GARWOOD NOW BRONZE-CERTIFIED BY SUSTAINABLE JERSEY

Submitted by Councilwoman Jen Blumenstock

This fall, Sustainable Jersey officially recognized Garwood as bronze-certified. Sustainable Jersey is a nonprofit organization that provides tools and training to support communities as they pursue sustainability programs. By earning 150 points in the Sustainable Jersey certification program, Garwood successfully demonstrated that it provides a sustainable environment for its current and future residents, and is now eligible to benefit from the organization's many grants that support waste-reducing measures and improve environmental equity.

A few of the actions that Garwood accomplished on their way to certification include: creating a Green Team, promoting socially responsible pet ownership through a Companion Animal Pledge, installing a permanent drug drop-off box at Borough Hall, as well collaborating with the borough's Emergency Management Officer and Police and Fire Departments to further enhance Garwood's emergency management planning. Another significant component of the certification was the institution of a Mayor's Wellness Program. Through this program, and working in conjunction with a nutritionist at a local Shoprite, Garwood was able to provide nutrition and wellness programs for children, seniors, and its employees. 3K walks and recreation activities round out this program.

Garwood is one of 210 municipalities in the state currently certified, with over 400 municipalities participating. Garwood proudly distinguishes itself among the ranks of other bronze municipalities in New Jersey and aspires to continue bettering its community through sustainable efforts.

Blumenstock and Todisco received Garwood's Plaque at the Sustainable Jersey Annual Luncheon at the League of Municipalities in November.

ALJ STUDENTS THANK OUR ARMED FORCES FOR THEIR SERVICE

As the holidays began, Mrs. Winters's keyboarding students at Arthur L. Johnson High School prepared thank you letters to service members who are deployed during the holidays. Practicing their keystrokes and using formatting techniques learned, students were asked to compose a positive message thanking the service member for his or her service to our country which allows us to peacefully enjoy our freedoms at home.

According to Winters, "each message was positive, which means a lot to someone far away from home in a challenging situation."

The letters will be forwarded to The Military Support Group of New Jersey Inc., based in Stratford, NJ TheMilitarySupportGroupOfNJ.com.

The group will then forward the letters, along with other items such as care packages, to troops deployed in various places. The group also supports the families of service members.

RACHEL PAPA RECEIVES HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Submitted by Christine Casale Broski

Rachel Papa, a Arthur L. Johnson High School senior, was one of nine students recognized as a recipient of the inaugural Joy Prescott Humanitarian Award for student leadership and dedication at the Student Leadership Conference at Kean University on Friday, November 16, 2018. According to the application, the award is presented to a student leader “committed to human rights and the pursuit of social justice.” There were over forty nominees from partner schools throughout New Jersey. Rachel was recognized for her contributions to “Community Safety and Inclusion.”

According to ALJ Holocaust/Genocide studies teacher Frank Stebbins, “Knowing

Rachel, community safety and inclusion is something I feel she will focus on long after her senior year at ALJ. She is a pleasure to have in class and was a terrific representative of ALJ at the Middle and High School Conference on Friday.”

Joy Prescott, an educator at Kean University for four decades, dedicated most of the latter part of her career to the Holocaust Resource Center and sharing its resources with educators around New Jersey.

The application states, “Ms. Prescott dedicated more than 30 years of service to students and educators through her passion for diversity training, community building, and Holocaust education.”

“TIRED OF TURKEY” FUNDRAISER

On Thursday, November 29th, 2018, the Education Foundation of Garwood (EFG) held a very successful “Tired of Turkey” fundraiser. The event was well attended and a total of $450 was raised through a contribution of 15% of patrons’ checks at The Station Bar and Grill, 99 Center Street, Garwood. Additionally, nearly $200 was raised in direct contributions to the organization from patrons that night as well.

The owner of The Station Bar and Grill, Brian Cruikshank, said, “I’m always happy to support the great local organizations we have in town, like the EFG. It’s a win-win for Garwood.” Flyers brought by patrons supporting the EFG were honored from 3 p.m. to midnight. All of the proceeds will be used for scholarships for Garwood students and grants for Lincoln School teachers.

In reflecting on the night, EFG President Sara

Todisco said, “I want to say a big thank you to Brian and The Station for their support, which was our fourth fundraiser with them over the past few years.” She added, “The EFG has continued to increase its membership each year for several years now and I appreciate all the members who helped so much to drive up the turnout.”

Please save the date for the signature EFG event of the 15th Annual Appreciation Dinner to be held on Thursday, April 25th, 2019 at The Westwood, 438 North Avenue, Garwood. This event honors an Educator of the Year as well as a Person Making a Difference.

The EFG is a nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)3 organization. It was founded in 2004 to work with the Garwood School District “in pursuit of educational excellence.” You can follow the foundation on Facebook at “Education Foundation of Garwood.”
