IMAGINE'S VOLUNTEER TRAINING JULY 19 TO 22, 2018

Imagine peer grief groups are the main source of support for grieving families in Union County and beyond. Support groups are facilitated by trained adult volunteers who attend a four-day training and quarterly continuing education programs. Volunteers come from all walks of life and need no special background other than a willingness to listen, a heart inclined to serve, and the ability to be with children and adults in pain without trying to fix, solve or give advice. Seven new volunteers were recently trained to become facilitators.

"As our programs continue to grow, so does our need for additional, highly trained facilitators," said Mandi Zucker, Imagine Program Director. "Our programs are growing because of the great need in this community, over 700 children annually will lose a parent to death in Union County alone. Over 260 children and adults from over fifty-five New Jersey towns are currently participating every two weeks at Imagine. The volunteers that run these support groups are the heart of the program and we could not offer these groups without them."

Volunteer facilitators learn how to create a safe space and facilitate difficult conversations. Through the training, they will learn skills that will serve them not only at Imagine but in their lives as well.

Imagine is a free year-round peer grief support center located in Mountainside, New Jersey and serving all of Union County and beyond. Imagine serves children, young adults and parents/guardians who have had a parent, sibling, or child die. Support groups for caregivers of a person living with a life-altering physical illness are also available. If you are interested in learning more about the next training scheduled for July 19 to 22, 2018, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, or about Imagine, please contact Mandi Zucker, MSW, CT at Mandi@imagine-nj.org or visit our website at imagine-nj.org.

COMMUNITY BAND 106TH ANNIVERSARY CONCERT SERIES

Submitted by Barry E. Rosenberg

The Westfield Community Band has been a centerpiece of Westfield’s cultural arts for more than 100 years. Since 1918, the band has been performing on the gazebo in Westfield’s historic Mindowaskin Park, entertaining area residents with a wide variety of live instrumental music. This year, the band will celebrate its 106th Anniversary Summer Concert Series with four Thursday evening performances on June 21, 28, July 5, and 12, 2018. For many years, we have produced an annual band program, containing information regarding the band’s current membership, performances, history and special features. Programs are distributed free of charge to the many “band fans” attending the band’s weekly concerts during the summer. Over the years, our band program has become an integral part of our performances and is eagerly anticipated by our audience.

MUSIC EDUCATION PROGRAM RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Submitted by Mary Ann McGann

The Westfield Public School District has recently been named one of the “Best Communities for Music Education” in the nation for its outstanding commitment to music education.

The 2018 Best Communities for Music Education designation is awarded by the National Association of Music Merchants (NAMM) Foundation to districts that demonstrate outstanding achievement in efforts to provide music access and education to all students. Westfield Public Schools is among 583 school districts nationwide to be recognized.

The award is based on music class participation, instruction time, facilities, support for the music program, funding, graduation requirements and community music-making programs.

“I’m very proud of the music department on receiving this honor for the first time,” says Thomas Weber, Supervisor of Visual and Performing Arts for Westfield Public Schools. “It is the support of the Board of Education members, administration, teachers, staff, community and our talented students that made this national recognition possible.”

Research into music education continues to demonstrate educational/cognitive and social skill benefits for children who make music.

“Westfield Public Schools has a robust music curriculum with many talented students recognized each year for musical honors,” says Superintendent of Schools Margaret Dolan. “I congratulate Mr. Weber and all of our music instructors, conductors, directors and, of course, our student musicians for this prestigious recognition. Music truly does spark the imagination.”

The NAMM Foundation advances active participation in music making across the lifespan by supporting scientific research, philanthropic giving, and public service programs. For more information about the NAMM Foundation, please visit nammfoundation.org.

MORGAN ENG, DESIGNED LOGO FOR WESTFIELD COALITION FOR THE ARTS

Submitted by Sarah McGrail

A high school violinist has shown that she has more than one string to her bow by winning a competition to design a new logo for a long-standing supporter of the arts in Westfield schools.

Morgan Eng, a junior at Westfield High School, designed the logo for the Westfield Coalition for the Arts (WCA), an organization that has been providing financial support for music, drama, visual arts and dance in the town for more than 30 years.

WCA Treasurer Wendy Connolly said "The WCA has never replaced/updated their logo and we thought it was time for a change.

"It was important to have a logo that represented all of the arts that are currently featured as part of the curriculums in all Westfield schools. Morgan's design accomplishes that and is both modern and unique."

Art is an important part of Morgan's life. She recently won a student achievement award for her role as graphic designer for the WHS spring musical, Follies, and was also a member of the show's orchestra.

The 17-year-old hopes to study animation in college and translate her passion for art into a career.

The new logo will be used extensively to identify the WCA and act as a symbol of their concern for all the arts on grant forms, correspondence, social media and their website.

To find out more about the work of the WCA and how you can support it visit westfieldcoalitionforthearts.weebly.com/

WESTFIELD TEACHER RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP FROM FRIENDS OF LIBRARY

Rachel Kennedy, library media specialist at Franklin School in Westfield, has been named the recipient of a scholarship awarded by the Friends of Westfield Memorial Library. The monies will be used for Kennedy to enroll in a Rutgers graduate course focused on writing proposals and managing grant projects.

Kennedy says she hopes to follow up her coursework by seeking funding to enhance learning for Franklin students and to share her knowledge with colleagues.

Franklin School Principal Eileen Cambria

calls Kennedy an innovative teacher who “has transformed our library program by infusing the most current technology into her instruction.”

The Friends of the Library’s scholarship program provides support for individuals enrolled in undergraduate and graduate courses tied to current or future library work. Eligibility is limited to town residents and those who work in Westfield. Applications are available at the library or by contacting the scholarship chairman, Dr. Tina Leshner, at tinaleshner@verizon.net

WESTFIELD PBA PARTICIPATE IN 2018 POLICE UNITY TOUR

By Maryanne Christiano-Mistretta

The Westfield PBA sent a team to ride in the Police Unity Tour held May 9 to 12, 2018.

The Westfield PBA Cycling Team consisted of two riders this year, Officer Elizabeth Savnik, Rider and Captain of the team, and Officer William Kleeman. Offering support to the team were Tammy Kleeman and Dominick Sandelli.

The Police Unity Tour is a four-day, 320-mile bicycle ride from Northern New Jersey to the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial in Washington, D.C. The purpose of the tour is to raise awareness of law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty, and to raise funds for the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial and Museum.

"It's an experience that's indescribable," Savnik said. "Especially when you're riding in and you see the faces of loved ones who lost family members. It makes me tear up."

The Police Unity Tour was first organized in May 1997 by Officer Patrick P. Montuore of Florham Park Police Department.

What began with 18 riders on a four-day fundraising bicycle ride from Florham Park, New Jersey, to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, D.C. has grown into nine chapters, consisting of nearly 2500 members nationwide who make the trip annually.

The original/founding chapter of the Police Unity Tour, Chapter 1, is still based in Florham Park, where Pat Montuore retired as the Chief.

Although based in New Jersey, members from other states, and even other counties, are welcome. The Police Unity Tour has members in over 40 states, and in Australia, England, Israel, Italy, India, and Canada.

Nevertheless, Savnik stresses that more officers need to participate, and that the information needs to get out there so more people are aware. Savnik has been a police officer for eight years.

"It's something I always wanted to do," she said. "I always wanted to do something that was a way to give back and help people. The point of being here on this earth is to help others and to give back."

WESTFIELD'S MEMORIAL DAY PARADE GRAND MARSHAL TEDDY GOSSI

By Stan Cuba

The Westfield Memorial Day Parade Committee was proud to have Teddy Grossi as this year's Grand Marshal.

Born in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, in 1927, Teddy's family moved to Roselle Park in 1944. His mother had three sons: Teddy, Joseph, and John. Joseph was killed during WWII in 1944 following the invasion of Normandy. In 1945 Teddy was drafted, and he and his brother John served in the US Army at the same time. After the war, Teddy returned to civilian life, but in 1950 he was recalled to active duty during the Korean Conflict. With his service completed Teddy came home and joined the International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Craftsmen at Local 34 in Westfield, New Jersey. In 1995 he was awarded the Craft Award for "outstanding union service by an individual."

Teddy married May Mariano in 1956. They have a daughter, Donna, who married Ron Pacifico. They have two children, JR and Marla.

Teddy is truly a part of the "greatest generation," and we are proud to honor him for his service to our country.

BOY SCOUTS PUT FLAGS UP FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Submitted by Sarah McGrail

The flags were up in time for the Westfield Memorial Day parade thanks to the work of a dedicated team of Boy Scouts who turned out on May 19th, a rainy Saturday.

Boys from Troop 72 turn out no matter the weather to put nearly 80 flags up around Westfield in May and then take them down again in October.

"We always get a good turnout even on rainy days like Saturday," said Assistant Scout Master Jorge Suris. "The boys of Troop 72 are proud to put up the flags and we were happy this year to see that over half of them were new."

The Boy Scouts get an early start, usually meeting at 7 a.m., to get the job done while there are less cars on the roads.

Department of Public Works Supervisor Craig Gibson says the townspeople of Westfield love to see the flags. "Every year I get a great many comments from people who love to see the flags up." "We greatly appreciate the work that the Boy Scouts put into this every year and we have a lot of veterans in the town who particularly appreciate it," he said.

Troop 72 is very grateful to Westfield Presbyterian Church who allow them to use their meeting hall every week.

EDISON SCHOOL RECEIVES RECOGNITION FOR ANTI-BULLYING EFFORTS

Submitted by Mary Ann McGann

New York Jets Linebacker Lorenzo Mauldin recently visited Edison Intermediate School, Westfield, New Jersey. He praised students and staff for creating a supportive school culture that says no to bullying and yes to kindness and empathy.

"Give yourselves a round of applause," said Mauldin whose visit was the culmination of the "Jets Upstander of the Week" program which rewards students for standing up for others and for being kind, compassionate, helpful, and courageous.

Edison health/physical education teacher Christine Cabrales organized the program at Edison after attending a summer anti-bullying symposium hosted by the New York Jets. For 16 weeks, Cabrales and her fellow physical education staff members nominated one Edison student per week who demonstrated "upstanding qualities." Each student "Jets Upstander of the Week" received a t-shirt and tickets to a Jets game with their photograph posted on the school district's Twitter feed.

"This program is important because it helps raise awareness about the impact of bullying and promotes inclusion and kindness," said Cabrales. "It spreads the message that bullying in any way, shape, or form is not okay."

Edison was one of only three schools in the tri-state area to receive a visit from a Jets player in recognition of its anti-bullying efforts.

"I'm really pleased we can be together to celebrate the positive attributes of our school and of these 16 students," said Edison principal Matthew Bolton, in opening the assembly and welcoming Mauldin and other members of the program. "Because of the good work you all do and the good work of your teachers, there are many more upstanders in this school."

The Jets Tackle Bullying program partners with the national organization STOMP Out Bullying whose founder Ross Ellis joined Mauldin and Jets community relations director Jesse Linder at the Edison assembly. "We're changing the culture and putting an end to bullying once and for all," said Ellis.

Shuttled between 12 to 15 foster homes from the age of 2 to 18, Mauldin told the students he was "picked on every single day" because of the shabby condition of his clothes or the lack of access to basic hygiene products. After trying to deal with it on his own, often getting into fights, the NFL player says, he sought help from a school counselor. "At the end of the day, I understood what needed to happen and I made a change."

Mauldin listed techniques students can use to help each other out if they witness bullying including telling an adult, not posting videos of an incident to social media, refusing to laugh or be an audience for a bully, helping the person being targeted and inviting that person to join in activities.

Bottom line, said Mauldin, "if you see something, say something."

IMAGINE CELEBRATES VOLUNTEERS AND PLANS FOR THE NEXT TRAINING

Submitted by Mandi Zucker

Imagine, A Center for Coping with Loss, recently opened its doors to over 100 volunteers and supporters for their annual Volunteer Appreciation event. Cheese and chocolate fondue was served alongside lots of tasty treats to celebrate all the hard work and contributions made by volunteers over the past year. From committee members, board members, office volunteers, hospitality greeters, cleaner-uppers, setter-uppers to our facilitators Imagine would not exist without our volunteers. Our volunteer facilitators alone each donate over 100 hours annually to facilitate bi-monthly support groups for children, teens, young adults, and parents after a diagnosis of a life-altering illness or after someone has died. This yearly traditional volunteer appreciation event is one way Imagine shows its appreciation to our volunteers who make our mission possible.

If you are interested in volunteering in any capacity, please contact Imagine Program Director at mandi@imagine-nj.org. To become a support group facilitator, volunteers must complete a 32-hour, four-day training and commit to one year of volunteer work. The next training will be July 12 to 15, 2018, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. For more information or to register, please contact mandi@imagine-nj.org or call 908-264-3100.

Imagine is a free year-round peer grief support center located in Mountainside, New Jersey, serving children, teens and young adults who have had a parent or sibling die, with concurrent support groups for their parents or guardians. Support for families living with a life-altering physical illness is also available. For more information about Imagine, visit imagine-nj.org or call 908-264-3100

STUDENTS PROVIDED SERVICE AT AIR FORCE-ARMY-NAVY-MARINES SHOW

Submitted by S.M Jose G. Vergara

During the weekend of May 5 and 6, 2018, students from Fanwood, Scotch Plains, and Watchung, New Jersey, provided community service at the Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst Open House and Air Show ("Power In The Pines"). The students are cadets in the Civil Air Patrol (CAP is the US Air Force Auxiliary). They provided guidance to the public and safety by keeping the air field's fire lines clear for emergency evacuation of thousands of air show spectators. In addition, the cadets interacted with military personnel to learn about military technology (Army, Marines, Navy and Air Force) and their operations. They also gained knowledge about different aircrafts on display and enjoyed watching the multiple flight demonstrations from of a variety of aircraft such as F22, F18, F5, and Mustang (WWII airplanes), parachute demonstrations, etc.

The CAP Cadet program offers opportunities to Middle and High School students to learn about Aerospace, Leadership, Character Development, Physical Training, STEM, Orientation Flights, and much more. In addition, the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program, provides the youth of ages 12 to 18 a strong list of credentials for their college applications and for highly competitive technical summer camps. Cadets with proper qualifications can attend Summer Camps at the Air Force McGuire Base, and national Cyber Security, Flight Training Camp, etc.

For more information about CAP Youth Cadet Program, please contact jose.vergara@njwg.cap.gov or visit CAP's webpage at gocivilairpatrol.com/cap_home/youth

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S 'THE TEMPEST' WILL BE PERFORMED AT WESTFIELD LIBRARY

Voices in the air or was it just the wind? Prospero, a displaced noble, lives on a wild and beautiful island and is the magical master of all he surveys. He can summon up storms but he has no power over her precocious teenage daughter Miranda who yearns to know of the outside world. Prospero commands a storm to deliver havoc on some of his enemies to settle an old debt while giving his daughter the future she craves. Wizards, pirates, and monsters collide in this comedic Shakespeare romp through an enchanted Caribbean island, as ancient scores of revenge are settled.

Performed by the Hudson Shakespeare Company, William Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be held at Westfield Public Library, 550 E. Broad Street, Westfield, New Jersey, on June 6, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Due to space considerations, registration is available for Westfield Resident Cardholders only, space permitting. Contact the library at: 908-789-4090. Visit the library at: wmlnj.org.
