

HOME DEPOT CELEBRATION OF SERVICE

Mountainside Memorial Veterans Park was beautified in time for Memorial Day by a team of Watchung Home Depot employees led by Green Brook resident and assistant store manager, Leo Geib. Leo is a former Mountainside business owner.

In the park's planning stage Home Depot gave the Mountainside VFW a credit card to be used to purchase some materials for the project. Since the park has been built, the store has helped out every spring with planting and mulching around the monument.

Employees volunteer their free time to work on projects as part of the Home Depot Foundation's annual Celebration of Service season which encourages employees to support veterans worldwide. Other local projects employees worked on this season included veteran's buildings in Dunellen and Scotch Plains.

COLOR YOUR WORLD AND CATCH A MOVIE UNDER THE STARS ON JUNE 7

Submitted by Elisa Roland

You won't want to miss out on the Mountainside Education Foundation's annual Bike Ride Event because this year we are making it a Color Ride! So get ready for a rainbow ride of fun to be held on June 7, 2019 starting at 6:30 p.m. We recommend light colored attire like a white t-shirt for the best color effects (color is made from cornstarch). Brought to you by the Mountainside PBA/Fire Co/EMS/Municipal Alliance there will be a free movie outside Deerfield after the ride and free hot dogs and burgers and much more. Got a little one in tow? Starting at 6:30 p.m. town trucks will be set up for the younger crowd to explore.

Don't Miss Out! June 7, 2019
Town Truck Exploration 6:30 p.m.
Registration opens at 6:30 p.m.
Color Ride begins 7:15 p.m.

Movie to follow
outside Deerfield School
Cost: $15 per rider/$50 per family (pre-registration), $20 per rider/$60 per family (day of event)

Note: Color powder is not harmful but may stain. We recommend wearing light colored attire for the best results and to bring a towel for the car ride home.

For more information and to register for this event, please visit us at MountainsideEducationFoundation/Events.

LEVI CORY HOUSE OPEN FOR TOURS ON JUNE 9

The Mountainside Restoration Committee announces that the Levi Cory House will be open to the public for tours on Sunday, June 9, 2019 from 1 – 3 p.m. Tours last from 15 - 20 minutes and will be ongoing. For the first time, visitors are invited to tour Mountainside's historic treasure which features a children's museum displaying artifacts from Mountainside's children's organizations and items from the days when the house was the site of the original Children's Country Home (now Children's Specialized Hospital) in 1895. The Levi Cory House was built in 1818. Originally located on the corner of New Providence Road and Mountain Avenue, the Levi Cory House was moved by the Mountainside Historic Preservation Committee in 2013 to Constitution Plaza near the Mountainside Library where it now sits. The House opened for the public in December, 2018 after an extensive restoration.

The Mountainside Historic Restoration Committee volunteers purpose is to restore and maintain the Deacon Andrew Hetfield House and the Levi Cory House and collect and save historic information and items from destruction. For information or to donate funds for historic restoration in Mountainside, please call 908-789-9420 or visit mountainsidehistory.org.

RELAY FOR LIFE - JUNE 15, 2019

The American Cancer Society Relay For Life of Berkeley Heights, Mountainside, New Providence and Summit will be held on June 15, 2019 at Governor Livingston High School in Berkeley Heights. All are invited to attend the event and participate in the battle against cancer. Join the group to celebrate those who have battled and who continue to battle, remember those lost to this dreadful disease, and fight back to create a world without cancer.

The event begins at 4:30 p.m. with a Survivor Celebration dinner. According to the American Cancer Society, a cancer survivor is born as soon as a person hears the words, "you have cancer." Regardless of where you may be on the journey to recovery; whether you heard those words 20 minutes ago or 20 years ago, you are a survivor and are invited to join in the celebration. To take part in the dinner, register by emailing Maureen Pergola at maureenpergola1@gmail.com. Beginning at 4 p.m. there are also opportunities to play games, grab a bite to eat, set-up a campsite, and have loads of fun!

The Opening Ceremony, in which organizers highlight survivorship with music and guest speakers, begins at 6 p.m. and concludes with the first ceremonial lap around the track taken by the survivors.

Throughout the night, there are after-hour activities, games, and continuous walking of the track. At sunrise, 6 a.m., the participants will come together for a final moment of reflection at the Closing Ceremony. Local clergy will help close the event and organizers will reveal the amount of money that was earned throughout the night. The uplifting and inspirational tone of the closing ceremony is the perfect ending for the event.

The Relay For Life movement unites communities across the globe to celebrate people who have battled cancer, remember loved ones lost, and take action to finish the fight once and for all. The Relay For Life movement is the world's largest fundraising event to fight every cancer in every community. "This is our community's opportunity to help save lives from cancer by taking our message to more people and raising more dollars to fund the fight," said Patti Broccoli, Event Chairperson "Together, our efforts can make a big difference."

Visit relayforlife.org to donate, or learn more about the event, or contact Margaret Illis at Margaret.illis@gmail.com.

TWO FROM MOUNTAINSIDE NAMED AS ADVOCATES FOR FOSTER YOUTH

Submitted by Gretchen Boger-O'Bryan

Thanks to Daniela Faibes and Kristin Steinmetz, Mountainside was among 13 municipalities represented by the 15 newest court appointed special advocates tasked with serving as extra eyes and ears for family law judges on the cases of Union County youth removed from their home due to abuse, neglect or abandonment and placed in foster homes or residential facilities. The ceremony was held on April 9, 2019 at the Union County Family Courthouse.

Said Faibes, "Many foster children grow up in the ruins of the lives of past generations. There's always hope that we can rebuild these lives, but the process is complicated with many competing interests and voices. Without CASA, the voice of the child can easily become the smallest. I hope to be their megaphone."

Steinmetz added, "I'm becoming a CASA because my two daughters have everything they could need or want; They have the stability, love and safe home that many kids weren't so lucky to be born into. I want to help these children in the system feel like they have that, because they deserve it."

After completion of approximately 30 hours' training with Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Union County, Faibes and Steinmetz and their classmates took their oath and were sworn in as advocates and judicial volunteers by Superior Court Judge Richard Wischusen. After completion of three hours' court observation to see seasoned CASA volunteers in action, the new advocates will meet their assigned foster youth vor siblings.

The new advocates range from age 23 to 66, are parents and nonparents, and work in such fields as education, nonprofit, and law enforcement, as well as homemakers. Most had no prior knowledge of the foster system.

With court-ordered access to foster parents, doctors, caseworkers, therapists and teachers, CASA volunteers incorporate their findings into court reports and work to ensure each youth's needs are met and best interests protected. They are a constant during chaos and work to ensure the youth's trauma is not exacerbated in care.

There are approximately 500 Union County youth from birth to age 21 in foster care, and more than 200 are still waiting for their very own CASA volunteer in their corner. Could that be you?

For training opportunities, contact Courtne at cgreen@casaoofunioncounty.org or 908-293-8136.

MOUNTAINSIDE ACTIVE RETIREE CLUB FINISHES A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Mountainside Active Retiree Club closed out another successful season with a luncheon at the Spanish Tavern in Mountainside on May 28, 2019.

The 2018-2019 season included many activities including another luncheon in January, 2 trips, one in October to the Museum of the American Revolution in Philadelphia, with lunch included at Sebastian's Schnitzelhaus, and one this past March to the Hunterdon Hills Playhouse & Dinner Theatre in Hunterdon, N.J.

Our 'speaker' program, varied as usual, started with Mayor Paul Marabelli of Mountainside and ended with Linda Kenyon speaking as Julia Child.

In between were speakers Professor Kane with an hour of trivia, Angela Ellerbe with updates on new Medicare changes, comedienne Roxy LaRouche with an hour of adult humor, harpist Joann Hansen providing live holiday music. Professional entertainer/singer Candy Nelson, conductor Prof. Gregory Scime, author Carol Bradshaw (The Anchor), speaker Kevin Woyce (Sky Scrapers of N.Y.). Brian Pinto from Tiffany Drugs, Pete Axelrod from Wild Birds Unlimited, and Anita Eigen and her dog Macy from Seeing Eye.

The 2019-2020 season starts September 10th and will be just as eclectic, entertaining and educational.

We meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month in the 2nd floor community room at Mountainside's Borough Hall at 10 a.m. Meetings are open to all.

Membership is open to residents 55+, retired, semi-retired, and even to those who wish they were retired.

Come try us out at a meeting or two. See you in September.

for our popular Great Courses series. The current series, "A History of Eastern Europe", will finish on June 3. A new series, to be determined by the participants, will start on June 10. Bring your lunch! Coffee, tea and cookies will be served.

"Science Tellers Presents: Aliens Escape from Earth"

Thursday, June 6 at 3:45 p.m.

The team from Science Tellers returns once again to the library to provide an exciting program mixing interactive science with storytelling. Designed for children ages 4-12 but the entire family will enjoy this program. Call the library to register as space is limited.

"Tree of Life Painting"

Thursday, June 13 at 7:00 p.m.

This program, presented by Enjoy Explore India, is primarily for teens to adults. Learn how natural dyes are made. Please register for this program since it is limited to 12 artists.

"Opera on Film Series"

Friday, June 14 at 12:00 p.m. (noon).

The curtain closes on the 7th season of the Friday Operas on Film series presented by Mena Clemson with Andrea Chénier by Umberto Giordano.

"The Glorious Sun"

Thursday, June 27 at 4:00 p.m.

The popular Enjoy Explore India returns for a second program this month especially for children ages 5 and above. A story about light, heat and the sun from India will be told. You will see how Indian artists created sun symbols in folklore. Then you will make your own sun spinner to take home. Please register for this program since it is limited to 15 children.
