SANTA CLAUS SHOP DELIVERS A JOYOUS HOLIDAY TO LOCALS

The Santa Claus Shop will open its doors once again to area families, providing its 52nd consecutive year of complimentary holiday shopping. The shop serves more than 400 low-income families and senior citizens from Summit and other local communities, including New Providence and Berkeley Heights, who are referred by local social services agents.

This year's Santa Claus Shop will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church, 587 Springfield Avenue in Summit. Families will be offered shopping hours by invitation only on Wednesday, November 28, 2018. In addition, the Santa Claus Shop will be hosting a holiday gathering for senior citizens on Tuesday, November 27, 2018.

The Santa Claus Shop guests personally select a household item, new clothing for each member of their immediate family, a hat and mittens, a book, and a new toy for each child. Local volunteers are responsible for the shop setup, personal shopping services for each guest, gift-wrapping, and clean up.

The Santa Claus Shop is chaired by Summit residents Liz Febo, Kourtney Matter, Franny McBride and Shelley Sherman and co-chaired by Michelle Frei, Kim McGovern, Megan Rende and Christine Semcer. The Santa Claus Shop exists solely on donations and volunteers. With the monetary donations from area residents, local organizations and businesses, the Santa Claus Shop can purchase the gifts that allow less fortunate neighbors to experience the joy of holiday giving without financial burden.

To keep the holiday spirit alive for local residents in need, the Santa Claus Shop chairwomen ask for members of the community to consider giving. Checks can be made payable to SHIP, with Santa Claus Shop noted on the check's memo line, and mailed to the Santa Claus Shop, P.O. Box 119, Summit, NJ 07901. The ability to make an online donation is also available at summitsantaclausshop.com. If you would like to find out more information or get involved please visit our website or follow us on Facebook at Santa Claus Shop - Summit, NJ.

HEIGHTS HEAT 8U SOFTBALL TEAM WINS COLONIAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Submitted by Carolyn Sayre

The Heights Heat 8U softball team swept a three-game playoff series to win the Fall 2018 Colonial Championship against the Warren Wolverines. Two of the games ended in dramatic walk-off fashion with big hits by a pair of the team's third-grade sluggers.

Heights Heat veterans Alexandra Duryee, Ava Garcia, Allison Nelson, Alyson Sayre, Annie Young and Lucia Xhelo stepped on the field in September ready to defend their 8U Parkway League championship over the summer. Heights Heat regulars, Analise Javier and Hallie Stein, and a very strong Heat rookie class featuring Emilyn Anderson, Mia Bussin, Ellis Duff, Carly Figlar and Emma Mulroy, joined them for the fall season hosted by Long Hill.

In Game One, the Heat battled against a great defensive effort by Warren in the early innings, and was down 12-6 after four innings. In the top of the fifth, two great catches by Nelson at third base, one on a grounder to Duryee for the second out and one on a grounder to left field, featuring a great stop and throw by Anderson, helped the Heat hold Warren to just a single run. With that momentum, the Heat racked up a total of 10 hits as the girls rallied in their final at-bat to erase a seven-run deficit and win the game 14-13 to take a 1-0 lead in the series. Duryee crushed a double beyond the reach of the Warren shortstop to drive in the tying run, scoring Young from second base, before Sayre singled home Anderson on the first pitch of her at-bat for the walk-off win.

Strong defense and their best offensive performance of the season sent the Heat out to a 10-3 lead after two innings in Game Two; a lead they would not relinquish. At catcher, Xhelo made multiple outs at the plate, including a great catch on a force out in the first inning to help stifle a Warren rally. At pitcher, Duryee stopped countless ground balls and had four assists. For good measure, the right side of the infield combined to make one of the defensive highlights of the season in the final inning as Young stopped a tough grounder at second base and got the ball to Sayre at first, who made an impressive backhanded stretch catch to secure the out. The final score was 17-9.

Game Three was a nail biter with both teams combining to score 33 runs. At pitcher, second graders Anderson and Duff stopped multiple balls, and Javier snared a catch that made the crowd of family and friends cheer. Extra-base hits were slugged by Duryee, Sayre and Stein.

With the Heat down one run heading into the final inning, a one-out rally was sparked by the speedy combination of Garcia and Duff, who scored the winning run on a double crushed into the outfield by Stein. The final score was 17-16.

There were many offensive heroes for the Heat during the three-game series, as they scored 49 runs and accumulated 81 hits. These were some of the team leaders: Hits: Duryee and Xhelo (9), Runs: Young and Javier (6), RBI: Sayre (7), and AVG: Javier, Xhelo and Garcia (1.000)

The season would also not have been possible without the hard work of the many coaches who dedicated their time to help at games and practices. Head coach Bret Sayre, and assistant coaches Dina Bove, Chris Duryee, Maureen Kielty and Mitch Stein, were instrumental in developing the 8U team.

Traditional Korean Martial Arts

GRAND MASTER
Chong Min Lee MA. D.
9th Degree Black Belt

Hapkido is a "soft" martial art, in comparison to other "hard" forms such as Karate and Taekwondo. It is distinctive in that it employs a totally defensive philosophy and posture, rather than attacking, aggressive tactics typical of other martial arts. The Hapkido practitioner, employing this defensive posture, can defend himself successfully against aggressive attacks using only his hands. This is to say the enemy can be controlled by purely defensive means. There is no age or gender limitation for a Hapkido practitioner to enjoy the health benefits and confidence of Hapkido. Complimentary tickets are available for a private screening Tuesday, Nov. 6, 2018 of Mark Wahlberg's upcoming movie Instant Family. Set for official nationwide release Nov. 16, the film shares the story of Pete and Ellie who, in the hopes of starting a family, turn to the foster system. When they decide to adopt three siblings, including a rebellious 15-year-old girl, the couple soon learns the ins, outs, joys and frustrations of parenthood.

Presented by the Social Status Co., the screening begins at 7 p.m. at Westfield's New Vision Rialto Theatre. To secure up to four complimentary tickets, log on to eventbrite.com/e/instant-family-westfield-nj-preview-screening-tickets-51088082831. Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County is among several area organizations partnering with the Social Status Co. to be on hand to provide information on their work for local children and teens in the foster system, and how the community can get involved. The event is in association with Paramount Pictures and WIT PR, and also includes A Birthday Wish and Special Angels Adoption.

CASA of Union County recruits, trains, supervises and supports community volunteers to advocate for abused, neglected and abandoned children placed in foster homes or residential facilities. There are approximately 500 Union County children, from birth to age 21, in foster care, and the nonprofit advocates for just over half these youth. Volunteers are sworn in by a judge and given court-ordered access to a child and report findings to the judge, working to ensure the youth's best interests remain a priority while working toward establishing a safe, stable and permanent home for each child.

The Fall Leaf and Yard Debris Collection Program commenced the second week of October. The Town will be divided into five (5) sections and each section will have a brush pick-up on the first day of the scheduled week for that area, weather permitting. Leaves and brush will be picked up concurrently.

FOR BRUSH COLLECTION:

All brush must be out for pick-up on the first day of the scheduled week for the section. Absolutely no brush will be collected once a section is marked as completed. Residents are advised that there will be no more than one brush pick-up per household. If for some reason you are missed you MUST contact the Department of Public Works via e-mail publicworks@bhtwp.com or telephone 464-0427 within 24 hours. This is assumed that your neighbor's debris is gone but yours is not. Sections will be marked completed by crew lead men and double checked by department foremen; we ask that you kindly do not put out additional brush after the Department has cleaned your neighborhood, as it will not be picked up.

The only accepted brush will be sticks and branches less than four inches (4") in diameter, five feet (5') in length, tied and bundled with twine. We will be going through sections street-by-street with a large machine and a bucket that can grab multiple pieces of debris- having them bundled together means we can move more brush with fewer movements and make the entire process more efficient for everyone.

Piles will be rejected for the presence of lumber, building materials, leaves, roots, stumps, briars, vines, badly decayed branches, dirt, rocks and metal. They will also be rejected if they are bundled with anything other than twine. Please be advised that including these items can cause damage to equipment and physical harm to personnel. If your pile is rejected you can call within 24 hours of that rejection and we will return when you have removed the offending materials.

FOR LEAF COLLECTION:

Leaves should be put into paper bags and left curb side, accessible by machine. We use a process of loading the leaves into a compacting truck body in order to clean an area safely and efficiently. Please do not include any other type of debris in your leaf bags.

Leaf collection will continue across all sections for the duration of the cleanup program, we understand that volume can be intermittent and that one week you may have no leaves and the next everything is ready to be cleaned up. The program is scheduled to end on Friday, December 19th. Please anticipate having your leaves bagged and placed curb side at least two weeks before this date so that we are able to pick them up in a timely fashion.

For a breakdown of the sections by road list, please visit www.berkeleyheightstwpnj.gov/DPW/yard-waste.html.

The show is set for Friday, November 30, 2018 at the theatre at Union Catholic High School in Scotch Plains. All tickets are $10 for general admission in advance - $15 at the door, and are available at ShiningStars.booktix.com.

“We are extremely excited to present our first-ever Christmas show,” said Shining Stars Network’s Founder and the show’s Co-Director Sally Curci. “We’ve been thinking about doing this for several years, and adding this event to our very successful “Evening of Shining Stars” talent show will give our expanding cast another chance to shine on stage. It will be a great way to start the holiday season.”

“We are incredibly grateful and excited that we are able to have a Christmas show this year,” added Co-Director Nicole Greene. “All of the performers cannot wait to perform once again. We really are a family, and we can’t wait to start the holiday season with our show.”

In their 7th year, Shining Stars Network (SSN) has produced a yearly spring talent show called “An Evening of Shining Stars” which has grown into one of the area’s must-see events. This past May, over 1,000 audience members watched the “stars” light up the stage at the historic Union County Performing Arts Center in Rahway. The Shining Stars are set to return to UCPAC for their 8th annual show on Friday, May 3, 2019.

The shows are produced and presented by Shining Stars Network, a registered 501(c)3 non profit organization that shines the light on the special needs community through the performing arts.

Also, make plans to join the Shining Stars cast members for a pancake breakfast on Saturday, November 10th at the Clark Recreation Center, 430 Westfield Ave., Clark, N.J. from 8:00 a.m. until 11 a.m. Pancakes, sausage, coffee, tea, orange juice and hot chocolate will be served, and the cast will be performing songs throughout the morning. Get autographs and have your photo taken with the stars. Tickets are just $8 per person and $25 for a family of four.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE FOR 20TH ANNUAL PIPES OF CHRISTMAS - DEC 15

The Pipes of Christmas will celebrate its twentieth anniversary season with performances in New York and New Jersey this December. The holiday favorite opens on Saturday, December 15 at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, located at 921 Madison Avenue (at 73rd Street) for a 2 p.m. performance. The concert moves across the Hudson River on Sunday, December 16 to Central Presbyterian Church located at 70 Maple Street in Summit, NJ with performances at 2 and 7 p.m.

For those weary of the ceaseless stream of secular seasonal music from department stores to TV, the Pipes of Christmas offers a spiritual and traditional take on the season that connects concertgoers to the holiday in a fresh, meaningful way. The show features tunes such as O Come, O Come Emmanuel, Joy to the World, and Amazing Grace, all performed live on pipes and drums, harp and fiddle, and organ and brass. Not only does the performance define Christmas cheer, but also it inspires those of Celtic descent to retrace and reconnect to their ancestry.

The concert presents the music of Christmas accompanied by readings taken from the Celtic literature of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Featured performers include James Robinson and Andrew Weir from the film "Braveheart," Gaelic Mod champion harpist Jennifer Port of Golspie, Scotland, guitarist Steve Gibb from Inverness, Scotland, Glenfiddich Scottish Fiddle Champion, Calum Pasqua, piper Ben Power from Broadway's "Come From Away," and the Pipe Major Kevin Ray Blandford Memorial Pipe Band from Redlands, CA.

PROCEEDS SUPPORT SCHOLARSHIPS AND MORE

Proceeds from the concert support an extensive music scholarship program, which includes annual gifts to the National Piping Centre and the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland (both located in Glasgow, Scotland) the Gaelic College of Nova Scotia and Summit High School in New Jersey.

Proceeds also support the Society's sponsorship of the US National Scottish Harp Championship, the Gaelic Literature Competition at the Royal National Mod and an annual academic research prize at Sabhal Mòr Ostaig, Scotland's Gaelic college on the Isle of Skye.

Named one of New York City's "Top Ten" holiday events, the concert is made possible by a generous gift from the Grand Summit Hotel in Summit, NJ.

TICKETS AVAILABLE NOW

Tickets may be purchased online exclusively through SmartTix at www.smarttix.com or by phone at (212) 868-4444. Reserved patron seats are available at both venues.

The concert is also producing a special commemorative program book capturing this special anniversary. Information on salute ads can be found on the concert website.

For additional information, visit www.pipesofchristmas.com. Regular updates will also be posted on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ThePipesofChristmas and Twitter at @PipesofXmas.

ABOUT "THE PIPES OF CHRISTMAS"

Since making its debut in 1999, The Pipes of Christmas has played to standing room only audiences. Now a cherished holiday event, the concert provides audiences with a stirring and reverent celebration of the Christmas season and the Celtic spirit. Audience-goers return year after year to experience the program, many reporting that the Pipes of Christmas has become part of their family's annual Christmas tradition.

The concert has been lavished with critical acclaim. In his review for Classical New Jersey Magazine, Paul Somers wrote, "The whole evening was constructed to introduce gem after gem and still have a finale which raised the roof. In short, it was like a well constructed fireworks show on the Glorious Fourth. The Westfield Leader described the concert as "a unique sound of power and glory nowhere else to be found."
