WORLD WAR I LECTURE SERIES AT LIBERTY HALL MUSEUM TALKS EXPAND ON BROTHERS IN ARMS EXHIBITION

Liberty Hall Museum at Kean University's popular World War I exhibit, Brothers in Arms: Memories of the Great War, will draw to a close with a series of lectures exploring the impact of the war on New Jersey and the United States.

Funded by a grant from the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, the lecture series will feature three World War I historians who will elaborate on and bring additional context to the Brothers in Arms exhibition. The exhibition opened last year on the 100th anniversary of the U.S. entering World War I and will close on November 15, a few days after the centennial anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended the war.

The first lecture, Good War, Great Men, was held on Thursday, September 27 at 3 p.m., featuring author Andrew Capets.

The second lecture in the series, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and World War I, will be held on Thursday, October 25 at 3 p.m. and will feature Professor Melissa Ziobro of Monmouth University. Ziobro's talk will share the significant breakthroughs created at Fort Monmouth and the important contributions made not only by the fort, but the military men and women stationed there during the war.

The final lecture, Uncle Sam Wants You: World War I and the Making of the Modern American Citizen, will be held on Thursday, November 15 at 3 p.m., and will feature Christopher Capozzola of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Capozzola will discuss his book, Uncle Sam Wants You and the history of citizenship, war and the military in modern American history.

The Brothers in Arms exhibition shares the story of the Kean brothers — Captain John Kean and First Lt. Robert W. Kean — and their experiences of the war from boot camp to the front lines. Using firsthand accounts from letters and postcards, as well as photographs and personal objects, the exhibition allows visitors to walk in their footsteps. The collection at Liberty Hall Museum contains over 300 letters from John and Robert as well as their uniforms, military handbooks, maps, pictures and commemorative pins, all of which are on display.

Admission to each lecture is free with an optional tour of Brothers in Arms at 2 p.m. for a discounted price of $8. Light refreshments will be served. Liberty Hall Museum at Kean University is located at 1003 Morris Avenue, Union, New Jersey.

Reservations are required for both the lecture and tour. Email libertyhall@kean.edu or call (908) 527-0400 to reserve a spot.

MEMO FROM THE MAYOR

Fall is here! I know many of you enjoy your Summers, but Fall has always been my favorite season, I love the cooler days and nights. Just a reminder, October also means we have less than 3 months until Christmas! Now that School is back in session and it gets darker earlier, keep a careful eye when driving and watch out for kids walking and biking. Please keep all those affected by these storms and hurricanes in your thoughts and prayers. If you can, there are many organizations donating all kinds of goods to affected areas. I hope we are spared the worst of it. Be proactive and prepared. If you have not done so sign up for the Swift 911 system to get information via landline phone or to cell phones. Sign up is free and is located on our Kenilworth Borough website. We also have information and a sign-up center at the Seniors Center as well as the Library. Our goal is to get everyone signed up. In times of crisis, the ability to get information quickly and accurately is imperative, this system allows the authorities to reach as many people as possible

Here are some important dates for October;

As always visit our website at kenilworthborough.org for more details about these events and more.

HUDSON SHAKESPEARE COMPANY TO VISIT THE KENILWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Hudson Shakespeare Company will bring 'The Spanish Tragedy,' written by Thomas Kyd, a contemporary of Shakespeare, to the Kenilworth Public Library for a one-night-only performance to conclude the 2018 Bard On The Boulevard series. Tuesday, October 9, 2018 at 7 p.m. Registration is required.

Spain and Portugal have come to a bitter end to their war. Don Andrea, a soldier slain in war, is sent to the underworld. There he meets the spirit of Revenge who agrees to help him get revenge on being wrongfully slain in war. Thus begins a tale of murder and death: in order to solidify the peace between Portugal and Spain, the Spanish prince, Lorenzo, hopes to marry his sister, Bell-Imperia, off to the Portuguese prince, Balthazaar. However, she has other plans. She loves Horatio. Lorenzo and Balthazaar hatch a plan to murder the unsuspecting Horatio and hang him in a tree. Horatio's father, Hieronimo, finds his murdered son and vows revenge - but he must first find out who the murderers are. Thus begins his descent into madness and murder, until Bell-Imperia reveals the truth of Horatio's death and makes a pact with Hieronimo to get revenge. How will all of this play out in this dark tale of murder, revenge, passion and love? You'll have to find out in this dark tale which is perfect for the Halloween season.

The Hudson Shakespeare Company of Jersey City was founded in 1992.

Funding for "The Bard on the Boulevard" has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through a grant administered by the Union County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs.

Visit kenilworthlibrary.org to find out about services, events, and other library information. The library is accessible to all.

“FOUR CENTURIES IN A WEEKEND” PROGRAM AT THE OSWALD J. NITSCHKE HOUSE TO PROVIDE GLIMPSES OF LIFE DURING WORLD WAR I

Living History Program Set in 1918 to Feature World War I Victory Garden, Colorful Characters from the Past and More --

Visitors to Kenilworth’s historic Oswald J. Nitschke House (c. 1880) at 49 South 21 Street on October 20 and October 21, 2018 will experience life during World War I through an enlightening and entertaining “living history” program featuring colorful characters from the past.

The program, set in the year 1918, when the war was drawing to a close, will highlight a guided tour of the site that additionally will feature a World War I Victory Garden, a related garden-to-table culinary demonstration and a presentation of World War I recollections compiled by David Brearley Middle/High School student Michael Naya, Jr. as part of an oral history project that he undertook to learn about and honor veterans of various wars. A new exhibition, “The Allure and Challenges of Life in an Early 20th-Century Suburb,” will be open for viewing in the Nitschke House exhibition center.

Visitors also will be able to view the site’s new “Kenilworth Heritage Walkway” featuring numerous engraved commemorative pavers that have been donated by local residents and businesses. The walkway is part of a newly installed paved path that makes the site’s “teaching gardens” accessible to everyone, including those with physical challenges/disabilities. The paved path, together with a recently constructed pergola and fencing, are part of a major garden construction project made possible through funding generously provided by the Merck Foundation. The project significantly supports and enhances the site’s multicultural garden-to-table foodways program, which shows the importance of home food gardens in the lifeways of the Nitschkes and other late 19th-century immigrants and which additionally demonstrates the continued benefit of gardening in promoting good health, an appreciation of nature and a sense of environmental stewardship.

The October 20-21 weekend activities at the Nitschke House will be presented for the general public from 12 to 5 p.m. during Union County’s annual historic sites tour, “Four Centuries in a Weekend.” Admission is free. Union County Across the Centuries History Trading Cards for David Brearley (1745-1790), Hannah Sayre Caldwell (1737-1780) and Tin Kettle Hill (1780-1906) will be available at the Nitschke House. The site is equipped with an elevator and is fully accessible. For further information, please call 908-709-0434.

The featured exhibition at the Nitschke House is being made possible in part by a 2018 HEART (History, Education, Arts Reaching Thousands) Grant from Union County. Funding for other aspects of the site’s weekend program is being provided, in part, by the Kenilworth Municipal Alliance Against Alcohol and Drug Abuse/GCADA.

The Nitschke House, home of former Kenilworth Mayor Oswald J. Nitschke (1867-1934), features five historic rooms, which are authentically furnished in late 19th-/early 20th-century style and interpreted primarily in the 1905-1934 period (the time of Kenilworth’s first wave of suburban development when Oswald Nitschke made his greatest contributions to its growth), an exhibition center and a cultural arts center.

The Kenilworth Historical Society saved the Nitschke House by moving it in 2003, following Dr. Jerome Forman’s donation of the building to the Society, to its present location (land acquired with the help of the Kenilworth Veterans Center and a New Jersey DEP Green Acres grant).

The Society’s project to restore and transform the Nitschke House into Kenilworth’s first “living history” museum and cultural arts center has been funded, in large part, by historic preservation/rehabilitation grants awarded by the New Jersey Historic Trust, New Jersey Cultural Trust, Preserve Union County Grant Program, Union County Community Development Block Grant program, E.J. Grassmann Trust, The Hyde and Watson Foundation, 1772 Foundation, Schering-Plough Corporation, the Merck Foundation, and numerous individual, corporate and institutional donors and grant makers. Connolly & Hickey Historical Architects (Cranford) designed the elevator addition, as well as the plans for the building’s exterior and interior restoration, and Wagner Construction (Kenilworth) carried out the extensive interior restoration.

The Nitschke House project was recognized by the State of New Jersey with a 2008 New Jersey Historic Preservation Award and was cited as one of six “success stories” statewide in the 2011-2016 New Jersey Historic Preservation Plan, “Preserving New Jersey’s Heritage: A Statewide Plan.”

The Kenilworth Historical Society (www.kenilworthhistoricalsociety.org) is an independent, volunteer-based, non-profit, tax-exempt, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the research, preservation and interpretation of the historic Oswald J. Nitschke House, local history and culture. Funding for the Nitschke House preservation project and all other programs that the Kenilworth Historical Society provides to the schools and general public is entirely dependent on donations, fundraising activities and competitive matching grants that the organization applies for and is considered for based on merit.

(above) The World War I “Sow the Seeds of Victory” poster shown here will be on display in the Oswald J. Nitschke House Victory Garden that will highlight a “living history” program and exhibitions at the historic (c. 1880) site on October 20 and 21, during Union County’s annual “Four Centuries in a Weekend” historic sites tour. The Nitschke House “living history” museum and cultural arts center is equipped with an elevator and is fully accessible, and a new paved walkway provides access to its gardens.

ANNOUNCING: THE CONNIE DWYER BREAST CENTER AT TRINITAS

Trinitas Regional Medical Center has partnered with The Connie Dwyer Breast Cancer Foundation to open a new breast center in Connie's name at Trinitas. The brand new $3.4 million facility will offer a highly empathic approach to screening, diagnosis, treatment, community outreach and education to all women, regardless of financial status.

WE'RE GETTING BETTER, TOGETHER

CONNIE DWYER BREAST CENTER AT TRINITAS NOW OPEN

In alignment with Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Trinitas Regional Medical Center announces the early October opening of the $3.4 million Connie Dwyer Breast Center. The Center is located at Trinitas' main campus, 225 Williamson St., Elizabeth.

Breast cancer is the second leading cause of cancer deaths among women in the U.S., according to the American Cancer Society, and far too many women in the greater Elizabeth community go without prevention, education or proper care.

Trinitas has partnered with The Connie Dwyer Breast Cancer Foundation to bring a highly empathic approach to screening, diagnosis, treatment, and community outreach and education to all women, regardless of financial status, in a brand new facility that evokes comfort and a sense of well-being.

The Breast Center, staffed with board-certified bilingual specialists, offers the most up-to-date equipment and services available, such as 3D imaging, which allows radiologists to view the breast tissue in several layers. This breakthrough technology can detect 41 percent more invasive breast cancers and can reduce false positive results by up to 40 percent.

The American Cancer Society recommends that all women over the age of 40 have regular breast exams and mammograms. Most women who undergo screening will be healthy and not require further services until their next scheduled screening. However, patients who require continued care will meet with a Breast Navigator, a highly trained guide who answers questions and assists patients through the process of diagnosis and treatment.

Dr. Adriana Suarez-Ligon, Breast Surgeon, says, "With the generosity of Connie Dwyer, the new breast center at Trinitas will be a beautiful, calming and comprehensive center for women in our community to have everything from their yearly screening mammograms to the latest diagnostic studies. In addition, it will be a one-stop shop where care will be coordinated for the patient among our dedicated, compassionate multidisciplinary care team."

Connie Dwyer's story is one of bravery and enormous good will. A known philanthropist, Connie was first diagnosed with breast cancer in 1999 and had a double mastectomy. Inspired by her own ongoing battle, she became mindful of the fact that many women who are uninsured or under-insured and low-income often have limited or no access to critical care. That's when she and a dedicated group of friends began a grassroots effort, where she worked tirelessly to create awareness and raise funds. By 2005, the doors of the first Connie Dwyer Breast Center had opened.

"My experience is a testament to the fact that early detection, quality care, and being monitored by knowledgeable professionals makes the difference between life and death," says Connie, who after 19 years, was re-diagnosed here at Trinitas with metastasized breast cancer in December 2017, and yet, remains steadfast in her determination to help others.

"In partnering with Trinitas, the Connie Dwyer Breast Cancer Foundation has joined a collaborative team of doctors, technicians, patient advocates, and professionals to design a breast center that will provide access to the best science has to offer – by way of breast cancer screening, diagnosis and treatment."

WHAT, WHERE, AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH HARDING SCHOOL TURNS 94 YEARS OLD

Ninety-four years ago, on Saturday, October 4, 1924, Kenilworth's Harding Elementary School was dedicated with considerable fanfare. The McKinley School which opened in 1902, which held a grade level of children from kindergarten through grade eight, was over capacity. The school board determined to erect a new school rather than to expand McKinley. Upon completion of the new school a dedication ceremony was held.

Resident Helen Dellar, the Borough's first woman board of education member and one of the first in New Jersey, chaired the festivities. Board president W. K. Mergott and County school superintendent Dr. Arthur L. Johnson, presented remarks. Local businessman and philanthropist Joseph Shallcross, board vice president, accepted gifts for the school including an American flag from the Volunteer Fire Department. Pastor Homer Henderson of the Methodist Church provided prayers. William J. Deans, popular principal, accepted the keys from the architect. A 20-piece orchestra entertained the full-house crowd in the new 495 seat auditorium.

The school was heralded as being "of the most modern design" and "one of which every citizen can well be proud." It was boasted as being a "fireproof structure."

The school had nine classrooms, indoor lavatories, offices, and separate teacher lounges for male and female teachers. The auditorium balcony had a motion picture projection booth and films during off school hours were shown for an admission of ten cents. The stage doubled as the gymnasium which itself featured locker rooms and showers. A mechanical ventilation system was ballyhooed as assuring a pleasant learning environment for all seasons.

The land was acquired for $5,000; furniture, equipment, and sidewalks were budgeted at $10,131; and construction was $102,710. Total cost came to the sum of $117,841. In the 1950s and 1960s additions were constructed which housed an enrollment of nearly 1,300 students.

BRIXOLOGY PRESENTS MAD SCIENCE

Brixology was recently presented by Mad Science at The Kenilworth Public Library.

Children and teens ages 9 – 14 years old worked together to build and test different bridge designs using Lego bricks. Participants learned how to build the strongest bridges by exploring mechanical and structural engineering concepts.

This program was funded by The Ralph Errington Foundation.

For information about upcoming programs at the Kenilworth Public Library visit our website at www.kenilworthlibrary.org, call 908-276-2451 or visit 548 Boulevard.
