RAIN DOESN'T DAMPER ANNUAL FISHING DERBY

Warren Township Recreation Commission held their Annual Fishing Derby in May, created 33 years ago by Bruce Vitale. Even the expected rain did not stop this Warren Township tradition. Bruce's leadership and dedication has attracted multiple local organizations to join and give their time to making the event truly a remarkable one. One example being the Warren Blue Ridge Sportsmen's Club, who provided lunch to the community by grilling up 250 hot dogs, 250 hamburgers, fried zeppoles and scooping Italian ice. The Club also helped the participants with fixing their hooks, lines and bobbers, and offered loaner poles for those who did not have one. Furthermore, they raffled off poles, reels, and tackle boxes. During the event, Bruce and the club walked around the pond teaching the kids and parents how to cast.

Similar to previous years, the Warren PBA Local #235 served as a huge sponsor by donating 200 hats and assisted during the event. The Cub Scouts Pack #182 had a recruitment table. Finally, Marius Z. Idasiak generously photographed everyone. It's a huge team effort and it all started with one man and his love of fishing and the outdoors.

The Recreation Department would like to thank Bruce Vitale, Warren PBA Local #235, Warren Blue Ridge Sportsmen's Club, Bob Marino, Cub Scout Pack #182, Marius Z. Idasiak, and all the other volunteers who helped serve the food, hand out bait and clean up after. It was another great event because of you!

Submitted by Ryan Valentino, Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Company

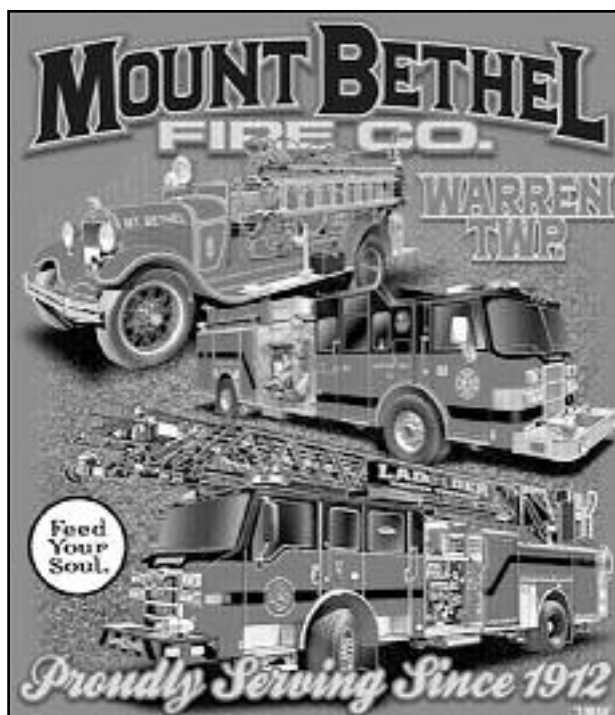

The Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Company has been serving the residents of Warren Township since 1912. We are the longest serving fire company in Warren Township. We are made up of approximately 30 volunteers who are passionate and dedicated to the emergency services and serving our wonderful town. Our fire company answers over 500 emergency calls a year, 24/7/365.

I am excited to announce that on Saturday, June 9, 2018 from 12:00 - 6:00 p.m. we will be hosting a large, dedication and wetdown for our brand new ladder truck, Ladder 61. The event is rain or shine and will be held at Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Company, 128 Mt. Bethel Road, Warren, NJ.

The fire service is steeped in tradition and part of that tradition is to host a large public event to invite our community and neighbors to our firehouse to help dedicate and celebrate our new arrival. We will have free food, drinks, music, family activities and an a ton of water being sprayed by our friends from neighboring fire companies from across our area. Visiting fire departments will come to "christen" our new truck with their water as a way of wishing it good luck and gracing it with the safety and protection that their trucks provide them while answering alarms.

We will distribute detailed information about parking and activities on the event page daily visit: ladder61.com

BOY SCOUTS HOST SPAGHETTI DINNER

By Gretchn Minieri

Warren Boy Scout Troop 228 recently held their annual spaghetti dinner fundraiser. It was a culinary and fundraising success! Thirty-four scouts served over 325 dinners in a three-hour period. Our scout dads cooked up a delicious dinner and our small army of volunteers worked the salad, drink, and dessert stations throughout the night.

This dinner is an essential fundraising activity that helps cover troop expenses. It also provides a great opportunity for the boys to "serve" their community and for our guests to observe our young men in action. Thank you to all the local businesses that supported our troop by placing ads in our color advertising booklet, which was given to each dinner guest. Our troop is very thankful to have the support of our local community.

Advancement Chair Kathy Giacchi was honored by the Warren Township Committee during the May 10, 2018 meeting for her 22 years of volunteer service with Troop 228. Mrs. Giacchi has painstakingly tracked each and every scout's completion of their requirements through Eagle rank for the last 19 years! Her contributions to making Troop 228 successful were appreciated and she will be missed as she leaves us this spring.

Over 100 bags of non-perishable groceries were collected by the scouts through the BSA "Scouting for Food" initiative and donated to the Somerset County Food Bank. T his nationwide program has scouts ask neighbors to donate a bag full of shelf stable groceries, and then those bags are collected and brought to the local food bank.

Anyone looking for information about our troop can contact the troop via email at troop228warren@gmail.com.

LAB COATS, SAFETY GOGGLES, AND SCIENCE

Submitted by Shannon Regan

Is the five second rule fact or fiction? According to the data collected from the scientific experiment led by grade 4 students, Keira Moran, Lindsey Meslow & Raina Shah, in fact the rule is fiction!

Student scientists at Angelo L. Tomaso School (ALT) were truly shining brighter on April 24, 2018 during the ALT Science Fair, sponsored by the ALT PTO. Over 130 students, kindergarten through grade 5, participated in the Science Fair creating a plethora of impressive science projects on display.

Co-Chairs of the Science Committee, Sonia Gomes and Arelis Buzzerio, were delighted by the positive response felt by the entire ALT community. “Show off your Science,” a term coined by ALT Principal Smith last year, perfectly encapsulates what we saw today. Children were eager to show their teachers and classmates what they discovered during their own science exploration. The confidence and poise with which the children spoke is one of the big reasons we do this fair during the day. It allows all children, across all grades, to participate and engage,” said Buzzerio.

Students were given 30 days to complete their project at home, a trifold presentation board, an outline of the scientific method and the freedom to decide what to explore. This opportunity reinforced the importance of STEM, allowing students the freedom to be creative and have fun with science.

Students with experiments on display were dressed to impress wearing lab coats and safety goggles, outfitted by the PTO. “It was an honor and pleasure to co-chair the science committee this year. ALT has an extremely dedicated and passionate parent community who values enriching the students' classroom experience through educational programs such as the science fair,” Gomes remarked.

Each class visited the Science Fair, equipped with clipboards and pens to take notes, ask questions, write remarks or draw pictures based on their interpretation of the projects, further enriching the experience for the scientists and observers. Congratulations to our ALT Scientists, keep shining brighter!

MAIJA GOLDEN POETRY REBEL AWARDS AT LONG HILL LIBRARY

By Lena Golden

The Maija Golden Creative Writing Foundation hosted their second annual awards ceremony for the Maija Golden Poetry Rebel Awards at the Long Hill Library on May 18, 2018. The event that presented awards to students in grades K-12 had an audience of approximately 150 people that enjoyed listening to poetry recitals and the launch of the foundation's first publication From Angels to Rebels available at Amazon worldwide. The journal that was self-published by Millington resident Tara Cibelli and Lena Golden of Gillette includes original artwork by former Millington resident Whitney (Combs) van Praagh, Bedminster resident Whitney Ehnert, Millington resident and Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) student Giulia Banfi, Emma Sleightholme of Summit as well as a selection of short stories and poems from the foundation's first year from students that have participated in classes, workshop and that have submitted scholarship applications.

The 2018 poetry contest had 103 students submit poems from Long Hill and surrounding towns Warren, Watchung and Green Brook thus expanding the contest to all of the WHRHS sending district this year. Students were judged by a jury in three different groups, elementary, middle school, and high school. The prizes were presented by Long Hill Township Library director Mrs. Lyn Begraft and Mrs. Lena Golden. The elementary school winner was Daniel Raimer, a fourth grade student at Millington Elementary with his poem A Tribute To Gila'ad Ya'acobi, z"l (Sgt. Gilad Yaakobi), a genuinely touching poem that honors a fallen soldier in the Israeli defense force. Honorable mentions were given to elementary students Ella DiNorscio, Cole Lesser, Isla Fairstein, Harrison Graves, Sienna Simo, Brigid Belfield, Timothy Denis Kezerashivili, and Savannah Neri all of Millington Elementary School and Brandon Bellish of Warren. Brandon who is in first grade was also the youngest contestant.

Warren resident and eight grader Inica Kotasthane, with her poem these rays in my palm, was the winner of the sixth to eight grade level which also included five honorable mentions to Alessandra Abeijon, Harrison Quinn, Hannah Han, Stephanie Sopla and Björn Golden. The honorable mention recipients are all students of Central Middle School in Stirling. The eight graders at CMS have been inspired and encouraged by English teacher Mrs. Isabella DeBiasse to find their poet within and the whole 8th grade class wrote poems and as many as 40 students in their grade submitted poems to the contest. Parents were astounded of the quality of the writing their own children had produced.

The overall contest winner as well as this year's high school Maija Golden Poetry Rebel was Jenny Li, a junior at WHRHS. Jenny's poem Unhinged was professionally delivered by herself as she like all other winners present read her poem to a very impressed and excited audience. Honorable mentions for the high school level were given to Connor Cirroti, a Delbarton student and WHRHS students Sabrina Lane and Sam Hoffmann.

The foundation was founded in April 2017 by the Golden family of Gillette in honor of their daughter Maija who passed away in February the same year. A talented creative writer, Maija, was a freshman at WHRHS and an inspiration to many. The foundation has with the help of teachers and staff at Long Hill township schools been able to offer free classes and workshops in creative writing and debate to students taught by CMS teachers Maura Aimette and Isabella DeBiasse as well as CMS librarian Patricia Paugh. Poetry classes for the elementary school level has been taught by Mrs Noelle Milito who is a teacher at Millington Elementary School. Ms. Aimette, who had been Maija's sixth grade English teacher approached the Golden family early on and offered to teach classes in Maija's name and as the Golden family had contemplated starting a foundation to honor their daughter's memory that became the incentive to form the foundation.

The foundation also gives out an annual scholarship to a graduating high school senior at WHRHS and the first recipient was Brooke Stanicki of Green Brook and class of 2017. Ms Stanicki is just finishing her freshman year at Johns Hopkins University.

More information about the foundation can be found at their website themaijafund.org as well as on their Facebook and Instagram pages. The foundation graciously accepts donations to fund future activities and scholarships but also creative writing submissions from K-12 students to their annual journal as well as suggestions for future programs and collaborations. The Maija Golden Creative Writing Foundation is currently working with a boy school out of the WHRHS sending district as well as with a private library in New York City.

WATCHUNG SUMMER CAMP

Watchung Borough will be having summer camp at Brook Hill Swim & Tennis Club. It's an eight-week program from July 2 to August 17, 2018; full days, rain or shine. The program is open to residents of Warren, Green Brook, and Long Hill. Space is limited, visit watchungnj.org to register.

WOMEN HELPING WOMEN

The women of Warren Senior Girl Scout Troop 65797 are collecting feminine products for local homeless women and teens. "We want to help fellow women in the community who are less fortunate than us" stated one of the scouts. Knowing how expensive these products are and how necessary they are, the troop decided to collect tampons, maxi and mini pads for Elijah's Promise, Women Aware inc., Center for Great Expectations, the Youth Advocate Program and Visions and Pathways.

The donation collection boxes are located at the Warren Acme - 177 Washington Valley Rd (7am-11pm daily), the Warren Township Library - 42 Mountain Blvd (9:30am-9pm M-Th, 9:30am-5pm Fri, Sat and some Sundays) and GSHNJ North Branch Service Center - 1171 Route 28, North Branch NJ (9am-5pm M-TH, 9am-3:30pm Fri) Now through June 23rd.

Any questions please contact Warren Senior Girl Scout Troop 65797 via email at gshnj65797@gmail.com or regular mail at GS Troop 65797 - 54 Dock Watch Hollow Rd, Warren, NJ 07059.

Thank you so much for assisting us in this very worthwhile cause!

Nathaniel Holl, a junior at Watchung Hills Regional High School, Watchung, New Jersey, has long enjoyed drawing wildlife for fun, but earlier this year decided to pursue formal training with Lisa Young, owner of Artfully Young studio in Warren, New Jersey. Right after his first class, Mrs. Young commented that he had "a lot of natural talent." His first two works, a pheasant in color pencil, and a trout and ducks feeding underwater in pastels, are one of a kind, and they qualified to be shown during Artfully Young's studio open house in April. The artwork will remain on display throughout the month of June and into July 2018.

Nathaniel is now working on a sleeping cheetah in oil. Nathaniel is an admirer of wildlife and concerned about endangered species. His goal is to put together an exhibit with as many animals as possible by the end of the year.
