HETFIELD HOUSE'S MUM & PLANT SALE AND GARAGE SALE

The Fall season is right around the corner when Mountainside's Historic Restoration Committee holds its Annual Fall Mum & Plant sale at the Historic Deacon Andrew Hetfield House.

This year's sale takes place from Thursday, September 13 through Sunday, September 16th from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. while supplies last. The Committee's plant experts travel to the grower and hand-select each and every plant for sale. The mums are the best you can get and, because they eliminate the middleman, the prices are very competitive. Stop by the Hetfield House from Thursday through Sunday to get a long-lasting punch of fall color for your home and landscape. Come early for the best selection.

In addition, on Friday and Saturday, September 14 & 15 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., the Hetfield House will host a huge garage/yard sale. Proceeds from these sales help support the restoration and maintenance of the Hetfield House and Levi Cory House.

The Deacon Andrew Hetfield House is located at Constitution Plaza (Watchung Ave., off Birch Hill Rd.) adjacent to the Mountainside Library. The Mountainside Restoration Committee is a committee of volunteers whose purpose is to restore and maintain the Deacon Andrew Hetfield House and the Levi Cory house and collect and save historic information and items from destruction. For further information, please call (908)789-9420; or, go to: mountainsidehistory.org (above) Plant experts from the Mountainside Historic Committee visit the grower to hand-select mums to be sold at their Annual Fall Mum & Plant sale to be held at Mountainside's Deacon Andrew Hetfield House on Thursday, September 13 through Sunday, September 16 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Shop early for the best selection.

ITEMS SOUGHT FOR GARAGE SALE AT HETFIELD HOUSE

The Historic Committee is asking the community to donate saleable items for this year's sale. So, if you need to clean out your belongings and don't want to hold a garage sale of your own, bring items down to the Hetfield House and the Mountainside Historic Committee will sell it for a good cause. Donated saleable items can be brought to the Hetfield House on Thursday, September 13 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Receipts are available for donations.

The Committee is limiting items it can accept. Only desirable and saleable items are being accepted. Nothing worn, broken, personal, shabby, obsolete, or otherwise unsaleable will be accepted. No large furniture, books or clothing. If it's an item you would purchase in a garage sale, then please consider it for donating.

The Deacon Andrew Hetfield House and Levi Cory House are located at Constitution Plaza adjacent to the Mountainside Library. Constitution Plaza is the first right off Birch Hill Road which is off New Providence Road near the Mountainside Volunteer Fire House.

The Mountainside Restoration Committee is a committee of volunteers governed by the Borough of Mountainside whose purpose is to restore and maintain the Deacon Andrew Hetfield House and the Levi Cory House and collect and save historic information and items from destruction. For further information or to donate funds, please call (908)789-9420; or, go to: www.mountainsidehistory.org.

(above) Donate your unwanted saleable items for the Annual Garage Sale fundraiser at the Deacon Andrew Hetfield House. This year, donated items are being accepted at the Hetfield House on Thursday, September 13 (9 - 4 p.m.) for the September 14-15 Yard/Garage Sale at the Hetfield House. Proceeds from the sale will help fund the restoration of the Levi Cory House.

MOUNTAINSIDE'S RON SILVER TAKES HELM OF BOARD AT CHILD ADVOCACY NONPROFIT

Submitted by Gretchen Boger-O'Bryan

Mountainside's Ron Silver has taken the reins of Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County's board of trustees. Not only has the retired dentist served on the nonprofit's board several years, he also trained as a child advocate and spent six years as a CASA advocating for foster youth.

CASA of Union County recruits, trains, supervises and supports community volunteers to advocate for abused, neglected and abandoned Union County children, from birth to age 21, removed from home and placed in foster care or residential facilities. There are nearly 500 Union County youth in foster care.

"I've been part of CASA of Union County in several ways over the years: from training and advocating for teens aging out without a family or safety net — and for whom I was proud to be in their corner — to serving as a board trustee supporting staff, events and the general direction and welfare of the organization. As a father — no, as a human — it's my obligation to give my time, something simple in effort but powerful in result, to fragile children in our own community. I'm fortunate to be part of the greater good CASA of Union County leaves in its wake," said Silver.

Executive Director Marla Higginbotham, noted, "We are so pleased to have Ron take the reins of our board during a time of major growth for the organization, thanks to a new paradigm that dramatically increases the number of youth we will be able to reach. Ron understands all the layers involved: what it takes to be a successful advocate, where the youth are coming from, the challenges for and commitment of staff, and the import of our work — from the granular level to the big picture."

Other changes to the board of trustees include elevation of Newark attorney Anne Collart of Rahway to vice president, and addition of real estate agent Terry Gould of Westfield and Edison attorney Adam Rothenberg of Scotch Plains. Collart and Gould also trained and have served as advocates, and Rothenberg's wife Christie has advocated for five Union County foster youth over the last four years.

Through court-ordered access to foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, CASA volunteers ensure a child's best interests remain a priority while working toward establishing a safe, stable and permanent home. CASA of Union County serves half the county's youth in care; its goal is to reach every child. For details on how to get involved, reach Courtney at (908) 293-8136.

GIRLS ICE HOCKEY TEAM GIVES TO IMAGINE

The Westfield Girls Ice Hockey Team recently hosted an event 'Yoga on the Green' to raise funds to support its third season. Over 130 members of the community attended the event at Shackamaxon Country Club.

Gina Pachkowski from Alluem Yoga in Cranford lead the group in a yoga class and Marie and Chris Olguin of Space in Westfield followed with singing bowls. The team donated four bean bag chairs to Imagine in Mountainside, which were requested by children that attend the center.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS AT THE MOUNTAINSIDE PUBLIC LIBRARY

1 Constitution Plaza, Mountainside, NJ. To register for these programs, stop into the library or call 908-233-0115.

Tuesday Night Movies

On September 4

we will be showing The Lovely Bones (2009, PG-13). Fourteen-year-old Susie Salmon is viciously murdered by her neighbor Mr. Harvey, a predatory wolf with a deceptively mundane appearance. As her family struggles to make sense of their loss, Susie bravely attempts to find her footing in the hereafter. Mr. Harvey is feeling confident that he's covered his tracks well enough to get away with the crime, and begins honing in on his next victim -- Susie's younger sister.

Bombshell (2017, No Rating) is our movie for September 11.

When Nazi U-Boats torpedo a ship carrying 83 school children during World War II, Hollywood movie star, Hedy Lamarr, decides to exact revenge. At night, after shooting her scenes on set, she works on a secret radio system that will allow the Allies to torpedo Nazi U-Boats with deadly accuracy. The secret communication system she creates is groundbreaking and eventually changes the course of history.

the comedy Humor Me

(2018, No Rating)

On September 18

will be screened. Nate, a once-acclaimed New York playwright, is struggling to finish his new play when his wife leaves him. Desolate, broke and unable to pay the rent, Nate begrudgingly moves in with his widowed father in his New Jersey retirement golf community. Meanwhile, Nate stumbles on a senior citizen theater troupe staging a musical. Nate agrees to help but quickly realizes it won't be easy to get these quirky senior citizens to cooperate.

The Greatest Showman

(2017, PG)

Our final movie of the month,

on September 25,

will be the musical. Inspired by the story of P. T. Barnum, played by Hugh Jackman, and celebrating the birth of show business, the film follows the visionary who rose from nothing to create a mesmerizing spectacle.

Showtime is 6:30 p.m.

for each movie except for The Lovely Bones on September 4 which starts at 6:00 p.m.

Brown Bag Academy

Mondays in September at 1:15 p.m.

(except September 3). "The Symphony" is the new course selected by the participants for the Fall Semester. For over 300 years, the symphony has embraced almost every trend to be found in Western concert music. Professor Robert Greenberg, of the San Francisco Performances, guides the listener on a survey of the symphony from its beginnings in the 1700's to the French Revolution, the Enlightenment, the Soviet Empire and to the Roaring Twenties of the 1900's. This series of lectures will end in early December. Bring your lunch; coffee, tea and cookies are provided. Come early to get your seat!

"Saving for College", with Matt Wegryn

on Thursday, September 6 at 5:30 p.m.

While a college education is a worthwhile investment, it's forcing many students to take on significant debt in order to attend. Nearly 70% of graduates from the class of 2014 took out institutional, state or federal loans. Understandably, many families are concerned about how to fund their children's education. Matt will discuss several possible solutions to help you cover educational expenses.

Opera on Film Series.

The popular Friday Opera on Film series, hosted by Mena Clemson, returns for its seventh season on Friday, September 14 at 1:00 p.m. with arguably the world's most popular opera, Carmen by Georges Bizet. Filmed in 2006 at London's Royal Opera House, Christine Rice stars as Carmen and Bryan Hymel as Don José. The Orchestra of the Royal Opera House is conducted by Constantinos Carydis.

"You're About to be PUN-ished"

with Skip Ungar

on Saturday, September 15 at 1:00 p.m.

The dictionary defines a pun as a form of word play that suggests two or more meanings, by exploiting multiple meanings of words, for an intended humorous or rhetorical effect. One of Mountainside's favorite performers returns with a new one hour program about puns. You will laugh, you will groan! Mostly you will groan! Come and listen to Skip doing what he does best!

JENSEN BUTLER BIKES ACROSS AMERICA TO RAISE MONEY FOR RARE CANCER RESEARCH

On May 5, 2018 Jensen Butler graduated Summa Cum Laude from Florida State University. One week later, he left Santa Monica, California with one goal in mind – to ride his bike over 4,150 miles across the United States to Montauk, New York. Along the way, he is raising money for rare cancer research through Memorial Sloan Kettering's charity, Cycle for Survival.

Butler, son of Kristan McCarthy of Mountainside and Nat Butler of Westfield, is a native of Mountainside and a graduate of Governor Livingston High School. He was a walk on to the Florida State University Football team but cycling is a relatively new endeavor for the 22 year old. An exceptional all-around athlete, he played football, basketball and tennis at his high school and is always looking for his next challenge.

Last year over spring break, Jensen was inspired and rode his bike 300 miles from Florida State's campus in Tallahassee to Anna Maria, Florida. After that, he knew he wanted to do more and set out planning for the 70+ day journey that will take him through 13 states before finishing in Montauk, New York in mid July.

Butler, who is riding solo, has a fundraising goal of $10,000 for Cycle for Survival and hopes to raise awareness about the charity which is the movement to beat rare cancers. Cycle for Survival has raised over $180 million dollars in the past decade with every single dollar allocated to rare cancer research.

"With over 1.6 million new cancer cases diagnosed in 2017, approximately half of them were rare cancers so we all know someone who has been touched by rare cancer," said Butler. "Committing my ride to such a great cause while raising this money holds me accountable and motivates me to finish."

Jensen entered Kentucky on July 1, 2018 and anticipates finishing his journey before the month's end. You can follow along on Jensen's journey on social media via Instagram and Facebook through @tourdejensen.
