FRIENDS OF LIBRARY GALA FUNDRAISER SET FOR MARCH 23

Submitted by Kathy Trombacco

The Friends of the Madison Public Library, a nonprofit organization, will honor Madison resident Sue Carter, a long-time library technology volunteer and former Friends' board member and library trustee, at its annual Gala Benefit to be held from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 23, 2019, at the library, 39 Keep Street. "Carter has contributed so much, not only to the library, but also to Madison and the surrounding area, that it is a privilege to recognize her work," said Sylvia Luber, Friends Chairwoman.

"Sue's vast understanding of technology has been invaluable to the success of all library projects," said Nancy Adamczyk, Library Director during Carter's tenure on the board. These projects included library cabling and computer software upgrades. As a Trustee she assisted staff as they developed the policies and procedures these changes required for implementation. Sue's technology insight and vision also led to the development of the Library's website and the digitalization of the Madison Eagle, a resource that local history researchers have found extremely useful as they delve into Madison's past.

All are cordially invited to attend the March 23 Gala Benefit at the library. Wine and beer, and a variety of delicious hors d'oeuvres prepared by the Catering Department of the Thursday Morning Club will be served.

Invitations have been mailed to library patrons and are also available at the front desk of the library, as well as tickets for a fund-raising event with prizes. Reservations also can be made online at friendsmadisonnjlibrary.org. Admission is $50 per person. Checks should be made payable to Friends of the Madison Public Library and mailed to 39 Keep Street, Madison, NJ 07940 along with the RSVP card. Cancelled checks will serve as a receipt; no tickets will be mailed.

Proceeds from the annual Gala Benefit will be used to support special library programs for children, teens and adults, and to expand the book and media collections. The Friends also fund museum passes as part of the library's popular Museum Pass Program. Adult education programs sponsored by the Friends include minicourses, crafts, lectures, "Tech Tuesdays" and the Summer Seminar Series that is co-sponsored with the Madison Senior Center. Music, movies, app parties, "games day", and workshops are among the popular family events also made possible by the Friends.

SAGE PREPARES FOR 2019 MARCH FOR MEALS

Submitted by Cindy Potters

City officials and members of community organizations are invited to join SAGE Eldercare in March as it participates in the 17th annual March for Meals – a month-long, nationwide together of local community coming organizations, businesses, government officials and caring individuals to ensure that homebound and vulnerable older adults are not forgotten.

Participants have included NJ State Senator Thomas Kean Jr., Summit Mayor, Nora Radest, Police Chiefs from Summit, New Providence, Berkeley Heights, Springfield and Mountainside and local government officials and volunteers.

Established in 1966, SAGE's Meals on Wheels is the oldest continuously run home delivery meal program in New Jersey. In 2018, approximately 300 volunteers delivered more than 47,000 meals to 232 people in Union County (Berkeley Heights, Mountainside, New Providence, Springfield, and Summit), Essex County (Millburn and Short Hills), and Morris County (Chatham and Madison).

"The services that we provide older adults in our area are critical; it's not just a warm meal, but also a friendly visit, sometimes the only human contact a person gets the whole day," said Marianne Kranz, SAGE Director of Meals on Wheels. "Together, we can keep older adults living independently, healthier at home and feeling more connected to their community as they age."

For more information about participating in March for Meals, contact Marianne Kranz at: 908-598-5514 email: or mkranz@sageeldercare.org.

ABOUT SAGE

Since 1954, SAGE Eldercare provides a wide array of information, support, and services designed to help individuals lead the most independent and active lives possible. SAGE is committed to being the leading provider of programs and services to meet the changing needs of older adults, their families, and caregivers throughout Union, Essex, Morris, and Somerset Counties. For more information, please call 908-273-5550 or visit sageeldercare.org.

ABOUT MEALS ON WHEELS AMERICA

Meals on Wheels America is the oldest and largest national organization supporting the more than 5,000 community-based senior nutrition programs across the country that are dedicated to addressing senior hunger and isolation. By providing funding, leadership, research, education and advocacy support, Meals on Wheels America empowers its local member programs to strengthen their communities, one senior at a time. For more information, or to find a Meals on Wheels provider near you, visit mealsonwheelsamerica.org.

BSA TROOP PLACES HIGH IN REGIONAL RACE

Troop 280 of Chatham placed second out of 15 teams in the Fishawack District Klondike Derby, a six-hour sled and skills marathon at Boy Scout Camp Allamuchy in Stanhope, NJ. It was the only Troop for girls competing in the quest.

Just a day earlier, Troop 280 officially chartered with Scouts BSA (previously the Boy Scouts of America), making it part of the pioneering first wave of Troops for girls in the region. The Troop sent a team of nine girls to the Klondike, and has a growing number of registered Scouts.

"It was really difficult at first, coming into this new, but we all pulled our weight and helped one another," said Chatham's Azniv Basralian, team captain in Saturday's race. "It's incredible how much we got to know each other. Everyone got a chance to be a leader, and having this opportunity meant so much to all of us."

The freezing morning of 6 degrees Fahrenheit didn't deter the new Troop's early start. "I've never been so cold in my life," said Kalis Drew of Madison.

The team included Carly Albanese, Azniv Basralian, Lucine Basralian, Sasha Bauhs, Kalis Drew, Amelie Lambert, Sofia Maciejewski, Janae Molina and Sofi Romero. They competed in the age 11-13 Division.

Troop 280 is chartered by Stanley Congregational Church on Fairmount Avenue and led by Scoutmaster Daniele Basralian.

On Saturday, February 2, 2019, Scouts BSA Troop 28 and Venture Crew 28 are also chartered by Stanley and provided materials to the new Troop. The girls trained for just a few weeks, and several of the girls have been Arrow of Light Scouts with Cub Scout Pack 6 in Chatham since September.

> Troop 280 meets most Thursday nights, 7:00 8:00 p.m. at Stanley Church and conducts many of its adventures on weekends.

> They can be reached by emailing troop280chatham@gmail.com.

> Troops of boys and girls are not commingled. In Scouts BSA, girls and boys have equal opportunity to form their own separate Troops and develop the skills, character and teamwork abilities they'll need in life.

THURSDAY MORNING CLUB PRESENTS "DRESSING DANCERS FOR LIVE PERFORMANCE" BY BETTINA BIERLY

(above) Join the Thursday Morning Club for Bettina Bierly's lecture "Dressing Dancers for Live Performance" on Thursday, March 7, 2019 at 10 a.m.

Submitted by Eileen Ryan

The general public, members and guests are welcome to the Thursday Morning Club, 25 Cook Ave., Madison, NJ on March 7, 2019 at 10 a.m. for Bettina Bierly's lecture followed by a buffet lunch.

Bettina Bierly will share backstage stories about performance spaces as diverse as Lincoln Center and Celebrity Cruises. Drawing from her collection of photographs, costumes and accessories, the audience will see what live performance requires, from first rehearsal to opening night.

Ms. Bierly's presentation is free and open to the public. To attend the luncheon, RSVP by Friday, March 1, to the Madison Community House, 973-377-0244, option 9, and leave a name, phone number and message. The cost of the lunch is $20 payable at the door.

Formerly Costume Director for New York City Opera, Ms. Bierly's work has been seen at Brooklyn Academy of Music, Tanglewood, the George Street Playhouse, Wolf Trap, Playwrights Theatre of New Jersey, Bard Summerscape and Fairleigh Dickinson University. As a lecturer, she has spoken at the Metropolitan Opera, Fashion Institute of Technology, Parson's School of Design and the Juilliard School. Bettina has worked as a stitcher and hand finisher for Donna Langman Costumes (turning silk taffeta into Eliza and Angelica Schyler dresses for Hamilton) and is a contractor for Celebrity Cruises installing theatrical productions on their ships in Europe, South America, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand and the Caribbean. For the last several years Ms. Bierly has worked at the NYC Ballet in the ladies' wardrobe department both at Lincoln Center and on tour in Saratoga and at the Kennedy Center. As Artist in Residence at the Morris County School of Technology Academy of Visual and Performing Arts she is designing costumes for their production of Tuck Everlasting which will be performed at the Bickford Theatre in Morristown. Bettina Bierly loves her work and is happy to share her passion with those in attendance. Ms. Bierly lives in Morristown with her husband, sons and two Jack Russell terriers.

Proceeds from the program will benefit the Madison Community House which is owned and operated by the Thursday Morning Club with its Community House Nursery School, and Before and After School Child Care. Organized in 1896, the club is a member of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs (NJSFWC) and General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC). The club offers programs and services to support the community, and the Community House provides a home for a number of sports, recreation and civic groups.

For information about the Thursday Morning Club or membership, call the Madison Community House at 973-377-0244 or visit tmcmch.org.

THURSDAY MORNING CLUB - AUTHOR'S TEA WITH JULIE MALONEY

(above) Julie Maloney will be guest author at the Thursday Morning Club of Madison's 2nd "Author's Tea" on Saturday March 23, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Submitted by Eileen Ryan

On Saturday March 23, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., the Thursday Morning Club of Madison will present their 2nd "Author's Tea" at the Madison Community House, 25 Cook Ave in Madison, NJ. Please join us for light refreshments and a presentation by our guest author Julie Maloney, a widely respected poet and writer, whose debut novel, "A Matter of Chance" has been well received by numerous critics and reviewers. "A Matter of Chance" takes the reader on the riveting, emotional journey of a mother's relationship with her missing child.

In addition to her years of writing, Julie, a former dancer and choreographer, has served as artistic director for the dance school she founded in New York City. She is the creator and facilitator of the "Writing to Heal" workshop of the Carol G.Simon Cancer Center of Morristown Memorial Hospital. For the past 10 years she has hosted the "Tea and Conversation" author series at the Bernardsville library.

Of Julie's many interests, perhaps her greatest passion is her work promoting women authors. To this end she has founded "Women Reading Aloud" a non-profit international organization devoted to the promotion of women authors. As director of this organization she leads workshops and retreats throughout the year on a national and international level. To each of her events, Julie brings her passion for nurturing creativity in everyday life.

Tickets are $10.00 and can be purchased at The Thursday Morning Club website thursdaymorningclub.org (click events) or you can contact Vincyne LaCapra vincyne@yahoo.com, or 862-579-7534 with any questions.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the Madison Community House, which is owned and operated by the Thursday Morning Club along with its Community House Nursery School and Before and After School Child Care program. Organized in 1896, the Club is a member of both the New Jersey State and General Federation of Women's Clubs. The club offers programs and services to support the community, and its Community House provides a home for a number of sports, recreation and civic groups. The Thursday Morning Club is a non-profit service organization with over 260 members whose goal is to provide services for the town of Madison and neighboring communities. For information about the Thursday Morning Club or membership, call the Community House at 973-377-0244 or visit TMCMCH.org

TRI-TOWN 55+ COALITION EARN STATE-WIDE RECOGNITION

Submitted by Laura Sostak

Chatham Borough, Chatham Township and Madison Borough recently received Sustainable New Jersey's 2018 Collaboration Award for their partnership with Tri-Town 55+ Coalition in building lifelong, age-friendly communities. The award was presented at the Annual Sustainable Jersey Luncheon held during the New Jersey League of Municipality Conference in Atlantic City.

Every day for the next 10 years, 10,000 people will turn 65. By 2030, 1 in every 5 people will be 65 or older. "With this shift in the population demographic, communities must assess their environments and ensure the needs of older adults are part of the towns master plan. Equitable housing, access to transportation services, opportunities for social and civic engagement and lifelong learning opportunities are important assets to ensure older adults remain vibrant and valued members of the community," says John F. Hoover, Vice President of Tri-Town 55+ Coalition and Madison Councilman.

Together with municipal leaders, local businesses, non-profit and public agencies, Tri-Town Coalition is implementing programs and services based on feedback from a 2016 Community Needs Assessment Survey. One of the first key initiatives implemented by the Coalition was the Rides for Seniors Program, an on-demand car service to help those 65 and older in the three towns get to where they want to go, when they want to go, without a smartphone.

"We are very pleased to hear that Tri-Town 55+ Coalition is being recognized for its work in Madison, Chatham Borough and Chatham Township. The partnership started with a very successful Rides for Seniors which now has over 350 registered riders and has provided 3,000 rides since April 2017. The Tri-Town 55+ Coalition is improving our communities through a dedicated design strategy for life long living for seniors," says Robert H. Conley, Mayor, Madison Borough.

Recognizing older adults as an asset to the vitality of the local economy, the Madison Chamber of Commerce and Tri-Town 55+ Coalition launched its Age-Friendly Business initiative in the fall of 2017. The Chamber and the Coalition are working with local businesses to ensure that they are accessible, offer a comfortable atmosphere and provide great service to attract this growing population. These measures enhance the quality of life for the whole community and local businesses are becoming a desired destination for older adults.

Last spring, the Coalition collaborated with the Mayor's Wellness Committee of the Chathams on an exciting new project, Chatham's Urban Track. Recognizing the importance of walkable communities to improve public health and quality of life, the Mayor's Wellness Committee of the Chathams created a self-guided walking tour along the sidewalks on the Borough's Main Street. Places of historic, economic, and social interest are highlighted along the way, along with comfortable rest stops to make the track inviting for walkers of all ages.

"Chatham Borough is delighted that Madison, Chatham Township and Chatham Borough are being recognized by Sustainable Jersey for their collaboration with the Tri-Town 55+ Coalition. Because of our close association on this and other programs and shared services, it makes it very easy for the Tri-Town 55+ Coalition to be the success it is," says Bruce A. Harris, Mayor, Chatham Borough.

Tri-Town 55+ Coalition is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization that partners with representatives of business, civic and public organizations in the Madison, Chatham Borough and Chatham Township community to address the quality of life and diverse needs and interests of older adults and their families. The Coalition identifies, implements, promotes and sustains programs and services for lifelong living based on the World Health Organization's Age-Friendly themes. Residents of all ages are welcome to. To learn more, please call Tri-Town 55+ Coalition at 862-246-6065.

ANNUAL END HUNGER 3.6 PACKAGING PROJECT SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

Submitted by Carmela Moeller

Based on the resounding success of the End Hunger 3.6 Packaging Project of March 2018, the Rotary Club of Madison and the Madison Rotary Foundation announced that this year's project will take place once again at the The Simon Forum at Drew University, Madison Avenue on Saturday, March 9, 2019 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This year's goal is to surpass last year's total of 160,000 meals, by packaging 250,000 meals. With the newly merged District 7475, a second packaging event will take place on March 30 at Raritan Valley Community College from 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. to package 150,000 meals for a grand total of 400,000 meals. This is a Rotary District 7475-wide project which includes Berkeley Heights.

(above) A total of 800 volunteers are needed for each event. Volunteers come from all over New Jersey and beyond. Please register by March 5 on the Madison Rotary Website: madisonrotarynj.org.

FUNDRAISER FOR AMERICAN LEGION

Submitted by Maryann Doherty

Plans have been completed for the Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner held annually for close to fifty years by the Madison-Florham Park American Legion Auxiliary Unit #43. The event will take place at the Legion Post Home, 20 Ridgedale Avenue in Florham Park from 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, March 17, 2019. The donation for a dinner will be $15, children under 12 will be $5. A sandwich with a side will be $10. Dessert is included with each selection.

Funds raised in the past have made it possible to send delegates to Jersey Girls State each June from Madison, Hanover Park and Chatham High Schools, provide gifts for the Valerie Fund for Children with Cancer and Blood Diseases, support Family Promise which assists the homeless of Morris County, as well as provide financial support to Auxiliary Academic Scholarships on the National, State and County levels

Past Unit President Frances Derin of Florham Park is chairman of the dinner committee. Sons of the Legion member George West of Morristown will be volunteering in the kitchen assisted by Unit member Yvonne Chapman of Madison.

The ladies of Unit #43 invite all residents to join them for dinner on March 17 to show support for the volunteer work they do for veterans, children and the communities in the area.

What does 3.6 represent? Every 3.6 seconds as this is a district-wide project. someone in the world dies of malnutrition or starvation. In Rotary District 7475, which encompasses 10 counties in north central and central New Jersey, it is estimated that over 300,000 men, women and children are food insecure. Over one million persons are living below the poverty level in New Jersey. Over the long term, prevention of food insecurity is likely to be more cost-effective in treating the consequences of this crisis.

The End Hunger 3.6 project is a community event involving volunteers packaging nonperishable, ready to cook meals, such as macaroni and cheese, rice and vegetables, minestrone, and apple cinnamon oatmeal. All food is vitamin enriched and GMO-free. The meals are distributed to soup kitchens and feeding stations throughout Rotary District 7475

In order to purchase ingredients for packaging, donations and grants are required. Donations of $500 or more will be acknowledged in Rotary's publicity materials. Contributions are tax deductible and can be made online or by mail to Madison Rotary Foundation, P.O. Box 211, Madison, NJ. 07940. Contributions for the March 30 event at Raritan Valley Community College may be sent to: Branchburg Rotary Club Foundation, P. O. Box 5135, Branchburg, NJ 08876. Both are 501(c)3 organizations.

A total of 800 volunteers are needed for the day of the event. Please register by March 5 on Madison Rotary Website: madisonrotarynj.org. For further information, contact Ellsworth Havens, Chair, at: ellsworthhavens@icloud.com (Madison) or Tulsi Maharian, RVCC event Chair at trmaharjan@gmail.com.

STUDENTS TO STAR AT GREEN VISION FORUM

Submitted by Claire Whitcomb

The Madison Environmental Commission is holding its second annual Green Vision Forum on Thursday, March 14, 2019, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at Drew University's Ehinger Center. Once again, the stars of the evening will be students from Madison's elementary, junior and high schools, along with college students from Drew University.

"We've asked school green teams and science classes to choose two students to make short presentations about their vision for a greener Madison," says event organizer Renee Shalhoub of the Environmental Commission. "It's a chance for youth to lead the way."

Last year the event featured presentations on short showers, bike swaps, reusable water bottles and idling at school pick-ups, among other topics. The forum was recognized with an Environmental Achievement Award from the Association of New Jersey Environmental

Commissions (ANJEC).

Once again, Mayor Bob Conley will introduce the Green Vision Forum and town officials, including Borough Council members, will share their thoughts.

"I'm looking forward to hearing the kids' ideas and gaining a deeper understanding of what environmental issues Madison cares about," says Maureen Byrne, the Borough Council Member who serves as the liaison to the Environmental Commission's liaison. "It's exciting to see this level of enthusiasm from our students and future leaders."

The evening is a family friendly event. Refreshments will be served and coloring supplies will be provided. "Students are encouraged to bring their siblings-and their neighbors," says Shalhoub.

To RSVP, please contact the Environmental Commission at MEC@rosenet.org.

Great Healthy Yard Project

Wednesday, Mar. 13, 10:00 a.m. The Great Healthy Yard Projects is an environmental non-profit organization working to improve and protect the quality of our drinking water in order to help families lead healthier lives. The goal of GHY is beautiful yards without synthetic chemicals. The more people who pledge, the cleaner our drinking water will be. Residential, non-point source pollution is the most widespread water quality problem facing our country. The chemicals that we put on our yards and down our drains end up in our drinking water. They are not removed by routine water treatment and are also in bottled water. These chemicals are damaging the health of our families, causing increases in Autism, ADHD, diabetes and cancer. A simple solution is offered - stop using these chemicals so they don't wind up in our drinking water. Join us for this presentation.

Author Visit - Julie Maloney

Wednesday, Mar. 13, 7:00 p.m. Julie Maloney, author of Matter of Chance, joins us for an author visit. Julie, a former dancer/choreographer, is a poet and writer and founder/director of WOMEN READING ALOUD, a non-profit organization dedicated to the support of women writers.

Makers Day (Families) Drop-in

Saturday, Mar. 23, 1:00 p.m. From 1:00-3:00 p.m. For all ages. From high tech experiences such as 3D printing to no-tech crafts like sewing, Makers Day is sure to be a great time. Visit with local Madison merchants demonstrating their skills and try some yourself. The goal of NJ Makers Day is to facilitate connections among NJ residents by exploring new and interesting opportunities for community wide education, entrepreneurship and hands-on learning experiences.

No registration required.

The Joy of Backyard Bird Feeding Monday, Mar. 25, 7:00 p.m.

Attracting birds is a great way to bring nature up close and into your backyard. As it is easy to attract up to 32 different species of native birds to a backyard, bird feeding will provide hours of entertainment for everyone in the family adding dimensions of color and sound to the yard unlike any other. In addition, birds bring unique and interesting behaviors such as male Northern Cardinals feeding their mates in courtship or parent birds feeding their young and teaching them that backyard bird feeders are a great supplemental source of food. The program will familiarize participants with how use bird foods, bird feeders, water and shelter to attract the widest variety of birds and give tips on making your backyards bird friendly.
