NEUROSURGEON VISITS WASHINGTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Submitted by Mia Bivaletz

"It's not what happens to you, but how you react to it that matters" – Epictetus

This was the life lesson that 2nd grade teacher Laura Madden wanted to share with her Washington Elementary School students this spring after she was diagnosed with an acoustic neuroma, which is a benign brain tumor at the base of the skull between the brain and ear.

On Wednesday, June 20, 2018, Ms. Madden's class had a once in a lifetime opportunity. Dr. James K. Liu, the neurosurgeon who successfully removed her acoustic neuroma, came to visit the class. He shared with the class what inspired him to become a neurosurgeon and taught the class about the brain. Then each student was able to do a mock surgery using model skulls and surgical tools. "Having Dr. Liu visit the class was the perfect way for us to end our school year together. Not only is he an elite neurosurgeon, but he wants to inspire others to never stop learning. His passion for his field and compassion towards his patients will now have a positive and lasting impact on my students," Ms. Madden shared.

Dr. James K. Liu is the Director of the Center for Cerebrovascular, Skull Base and Pituitary Surgery at the Rutgers Neurological Institute of New Jersey, and Associate Professor of Neurological Surgery and Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery at Rutgers New Jersey Medical School. He is internationally known for his expertise in brain tumors, aneurysms, and endoscopic surgery. He is affiliated with Rutgers Health and RWJ Barnabas Health.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BLUEBERRY MUFFIN CONTEST AT FARMERS MARKET

Summit Downtown, Inc. held its first Sunday Funday contest of the 2018 season at Summit Farmers Market on Sunday, July 8.

Judges Jeanny Race, Carol Nurmi, and Mayor Nora Radest tasted all 23 muffins and rated each entry on its flavor, texture, and appearance. Jeanny Race is the owner of Race Farms along with her husband Doug Race. Carol Nurmi is the owner of Sweet Carol's and is a Blue-Ribbon winner for several of her jams. Mayor Nora Radest is a Summit Downtown, Inc. Trustee.

After tasting and scoring each of the 23 muffin entries, Scott Noonan's Sour Cream Coffee Cake Blueberry Muffins were awarded first place. Scott offered would-be bakers this sage advice: "Don't bake at 2 a.m. if you don't have all your ingredients!"

Mary McHugh, a Summit resident and amateur baker, took home second place, and third place went to Steven Spurr, who said that both he and his daughter are "mad about blueberries!"

The three winning muffin recipes can be found on summitfarmersmarket.com. Photos of the contest can be found on the Market's Facebook

"Thanks to all the contestants for participating, the judges for their expert palates, and the Summit Farmers Market team for helping make this year's contest another successful one," said SDI Executive Director Nancy Adams.

The next Sunday Funday activity will be the Salsa Contest on September 30, followed by Pumpkin Painting on October 28. The final event will be the Apple Pie Contest on November 4.

The market is brought to the public by Summit Downtown, Inc. and is open every Sunday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. through November 18. It is located in Park & Shop Lot #2, at the corner of DeForest Avenue and Maple Street. All downtown parking is free on Sundays, with convenient parking available on-street, in Park & Shop Lots #1 and 3, and the K Lot, located behind CVS off Maple Street.

For more info on the Summit Farmers Market and other Sunday Funday events, "like" the market on Facebook, subscribe to our newsletter, visit summitfarmersmarket.com or contact Summit Downtown, Inc. at 908-277-6100.

PROFESSIONAL MUSICIAN BROCKETT PARSONS RETURNS TO SHS

If you watched Super Bowl LI you would have seen Brockett Parsons. If you are a fan of Lady Gaga, you would have heard of Brockett Parsons. And if you are a musician or vocalist at Summit High School, you would have gotten to know Brockett Parsons.

The Summit High School alum came to work with over 250 students through the inaugural grant of the Arthur C. McCann Speaker Series, funded by the Summit Educational Foundation. Wind Ensemble, Orchestra, Concert Band, Big Band, Women's Chorus, Chamber Choir, and a plethora of singer/songwriters performed for him; in addition to praise, Parsons' pointed critiques were focused on individual growth.

Parsons grew up in a musical family in Summit, New Jersey. His mother is a gifted composer and pianist, and Parsons started to study piano and trumpet at the young age of eight. Making his way through LCJMS and SHS, Parsons was very involved in Jazz Band, Concert Band, NJ Youth Symphony and All-State Band. His positive experience in SHS led him to attend Bucknell and Berklee College of Music and afterwards, on to a career that many only dream about.

After college Parsons played in numerous bands in Boston before moving to New York. "In NYC I played every week - jazz, hip hop, R&B - all the gigs you can imagine," said Parsons.

Then in 2009 he caught a break. He waited in line for eight hours, with over 2,000 people auditioning in many cities. He was chosen to compete on P. Diddy's reality show, "Making His Band," and was ultimately selected as a one of the final seven. Equipped with talent, that unique experience, and confidence, Parsons went to an open call in 2010 to audition for Lady Gaga. Again competing for a spot amongst a thousand other musicians, he was chosen as Lady Gaga's keyboardist.

Life has been an exciting whirlwind to say the least. He was part of the huge Monster Tour in Europe, as well as six shows at the iconic Madison Square Garden. He has played on SNL twice, as well as Oprah, Jimmy Kimmel, and more. And who can forget the Super Bowl half-time show?

"Every year, I show the students Brockett's name on the wall when he received the Director's Award for Band. And then I show them a clip of him playing with Lady Gaga at the Super Bowl, to inspire them," said Alex Bocchino, who applied for the SEF grant. "To have an alum reach the highest levels in the music industry, and be able to come back to share his experiences, is special. And to explain the path he took to get there is important."

Parsons shared that he always loved music and he followed his heart. His advice to students is to love music, whether they pursue it professionally or not. "Music feeds the soul. There is a lot in the world that is not easy. All go through pain, but one of the most beautiful things that can help heal pain, is the arts; and music is one of the great arts."

There was an abundance of positive feedback about the day, from so many of the students, as well as the Music Department staff Alex Bocchino, Barbara Vierschilling, Dan King, and Steve Rapp. "Being in the same room as such a talented musician was already so amazing. But once he jumped on the keyboard to jam with us, I knew it was a moment that I will never forget," said senior Donell Williams, who will be attending Parsons' alma mater, Berklee College of Music, this fall. Also this fall, Parsons is set to release his solo album via Rope A Dope Records.

(above) SHS alumnus Brockett Parsons came to work with over 250 students through the inaugural grant of the Arthur C. McCann Speaker Series, funded by the Summit Educational Foundation.

GRACE RECEIVES GRANT FROM SAPF FOR COMMUNITY REFRIGERATOR

The Junior League of Summit is proud to announce that it received a $15,000 grant from Summit Area Public Foundation (SAPF) to support its signature community outreach project, GRACE's Refrigerator. These funds will be used to purchase fresh, healthy foods for families that would not otherwise be able to purchase for themselves.

GRACE, which stands for Giving and Receiving Assistance for our Community's Essentials was founded in 2016 by member and Summit local, Amanda Parrish Block. The program was launched following research into the issue of food insecurity and the revelation that one in six Summit public school students is lacking access to fresh, nutritious foods. We believe that creating better communities starts with food and everyone should have the opportunity to shop for and enjoy healthy foods needed to fuel their minds and bodies. The GRACE program is making an enormous impact in our community and the momentum is strong. We rely on the efforts of volunteers and donations to continue providing these essentials.

GRACE's Refrigerator is open weekly and offers nutrient-dense produce, dairy, and prepared food which is sourced from the Summit Farmers Market, local businesses, and the Community FoodBank of New Jersey. On average, 72 families depend on the community refrigerator each week. Since its inception, it has served 112,332 pounds of produce, dairy, eggs, and bagels to 17,442 individuals, including 9,163 children and 792 senior citizens.

The Junior League of Summit is a nonprofit, charitable, and educational organization of women who are committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. For more information about the Junior League of Summit or to inquire about becoming a member, please visit the website at www.jlsummit.org or contact the office at 908-273-7349. The Midwife

Monday, August 6

[International Film Festival]

Two of French cinema's biggest stars shine in this bittersweet drama about the unlikely friendship that develops between Claire (Catherine Frot), a talented but tightly wound midwife, and Béatrice (Catherine Deneuve), the estranged, free-spirited mistress of Claire's late father. Though polar opposites in almost every way, the two come to rely on each other as they cope with the unusual circumstance that brought them together in this sharp character study from the César-award winning director Martin Provost. In French with English subtitles. Not Rated. 117 minutes.

Loveless

Monday, August 13

[International Film Festival]

Zhenya and Boris are going through a vicious divorce marked by resentment, frustration and recriminations. Already embarking on new lives, each with a new partner, they are impatient to start again, to turn the page - even if it means threatening to abandon their 12-year-old son Alyosha. Until, after witnessing one of their fights, Alyosha disappears, and they must unite to find him. In Russian with English subtitles. Rated R. 127 minutes.

[Drama/Thriller]

Monday, August 20

Max and Annie's weekly couples night gets kicked up a notch when Max's charismatic brother, Brooks, arranges a murder mystery party, complete with fake thugs and faux federal agents. So when Brooks gets kidnapped, it's all part of the game--right? But as the six uber-competitive gamers set out to solve the case and win, they begin to discover that neither this game--nor Brooks--are what they seem to be. Over the course of one chaotic night, the friends find themselves increasingly in over their heads as each twist leads to another unexpected turn. With no rules, no points, and no idea who all the players are, this could turn out to be the most fun they've ever had... or game over. Rated R. 100 minutes.

[Drama/Musical]

Monday, August 27

Hugh Jackman leads an all-star cast in this bold and original musical. Inspired by the story of P.T. Barnum (Jackman), the film follows the visionary who rose from nothing to create a mesmerizing spectacle. It also stars Zac Efron, Michelle Williams, Rebecca Ferguson and Zendaya. Rated PG. 105 minutes.

Film: Hotel Salvation

Friday, August 10, 12:30 p.m.

An ominous dream convinces 77-year-old Dayanand Kumar that his end could be near. He takes the news to his son Rajiv, knowing he wants to breathe his last in the holy city of Varanasi and end the cycle of rebirth, by attaining salvation. Being the dutiful son he is, Rajiv, is left with no choice but to drop everything and make the journey with his stubborn father. Daya and Rajiv check into Mukti Bhawan (Hotel Salvation) in Varanasi, a guesthouse devoted to people to die there. But as the days go by, Rajiv struggles to juggle his responsibilities back home, while Daya starts to bloom in the hotel. Not Rated. In Hindi with English subtitles. 100 minutes.

SUMMIT PARK LINE FOUNDATION IS AWARDED 200K MATCHING GRANT FROM REEVES

The Summit Park Line Foundation has received a 200K matching grant from the Reeves Foundation to support its Park Line project, a 1.2 mile linear pedestrian park being created on the abandoned Rahway Valley Railroad line.

The Park Line Foundation applied for a matching “challenge” grant and was required to raise a minimum of $200,000 to receive the funding from the foundation. With grants from the Summit Area Public Foundation, Overlook Foundation, Overlook Medical Center and through a number of generous donations from Summit residents, the Park Line Foundation exceeded the $200,000 goal raising more than $225,000 of the $3.2 million dollars needed to complete the project within a 12-month period, and qualifying for the matching grant.

In early 2016, the City of Summit acquired from the State of New Jersey the rights to build the park accessible for pedestrian and bicyclists. Once completed, Park Line will extend from the edge of the downtown Summit at Overlook Medical Center, along a 1.2 mile path through eastern Summit, ending at Briant Park on the Springfield, NJ border.

The Summit Park Line Foundation and concept was created by Dr. Robert Rubino, former Summit councilman who realized the potential for a park similar to the Highline Park in Manhattan could be initiated in Summit, NJ along the abandoned rail line. Through world-class design, excellence in operations, and innovative and responsible stewardship, the mission of the Park Line Foundation is to engage the community around and about the Park Line, raise essential public and private funding to help complete its construction, and create an endowment for future operations.

“There has been an outstanding expression of support for the Park Line concept from the Summit community,” explains Rubino. “As the momentum for funding of the project continues to build, the Park Line Foundation is extremely thankful for the circle of friends that are helping to carry this important project forward.”

For more information on the Park Line Foundation and the Summit Park Line project or to make a tax-deductible contribution, go to: <https://www.summitparkline.org>.
