HELPING THOSE IN NEED IS A THANKSGIVING TRADITION

On November 12th and 13th, 2018 the Linden Fire Officers Association FMBA Locals 34 and 234 were on hand to help distribute holiday meals to Linden residents during the LINC'S Food Pantry Thanksgiving distribution. They also generously donated funds toward the effort. Other organizations that volunteered were the Catholic War Veterans of Linden Post 497, and the Linden Lions Club who also donated $500.

One hundred and fifty families received a turkey, a bag of potatoes, carrots, and a pie. About 50 other individuals also received the makings for a holiday meal. The Linden Interfaith Network for Community Service (LINC'S) Food Pantry is a 501c(3) organization. All donations are tax deductible. You can help by mailing a check payable to LINC'S, 14W. Munsell Ave., Linden, NJ 07036. For more information about how you, or your company, can help call 908-925-2523. LINC'S services Linden and Winfield Park residents. All recipients must be pre-qualified by Linden Social Service. For more information on how to qualify call 908-474-8620.

A FRIEND IN NEED

The Linden Food Pantry (LINC'S) serves over a hundred families in our town and provides them with food and personal care items they desperately need. During the holidays our pantry depends on the generosity of individuals and organizations to donate their time, money, and goods so we may accomplish our mission of providing for the needy.

Over the last six months we have experienced a significant shortfall with regard to food from our main supplier, the Community Food Bank of New Jersey. Our situation looked rather bleak for our holiday distributions. Then the cavalry arrived. The Linden Fire Department, Lions Club of Linden, Valvano Insurance Agency, Phillips 66, Catholic War Veterans Linden Post 497, and the VFW of Linden donated money, man hours, and food to come to our rescue. Because of their selfless acts of charity, our clients will enjoy a very happy holiday season.

On behalf of all our volunteers at LINC'S, we thank you and wish you a happy holiday season. May you and your families be blessed with joy and peace in the coming new year.

KEAN THEATRE STUDENT, CHRIS GRANT, SHINES ON PROFESSIONAL STAGE

Submitted by Margaret McCorry

Kean University theatre student Chris Grant has already launched his professional acting career, and he hasn't even graduated yet.

The Linden resident was cast in a lead role in Premiere Stages' production of Brick City at the Bauer Boucher Theatre Center, working alongside professional actors with Broadway, film and television credits, for the play's three-week run in September.

Premiere Stages is Kean's professional theatre in residence that offers theatre students an opportunity to earn credits toward membership in Actors' Equity — the union for theatre actors in America. Premiere Stages works closely with the Kean Theatre Conservatory to provide professional development for students.

"I don't think I would be anywhere near where I'm at in the acting world without the Kean Theatre Conservatory," Grant said.

Grant's journey to leading man began when he joined Premiere Stages' Equity Membership program in 2017 and served as an understudy in the production of Skeleton Crew.

He still remembers the call he got in the middle of class saying he had been cast as Darnell in Brick City, the story of two high school students — the star basketball player and a senior with a disability — who meet in extended study hall.

"I went into the hallway and began shouting and making a bit of a scene. It was something I literally never thought would happen to me," he said.

"This gave Chris something students don't usually receive as part of their college program — rave reviews from multiple theatre critics," said John J. Wooten, Premiere Stages' artistic director.

Ruth Ross at NJ Arts Maven praised Grant's

"winning performance," while Karen Nowasad at Let's Go to the Theater noted that he "makes Darnell a very believable character, one that you like and cheer on."

Holly Logue, director of the Kean Theatre Conservatory, has seen Grant grow as an actor.

"He is a consummate professional. Chris displays acting talents that are exceptional," she said.

Grant admits he was full of doubt about studying theatre but has gained confidence at Kean. He is taking a valuable lesson away from his Brick City experience.

"Don't think anything is impossible," he said. "The way I look at it is, if one person did it, there's an opportunity for you to do it too, if you're willing to put in the time and the work."

GRAND OPENING BEAUTIQUE SKIN CARE AND BODY STUDIO

Beautique Skin Care And Body Studio located at 340 South Wood Ave., Linden, NJ, celebrated their grand opening on November 9, 2018.

Owner Kathy Strzeczowski stated "I am very excited to finally be able to open Beautique Skin Care And Body Studio. It has been a busy year with renovating, planning, interviewing technicians. My entire family, including my husband and three sons, worked hard to make it happen. We had few setbacks, but it was all worth it. Finally, on November 9th with my family and friends and with Mayor Armstead and members of his team, we were able to cut the ribbon and open the doors to our spa."

Beautique Skin Care And Body Studio is a full-service day spa specializing in skin care, therapeutic massages, body treatments, hair styling, and hair removal. They offer couples treatments and massages as well as Spa Night Out Parties. Nail services will also be available soon.

Kathy said "We want to be a little different than other places. We know that our clients have many choices and we want to thank them for choosing us. With my degree and experience in hospitality management I strive to give our guests the best service possible. We take our time with our services to make sure our guests are well taken care of and get the value for their money. We also provide coffee, tea and snacks. It took me a long time to find the right staff members. I wanted to make sure they are licensed, have experience in what they do, and they share my passion for customer service. I am happy to say that I was able to achieve my goal and my staff is wonderful. We also want to be involved with the community so we can give back. Recently, we were part of The Taste of Linden where we met several organizations that are very active in Linden. We want to join them and help in anyway we can. We want to thank Linden residents who reached out to us with congratulations and a wonderful feedback. Thank you for welcoming us. We are here for you!"

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL NJROTC HONORS LOCAL HEROES FOR VETERANS DAY

The Linden High School Navy Junior ROTC honored dozens of local veterans as well as military tradition on Nov. 12, 2018 with its annual Veterans Day ceremony and Navy/Marine Corps birthday celebration.

More than 400 cadets – about a quarter of the total school population – stood in formation in the LHS gym before veterans, local officials, and bleachers filled with parents.

The ceremony was highlighted by an “Old Glory Presentation” in which cadets gave a flag to guest of honor Dennis Costello, commander of the Linden John Russell Wheeler VFW Post 1397. The post is named in honor of the first Linden resident killed in World War I.

Before it was given to Costello, the folded flag was slowly passed through the hands of five cadets in line ending with Cadet Master Chief Petty Officer Maurice Faulk, who knelt and handed the flag to Costello, who saluted the cadet. Meanwhile, an emotional reading about the history and meaning of the flag was performed by Cadet Lt. Commander Ariana Eastwood, the master of ceremonies.

Speaking to the assembled crowd, Cadet Capt.

Gibert Nolasco, the NJROTC’s student commanding officer, thanked all veterans for their service.

“We reflect and express our gratitude to those who have served our country in uniform, as well as those who are deployed overseas,” he told the crowd. “No words can express how grateful we are for your service. Veterans are the reason our nation remains strong and a fighting force for freedom around the world.”

Nolasco also said veterans epitomize the sentiment in President John F. Kennedy’s inaugural address, “Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country.”

Commander Boyd Decker, the high school’s senior Naval Science instructor, who retired from the military in 2015 after 20 years as a Navy pilot, also thanked all the local veterans for their service and for joining the cadets for the ceremony.

He also highlighted the service of the young men and women of the NJROTC.

“I could not be more impressed with this group of kids that I am honored to get to work with every day,” Decker said. “Anything that is asked of these kids, whether it is supporting school functions or supporting local organizations, they just always come through.”

More than 100 of the cadets also pitched in the previous night when the City of Linden honored 43 Hometown Heroes with a ceremony in the same gym to unveil banners that will fly on Wood Avenue throughout the month. The cadets handed out plaques to the veterans or to family members of veterans who are deceased.

Superintendent Danny A. Robertozzi also praised the dedication of the cadets.

“They are truly exemplary young men and women,” he said. “Though some may go into the service, most will not. But the lessons that they are learning in this program, of leadership and service and character, are lessons that will serve them for the rest of their lives.”

Linden Mayor Derek Armstead praised the cadets as “some of the most disciplined, most respected children.”

“It’s no secret that you can find me here to watch basketball games, because I love Linden athletics,” he said. “But there’s not a finer team assembled in this school than this ROTC program.”

The occasion was capped off with cake in celebration of the Navy’s 243rd birthday. The first piece was presented to Costello as guest of honor. As is tradition, the cake is then given to the oldest sailor and Marine present, who pass it on to the youngest. The NJROTC honors that tradition by also recognizing the oldest and youngest cadet.

The oldest Marine present was Robert Kratzer, custodian and groundskeeper at Tiger Stadium at Cooper Field, the district’s football and soccer stadium. The oldest sailor was Linden High School teacher Peter McTiernan.

The youngest sailor was Lt. Clara Rosales, a 2003 graduate of LHS, whose sister Isabelle Vazquez is a sophomore in the NJROTC. The youngest Marine was Sgt. Bradley Wozniak. The oldest and youngest cadets were senior Yesenia Fernandez and freshman Emily Silva.

KIWANIS CLUB 6TH ANNUAL TASTE OF LINDEN

Submitted by June Lazaro

The Grand Banquet Hall in Linden held the 6th Annual Taste of Linden on November 5, 2018. Oh – What a Night! Special thanks to our community for coming out in a cold rainy night to feel our warmth. The evening was filled with local restaurants, supporting businesses, a guitar quartet and some spirits too. Such fun seeing so many neighbors' smiling faces. From 50/50s, sponsorships, ticket sales and donations to LINCS, a memorable successful event was held.

So many local eateries shared their delights. Cuisines included: III Amici Ristorante, Applebee's Grill & Bar, Caruso's Cotton Candy, Chevy's Fresh Mex, Cold Stone Creamery Planet Smoothie, Gold Leaf Pastry Shop, Jersey Mike's Sub, Masala Twist & Grill, Meson Tropical, Metro Liquors, Parkway Grille, Pied Piper Liquors, Pinho's Bakery, Primavera's Café, Ristorante, Pizzeria, Savannah's Southern Bell Restaurant, South Wood BBQ, Starbucks at Linden, and T&L/Leon's Catering.

Thanks to our sponsors more than $5,000 was raised. Sponsors included:

Platinum: Infineum USA LP, Linden Education Association

Gold: Northfield Bank, Phillips 66, SNS Worldwide Inc., Unity Bank.

Silver: Beautique Skin Care and Body Studio, Samsel & Associates Real Estate Services

Bronze: Above and Beyond Holistic Wellness Center, Clark Holiday Inn, Elaine and Al Volpe,

Linden Chamber of Commerce, Primavera's Café, Ristorante, Pizzeria, Primerica, SNL Pacific Fish Market, Stella & Walter Tylicki

Special thanks to the ROTC cadets and Leo from T & L Catering; they served with smiles and even stayed to assist with the cleanup. The City of Linden was a collaborative partner and their contribution is greatly appreciated. Mayor Armstead spoke proudly of our city's diversification and community mindset. Mr. Matthew's Guitar Quartet from Linden High School added that special home grown classy touch to perfect the night. Let's welcome to our neighborhood new businesses that invested in attending, supporting our taste and shared their talents: Jersey Mikes of Linden, Masala Twist & Grill (fine Indian cuisine) and Beautique Skin Care and Body Studio. Donations received go towards scholarships, sponsoring of our Linden Public School clubs and other community projects.

Look for the video coverage on the city of Linden's website and the local Linden TV channel and see snap shots on the Life in Linden website.

Please consider joining our club. For information on joining, contact June Lazaro at 908-930-8310 or email her at junlazarov@verizon.net. The Kiwanis Club of Linden usually has Thursday luncheon meetings at Primavera's. "Like" our Kiwanis Club of Linden Facebook page and look for updates on our next Taste of Linden event.

STUDENTS SPEND SATURDAY IN SERVICE OF NEEDY

Submitted by Gary Miller

About 40 Linden High School students traveled to Newark on Saturday, October 27, 2018 to take part in Rutgers Community Engagement Day.

The students, members of the Navy Junior ROTC and National Honor Society, were broken up into different teams to clean up parks, volunteer with non-profit groups, and beautify the city. They also visited the New Jersey Institute of Social Justice, and packed lunches and wrote cards for less fortunate families.

The program was spearheaded by Ahmed Shehata, a Linden Board of Education member, Rutgers-Newark alumnus, and keynote speaker for the event. He worked with Superintendent Danny A. Robertozzi, Linden High School Principal Yelena Horré, and NJROTC Commander Boyd Decker to arrange the enriching trip for the students, which underscored the district's motto of "Commitment to Service."

"As soon as I was asked to speak, I wanted to make sure our kids were involved in some capacity," Shehata said. "I wanted the kids to get that real college campus feel. I'm grateful that Mrs. Horre and Dr. Robertozzi gave me the green light and helped orchestrate the whole thing, along with Commander Decker and school security staff member Lakhia Carter, who gave up their Saturday to chaperone."

The program was part of Shehata's push to bring Linden Public Schools and Rutgers University closer together, "to help bridge the gap between our kids and admission at our state's university," he said.

"My goal is to strengthen the ties between Linden and Rutgers so we can continue to do great things together," Shehata said. "This is just one of the many initiatives we have in motion and I'm grateful that Linden and Rutgers are both onboard."

Shehata, who was awarded the Rutgers Community Service Award, plans to work with students during the holiday season at food pantries and other places of need around the state, also in conjunction with Rutgers-Newark.
