18TH ANNUAL TASTE OF MADISON SET FOR MARCH 18, 2019

The Taste of Madison Organizing Committee is pleased to announce that the 18th annual Taste of Madison will be held on Monday, March 18, 2019, just one day after Saint Patrick's Day.

Brooklake Country Club, of 139 Brooklake Road in Florham Park, will be the venue for the Taste for the second time in a row, organizers said.

Chefs from thirty of Madison's best restaurants will graciously serve samples of their best dishes on March 18. Gary's Wine & Marketplace, the event's longtime presenting sponsor, will provide Taste guests with fine wine, beer and spirits, as will other local merchants.

A festive fundraising extravaganza that benefits several local non-profit programs, the 2019 Taste of Madison is a must-attend party for food lovers and a celebration of the best of Madison. The slogan for the 2019 event is "What are you doing March 18th? Meet Me @ The Taste."

Always held in the first quarter of the year, the Taste of Madison was established in 2002 as a fun, town wide fundraiser and a cure for the winter blues. In its previous seventeen editions, the Taste of Madison has raised more than $550,000 and entertained more than 7,500 guests.

The Taste of Madison Organizing Committee is a volunteer, non-profit partnership between the Madison Area Chamber of Commerce, the Madison Downtown Development Commission and the Rotary Club of Madison. Taste proceeds fund charitable causes, civic improvements and business development in Madison.

The co-chairs of the 2018 Taste of Madison are Michael Pellessier (DDC), Karen Giambra (Chamber) and David Morozoff (Rotary). Members of the organizing committee are Madison Mayor Bob Conley, Lisa Ellis, Jim Hollenbach, Rocco Iossa, John Morris, Michael Odell and Anna Riker. Dave Thompson is the Gary's Wine & Marketplace representative to the committee.

For information about Taste corporate sponsorships and advertising opportunities, contact Karen Giambra at madisonchamber@gmail.com and 973-214-7014. Or contact Michael Pellessier at mpellessier93@gmail.com and 360-581-2910.

Taste of Madison's silent auction and tricky tray events are some of the best in northern New Jersey. The businesses of Madison and the friends of Madison donate merchandise and services to the cause. Donations are welcome anytime. The Taste also offers a 50/50 raffle drawing during the night of the event.

Starting in February, visit Gary's Wine & Marketplace in Madison or TasteOfMadison.org for tickets, which must be purchased in advance due to state regulations.

Taste guests must be 21 years older and the dress code is business casual. VIP Admission (early entry at 6 p.m.) is $100 each. General Admission (entry at 7 p.m.) is $65.00 each. The events ends at 9:30 p.m.

MADISON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE STRONGER THAN EVER AFTER 75 YEARS OF SERVICE

The Madison Chamber of Commerce commemorated their 75th Anniversary (1943 – 2018) during their annual holiday party held at Rocco's Tuscany Bar and Grill on Tuesday, January 15, 2019. Mayor Robert Conley presented the Chamber with a resolution from the borough and stated in part “1943 – was the middle of World War II, FDR was the president and Samuel Gruver was mayor.... 16 mayors since and the Madison Chamber of Commerce is as strong as ever.”

MADISON ROTARY 50/50 DRAWING

The Madison Rotary Club's drawing of the winning tickets for their annual 50/50 raffle took place on Thursday, December 13, 2018 at their Christmas luncheon held at the Madison Area Y.

The proceeds of the sale of 600 tickets at $100 each is the Club's major fundraiser. Along with other fundraisers during the year, the Club distributes these funds to numerous local charities and non profit organizations in May through their Grants and Sponsorship program. Last year the club distributed $40,000 between grants, sponsorships, and high school senior scholarships. Prizes for the 50/50 Raffle are 1st Prize: $20,000; 2nd Prize: $5,000; 3rd Prize: $3,000; 4th Prize: 1200; 5th Prize: $800.

FREE LECTURE THURS., FEB. 7TH GLOBAL POWER SHIFTS AND IMPLICATIONS FOR AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY

All are welcome to join the members of the Thursday Morning Club at the club's Madison Community House, 25 Cook Ave. on Thursday, February 7, 2019 at 10 a.m. for a free lecture by Dr. Douglas Simon, emeritus professor of political science at Drew University. At Drew, Simon specialized in international affairs, U.S. foreign policy, international organization, and national security.

Dr. Simon's presentation will discuss major shifts of power characterizing the current and future international system. Attention will focus on China's challenge to American global preeminence, the rise of Eurasia, Russia's efforts to reestablish its sphere of influence, and the advent of hyper-nationalism and the threat that it brings to the post-WW II international order. As these developments progress, two dangers stand out. The first is the danger of war that often occurs when one dominant power seeks to displace another. The second is in the area of weapons proliferation, not only nuclear, chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction, but weapons used in cyberwar.

Dr. Douglas Simon is the only two-time recipient of Drew's Distinguished Teaching Award and also received the Sears Outstanding Educator Award and the Distinguished Teaching Award from the American Political Science Association. He is the co-author of the book The Challenge of Politics, now in its fifth edition with

NJ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA OFFERS TWO PERFORMANCES OF PUCCINI OPERA

Opera's most tempestuous tale of love, deception and political intrigue—"Tosca"—comes alive in Westfield on Saturday, February 23rd and in Madison on Sunday, February 24th as New Jersey Festival Orchestra and award winning soloists perform Puccini's passionate and beautiful music in its full glory.

Puccini's irresistible lyric genius has long made Tosca one of opera's most breathtaking masterpieces. A cast of internationally acclaimed guest performers comes to Westfield and Madison to present, acted and in costume, this gripping tale of love, lust, corruption and ultimate struggle for survival.

"Tosca has long been one of the most popular operas in the entire repertoire," said NJFO Music Director David Wroe. "Puccini's powerful score illuminates the tense drama at every step, giving numerous opportunities for the three guest principals to shine."

Singing the title role of fiery prima donna Floria Tosca is award-winning soprano Jenny Schuler who has earned praise in recent seasons for her powerful vocalism and compelling stage artistry. Lauded for his distinctive timbre and magnetic stage presence tenor Kirk Dougherty makes his NJFO debut in the role of revolutionary artist Mario Cavaradossi. With a sound combining clarity, strength, and integrity, Mr. Dougherty is one of the most exciting voices entering the opera circuit today. The role of the menacing police chief Scarpia, determined to possess Tosca and thwart Cavaradossi, is performed by Todd Thomas who is recognized by opera companies and critics alike as one of the true baritones gracing stages today.

"We are thrilled to bring these fabulous singers to our local doorstep," continued Wroe. "Each of them is a star who has already graced the stages of concert halls and opera houses across the world. With their outstanding technique and artistic interpretation of this, Puccini's most loved and most poignant work, I predict that there will not be a dry eye in the house!"

Sung in Italian with English supertitles, the opera is brought to life with costumes, sophisticated staging and colorful design by Artistic Director Maria Todaro. A free pre-concert lecture will be presented at 6pm in Westfield prior to the Westfield performance.

THURSDAY MORNING CLUB WISE WONDERFUL WOMEN PROGRAM FEBRUARY 21ST

The Thursday Morning Club is pleased to announce our upcoming Wise Wonderful Women presentation featuring Walter Choroszewski on February 21st, 2019 at 11:30 a.m. at the Madison Community House, 25 Cook Ave., Madison, NJ. Walther C. will bring light to "CINEMA and Television in The New Jersey Connection." He will speak about New Jersey from the times of Thomas Edison's creation of the world's first movie theatre in West Orange to the New Jersey-born artists who have starred on the big and little screens. Walter C. is known for his photography and public speaking on behalf of New Jersey and is associated with the "New Jersey and You: Perfect Together!" campaign. He is a self-proclaimed New Jersey cheerleader.

Mr. Choroszewski is a man of many talents. He graduated Penn State University with a degree in Biology and enjoyed electives in art. He researched NJ, often driving a 250-mile loop around the state, and has written books about New Jersey creating a photographic celebration of the state.

Tickets can be purchased for $35 through the Thursday Morning Club website tmc@tmcch.org. Lunch will be served prior to the presentation. For questions please call 973-377-0244.

Organized in 1896, the Thursday Morning Club owns, operates and maintains the Madison Community House with its Community House Nursery School and Before and After School Child Care program. It is a Member of the GFWC (General Federation of Women's Clubs) and the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs (NJSFWC). The Club offers programs and services to support the community, and its Community House provides a home for a number of sports, recreation and civic groups. The Thursday Morning Club is a non-profit service organization with over 260 members whose goal is to provide services for the town of Madison and neighboring communities.

COMMUNITY HELPERS: FIREFIGHTERS

First Exhibition of Its Kind in Morris County Involving the Participation of Eleven Local Fire Departments and Companies

The new exhibition Community Helpers: Firefighters will be at the Morris Museum through Thursday, February 28, 2019. This family-friendly exhibition celebrates the central role that professional and volunteer firefighters play in safeguarding the people, property, and well-being of our community. It provides a look into the lives of these emergency rescuers, illustrated through historic and present-day safety equipment, apparel, and vehicles. Over 125 objects are on exhibit, drawn from the collections of eleven fire stations including the Madison Fire Department and Green Village fire Department of Chatham, and several firefighters across Morris County. In addition, interpretive displays explain the physics of combustion and how firefighters structure their teamwork.

Community Helpers: Firefighters is organized under two general narratives. "A Day in the Life" documents the sequence of actions that occur to put out a fire, from the moment an emergency call comes in until the fire is completely extinguished. A hands-on display details the highly coordinated teamwork among Command, the Search Team, the Hose Team, the Vent Team, and the Firefighter Assist and Search Team in combating a blaze. Documenting these actions are the tools of their vocation: helmets and turnout gear (personal protective equipment and apparel), breathing apparatus, radios and call boxes, hydrants and valves, hoses and nozzles, and other special case items.

The "History of Firefighting" provides a context across time for the fire service we know today. A short timeline outlines important events and technological advancements from its inception in the late 1600s to the present. This section of the exhibition features non-emergency apparel, such as daily wear, parade wear, dress uniforms, ceremonial bugles, and badges. Throughout the galleries text panels chronicle the histories of the eleven Morris County fire stations and companies that have loaned work to this exhibition.

"There is a deep sense of pride among all fire departments in their individual histories. Their personal stories and collections reveal deep bonds to the fire service and the local community," states Anne Motto, Assistant Curator of the Morris Museum. "For many firefighters it is a life-long calling. For others it is a family tradition, passed down from generation to generation. The Morris Museum recognizes and celebrates these committed rescuers for their valiant efforts, their passion for their work, and their vital role in serving the community."

The very first firefighters were volunteers — those civic-minded citizens who dropped everything to run and help when the alarm sounded. Today, dedicated volunteers comprise 70-80% of firefighters in the United States. In recent years, however, these numbers have been in decline, so those in the fire service are actively seeking ways to engage the next generation. "I feel this exhibit is a good way for the community to understand that most of the departments in Morris County are volunteer, not paid," states exhibition advisor Captain Corey Martin of the Rainbow Lakes Volunteer Fire Company. "People can learn about what's going on in the fire service. And maybe it helps a department get someone to join, perhaps someone who is thinking about it. That's what it's really about, getting the community involved. That helps everyone."

EXHIBITION HIGHLIGHTS:

- Three historic fire carts, including the 1836 apparatus Lady Washington from the Independent Hose Company No. 1 of the Morristown Fire Department.
- Uniforms and helmets that span the 20th century. The earliest is an 1897 parade uniform provided by the Madison Fire Department.
- A 1992 Junior Firefighter Helmet from the National Junior Firefighter Program that was initiated to increase awareness about the fire service among today's youth, courtesy of the Rainbow Lakes Volunteer Fire Company of Parsippany.

MADISON PUBLIC LIBRARY PROGRAMS FOR FEBRUARY 2019

The Madison Public Library is located at 39 Keep Street, Madison, NJ. • Tel: (973) 377-0722 • www.madisonpubliclibrary.org

Registration required unless otherwise noted.

Winter Wonderland!

Saturday, February 2

Join the Madison Public Library for our annual Winter Wonderland! This fun tradition celebrates all that winter has to offer and we truly embrace that by holding Winter Wonderland outside in the library courtyard.

The fun starts at 1pm with crafts, science experiments, ice painting and much more. We will also have a live ice carving by Jimmy of Artistic Creations. Then at 2 pm, Mad Science will entertain the older kids with a winter-themed show in the Chase Room while the younger kids will have a visit from Miss Margie the Penguin! Younger kids will make penguin tails, listen to penguin stories and finish up with a penguin parade.

For all ages. Don't miss it!

Storybox Tales (ages 4-6)

Monday, Feb. 4, 4:00 pm

Educator Allison Caplan brings to life the magic of storytelling right in your location! The Storybox Tales program combines favorite tales with puppets, props, and interactive songs to engage and enthrall young children – and foster their love of reading. Visit StoryboxTales.com for more information. Sponsored by Ralph Errington Charitable Foundation.

Tea and Chocolate Tasting

Mon, February 11, 7 pm

Back by popular demand is tea expert, Marjorie Wang! Just in time for Valentine's Day, we have a tea and chocolate tasting! The guided tasting pairs three Chinese teas from historical terroirs with chocolate from Zotter, arguably one of the finest chocolate makers in the world. Participants will be introduced to the Gangfu style of brewing tea, learn how to savor the tea in traditional three-sip cups, and observe the unique flavors that arise from the pairings.

You won't want to miss this!

President Who?

Tuesday, February 12, 7 pm

Standard programs for Presidents Day most likely include George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. BUT there are 45 presidents – or is it 44? Now it's time to remember the little-known Presidents of the United States. If anything, at least they fill in the holes of American history, and you will be able to determine why the headline question exists, and who inspired it. Included in this program are The Hole in the Donut; Benjamin Harrison; His Accidency, John Tyler; Franklin Pierce, (who didn't even know he'd been nominated for President until he was told); Chester A. Arthur, a man with zero qualifications, who was nominated for Vice-President solely as a political expediency; and, of course, the ever popular Millard Fillmore. (Or is it Filmore?) Join us for more fun presidential facts!

Scarf Workshop (Ages 13+)

Friday, February 15, 3 pm

Join renowned artist, Lisa Brown, at a Scarf Workshop. Create a beautiful silk scarf with unusual methods of stamping, tying, folding, and finally adding vibrant colors. These are unique in every way. Not only that, you can wear them home!

Mark Di Ionno Author Talk

Tuesday, February 19, 7 pm

Come see Pulitzer finalist Mark Di Ionno as he discusses his new book, Gods of Wood and Stone. Mark Di Ionno is the author of the award-winning The Last Newspaperman, a Star-Ledger columnist, Pulitzer finalist, four-time winner of the New Jersey Press Association Award for column writing, and the author of four award-winning books.

Paintings of the Dutch Golden Age:

A Virtual Tour

Tuesday, Feb. 26, 7:00 pm

Get to know the part of the Metropolitan Museum of Art devoted to the pictures of Frans Hals, Jan Vermeer, and Rembrandt van Rijn. Along the way, learn about the Dutch Republic in its 17th-century heyday, including its tulip mania and the Flying Dutchman! Presented by art historian Michael Norris.

Mini-Mozart (ages 0-5 years)

Thursday, Feb. 28, 10:30 am

Children love to listen to music! Relax, listen, and play along with pianist Helen Raymaker as she performs a mix of classical music, rag-time and traditional tunes. Some studies have linked listening to classical music to brain development in children. Harvard, here we come! Drop-in program - no registration required. Sponsored by Ralph Errington Charitable Foundation.
