GIRL SCOUT TROOPS VISIT THE STIRLING FIRE HOUSE

Submitted by Allison Kempe

Kindergarteners from Long Hill Girl Scout Troops 7731 and 7732 recently spent a wonderful morning learning all about fire safety at the Stirling Fire House.

Fireman Jeff Wanamaker did a great job explaining what families should do to prepare in case there is a fire, and what one should do if they find themselves in a situation where there is fire or smoke.

The Girl Scout Daisies learned that if you are stuck in a place where there is smoke, you should throw a pillow, stuffed animal or anything else out the window so authorities know to look for you. Banging on the window also helps.

"I walked away thinking about how important it is to have an escape plan and an external meeting place decided with your family in the event of a house fire. Everyone should know how to escape and where outside to meet should there be an emergency," said Emily Nadeau, Troop Leader.

The girls also got to see what a firefighter looks like with all their gear on and learned that even though their appearance in full gear may look scary, once you see it and know what to expect, it is not so scary after all.

They ended their visit with a tour of the fire trucks, upon which they got to climb inside the cab and explore. Thank you to the Stirling Firehouse for this very fun and educational experience.

WHRHS STUDENTS ENTERTAIN ON 'SMALL STAGE' AT WINTER CABARET

Submitted by Denis Kelly

The Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Drama Department's Script and Cue program sponsored its 2019 Winter Cabaret on Tuesday, February 5, in the intimate, coffee-house-inspired "Small Stage" configuration of the school's Performing Arts Center.

Several of the WHRHS cast members of "Fiddler on the Roof," the 2019 Spring Musical performed in March on the big stage in the WHRHS PAC, were among some 15 student performers at the Winter Cabaret where they exhibited their range of skill, singing a variety of songs as soloists and in duets, some accompanied by music, others A Cappella.

Students Kayla Martins and Francesca Infante-Meehan acted as hosts for the evening. They also thanked student Giovanna DiSanto, who is the promotional officer for Script and Cue, for being so instrumental in organizing the event.

The line-up of performers at the Cabaret were: Paul Riedler, singing "Sunflower," by recording artist Post Malone; Giovanna DiSanto and Nina DiNorscio, singing "For Good," from the Broadway Musical, "Wicked"; Christian Takleszyn, singing "Perfect," by recording artist, Ed Sheeran; Massai Shuler, singing "I Met a Girl," by country music recording artist, William Michael Morgan; and Giovanna DiSanto, singing "Fly Into The Future," from the Broadway Musical, "Vanities."

After an intermission, the House Band performed two songs, "Moondance," by Irish recording artist Van Morrison and "I Saw Her Standing There," by the legendary British recording artists The Beatles. The House band this night included, Ben Kosokowski, William Broder, Thomas Dardis, Altay Kabukcu, Sam Bouffard.

Kayla Martins sang "So Big So Small," from the Broadway Musical, "Dear Evan Hansen." Dana Wasserman sang "Happy To Keep His Dinner Warm," from the Broadway Musical, "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Summer Stuart sang "My Daddy's Son," from the Broadway Musical, "Ragtime." And Olivia Kider and Jack Melillo sang "Falling Slowly," from the Broadway Musical, "Once."

TWO STIRLING FIREFIGHTERS GRADUATE FROM THE FIRE ACADEMY

Two Stirling Vol. Fire Co. firefighters graduated in early March from the very difficult and challenging state mandated Firefighter I course that was conducted at the Somerset County Fire Academy. An hour before the firefighter's March 7, 2019 monthly meeting Chief Al Gallo congratulated Sebastian Leon and Kevin Ryan with personalized helmet shields, #136 and #137 respectively. These shields indicate they are now full-fledged and well trained firefighters. They had to complete more than 220 hours of vigorous classroom and field training in all aspects of firefighting.

Both were Junior Firefighters and now that they are 18 years old and became Firefighter I certified, they have become regular firefighters.

The parents and relatives of the two men were invited to witness the shield presentation ceremony and share in coffee and cake along with the taking of numerous photos. A strict dress code was maintained for Firefighter I training and in both courses attendees would fail automatically if they missed even one day of training. They also had to pass grueling physical and written tests.
