CHAMBER PRESENTS BUSINESS AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The Linden Chamber of Commerce held their seventeenth annual scholarship and business awards dinner on June 14, 2018 at Ill Amici Ristorante in Linden, New Jersey.

Four scholarships, totaling $3,250, were awarded to Linden High School seniors Ayanna Brant, Tomaz Dulian, Destiny Parker, and Kevin Reyes.

The Linden New Business of the Year Award was given to Blue Apron. The company's mission is to make incredible home cooking assessable to everyone. Linden Mayor Derek Armstead stated "Thank you for coming to our town and hiring 1,500 employees, many of them from Linden. Thank you for helping our local economy."

The Business of the Year Award was given to The Linwood Tap House. Located on the corner of Linden and Wood Avenues, the Linwood, built sometime before 1882, has been a staple in Linden since the 19th century, a family sports bar and restaurant, it boasts having 35 beers on tap. In 2006, the Munchmobile deemed the Linwood had the "Best Hamburger in NJ." Today, along with their extensive menu which changes frequently, the Linwood is also known for their great pizza.

Mayor Armstead stated "I've been going to the Linwood since I was a teenager, (owners) Lori and John Neshinka are very generous to the community. They donate the food for Linden High School's Project Graduation every year."

The Person of the Year award was presented to Ingrid Andrade, a Columbia Bank branch manager. The Linden Chamber of Commerce noted how Ingrid is a very active volunteer in the chamber. Ingrid's motto is "Live, Love and Laugh" by living life to the fullest, loving every chance she gets, and laughing at least once a day while encouraging all to do the same and making the world a better place.

The Linden Chamber of Commerce is made up of volunteers and is actively involved in the community. Throughout the year fund-raising is constant to ensure as many scholarships as possible can be given out.

The Linden Chamber works to provide support for new and current businesses, advocates site development and promotes a forward thinking and carefully planned business environment in Linden.

Their meetings are designed for sharing

LINDEN'S DORIS JOHNSON TO ADVOCATE FOR FOSTER YOUTH

JUDGE ADMINISTERS OATH TO NINE NEW CASA VOLUNTEERS

(above) Linden resident Doris Johnson was sworn in to become a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) of Union County, along with eight other new volunteers.

Doris Johnson of Linden is among the latest class of community volunteers to complete child advocacy training and take their oath from Superior Court Judge James Hely to become Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County. After being sworn in, Johnson said, "I'm so looking forward to getting to help change the lives of our babies, one case at a time."

Volunteers with CASA serve as extra eyes and ears for family law judges hearing cases involving the county's abused, neglected or abandoned children removed from home and placed in foster care. They have court-ordered access to all parties in a foster child's life, including foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, and incorporate findings into court reports from these contacts as well as time spent with the youth. In addition to ensuring their needs are met and best interests protected, the CASA volunteers aim to become a constant in the life of their assigned youth, who are living amid unknowns about their future, changing caseworkers and multiple foster homes.

The new advocates are ages 28 to 72 and include parents and non-parents; professionals in business, technology, education and law enforcement; students; retirees; and homemakers. Most had no prior knowledge of the foster system. Each will soon receive their case and meet the foster youth for whom they will advocate.

It is CASA of Union County's goal that every Union County foster child have an advocate, yet half of the more than 500 such youth still await one. Could you be their voice? The next training begins July 11 and two additional trainings are slated for the fall.

For details, contact Courtney at 908-293-8136 or cgreen@casaoofunioncounty.org, or log on to www.casaoofunioncounty.org.

ELIZABETH UNICO HONORS FDU-BOUND TONI FRINO

Toni Frino has a passion for science and community service. The Linden High School student and nine other graduating seniors were recently honored by the Elizabeth Chapter of UNICO with scholarships during a celebratory dinner.

Each recipient underwent an extensive application process that included an interview session that weighed heavily in the decision. UNICO bases its awards to college-bound seniors on “academic achievement, initiative and resourcefulness, outstanding leadership and the ability indicative of success in higher education.”

Toni’s favorite subjects in school were anatomy and physiology, classes that will help her as a nursing major at Fairleigh Dickinson University in the fall. The Linden resident was an honor roll student all four years of high school and a member of the National Honor Society, but she excelled out of the classroom as well.

In sports, Toni was the National Girls and Women in Sports Award recipient for 2018. She was a four-year varsity volleyball player as an outside hitter and captain, and pitched for the varsity softball team for four years as well. Toni accomplished this while being a Clark First Aid Squad cadet (2017-18) and a Roselle Park Police Youth Academy instructor (2017).

During her interview, Toni named her mother as her role model because of the life lessons she has taught her.

Toni is also a recipient of the UNICO’s Brian Piccolo Award, bestowed upon courageous and outstanding athletes of Italian-American heritage.

Other scholarship recipients are Steven Di Maria and Gianna Ricerca, both of Westfield; Jonathon Kreinberg of Union; Evan Griffith, Jennifer Lawson and Samantha Sanjuaneyo, all of Elizabeth; Mia DiPaola of Wall; Thomas Marretta of Totowa; and Nicolas Moriella of Old Bridge.

UNICO’s stated objectives are “to promote and enhance the image of Italian Americans; for members to be of service to the community; to promote Italian heritage and culture; to promote, support and assist charitable, scientific, cultural, educational, and literary projects; to promote members’ interest in public welfare; and to cooperate with others in civic, social and cultural development.”

The charitable organization raises funds for scholarships and helping other community service organizations. Gifts at the 2018 dinner were presented to St. Genevieve Church, InRoads to Opportunity, The ARC of Union County, Center for Hope Hospice, Cooley’s Anemia Fund, Elmora Youth League, Our Lady of Guadalupe School and Community Food Bank of NJ.

The next meeting of the Elizabeth Chapter of UNICO will be at 7 p.m. September 5, 2018 at Costa’s Italian Ristorante in Roselle Park. Anyone interested in learning more about the organization, becoming a member, or attending the dinner in October should contact Nino Quaglia at ninoefdshop@gmail.com.

VIETNAM VETERANS SHARE STORIES WITH LINDEN STUDENTS

Members of the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 779 of Union County spoke with three groups of Linden High School students on May 23, 2018 in the school's Media Center about their experiences during and after the war. The visit was organized by social studies teacher Monica Goncalves to help bring to life the lessons the students have learned in history class.

The visitors talked about how they entered the military and went to Vietnam, challenges they had while serving, and difficulties they had upon returning home. They took questions from the students and offered honest answers. The three sessions were broadcast over Facebook Live for the public to watch, and other classes were able to watch and join in the discussion from elsewhere in the building.

BROTHER AND SISTER SIGN TO PLAY BASKETBALL AT BLOOMFIELD COLLEGE

Linden High School's sister and brother pair Lexis and Luis Rodriguez signed their National Letters of Intent on Thursday, May 24, 2018 to continue their academic and athletic careers at Bloomfield College. Each was awarded a scholarship to play basketball for the Bears. They were joined by their parents, Gail and Luis, and their brother, Jordan, in the office of Principal Yelena Horre for the signing ceremony. They were also joined by Athletic Director Steven Viana and some of their coaches and friends.

LINDEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

31 E. Henry Street • 908-298-3830 • lindenpl.org

FILMS TO BEAT THE SUMMER HEAT

The Linden Public Library will present several films to beat the heat this summer. Join us for these films during those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer.

A League of Their Own (PG; 128 mins)

July 3 at 2:00 p.m.

Directed by Penny Marshall, this 1992 film tells the story of The All-American Professional Girls Baseball League. Beginning in 1943, this league was based in midwestern cities like Racine, Wisconsin and Rockford, Illinois whose cities' minor league men's ball teams had sent most of their players off to the military during the war. Owners tried girls' baseball in its place and the league lasted until 1954. The movie features comedy stars Geena Davis and Tom Hanks as well as Madonna, Rosie O'Donnell, Lori Petty, Jon Lovitz, David Strathairn and Garry Marshall.

Murder on the Orient Express (PG-13; 114 min)

July 16 at 6:00 p.m.

This 2017 remake of the Oscar-winning film features a virtual Who's Who of international film stars in this Agatha Christie mystery. Directed by five-time Oscar nominee Kenneth Branagh, this movie takes us onto the classic train to Istanbul as a murder occurs onboard. The suspects include Johnny Depp, Penelope Cruz, Judi Dench, Willem Defoe and Michelle Pfeiffer. So who dunnit? Branagh also stars as Hercule Poirot, Christie's world famous detective who must solve the crime.

Battle of the Sexes (PG-13; 121 mins)

July 26 at 6:00 p.m.

This 2017 hit film tells the story of the famous 1973 Battle of the Sexes tennis match between Bobby Riggs and Billie Jean King. This nationally televised event from the Houston Astrodome was promoted as a sporting spectacle unlike any other. It not only bolstered support for the women's movement in America but also popularized tennis to its largest audience up to that time. It stars 2016 Oscar winner Emma Stone as King and Oscar nominee Steve Carell as Riggs.

PT-109 (NR; 140 mins)

August 3 at 1:00 p.m.

This 1963 film stars Cliff Robertson as Navy Lt. John F. Kennedy. The future president gained fame and notoriety for saving several members of his crew after his patrol boat was struck by a Japanese destroyer and sank in August 1943. This incident transformed Kennedy into a war hero, setting him on a path to greatness. Throughout the month of August, we pay tribute to the heroic story of PT 109 as well as the gallantry and bravery of the men of Kennedy's boat on the diamond anniversary of its sinking off the Solomon Islands in the South Pacific.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN AGE LEGENDS IN FILM SERIES

The Linden Public Library will remember two legends of Hollywood's Golden Age during the month of July. William Holden and Natalie Wood both died in November 1981. Each was nominated three times for an Academy Award. Holden would have turned 100 in April while Wood would have been 80 on July 20th.

Each film is presented free of charge in the Columbia Bank Room at the Linden Public Library. Join us for these special film series:

WILLIAM HOLDEN FILM SERIES

(Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m.)

July 10 : Sunset Boulevard (1950)

July 17 : Picnic (1956)

July 24 : The Towering Inferno (1974)

July 31 : Network (1976)

NATALIE WOOD FILM SERIES

(Fridays at 1:00 p.m.)

July 6: Love with the Proper Stranger (1963)

July 13 : Rebel Without a Cause (1956)

July 20 : Splendor in the Grass (1961)

July 27: The Great Race (1965)

Located at 31 East Henry Street in Linden, the Linden Public Library celebrates its 90th anniversary in 2018. Please check out the library's web page at www.lindenpl.org or call 908-298-3830 for more information about this or other events.

LEGALLY BLONDE THE MUSICAL - JULY 20TH THROUGH JULY 28, 2018

Linden Cultural and Heritage Commission presents Mystic Vision Players in Legally Blonde: The Musical running July 20th through July 28, 2018.

A fabulously fun award-winning musical, Legally Blonde The Musical follows the transformation of Elle Woods as she tackles stereotypes and scandal in pursuit of her dreams. Action-packed and exploding with memorable songs and dynamic dances - this musical is so much fun, it should be illegal!

Based on the hilarious MGM movie and the Broadway sensation nominated for 7 Tony Awards. To win back the man of her dreams, Elle Woods enrolls at Harvard Law School and discovers along the way that she may have more to offer the world than just her looks and an empty ring finger.

The amazingly talented cast stars Maddie Chmielowicz as Elle Woods, Danny Viola as Emmet Forrester. Supporting cast includes Kimberly Siggins as Paulette Bonadonte, Jamie Marciczyk as Enid Hoops, Tim James as Warner Huntington III, Kara Wilson as Vivienne Kensington, Sean Lough as Professor Callahan, and Alicia Cordero as Kate/ Chutney. The Supporting cast is rounded out with the trio of Sorority sisters Serena, Margot and Pillar played by Kylie Francis, Chelsea Varga and Roxie Billips respectfully.

The cast is completed with the ensemble members Alissa Valiante, Asia Todd, Elizabeth Jones, Francesca Lumetta, Jady Shivers, Janae Strickland, Jason Muldowney, Job Austin, Lydia Szlasa, Marcelle Vaughn-Handy, Marissa Michaels, Meghan Stefek, Mike Shubeck, Natalee Phemsint, Olivia Lynn Cornwell, Patrick Serpico, Rachel Pribish, Raul Andres Hernandez, Rosanna Pagtakhan, Samantha Ferrante, Sophia El-Khoury, Tattiyana Carter, and Tyzhe Boyd.

The production will be directed by Howard Whitmore, choreographed by Lyle Dungee, musically directed by David f. Shirley and Produced by Rita Greco.

TIME TO “WATERPROOF” KIDS THROUGH THE YMCA SWIM PROGRAMS

As the season turns from spring to summer, The Gateway Family YMCA encourages children and parents in Eastern Union County to explore the many benefits of swimming, while also keeping safety top of mind. In Y swim programs, participants can enjoy water sports, enhance or learn new techniques, meet new friends and develop confidence, while also learning safety skills that can save lives.

“It’s never too early to get children involved in swimming—it’s an important for safety reasons, but also a great way to keep active and healthy,” said Krystal R. Canady, CEO, The Gateway Family YMCA. “There are so many options for parents, but the best place to start is by learning basic water safety skills that helps get kids familiar with the water that often continues with swim lessons and competitive swim programs and can even lead to a career.”

The Gateway Family YMCA encourages parents to take an active role in fostering a relationship between their children and swimming—beginning with water safety. Following are safety tips to practice when in and around the water:

- Only swim when and where there is a lifeguard on duty; never swim alone.
- Adults should constantly and actively watch their children.
- Inexperienced or non-swimmers should wear a Coast Guard-approved life jacket.

- Parents or guardians of young children should be within an arm’s reach.
- Children and adults should not engage in breath holding activities.

“In addition to learning lifesaving water safety skills, swimming is a great way to increase physical activity,” said Melynda A. Mileski, EVP/COO. “Swimming also motivates children to strive for self-improvement, teaches goal orientation and cultivates a positive mental attitude and high self-esteem. It also teaches life lessons of sport and sportsmanship, so that children can learn how to work well with teammates and coaches and how to deal with winning and losing.”

As a leading nonprofit committed to youth development, the Y has been a leader in providing swim lessons and water safety for more than 170 years. The Gateway Family YMCA continues to help youth and adults experience the joy and benefits of swimming, so they can be healthy, confident and secure in the water. There are a variety of programs to choose, including parent child, preschool, youth, teen or adult swim lessons, family swim, summer day camps and competitive swimming. To ensure that everyone has an opportunity to participate, financial assistance is available to those in need to help cover the costs.

The Y is one of the nation’s leading nonprofits strengthening communities through youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. Across the U.S., 2,700 Ys engage 22 million men, women and children – regardless of age, income or background – to nurture the potential of children and teens, improve the nation’s health and well-being, and provide opportunities to give back and support neighbors. Anchored in more than 10,000 communities, the Y has the long-standing relationships and physical presence not just to promise, but to deliver, lasting personal and social change

YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID TRAINING BEING OFFERED JULY 17TH AND 24TH

Caring Contact, a crisis hotline that serves Northern and Central New Jersey, will be offering Youth Mental Health First Aid Training in Westfield on July 17th and 24th, 2018. Youth Mental Health First Aid is designed to teach parents, family members, caregivers, teachers, school staff, peers, neighbors, health and human service workers, and other caring citizens how to help an adolescent (age 12-18) who is experiencing a mental health or addiction issue or is in crisis.

Youth Mental Health First Aid is primarily designed for adults who regularly interact with young people. The course introduces common mental health challenges for youth, reviews typical adolescent development, and teaches a 5-step action plan for how to help young people in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Topics covered include anxiety, depression, substance use, disorders in which psychosis may occur, disruptive behavior disorders (including AD/HD), and eating disorders.

The eight-hour course is being offered in two four-hour sessions, on July 17th and 24th from 6:00 pm to 10 pm at the Westfield Presbyterian Church, located at 140 Mountain Ave, Westfield, NJ. Youth Mental Health First Aid is listed on the National Suicide Prevention Registry of Evidence-Based Programs. Successful completion of the course includes a three-year Youth Mental Health First Aid certification.

Caring Contact is offering the training for $75. To learn more or register, visit <http://caringcontact.org/training-registration/> or call 908-301-1899.

“Too often we think mental illness applies only to those with serious issues, for example someone who is exhibiting easily recognizable symptoms or someone under a physician’s care,” said Janet Sarkos, Caring Contact executive director. “But people experiencing mental health issues are all around us, perhaps among our friends and neighbors, co-workers, classmates or even within our own family. Yet too many of us are not trained to recognize the signs and offer help. This training enables you to do that.”

About Caring Contact

Caring Contact is an award-winning, volunteer-staffed caring and crisis hotline providing active listening support and best-in-class education to the Central and Northern New Jersey community. We attentively and compassionately serve those in emotional distress and educate our communities about the power of personal connection. We are affiliated with CONTACT USA, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline and the American Association of Suicidology. If you are in crisis and need someone to listen, call us at 908-232-2880.

BEAR FACTS & TIPS FROM NJDEP DIVISION OF FISH & WILDLIFE

If a bear comes into your yard or you see one while camping, do not be afraid, but remember bears are not tame animals, they are wild creatures.

Here are some tips that you should follow if you see a bear: ...

- Do not get scared and do not run.
- Talk to the bear to let it know you are there.
- Never feed the bear!
- Do not go near the black bear.
- Do not look directly into the bear's eyes.
- Make sure the bear can get out of your yard or campground easily if it wants to. Don't stand in front of the escape route!
- Make lots of noise. It could scare the bear away.
- If you are playing with friends, get in a big group. Talk and wave your arms. You will look really big and the bear might leave.
- Bears can make a lot of noise, so they may huff, snap their jaws and slap the ground if they think you are too close. Back away slowly.

A bear that stands on its back legs is not about to attack you. It just wants to see and smell you better. Let a bear know you are there by waving your arms and talking to it.

Bears may pretend to attack by running at you. DO NOT RUN!

Back away slowly and get to a safe area.

Black bears rarely hurt people. If a black bear attacks, fight back!
