MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Kenilworth, New Jersey some nice weather! During the last month the result of these bad storms was a multitude of trees and wires down. Kudos to our emergency services for getting out there in the worst of it making the best of a bad situation. The nor'easters we faced not only included high winds but a heavy wet snow that crippled most of the state. I don't want to say we were lucky, but we fared much better than some other towns.

I would like to remind everyone while the season of giving is technically over, there are still people in need throughout the year. I like to take this time to remind everyone to help stock your local food pantry.

Non-perishable goods and gift cards to any supermarket can be left in the Cry Room at St. Theresa's Church, 541 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth, after any Mass.

Monday to Friday donations can be dropped off at the Rectory between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Supermarket gift cards and or check donations, made payable to St. Theresa's, can be mailed to: Social Concerns, c/o The Church of St. Theresa, 541 Washington Avenue, Kenilworth, NJ 07033.

If you are in need of food, you can contact the Rectory at 908-272-4444. They will arrange for a volunteer to meet you at the pantry. All identities of people receiving assistance are kept confidential.

Here are some important dates and events coming up:

April 28: Afternoon Tea with America's First Ladies, Saturday, April 28, noon. Cost is $30 and is held at Kenilworth Gospel Chapel, 557 Newark Avenue, Kenilworth. Advance reservations are required. (above) Author
Cormac O'Brien.

Cormac O'Brien, author of the recently published "Secret Lives of the First Ladies: Strange Stories and Shocking Trivia from Inside the White House," will address attendees at an elegant afternoon Tea to be presented by the Kenilworth Historical Society on Saturday, April 28, 2018.

O'Brien's enlightening and entertaining presentation, based on fascinating material from his book, will highlight many of America's extraordinary first ladies, from 1789 to date, and relate their unique and oftentimes private ways of adapting to and fulfilling the demands and expectations of their position.

The "Tea with America's First Ladies" will begin at noon at the Kenilworth Gospel Chapel Hall, 557 Newark Avenue, Kenilworth, New Jersey, where the ambience of a lovely tearoom, creatively accented with first lady decor, is being created for the event. An array of assorted teas, tea sandwiches, scones and desserts will be served. The event also will feature a gift auction and door prizes. Copies of "Secret Lives of the First Ladies" will be available for purchase and may be signed by the author.

Admission is $30. Advance reservations are requested, as seating is limited. For reservations/tickets, please call 908-709-0434 or visit Especially Yours Florist at 13 North 20th Street, Kenilworth.

Proceeds from the April 28 Tea and Gift Auction will benefit the Kenilworth Historical Society's Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) "living history" museum and cultural arts center by helping defray the cost of an elevator that makes all levels of the site fully accessible to everyone.

As a prominent author, O'Brien brings a distinctive voice to the history genre. He has published books on a variety of subjects ranging from natural disasters to U.S. presidents, from ancient empires to the American Civil War. In addition to "Secret Lives of the First Ladies," O'Brien has authored "Secret Lives of the U.S. Presidents" and "Secret Lives of the Civil War."

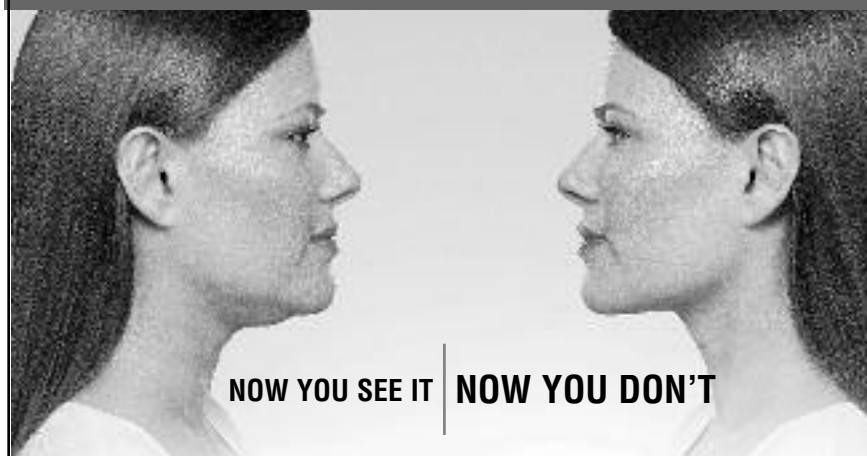

A native of western New York state who now resides in New Jersey, O'Brien has made appearances on NPR, CNN's Anderson Cooper 360, The History Channel, and other venues.

The Kenilworth Historical Society (www.kenilworthhistoricalsociety.org) is a volunteer-based, independent, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the research, preservation and interpretation of the Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture.

The Kenilworth Gospel Chapel is an independent community Bible church with a congregation of approximately 165 adults and children. The chapel was constructed in 1936 by a number of chapel members, including the family of local pioneer James Arthur, Sr., who built many homes in the area in the late 19th/early 20th centuries and who founded the New Orange Park project.

ROTARY CLUB ANNOUNCES CASINO NIGHT

The Rotary Club of Kenilworth sponsors an annual Casino Night to benefit local students. This spring's fundraiser will take place at the Kenilworth VFW, 33 S. 21st Street, Kenilworth, New Jersey, on Friday, April 20, 2018, from 7 to 11 p.m. Tickets are $30 and entitle each person to $100 in casino chips and as well as to refreshments.

Proceeds from this fundraiser give Kenilworth students the opportunity to qualify for one of two programs: "Send Our Children to Summer Camp" or the "Kenilworth Scholarship Program." The summer camp program is offered to fifth through eighth grade students, whose families cannot afford the cost of sending their children to summer camp. The Scholarship program provides financial help to Kenilworth's high school seniors planning to attend college.

Members of Kenilworth's Rotary Club are currently requesting contributions from local businesses, residents and organizations that can assist in the success of Casino Night. All prizes in the event will be from donations and/or monetary contributions from locals to assist in putting the fundraiser together. Tricky- tray prizes will be awarded during the final hour. All sponsors are cordially invited to attend.

Established in 1948, the Kenilworth Rotary Club has been an active service organization, helping local schools, the Kenilworth community and national organizations for nearly 70 years. The club meets each Wednesday at Riberto's (24 North 20th Street in Kenilworth) from 12:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

If you wish to contribute to this event by sponsoring a table at Casino Night, donating a tricky-tray prize, and/or attending the Casino Night fundraiser event please contact:

WHAT, WHERE, AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH: MOM AND POP INDUSTRIES

By Walter Boright

Kenilworth New Jersey's strong industrial base dates to the 1890s. Its first motto coined in 1959 was "A residential community with industrial strength." Although large factories located here, many smaller, family-owned, "mom and pop" enterprises came as well.

The 1940s and 1950s was a boom period for these smaller operations – more came later. The oldest of these still in operation is Brent Materials, North 14th, dating to 1927, headed by Linda Gardner, the family's third generation. In 1941 John Rohm established J. Rohm Foundry Co. at 121 N. Michigan Avenue. It ceased to operate about 1980. It had over 30 employees. In 1951 Fred Butler started B&W Printing in a garage on 21st Street. Son Gary operates the shop located for decades at 745 Fairfield Avenue. Waage Electric, founded in 1908, was brought to town by A. H. Waage in 1951. Grandson Mark currently heads the business.

These smaller industries play a substantial role in Kenilworth's economic health. In 2017, the 331 industrial and commercial properties paid about $17,143,000 in property taxes, about 39 percent of the total. The 2523 residential properties paid about $22,251,000 in property taxes, about 51 percent of the total. Other properties accounted for about $4,166,000 or 10 percent of tax collections.

What small factories manufactured was diversified. These included eye glass hinges and frames, chemical solvents and paints, fire extinguishers, toy soldiers, parachute hardware, aircraft and vehicle parts, forged dies, tools and dies, bushings, TV antennas, cement block, wire stripping equipment, fountain and retractable pens, table top appliances, hot dogs, jalousies and metal awnings, aluminum and bronze castings, shower and tub enclosures, heating devices, insecticides, screw machine products, metal stampings and plating, injection molding products, soil testing machinery, fabricated metal products, handrails, and hydraulic and pneumatic valves. In the 1950s and 1960s it often was said, "No matter what product was made in the United States, some component of it was made in Kenilworth."

Research provided by Walter E. Boright, Ed. D., historian, and Historic Signs, Inc. Persons with inquiries about this or other aspects of Kenilworth history may contact Dr. Boright at drbori@aol.com or 908-256-5200.

CRANFORD POOL & FITNESS CENTER RECEIVES AOAP LIFE JACKET GRANT AND KENILWORTH VFW DONATION

Submitted by Patty Kozlowski, Cranford Recreation & Parks Dept.

The Cranford Pool and Fitness Center, Cranford, New Jersey, has a new inventory of lifejackets that were purchased as a result of a very generous donation from the Kenilworth VFW and also as the recipient of the AOAP life jacket grant program. Previously, the Fitness Center did not allow life jackets in its pools, but as a result of the grant and the donation, a new life jacket policy will be rolled out soon.

The pool staff is very passionate about promoting water safety and promoting prevention of drowning through the Center's swim lesson program, as well as through enforcement of rules and regulations. These lifejackets will allow for improved safety during swim lessons, as well as being available for use at both summer pool locations, especially during open swim time.

The Cranford Pool & Fitness Center would like to thank the AOAP and the Kenilworth VFW for their generosity and commitment to providing knowledge and resources to swimming facilities across the country. We are very fortunate and plan to pay it forward with drowning prevention education throughout our community.

THE NEXT BIG THING!!!

JOE RENNA'S HYPER LOCAL NETWORK ON YOUTUBE

Renna Media has launched a new YouTube channel called Joe Renna's Hyper Local Network! The channel will consist of a variety of shows, each with its own focus. The first episode of each show is up and ready to view.

Mind Your Own Local Business

Mind Your Local Business uses real life examples to illustrate successful techniques for managing and marketing your business. Local businesses will be featured. The first episode is about crafting a 30 second elevator speech. The February 2018 meeting of the Irish Business Association held at Molly Maguire's in Clark, NJ is featured in the first episode. Businesses that would like to be featured in an episode can email Joe at joerenna@rennamedia.com.

The Peterstown Show

The Peterstown show is a video continuation of the Peterstown Newspaper. The show focuses on the 100-year history of an Italian American Neighborhood in Elizabeth, NJ. Like the newspaper, it preserves the culture and traditions while recording the oral history that may be lost. The first episode is an interview with Carmela Lepore who turned 108-years-old on January 30, 2018.

Renna's Arena hosted by Nick Renna

Nick Renna has been the voice of high school sports as a public address announcer and brings that experience to a variety show; an eclectic mix of old and new video about general interests. His first episode is a video he shot of a 5th and 6th grade St. Anthony's Grammar School game from 1989.

The Video Shoebox

As a camera bug from a very young age Joe Renna amassed a collection of VHS tapes and 8 mm film. The first video is of the Linden Debutant Ball that he shot in 1992. There are hundreds of hours of videos to come.

Anyone with 8mm film or VHS tape to transfer should email joerenna@rennamedia.com.

Renna Media will convert film for free if we use it on the show.

PLEASE VIEW / LIKE / COMMENT / SUBSCRIBE.

More shows will be coming in the future! And if you have ideas for what you'd like to see, please comment or email me at JoeRenna@rennamedia.com. ▼ Please SUBSCRIBE to my channel to get regular business insights and networking guidance: youtube.com/channel/UCqJS. ▼ I welcome your likes, shares and comments!
