UNION VETERAN'S ALLIANCE MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

The Township of Union Veteran's Alliance Memorial Day Parade will kick off at 10 a.m. on May 28, 2018, on High Street and travel along Stuyvesant Avenue, Union, New Jersey, as a tribute those who have died in service of the United States of America.

"Not only is this an exciting and fun event for the entire family, but a way for us- as a community- to come together to remember those who gave their lives in honor of our freedom," said Mayor Suzette Cavadas.

Featuring floats, Clydesdale horses, military units and vehicles, music by the Up Town String Band and the Wholly Brass Band, and a historic war reenactment, the parade has something for people of all ages. For best viewing, watch the parade from Pearl Harbor Square on Stuyvesant Ave.

The closing ceremony at Veteran's Honor Roll and Memorial Park, will also present the opportunity for spectators to witness a Revolutionary War Battle reenactment at 11:30 a.m. as well as live cannon fire.

Residents are encouraged to stop by Friberger Park, behind Town Hall, on May 27 from 1 to 4 p.m. to experience the Pre-Memorial Day Revolutionary War Encampment, featuring American and British Crown Forces and historical demonstrations.

You can easily register your non-profit organization to march in the parade by visiting uniontownship.com and filling out the online form. In addition, any veterans having served in World War II, the Korean War, or the Vietnam War are invited to ride in our designated "Veteran's Float." Reserve your spot by contacting Karen Caulfield at 908-851-5472

TOWNSHIP OF UNION ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR MAJOR ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

Submitted by Natalie Pineiro

When Mayor Suzette Cavadas was sworn in on New Year's Day, among her list of priorities and initiatives was a continued commitment to roads and infrastructure. As the weather starts to break, and the threat of snow diminishes, Township residents will start to see some action on the streets.

"One of the most important duties carried out by the Department of Public Works is ensuring the safety and quality of our roads," said Cavadas.

Union is a unique township with state, county, and local roads that traverse it. While this is great news for prospective renters and homeowners looking to be close to major thoroughfares, it makes that maintenance of the roads in the township a taxing task requiring the coordination of several players.

This 2018 Road Program will be broken into three phases.

Phase one of the program is set to include:

- Berkshire Dr.
- Carlsen Dr.
- Pilgrim Way
- Union Ave.
- Victor Ave.

Phase two will continue with:

- Andrew St. North
- Bushnell St.
- Concord Ave.
- Concord Pl.
- Crane Pl.
- Delaware Ave.
- Howard St.

Phase three of the program will address:

- Erhardt St (Vauxhall Rd. to Sayre Rd. South)
- Harmony Rd.
- Lancaster Rd.
- Patton Ave.
- Reeves Terr.
- Shearer Ave
- Susan Pl.
- Woodmont Rd.
- Stuyvesant Ave.
(Morris Ave. to Elmwood Ave.)

Throughout the life of the program an additional 64 roads that were uprooted by the utility companies will also be serviced, making the total number of roads targeted by the program more than 80.

The program is funded by long term capital improvement financing with the addition of a County of Union Infrastructure Grant plus a Community Development Block Grant.

In addition, the County is expected to work on Stuyvesant Ave from Vauxhall Road to the Irvington line, and the State is projected to be working on Morris Ave from the Springfield line to Caldwell Ave and Morris Ave from Lehigh Ave to North Ave.

For more information on the 2018 Road Program, please visit uniontownship.com/768/2018-Road-Program or contact Natalie Pineiro, Township of Union, Public Information Officer, 908-851-5096 or via email at publicinfo@uniontownship.com.

ANNUAL LETTER CARRIERS' STAMP OUT HUNGER FOOD DRIVE IS MAY 12

The Letter Carriers' Stamp Out Hunger® Food Drive is happening on Saturday, May 12, 2018. On this day, you can set out your non-perishable food before your letter carrier's regular pick up time. The top requested non-perishable food items are: cereal, pasta, pasta sauce, rice, canned fruits and vegetables, canned meals (such as soups, chili, and/or pasta), 100 percent juice, peanut butter, macaroni & cheese, canned protein (tuna, chicken, and/or turkey), beans (canned or dry). You can also donate healthy, low-sodium, low-sugar items such as beans, oatmeal, and other whole grains, and canola or olive oil.

Please do not donate frozen food, homemade food, or home-canned items. Please do not donate items that have expired or are in glass containers. In keeping with good food-handling and food-safety procedures, food that is opened, damaged, out of code or does not have the official ingredients will be discarded by the food bank in the sorting process.

The Food Drive is primarily a people food drive, but if you also want to give pet food in addition to your regular donation, food banks may be able to distribute or direct it to pet shelters and organizations in the area that have a need.

Please do not donate any form of individual baby food products, including formula, jarred vegetables and fruits, meals, snacks, infant cereal. Baby food may be donated by the case or pallet, but single item donations present potential contamination risks and special handling requirements.

The Food Drive is primarily a food drive, but if you also want to give personal care items (such as diapers, laundry detergent, soap, toilet paper, and household cleaning items) in addition to your regular donation, food banks may be able to distribute or put them to good use with organizations that also provide help to those in need. Please note that not all food banks will be able to accept these items.

If you would like to volunteer with food distribution and sorting, or in any other capacity, call your local post office and ask to speak to the local food drive person there. Many food banks have a great need for volunteers on Food Drive Day, as well as all throughout the year.

All donations to the Letter Carriers' Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive are tax-deductible because all the food collected on Food Drive Day is given directly to non-profit charity food agencies in the community the food was collected. Though the National Association of Letter Carriers plans the Food Drive's logistics and letter carriers provide the transportation for each donor's generous donation, the National Association of Letter Carriers is not the agency that gets listed on tax forms for claiming deductions. There are more than 10,000 food agencies throughout the country that receive these donations, so if you itemize your taxes and want to provide proper credit for your Food Drive donations, you will need to determine the name of the agency (food pantry or other charity) that received your food, as well as the agency's address and tax I.D. number for proper reporting on your tax-filing forms. The Food Drive Coordinator at your local post office should be able to give you the name of the receiving agency, and that agency will likely have tax information handy.

TOWNSHIP OF UNION'S 3RD ANNUAL WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

By Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta

Trailblazing 'She-Roes' were recently honored at the Township of Union's 3rd Annual Women's History Month Celebration. The event was held at Galloping Hill Caterers in Union, with over 120 attendees.

Local women recognized were:

- Sharon Patel, She-Roe in Business
- Kim Conti, She-Roe in Education
- Ernestine Frye, Community She-Roe
- Adrienne Miller-Kubicz, Environmental She-Roe
- Dasia Edmond, She-Roe in Training

Honoree Sharon Patel co-owns Patel Printing Plus Corp, a creative business printing, graphic design, and mailing company with her husband J.C., in Union. She is past president of the Union Township Chamber of Commerce and currently serves on the Executive Committee as VP of Programs and Special Events and chairs the annual gala. She was President of the Rotary Club of Union, currently on the board as Membership Chairman. She is a trustee on the executive board of the Gateway Family YMCA currently serving as Secretary. She is a member of the Township of Union Cultural Arts Council and a former trustee of Union County Economic Development Corp., Union Hospital Foundation, the Union Township Education Foundation, Marylawn of the Oranges, a Sisters of Charity girls school. She served on the advisory councils of Small Business Development Center and SBA.

Honoree Kim Conti has lived in the Township of Union about 25 years and is an active participant in the community. She has been the Director of Special Services for the Township of Union Public Schools since 2010, and in 2014 was the recipient of the Rotary Club of Union Excellence in Education Award.

Honoree Frye is an executive director with UTCOA (Union Township Community Action Organization, Inc.).

Honoree Adrienne Miller-Kubicz has been a resident of Union for 23 years, with her husband Richard, and children, Lindsay and Tyler. She was a florist in Union until she developed an allergy to flowers. The setback didn't end her passion for flowers, agriculture, and gardening. As a committed member of The Township of Union Garden Club since 2009, she became its president shortly thereafter. She recruited a few members of the Garden Club and together they founded the Township of Union County Garden in 2014.

Honoree Dasia Edmond is a 12-year-old seventh grader with a vision to capture her life's events in books and allowing her peers to journey with her through those tough teenage years. She has donated her books to the Vauxhall Public Library, Jehovah Jireh Worship, Zion Hill Baptist Church, and Sweet Reads.

Union Mayor Suzette Caradas opened the event, followed by guest speakers, Denise Wilkerson, Founder of Abounding Women Community Outreach, Inc.; Janet Davis, CEO of Jade Consulting and Jade Jamaican Grill; and Tara Marcus, Dillon Marcus Executive Retreats. Marcus created the highly acclaimed Unleashing Women! curriculum which encourages women to become more intentional about their career goals, their leadership style and their lives.

"I love celebrating Women's History Month," Marcus said.

Her workshop was called "Why Not Me?" She talked about beliefs that stop women from taking the next big step in life.

Attendee Claudia Yaborough said, "We're trying to bring women together and build their businesses."

"March is Women's History Month and we have to empower our young girls," added attendee Valerie Hall. "I'm here to support all women from Union being honored tonight."

The event featured refreshments and desserts. In lieu of an admission charge, the Township collected donations for the YWCA Family Justice Center of Union County.

BURNET STUDENTS HONOR AMERICAN HISTORY WITH SPECIAL MUSEUM

Submitted by Akua Boakye and Jennifer Williams

During Black History Month, students from Mrs. Sheahan's, Mrs. Rodriguez', Mr. Costello's, Mr. O'Reilly's, and Mr. Scarano's Social Studies classes researched, designed, and presented a museum exhibition entitled, "Black History is American History," detailing the 400-year history of African American contributions to American society.

Students interpreted a variety of primary and secondary sources and collaborated within small groups about various topics throughout American history. Topics ranged from early African communities abroad and in colonial America, resistance to slavery and Jim Crow segregation, to voting and citizenship rights. Also, contributions in culture, art, science, medicine, athletics, government, and the military were covered.

The museum exhibit was also made possible by the contributions of Burnet's Art classes, led by Mrs. Ramirez and Ms. Fenton. Students in their Art classes created beautiful paintings inspired by their research, detailing various themes of African-American history.

The exhibit will remain open throughout the rest of the month and into April for observation on the first floor of Burnet Middle School across from the cafeteria.

Teacher Mr. Joseph Costello shared "It was a pleasure to watch students truly engage with this complicated history often very limited in contemporary Social Studies textbooks. Students proved they could collaborate with their groups to tell a story of African history that connects all classes involved. I feel very thankful to be a part of a great collaborative team of Social Studies and Art teachers who helped curate this exhibit."

Eighth Grader Oliva Mott added, "The museum was good to help us learn about what happened during the Jim Crow period and beyond. Now we can understand how African-Americans were treated so we can avoid making similar mistakes in the future."

FIRE DEPT AWARDED GRANT ASSISTANCE

The Township of Union Fire Department was recently awarded grant assistance from the FM Global Fire Prevention Grant Program. This grant is to be used for education, training, and community outreach initiatives through the Township.

"Being awarded this grant is a big part of allowing us to provide the best service and equipment to our citizens without being a burden on the budget," stated Fire Chief Michael Scanio. "This particular grant will allow us to provide fire prevention education to large audiences, giving the citizens the proper knowledge on how to prevent fire emergencies before they happen is the ultimate goal for their safety."

Fire Commissioner Manuel Figueiredo thanked FM Global Fire Prevention for their, "financial involvement in helping our Union Fire Department move forward with the task of continuously keeping our residents safe. Public safety is always our first priority and we therefore extend our gratitude to FM Global for their collaborative investment."

Presently, due to outdated or nonexistent equipment, the Union Fire Department has to visit each individual classroom within each school to deliver information to the students. This is cumbersome, repetitive, and an ineffective use of department time. Now the department can deliver interactive presentation to large groups of people at once which will aid in firefighter trainings and community outreach activities, particularly at schools.

Purchasing a projector and the additional components will allow the Union Fire Department to visit schools and deliver presentations to significant portions of the student body using the National Fire Protection Association's (NFPA) educational materials according to age group, additional to their Annual Fire Headquarters Open House.

Beyond fire and safety prevention, the department provides seminars on Basic First Aid & CPR, something that the department would like to teach large audiences and expand to other events.

SCHOOLS AND POLICE DEPARTMENT ADOPT NEW 'PARK N WALK' SAFETY PROGRAM

In effort to enhance school security, the Township of Union Public Schools, Union, New Jersey, in conjunction with the Union Police Department, recently instituted the "Park n Walk" program. Officers, at random times, working the area of each of the district schools will park, walk around the outside of the school, checking all doors to make sure they are secured. The officers will also enter the school through the front door, sign in with the front door greeter and announce their presence to the main office and administration, before conducting a walk-through of the school building. They will then sign out again with the greeter and leaving through the front door. This program will be implemented during all school days when the officers work load permits.

Captain Robert Perez of the Union Police Department stated, "We stand committed to the safety of the children and faculty of our schools."

District Security Officer Nicholas Ardito added, "It is everyone's responsibility to make sure our school buildings are safe. The Park and Walk Program that we will start in cooperation with the Union Police is a great way to partner with our communities first responders. It's a great way for our staff and students to get to know who our police officers are and what they do for us every day. Our first responders are a second set of eyes for all of our safety."

Any questions or concerns can be addressed to Mr. Nick Ardito, Director of Security, by emailing nardito@twpunionschools.org.

WE WEREN'T BAD KIDS, WE WERE SAD KIDS: EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AT IMAGINE SHARES HER STORY

By Mary Robinson, MA, CT

When I was 14 my father died of cancer, reticulum cell sarcoma, still one of the most deadly and difficult cancer to treat. It was 1974 and I was a freshman at Madison High School, my brother Jim was a sophomore. I remember it like it was yesterday and still dream of my dad, and still miss him. The death of a parent changes a child's life forever, as it did mine.

When my father was first diagnosed I was in eighth grade and that's when I first started skipping school. Though not a very helpful way to cope with my distress, it was also not unusual, as grief starts the moment of diagnosis; someone doesn't have to die for us to grieve. And that was certainly true of me and my family.

After our dad died my brother and I acted out in ways typical of grieving children, we were textbook examples of grieving children in fact, but at that time it wasn't understood that children grieve too, not just adults. The adults in our lives saw our changed behavior but didn't know what to do or say, or even to equate it with our dad's death and changed home life.

My mom was extraordinarily resilient all through my dad's illness and after he died. She went from being a stay-at-home mom to being a realtor, seemingly working 24/7 to pay the bills and keep us in our home. She is definitely my hero for how she worked so hard on our behalf, sending me to college and making the life I live today possible. But not all kids are so lucky. Often after a death there is great financial stress along with many secondary losses like having to move to a new neighborhood or even a new town, so a child loses friends, a sense of safety and familiarity and connections to the very people that could have been supportive.

I've now been working and volunteering in the field of children's grief support since 1997, working to ensure other children and teens don't lose years of their lives to unresolved grief like my brother and I did. The death of a parent is a trauma for a child but it doesn't have to leave them traumatized, if they get support. As the founder of two children's grief support centers and currently as Executive Director of Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss in Mountainside, my commitment is to ensure grieving children develop healthy coping skills, grow in their resiliency, emotional health and well-being, and to create communities where children coping with loss get the love and support they need to thrive and live up to their unique potential.

Dr. Gerald Glasser of Westfield was the catalyst for the start of Imagine. He wanted to insure that no child should ever have to grieve alone. He invited me to come to Westfield and open a grief support center providing an initial grant for startup funding through The Glasser Foundation, a philanthropic organization set up in memory of Dr. Glasser's son, Thomas Glasser, who was a victim of the 9/11 attack and who left behind two young children. The Glasser Foundation continues to provide extraordinarily generous annual support to Imagine.

Meeting Dr. Glasser was such a gift in my life.

His generosity and vision provided me with my life's purpose. When my father died there was no awareness back then that children and teens needed support after a loss like the death of a parent or brother or sister. Children truly were 'the forgotten mourners' as Elisabeth Kübler-Ross, author of On Death and Dying said over 40 years ago. But fortunately things have gotten better since then with over 500 children's grief support centers like Imagine existing around the country, and with schools bringing us in to provide educational workshops so that they are better equipped to support and understand youth coping with all types of loss. Now when a parent dies, families tell us that they heard about Imagine from multiple sources including their child's school, their funeral home or house of worship, and from multiple friends who scour the internet looking for support.

Childhood bereavement is one of society's more pervasive issues. One out of seven children under the age of 18 will lose a parent or sibling by age 20. And kids in grief are at-risk for unhealthy or destructive ways of coping which is why Imagine and other centers like it exist. Children and teens don't necessarily have the coping skills, life experience, or maturity to process their loss, and they re-grieve their losses during the various stages of their development. Imagine exists as an effective intervention and prevention program and a place for healthy mourning. The key to how well a child or teen or adult will do after a loss is to actively mourn the loss and not keep everything bottled up inside.

The mission of Imagine is to support children and families coping with loss and foster resiliency and emotional well-being for all those who grieve. But our higher purpose is to normalize grief and death and dying in society so that those who are grieving aren't left isolated or made to feel like there is something wrong with them. Our goal is to create "Good Mourning" communities that are grief- and trauma-informed. We do this by partnering with schools, agencies and workplaces to provide support and education on the topic of grief and loss and to hopefully change the lens through which society views grieving youth.

We work with the whole school community including school staff, parents, other agencies, healthcare providers, and first responders to create an environment that wraps around the youth served. The goal is that wherever a child turns in their life, at school, home, after-school programs, etc., there are adults who understand the impact of loss and trauma on youth, how to recognize it and how to support, listen to, and help build resilience in grieving youth.

Adults and peer support programs like Imagine can help children learn healthy ways to cope and grow more resilient. Loss is part of life and if we support children at the time of their loss they will be better able to cope with future life losses.

Over 40 years later, I am able to say, as I learned from my St. Vincent's School kindergarten friend Chris Harrington whose mom died when he was 11, that "I wouldn't have missed my dad for the world." I had the best dad for 14 years. Good can come from grief, loss, and pain, if we get and give support. As adults it is our job to help children navigate life's painful losses and create loving, supportive communities in which children can mourn their losses in healthy ways. That is the work of Imagine and all the centers like it around the country.

Imagine is a free year-round peer grief support center located in Mountainside, New Jersey serving children age 3 to 18 who have had a parent or sibling die, with concurrent support groups for their parents or guardians. Support for children and teens living with a parent or sibling with a life-altering physical illness is also available. Free year-round support groups are also available for young adults who have had a friend, sibling, parent or other important person in their life die, or who have a parent, sibling or friend living with an illness. Imagine is completely privately funded and completely free to participants for as long as they need. We rely on donations from individuals, companies, local businesses, and foundations to support the close to 300 children and adults currently attending our support groups every two weeks at Imagine. And we rely on volunteers to facilitate those groups. For more information about support, donating, or volunteering, please call 908-264-3100, email me at mary@imagine-nj.org or visit imagine-nj.org.
