WATCHUNG FIREFIGHTERS HONORED GUESTS AT TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF ITALIAN VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

Watchung residents and long time volunteer firefighters, Rosebud and Pietro "Pete" Martino were honored guests at the tenth anniversary of the Isola Bergamasca Vigili Del Fuoco (Fire Department) in the Bergamo Province of Italy in December of last year.

On December 13, 2008, the Martino's were part of a delegation of firefighters who were chosen by the Plainfield's Chapter of UNICO national, an Italian American civic organization, to represent them at the departments inauguration.

"It was amazing to see the establishment of a volunteer fire department in this day and age," stated Pete. "As more and more volunteer departments are disappearing in the United States, this Italian Fire Department is just starting." Ten years later they are still thriving but they are also struggling with the same issues we have here in Watchung, low volunteer membership.

Pete stated, "The Italian firefighters were great and have a deep respect for their American brothers and sisters." Since Pete is a first generation Italian/American the experience was even more emotional.

Rosebud began her volunteer firefighter career with the Green Brook Fire Department in 1987. She served for over 20 years and is an exempt member. She also joined the Watchung Volunteer Fire Department in 2010.

Pete joined the Watchung Volunteer Fire Department in 1981 as a junior firefighter at 16 years old. He rose through the ranks and served as Fire Chief in 1996-1997. He also served as the borough's fire inspector, served on the office of emergency management, and as a deputy member of the Watchung Rescue Squad in the 1990's. In 1996 Pete was appointed to the Plainfield Fire Division where he currently serves as a Battalion Fire Chief.

Pete has lived in Watchung since 1979, and in 1993 he and Rosebud decided to purchase a residence and make Watchung their permanent home. They raised their four children, Siena, Bianca, Mario, and Angelo here. Siena even joined the Watchung Fire Department and attained her Firefighter 1 certification in 2016.

"I feel volunteering for your community is the best service you can provide, it allows you to help your fellow neighbors, friends, and family," stated Martino.

Volunteers are always needed for our community, from the fire department and rescue squad, to the recreation department and library committee. Please stop by city hall and pick up literature on how you can help our community by volunteering or call the borough clerk at 908-756-0080 or go to watchungnj.gov.

"Together we can make Watchung a better place to live," the Martino's stated.

MEET ANGEL QUIROS, A 25-YEAR-OLD AND CAPTAIN OF THE WATCHUNG RESCUE SQUAD

Angel joined the Squad in July of 2016. Shortly after, through hard work and dedication, he received his EMT certification. Angel consistently looked for additional opportunities for training and responsibility, stepping up to hold various leadership positions within the organization, until he reached the pinnacle with his unanimous election to Captain of the organization.

When describing his passion for volunteer EMS, Angel explains that it goes beyond the desire to help other people: "I needed a boost in my life and wanted to be involved in something bigger than me, that I can be proud of at the end of every day of my life. I love telling people I do this voluntarily and seeing that their impression about me changes instantly."

You too can help your community and become a part of something bigger than yourself, join Angel and the other members of the Watchung Rescue Squad today. Visit our website at watchungems.org to learn more.

STUDENTS ENTERTAIN ON THE 'SMALL STAGE' AT WINTER CABARET

Submitted by Denis Kelly

The Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) Drama Department's Script and Cue program sponsored its 2019 Winter Cabaret on Tuesday, February 5, in the intimate, coffee-house-inspired "Small Stage" configuration of the school's Performing Arts Center.

Several of the WHRHS cast members of "Fiddler on the Roof," the 2019 Spring Musical performed in March on the big stage in the WHRHS PAC, were among some 15 student performers at the Winter Cabaret where they exhibited their range of skill, singing a variety of songs as soloists and in duets, some accompanied by music, others A Cappella.

Students Kayla Martins and Francesca Infante-

Meehan acted as hosts for the evening. They also thanked student Giovanna DiSanto, who is the promotional officer for Script and Cue, for being so instrumental in organizing the event.

The line-up of performers at the Cabaret were: Paul Riedler, singing "Sunflower," by recording artist Post Malone; Giovanna DiSanto and Nina DiNorscio, singing "For Good," from the Broadway Musical, "Wicked"; Christian Takleszyn, singing "Perfect," by recording artist, Ed Sheeran; Massai Shuler, singing "I Met a Girl," by country music recording artist, William Michael Morgan; and Giovanna DiSanto, singing "Fly Into The Future," from the Broadway Musical, "Vanities."

After an intermission, the House Band performed two songs, "Moondance," by Irish recording artist Van Morrison and "I Saw Her Standing There," by the legendary British recording artists The Beatles. The House band this night included, Ben Kosokowski, William Broder, Thomas Dardis, Altay Kabukcu, Sam Bouffard.

Kayla Martins sang "So Big So Small," from the Broadway Musical, "Dear Evan Hansen." Dana Wasserman sang "Happy To Keep His Dinner Warm," from the Broadway Musical, "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Summer Stuart sang "My Daddy's Son," from the Broadway Musical, "Ragtime." And Olivia Kider and Jack Melillo sang "Falling Slowly," from the Broadway Musical, "Once."

SOMERSET COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM PARTNERS WITH ROLLING THUNDER TO HELP PRESERVE VETERAN MEMORIES

The Somerset County Library System of New Jersey partnered with Rolling Thunder®, Inc., an organization that focuses on advocacy for prisoners of war and persons missing in action, to help preserve the collective memories of veterans and their families through a digitization event made possible through a grant from National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH).

“We have been honored to work with Artie and Elaine Muller to preserve the history of Rolling Thunder®, Inc., the organization, and of the members of their community,” said Rebecca Sandoval Sloat, grant coordinator and SCLSNJ technical services manager. “In preserving the history of our veterans we are bringing honor to their memories and paving a way for their stories to live on for future generations.”

Thirty-two items were digitized or photographed during the meeting including: an award from the French president, an oversized group shot of Rolling Thunder®, Inc. members in front of the Lincoln Memorial, and the Taekwondo gi (uniform) of a veteran who was awarded for his skill in the martial art. The digitized items will be integrated into SCLSNJ’s common heritage initiative which will make the contributed items available for research and use by future generations by adding these items to Rutgers University’s New Jersey Digital Highway, by making them available in our Library’s online catalog, and by submitting them to the Digital Public Library of America (DPLA).

In addition to partnering with Rolling Thunder®, Inc. for this special event, the Library will continue to host monthly digitization days. During the digitization days Somerset County residents are encouraged to add their family’s most prized possessions to the Library System’s catalog including: historic photographs, letters, or documents; sketches, paintings, or other artwork; family heirlooms including recipes; jewelry or decorative arts; textiles such as quilts, samplers, flags, or uniforms; antique toys; or something uniquely your own.

DON'T FALL FOR SCAM CALLS AND EMAILS IMPERSONATING IRS

The IRS is urging the public to be aware of suspicious individuals claiming to be from the IRS.

Thousands of people have lost millions of dollars and their personal information to tax scams. Scammers use the regular mail, telephone, or email to set up individuals, businesses, payroll, and tax professionals.

Scammers and cyberthieves continue to use the IRS as bait. The most common tax scams are phone calls and emails from thieves who pretend to be from the IRS. Scammers use the IRS name, logo, fake employee names and badge numbers to try to steal money and identities from taxpayers.

Taxpayers need to be wary of phone calls or automated messages from someone who claims to be from the IRS. Often, these criminals will say taxpayers owe money and demand payment right away. Other times, scammers will lie to taxpayers and say they're due a refund. The thieves ask for bank account information over the phone. The IRS warns taxpayers not to fall for these scams.

BELOW ARE SEVERAL TIPS THAT WILL HELP FILERS AVOID BECOMING A SCAM VICTIM.

IRS EMPLOYEES WILL NOT:

- Call demanding an immediate payment. The IRS won't call taxpayers if they owe taxes without first sending a bill in the mail.

WE NEED YOU! SAFE+SOUND SOMERSET SEEKING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESPONSE TEAM (DVRT) VOLUNTEERS

Submitted Joe Godby

In collaboration with local police departments in Somerset County, Safe+Sound Somerset's Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT) volunteers provide immediate support to domestic violence survivors and information regarding the law, safety options, and available resources at the moment of crisis.

DVRT volunteers empower survivors of domestic abuse by:

- Decreasing the emotional trauma experienced by victims;
- Educating survivors about the dynamics of domestic violence; and
- Increasing survivors' awareness of community resources and legal options available to them.

Safe+Sound Somerset is currently accepting applications from individuals interested in becoming DVRT volunteers. All applicants must pass a comprehensive criminal and motor vehicle background check and the Domestic Violence 40-hour training, including specific training components to be a DVRT volunteer.

If you are interested in becoming a DVRT Volunteer, submit a Volunteer Inquiry Form online at safe-sound.org/support/volunteer or call Deanna Keller, Volunteer Associate, at 908-359-0003, ext. 202.

- Demand payment without allowing taxpayers to question or appeal the amount owed.
- Demand that taxpayers pay their taxes in a specific way, such as with a prepaid debit card.
- Ask for credit or debit card numbers over the phone.
- Threaten to contact local police or similar agencies to arrest taxpayers for non-payment of taxes.
- Threaten legal action, such as a lawsuit.

If taxpayers don't owe or don't think they owe any tax, and they receive an inquiry like this, they should:

- Contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration. Use TIGTA's "IRS Impersonation Scam Reporting" web page to report the incident.
- Report the incident to the Federal Trade Commission. Use the "FTC Complaint Assistant" on FTC.gov. Add "IRS Telephone Scam" to the comments of your report.

In most cases, an IRS phishing scam is an unsolicited, fake email that claims to come from the IRS. Some emails link to sham websites that look real. The scammers' goal is to lure victims to give up their personal and financial information. If the thieves get what they're after, they use it to steal a victim's money and identity.

FOR THOSE TAXPAYERS WHO GET A PHISHING EMAIL, THE IRS OFFERS THIS ADVICE:

- Don't reply to the message.
- Don't give out your personal or financial information.
- Forward the email to phishing@irs.gov. Then delete it.
- Don't open any attachments or click on any links. They may have malicious code that will infect your computer.

For more information visit www.irs.gov or call your local police department non-emergency number.

GARDENING IN THE AGE OF ELIZABETH: BRING THE BARD TO YOUR YARD

The Garden Club of Watchung welcomes Garden Historian Lesley Parness for a very special lecture, "Gardening in the Age of Elizabeth", on Wednesday April 3, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. The presentation will take place at St Mary's Stony Hill Church, Mountain Blvd, Watchung.

The author's talk will include horticulture, gardening techniques, botanical literature and how to tips for creating a Shakespeare garden and lots of juicy tidbits about Elizabeth I and her gardens.

According to Lesley, "History's greatest playwright was also one heck of a gardener. The age of Elizabeth I provided William Shakespeare with a rich and varied plant palette, both from England's considerable bounty and foreign introductions. Learn Elizabeth I's role in the advancement of English horticulture and peruse Elizabethan garden elements including mounts and mazes, spouting sundials, fantastical topiary and the pleached bower to add to your garden. Explore some Tudor and Shakespearean gardens in the UK and the USA to visit for inspiration. Turns out, the world's not only a stage, it's also a garden!"

Lesley Parness recently retired from her position as superintendent of horticulture education at the Morris County Park commission, and with four decades of teaching environmental science and garden education, her focus now is garden history.

APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH WE ALL HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY IN ENDING CHILD ABUSE

Submitted by Tracey Heisler, Executive Director CASA of Somerset, Hunterdon, and Warren Counties

I read an article today about a 9-year-old who was murdered by her mother's boyfriend and stuffed in a backpack. Yesterday there was a family at Olive Garden whose children had been abused and a caring bystander called in a report; the day before that a man here in Jersey had child porn on his computer.

It's easy to become overwhelmed by stories like these and to close your eyes. I get it. But what if, instead of shaking our heads and feeling powerless, we ask the question, "What can I do to make a difference?"

The answer is you can do a lot. We all can. Everybody can play a role in preventing child abuse and neglect by becoming advocates for children. We just need to do it.

For some, it's taking a formal role in a child's life. Teachers, child care workers, health care providers and others who come into daily contact with children can be vigilant for signs of abuse and neglect. Their actions to report suspected abuse or to offer extra time and attention to fragile children can do more than make a difference. It can save lives.

For others, it's paying attention to kids in the neighborhood or kids at school. Are there signs that something is amiss? Are they dirty, wearing clothes that don't fit, have untreated medical issues, or are hungry? Are they on their own with absent parents? Families with challenges shouldn't lose their kids because they aren't perfect. However, sometimes kids need real help and protection. You can provide it.

In my world, CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocate) volunteers stand up for abused and neglected children, giving them a voice in a child welfare system that is sometimes hard-pressed to meet their individual needs. A CASA volunteer can ensure that he or she will not just survive foster care, but thrive.

Not everyone can be a CASA volunteer, but everyone can be an advocate. Here are some steps you can take to make our community safer for our children.

- Keep the toll-free child abuse hotline number close at hand, 877/NJ ABUSE. If you suspect a child is being abused or neglected, you can report your concerns confidentially.
- Donate to or volunteer with a social service agency that helps children who are at risk, such as Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Middle Earth, CASA, or your local school.
- Educate yourself – and others – about child abuse and neglect and how to report it. Be an upstander who supports vulnerable children who need protection.

We all have a role to play in addressing and preventing child abuse. What will yours be? Find out more at www.casashaw.org.
