30 a.m. and runs until 10:00 a.m. The location changes each month as does the guest speaker. The March 2018 meeting will be held at the Kenilworth Library on March 14th. The guest speaker will be Joe Renna, publisher of The Kenilworth Business Life Newspaper. He will present methods for tuning up your marketing plan in order to grow your business.

The meeting is open prospective members who would like to see what the chamber is about and benefit from the networking opportunity.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

March is upon us, and hopefully we will be having nice weather coming soon!

One thing I like to talk is a little miscommunication as to which website is the actual Kenilworth website. It appears some of our residents are going on KenilworthNJ.com thinking that is our official website. In truth, that used to be our website, however we don't own the domain name. Several years ago, we created our official website kenilworthborough.com and that is where you can go for information and latest news.

Which brings me to another topic. Kenilworth utilizes the Swift 911 system to get important information and announcements out to the public via landline phone or to cell phones if you wish. Sign up is free and is located on our Kenilworth Borough website. Our goal is to get everyone signed up. If you need assistance signing up, help is available at the Senior Center, Library, and Borough Hall. In times of crisis, the ability to get information quickly and accurately is imperative; this system allows the authorities to do reach as many people as possible.

I would like to remind everyone while the season of giving is technically over, there are still people in need throughout the year. I like to take this time to remind everyone to help stock your local food pantry.

Non-perishable goods and gift cards to any supermarket can be left in the Cry Room at St. Theresa's Church, 541 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth, New Jersey, after any Mass.

Monday to Friday donations can be dropped off at the Rectory from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Supermarket gift cards and or check donations, payable to St. Theresa's, can be mailed to: Social Concerns, c/o The Church of St. Theresa, 541 Washington Ave, Kenilworth, NJ 07033

If you are in need of food, you can contact the Rectory at 908-272-4444. They will arrange for a volunteer to meet you at the pantry. All identities of people receiving assistance are kept confidential!

The Kenilworth Calendar is full this month here are some important dates and events coming up;

March 6: The Kenilworth Historical Society, 41 South 21st Street, Kenilworth, will have author Joanne Hamilton Rajoppi, who will be discussing her recent book "Northern Women in the Aftermath of the Civil War." Relating the perseverance and stamina of women who faced and altered world after the Civil War. Admission is free but advance registration is required, call 908-709-0434.

March 11: Daylight Savings Time, "Spring ahead, fall behind" for those who don't have clocks and watches that reset themselves, set your clocks an hour ahead.

March 17: St. Patrick's Day.

March 18: The Rabies Clinic for Dogs and Cats, 11 am. to 1 p.m. at the Fire Department on 491 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth.

March 18: The Public is invited to the Grand Opening Celebration for the New Dimario Park playground located on South Michigan Avenue at 1 p.m. For more information call Kristin Boyle, Recreation Program Administrator at 908-400-2934.

March 20: The Kenilworth Historical Society is hosting "Soups-On" soup tasting event from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Senior Center, 526 Boulevard, Kenilworth. Featuring a taste of favorite soups from local restaurants and other plus assorted breads and desserts. Cost is just $12 and advanced reservations are required. Call 908-709-0434 for more info reservations.

March 24: The Kenilworth Recreation Annual Easter Egg Hunt. For more details contact Kristin Boyle at 908-400-2934.

March 27: The Kenilworth Historical Society presents Painting Nights at the Nitschke House, 49 South 21st Street, Kenilworth. A two-hour painting session with master artist Pat Hubinger, starting at 6:30 p.m. Cost is $25, and all supplies provided, no prior experience required, however advance registration is required call 908-709-0434.

March 30: Good Friday

While this is for the following month these are some important dates for April.

April 1: Easter

Our stores and businesses are an integral part of our community, please take time to shop and visit and often as you can.

Thank you to our many volunteers in town, everyday people, taking time out of their busy schedules to make a difference in town. Our Fire Department and Rescue Squad is second to none and I am very proud of the people I serve with.

I would also like to thank our municipal employees for doing a great job, everyone from the clerks to the DPW; you're the gears that keep the machine running. Special thanks to our Police for being out there 24-7, 365 days a year keeping our town safe.

Please stay safe Kenilworth!

God Bless you all and God Bless America.

Mayor Anthony P. DeLuca Jr.

WHAT, WHERE AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH: SAINT THERESA'S CHAPEL

The old Saint Theresa's Chapel still stands at 511 Washington Avenue near N. 21st Street in Kenilworth, New Jersey. But many are unaware that the building in its present state was once a Catholic chapel.

Built in the late 1920s or early 1930s it was a clothing factory. Sal Cirillo (1929-2010) recalled in 2004 that his mother, Mary Cirillo Nastasi (1894-1983), was a seamstress there during the Great Depression.

Without a church structure in Kenilworth back then, local Catholics worshipped at St. Michael's, Cranford, or at the Church of the Assumption, Roselle Park. Children's religious classes were held in homes, the old borough hall, the old Centre Del, and in Harding School.

In the 1940s, the former clothing factory was acquired by the Archdiocese of Newark. The formal dedication of Saint Theresa's Chapel and first mass were held there on November 1, 1942. Formal parish status came in 1949 at which time the late Rev. Sylvester P. McVeigh became the first resident pastor, serving until his death in 1965.

As membership grew construction of a school, church-auditorium, and convent began in 1953. They were dedicated in 1954. In 1959 a fire in the chapel resulted in burn injuries to Father McVeigh as he rescued religious items from the altar. Due to the size of the growing parish, some masses continued to be held in the chapel until the 1960s. A new church and rectory were dedicated March 18, 1967 on Washington Avenue between North 22nd and North 23rd streets.

About that time the chapel was sold and converted into the Kenilworth Funeral Home. In 1991 the business was acquired by Albert Opacity and is now the Opacity Funeral Home.

Research provided by Walter E. Boright, Ed. D., historian, and Historic Signs, Inc. Persons with inquiries about this or other aspects of Kenilworth history may contact Dr. Boright at drbori@aol.com or 908-256-5200.

SPRINGFEST! SATURDAY, MARCH 24, 2018

Winter is coming to an end and that can mean only one thing – it's time for Bayern Verein Newark's SpringFest!

In Germany, Munich's Fruehlingsfest (Springfest in English) is the sister event to the city's legendary beer festival held later in the year. Known as Little Oktoberfest, the festival welcomes thousands of people to the Bavarian capital for more than two weeks of traditional celebration, including plenty of beer, food, music, and an all-round festive atmosphere.

And just like in Munich, our German festival will welcome Spring, complete with German cuisine, pretzels, beer, wine, music by Bernie's Orchestra, as well as our own traditional German Schuhplattlers and Folkdancers in Lederhosen and Dirndls – all in a Festhalle right in Kenilworth, NJ!

Join us in kicking off the season on Saturday, March 24, 2018 at the Kenilworth Veteran's Center, 33 South 21st Street, Kenilworth, NJ at 6 p.m. Admission: $35 per person, $10 Children ages 6-16 years; Under 6 years – Free, and includes a hot food platter, dessert and tea/coffee as well as imported and domestic beer, wine, soda and water throughout the evening.

For More Information contact Ralph Ehmann at (908) 265-1602 or ehmannrtool@aol.com or Betty Bunker at (732) 463-7855 or embunker@gmail.com.

IRS WARNS OF SCAMS TARGETING TAXPAYERS

The IRS is urging the public to be aware of suspicious individuals claiming to be from the IRS.

Thousands of people have lost millions of dollars and their personal information to tax scams. Scammers use the regular mail, telephone, or email to set up individuals, businesses, payroll, and tax professionals.

The IRS doesn't initiate contact with taxpayers by email, text messages, or social media channels to request personal or financial information. Recognize the telltale signs of a scam.

Scams Targeting Taxpayers

IRS-Impersonation Telephone Scams

A sophisticated phone scam targeting taxpayers, including recent immigrants, has been making the rounds throughout the country. Callers claim to be IRS employees, using fake names and bogus IRS identification badge numbers. They may know a lot about their targets, and they usually alter the caller ID to make it look like the IRS is calling.

Victims are told they owe money to the IRS and it must be paid promptly through a gift card or wire transfer. Victims may be threatened with arrest, deportation or suspension of a business or driver's license. In many cases, the caller becomes hostile and insulting. Victims may be told they have a refund due to try to trick them into sharing private information. If the phone isn't answered, the scammers often leave an "urgent" callback request.

Some thieves have used video relay services (VRS) to try to scam deaf and hard of hearing individuals. Taxpayers are urged not trust calls just because they are made through VRS, as interpreters don't screen calls for validity.

Limited English Proficiency victims are often approached in their native language, threatened with deportation, police arrest and license revocation, among other things. IRS urges all taxpayers caution before paying unexpected tax bills. Note that the IRS doesn't:

- Call to demand immediate payment using a specific payment method such as a prepaid debit card, gift card or wire transfer. Generally, the IRS will first mail you a bill if you owe any taxes.
- Threaten to bring in local police or other law-enforcement groups to have you arrested for not paying.
- Demand payment without giving you the opportunity to question or appeal the amount they say you owe.
- Ask for credit or debit card numbers over the phone.

Scams Targeting Tax Professionals

Increasingly, tax professionals are being targeted by identity thieves. These criminals – many of them sophisticated, organized syndicates – are redoubling their efforts to gather personal data to file fraudulent federal and state income tax returns.

Surge in Email, Phishing and Malware Schemes

Phishing (as in "fishing for information") is a scam where fraudsters send e-mail messages to trick unsuspecting victims into revealing personal and financial information that can be used to steal the victims' identity.

The IRS has issued several alerts about the fraudulent use of the IRS name or logo by scammers trying to gain access to consumers' financial information to steal their identity and assets.

Scam emails are designed to trick taxpayers into thinking these are official communications from the IRS or others in the tax industry, including tax software companies. These phishing schemes may seek information related to refunds, filing status, confirming personal information, ordering transcripts, and verifying PIN information.

Be alert to bogus emails that appear to come from your tax professional, requesting information for an IRS form. IRS doesn't require Life Insurance and Annuity updates from taxpayers or a tax professional.

Variations can be seen via text messages. The IRS is aware of email phishing scams that include links to bogus web sites intended to mirror the official IRS web site. These emails contain the direction "you are to update your IRS e-file immediately." These emails are not from the IRS.

The sites may ask for information used to file false tax returns or they may carry malware, which can infect computers and allow criminals to access your files or track your keystrokes to gain information.

For more details, visit www.irs.gov; YouTube IRS Videos on Tax Scams.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION AT NITSCHKE HOUSE

Nationally acclaimed author and historian Joanne Hamilton Rajoppi will highlight stories from her most recent book, "Northern Women in the Aftermath of the Civil War – The Wives and Daughters of the Brunswick Boys," during the Kenilworth Historical Society's Women's History Month Celebration on Tuesday, March 6, 2018, at 7 p.m.

All are invited to attend the event, which will be held at the Oswald J. Nitschke House "living history" museum and cultural arts center, 49 South 21 Street, Kenilworth. Admission is free, but advance registration is requested due to limited seating. Light refreshments will be served. Copies of Northern Women in the Aftermath of the Civil War will be available for purchase and signing by the author.

For information/reservations, please call 908-709-0434.

Rajoppi's presentation, based on her book, will show the challenges and struggles that defined the roles of women in the aftermath of America's Civil War, as exemplified by the experiences of the author's ancestors, the Hamilton family. It will underscore the perseverance, stamina, and quiet heroism of such women as they confronted widowhood and/or the strain of caring for returning soldiers with alcoholism, drug addiction and post-traumatic stress. The story of the Hamilton family further portrays the legacy as well as the dreams and hopes that late 19th to early 20th century women left their children in the context of a rapidly evolving America marked by a new Federal pension system, the westward migration, industrialization and the start of modern business culture.

Rajoppi is the author of two other books: "The Civil War in New Brunswick: The Brunswick Boys and the Great Rebellion," and the nationally acclaimed "Women in Office: Getting There and Staying There." Rajoppi's publications have received National Women's Press Association, New Jersey Women's Press Association and North Jersey Civil War Roundtable Book honors.

In addition to her literary achievements, Rajoppi has many notable accomplishments in business and government. She is the first woman in Union County's history to be elected Union County Clerk, a role that she has fulfilled since 1995. She also was the first woman to serve as

Union County Register of Deeds and Mortgages, a position that she held for 12 years prior to her election as Union County Clerk. A native of Springfield, Rajoppi was the first female mayor of the municipality, a post to which she was elected in 1977. She also served on the Springfield board of education and township committee. Rajoppi was elected to the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders in 1978 and in 1980 became the first woman to chair the board. In 1981, she was appointed New Jersey's Assistant Secretary of State by the late former Gov. Brendan Byrne.

Rajoppi earned her B.A. degree, cum laude, from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, and her master's degree in public administration from the Center for Public Service at Seton Hall University. She has received multiple National Association of Counties Achievement Awards for innovative and creative management.

Rajoppi is a member of the Union Township Historical Society and a trustee of the Union County Historical Society. She chaired the 150th Union County Courthouse Anniversary Committee.

NJ MAKERS DAY AT KENILWORTH LIBRARY

Hands-on-stations and live demonstrations celebrate the many aspects of maker culture at Kenilworth Public Library. Come to the library on Saturday, March 10, 2018, from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. to be a part of it.

Last year's demonstrations included 3D printing, robotics, spinning and weavings, and circuitry. The maker movement in the United States isn't just a hobby; it's having a significant impact on school curriculum development and growing local economies.

To celebrate making and maker culture, residents throughout New Jersey will come together in libraries, schools, museums, homes, and other community locations. NJ Makers Day is designed to be a statewide event that celebrates, promotes, and in many cases may introduce maker culture, as well as the values associated with making, tinkering, and STEM-based learning. In 2015, the inaugural NJ Makers Day drew over 13,000 individual attendees to 130 participating sites across all 21 counties in the state.

Maker spaces across the state are having a significant impact on education and job skills development by providing access to people, information, resources, and tools that facilitate making to a wide variety of skill levels. NJ Makers Day allows communities to share hands on programming opportunities, demonstrations and displays, and the expertise of the individuals and organizations that make, create, and develop right in their own backyards.

Please contact Robin Koerner at rkoerner@lmxac.org or 908-276-2451, to stay updated on the details of this and other events. Learn more about NJ Makers Day at njmakersday.org.

KENILWORTH SENIOR PROGRAMS

Submitted by Paulette Drogon

For further information, call Paulette Drogon, Senior Program Director at 908-276-6461.

Due to the generosity of the UC Community Development Block Grant, and the Mayor and Council of Kenilworth, the Department of Senior Service offers many free senior activities to keep our seniors 62 years or older active and healthy. In addition, for seniors who work, or are responsible for babysitting their grandchildren, we have started a program in the evening.

The following are free daily programs offered to Kenilworth seniors upstairs in the Senior Center located at 526 Boulevard, Kenilworth, New Jersey.

MONDAY: EXERCISE CLASS, 1 P.M.

WEDNESDAY: HEALTHY BONES, 9:30 A.M.

THURSDAY: BEGINNER COUNTRY LINE DANCING, 7 P.M.
STARTING UP AGAIN ON MARCH 8, 2018.

FRIDAY: ZUMBA GOLD, 1:30 P.M.

IN ADDITION, CRAFT AND CERAMIC CLASSES AT 10 A.M. ARE HELD ON ONCE A MONTH ON MONDAY (CALL CENTER FOR DATES).

BOWLING AT GARWOOD LANES 346 NORTH AVENUE, GARWOOD, 1 P.M. EVERY TUESDAY.

Except for bowling all programs are held at the Senior Center.

SOUP TASTING AT KENILWORTH SENIORS' CENTER

The Kenilworth Historical Society will host a soup-tasting event on Tuesday, March 20, 2018, from 6 to 8 p.m., at the Kenilworth Seniors' Center, 526 Boulevard, Kenilworth, New Jersey.

"Soup's On" will give participants the opportunity to taste a variety of favorite soups from local restaurants, along with assorted breads, and desserts. Admission is $12. Parking and entrance to the Seniors' Center are located at the rear of the building.

Advance reservations are requested by March 16, as seating is limited. For information/reservations, please call 908-709-0434 or visit Especially Yours Florist, 13 North 20th Street, Kenilworth, where tickets for the event also are being sold.

Proceeds from "Soup's On" will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society's Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) "living history" museum and cultural arts center by helping defray the cost of an elevator that makes all levels of the site fully accessible to everyone.

The Kenilworth Historical Society is an independent, volunteer-based, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501 (c)(3) organization dedicated to the research, preservation, and interpretation of the Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture.

MIKE ZUKO & FRIENDS TO PERFORM AT SALEM ROADHOUSE CAFÉ

The Salem Roadhouse Café, located within Townley Presbyterian Church, 829 Salem Road, Union, NJ, presents Mike Zuko & Friends performing on Saturday, March 10, 2018.

Raised on a diet of The Beatles, Buddy Holly, and The Doors, Michael Zuko was exposed first hand to the thrilling music of the legendary '70s NYC club scene. Zuko and the band showcase a skilled singer-songwriter who is backed by solid musical talent, bringing original, fresh and intelligent lyrics to the stage. A true entertainer, Mike engages the audience fully and leaves them wanting more. Mike has been a regular at the Salem Roadhouse Café and was one of the original performers at the premier show of the Café 10 years ago. Mike and the band have always performed to a full house with energy, originality, and fun.

An original art exhibit by artist Karen Kenner will be on display at the Roadhouse Gallery of Fine Arts.

All ages are welcome. It's a wholesome show, so bring the entire family!

Doors open 7:30 p.m. The show starts at 8 p.m.

Admission is $20/$15 for students with ID. Admission includes the show, snacks, beverages, and a special anniversary dessert, plus the art gallery.

About Salem Roadhouse Café

Dedication best defines the Salem Roadhouse Café: dedication to excellent music and dedication to the community. As its 10th year begins, Salem Roadhouse Café reaffirms its commitment to both.

Started in 2008 by members of Townley

Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, the Roadhouse Café continues to operate as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That may be its social mission, but the Roadhouse Café is and has been a performance venue beloved by the musicians who play there because of its special intimacy with the audience.

Church music, it's not.

The Roadhouse Café has always offered its stage to local and independent main stream musicians. It's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music, in a world of clubs and bars. Jazz, rock, folk, and other groups have performed. During the past ten years well over 100 different entertainers have appeared. Local fine artists also display their works.

GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION FOR THE NEW DIMARIO PARK PLAYGROUND

The public is invited to attend the Grand Opening Celebration for the new DiMario Park Playground and the renovated facilities; both located Michigan Avenue, on Sunday, March 18, 2018, at 1 p.m.

"I am really excited about this revitalization of DiMario Park! These enhancements were possible in part through the Union County Kids Recreational Trust Grant, the Borough of Kenilworth, the generosity of volunteers and local businesses! The new playground installation was a community build, supervised by Picerno-Giordano Construction, which supports the community in being active and connected!"

said Mayor Anthony DeLuca.

The playground includes equipment for both young and older children. The playground's modern, multicolored theme was chosen to symbolize the vibrant and diverse community.

"I am really excited about the opening of the new DiMario Park playground. It's a project that we have been working on for some time. It is a place for kids and families to play and meet. To see it come to fruition, knowing the families that will enjoy it, that is what it's all about." said Councilwoman Kay Ceceri.

For more information regarding the event, please call Kristin Boyle, Recreation Program Administrator, at 908-400-2934.
