SCOTCH PLAINS RESCUE SQUAD MEDICAL MYSTERY OF THE MONTH: ALICE IN WONDERLAND SYNDROME

Submitted by Susan Baldani, a life member of the Scotch Plains Rescue Squad

Alice in Wonderland Syndrome is one of the more interesting maladies in the medical world. Affecting between 10-20% of the population, symptoms generally occur only a few times in an afflicted person's life and are most common at night.

People experiencing the syndrome may report feeling smaller or larger than the objects around them, although other times they may think that it's their surroundings that are growing or shrinking. The most common belief is that their head and hands are larger than they really are. Other people have visual distortions, such as the sense of fixed objects moving.

Sufferers may also lose their sense of time and feel that time is moving either very fast or extremely slow. Powerful hallucinations can also occur with the person either seeing things that aren't there or getting the wrong impression about various situations or events.

Although the exact cause is still unknown, Neurology Times notes that, "Among adults, people who have migraine, epilepsy, or head trauma are the most likely to report Alice in Wonderland syndrome." Children who are affected by this syndrome often go on to develop migraine headaches as they age.

Even though it can be scary, Alice in Wonderland syndrome is not usually an indicator of mental illness, cerebrovascular disease or neurological illness. Of course, any unusual symptoms should be reported to a medical doctor for further evaluation.

The Scotch Plains Rescue Squad is a volunteer organization of Neighbors Helping Neighbors. With over 90 volunteers, we answer emergency calls not only in Scotch Plains but in surrounding towns as well when needed. Besides answering calls, you will see our ambulances at many special events held in town, such as Scotch Plains Day, the Memorial Day Parade, high school football games, and the summer concerts on the Village Green. We are also available to provide demonstrations for Boys and Girls Scout troops, clubs, and any other group that may be interested in what we do. In addition, we lend out wheelchairs, crutches, canes and other assorted medical equipment free of charge. Our Auxiliary Group holds fund raisers and provides other much needed support for our members.

Please reach out to us if there is something we can do for you, or if you would like to become a part of our organization.

SCOTCH PLAINS DESIGNATED A HEALTHY TOWN TO WATCH

Submitted by Margaret C. Heisey

The New Jersey Health Care Quality Institute (NJHCQI), located in Princeton, recently designated Scotch Plains as one of the seven Healthy Towns to Watch. The NJHCQI issued its annual New Jersey “Healthy Town” designation to eight communities participating in the Mayors Wellness Campaign (MWC), a program of the Quality Institute, in partnership with the New Jersey State League of Municipalities.

“It is an honor for Scotch Plains to be designated as a Healthy Town to Watch for 2018. The residents of Scotch Plains continue to be supportive and involved in our Mayors Wellness Campaign. With the distinction of this honor, it is my hope that even more residents will participate in our events. This has been a very rewarding experience for both myself and Margaret Heisey, our program director. Not only do we have fun as we offer opportunities to our residents to become healthier by eating well, exercising, and managing stress, but we have seen our own health improve as well,” said

Mayor Al Smith.

Each year communities participating in the MWC complete a comprehensive application outlining the research they’ve done to identify their community health needs, explain how they have organized their local MWC committee, and highlight the actions they’ve taken to make their communities a healthier place to live, work, and play.

Scotch Plains applied for the award and submitted, among other requirements, two flagship programs:

Mayor’s Medal Program – An incentive program to encourage residents to participate in the many 5Ks available throughout the year. Residents who participate in at least three races are invited to the final council meeting of the year where they are presented with a medal.

Start with Hello – An anti-bullying initiative that teaches children and adolescents how to be more socially inclusive and connected to one another. After the Parkland shooting, residents raised concerns about bullying in schools. As a result, Mayor Al Smith became a Sandy Hook Promise Leader. He worked with Dr. Hayes, the SP-F Superintendent of Schools, to introduce the Start With Hello Program into each school’s curriculum starting in the Fall of 2018.

The MWC is now in its 12th year. The Quality Institute provides participating communities with a toolkit on how to get started, guidance on how to identify local health needs, and examples of specific actions that other communities are taking to improve health and wellness in their community.

For more information about the MWC in Scotch Plains, go to scotchplainsnj.gov/departments/mayor-s-wellness-campaign.

NOMINATIONS BEING SOUGHT FOR THE 2019 SCOTCH PLAINS MAYOR'S CHARITY GALA

This year the Scotch Plains Mayor's Gala will again honor a male and female volunteer of the year in addition to a volunteer organization of the year. Nominations are now open and everyone is encouraged to nominate a special person or organization to be honored at the Gala on December 6, 2019.

The only requirement is that the volunteer work must be done in Scotch Plains. Nomination forms may be obtained from the Scotch Plains Recreation Office, Scotch Plains Municipal Building, 430 Park Avenue, online at scotchplainsnj.gov or at the Scotch Plains Public Library. Nominations are due by June 30, 2019.

"The Mayor's Gala is a great opportunity to recognize those people and organizations that are making a difference in Scotch Plains," said Mayor Al Smith. "In addition to the recognition, the honorees designate a charity to receive a portion of the proceeds of the event, so we have double the winners! Please help us identify our honorees for this year's Gala."

This year's Mayor's Charity Gala will be held on December 6, 2019 at Shackamaxon Country Club in Scotch Plains from 7 p.m. - 11 p.m. The Gala will feature live music by the Moon Glowers of Scotch Plains Fanwood High School, a Tricky Tray, Silent Auction and 50/50 Raffle. Tickets are $85 per person and include cocktail hour, passed appetizers and light fare.

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Municipal Alliance Committee (SPF MAC) will be the recipient of a portion of the proceeds of the Mayor's Gala. The alliance is a community-based organization dedicated to a comprehensive and coordinated effort on the prevention of illegal use of alcohol and drugs. SPF MAC main focus is on alcohol abuse amongst our minors. MAC has served our communities since 1988 supporting programs such as Project Graduation, Think Purple Week, and Student Leadership Conference

Please take the time to nominate the hard-working volunteers that you know and be certain to return your nominations to Margaret Heisey in the Manager's Office by June 30. If you have any questions, please contact Margaret at mheisey@scotchplainsnj.com.

Mountainside Memorial Veterans Park was beautified in time for Memorial Day by a team of Watchung Home Depot employees led by assistant store manager, Leo Geib. Leo is a former Mountainside business owner.

In the park's planning stage Home Depot gave the Mountainside VFW a credit card to be used to purchase some materials for the project. Since the park has been built, the store has helped out every spring with planting and mulching around the monument.

Employees volunteer their free time to work on projects as part of the Home Depot Foundation's annual Celebration of Service season which encourages employees to support veterans worldwide. Other local projects employees worked on this season included veteran's buildings in Dunellen and Scotch Plains.

YWCA UNION COUNTY HONORS EIGHT ALLIES

Submitted by Shannon Myre

The YWCA Union County honored eight individuals and organizations for their committed effort on behalf of domestic violence survivors during their Annual Meeting held at the Clark Public Library on April 25, 2019.

Each honoree received a certificate and resolution in their name for their partnership in empowering survivors of domestic violence throughout the county. The honorees were Theresa Cosmas; Sgt. Mahasin El-Amin; Ryan &

Dana Felmet; First Presbyterian Church of Cranford; Garden State Bank: A division of New York Community Bank; Annette Ferrigno, Kids For Kids: A Mindfulness Movement; Gail Veltre, Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, Rahway – Barnabas Health; and Lauren Thorne.

The YWCA's mission is eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. Locally, the YWCA Union County is on a mission to empower survivors of domestic violence to become safe and free from abuse through comprehensive, client-centered services, and through education, collaboration and advocacy that builds safe, informed and supportive communities.

Domestic violence crosses all barriers of race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender and socioeconomic status and it is a crime that impacts our entire community. It is estimated that 1 in every 4 women will be affected by domestic violence in her life- more than breast cancer, lung cancer, and ovarian cancer combined. The monetary cost of domestic violence in the United States in dollars has been estimated to exceed 9.3 billion a year in medical and mental health services, loss of productivity, and loss of paid earnings. An average of 3 women per day in the United States are killed as a result of domestic violence.

If you or anyone you know is experiencing domestic violence, call the 24-Hour Hotline at 908-355-HELP (4357). For more information about YWCA Union County's services or how you can get involved, visit ywcaunioncounty.org.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK HEAD COACH RICH MCGRIFF NAMED COACH OF THE YEAR

Coach McGriff was recognized on March 28, 2019 at the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Board of Education meeting for being named the NJ.com Coach of the year. Coach McGriff is an alumnus of LaGrande School, Park Junior High and Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School's Class of 1984 and was a member of the high school track and field team.

Rich began his coaching career at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School over 25 years ago, starting as a volunteer assistant coach when his younger siblings were on the team, then officially becoming an assistant coach, and presently Head Coach of the Track Team. Rich's coaching specialties are the hurdles, high jump and triple jump. He has also coached sprints and long jump. Rich has coached thousands of young men and young women who have come through Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, including his son Aaron, Class of 2016.

Under Coach McGriff's track expertise, the 2018-2019 Varsity Boys' Winter Track Team achieved success at a level never before achieved in the history of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. They won the NJSIAA Group III State Relay Championship, the NJSIAA North II Group III State Sectional Championship and the NJSIAA Group III State Championship, completing what is known as the "Triple Crown" (winning all three possible championships in the winter state meet series). Coach McGriff humbly credits his staff and his students for these outstanding accomplishments; yet notably, all who work with Rich recognize his ability to motivate, inspire and lead with great integrity.

SID BLANCHARD HONORED FOR 40 YEARS SERVICE

Submitted by Chris Reardon

Scotch Plains resident Sid Blanchard, a pioneering icon in New Jersey's human services sector for four decades, was honored on April 4, 2019 at the annual Awards Dinner of the nonprofit he founded in 1979, Community Access Unlimited (CAU). An audience of more than 400 people with disabilities, staff members and business and government leaders heard a stream of stories of Blanchard's compassion and intrepidity, foresight and business acumen that delivered a string of inspiring successes during his 40-year career.

Community Access Unlimited is a Union County-based, statewide nonprofit that strives to integrate people with disabilities and at-risk youth into the general community through comprehensive supports.

Blanchard founded CAU in 1979 with a $90,000 grant to move individuals from state institutions and integrate them into the community. This mission became the cornerstone of the agency which today boasts an operating budget of more than $60 million, $50 million-plus in assets and more than 1,000 employees. Across New Jersey, more than 5,000 individuals and their families benefit from the supports CAU provides.

Blanchard was one of the first executive directors of a human services nonprofit in the United States to acquire property to provide housing for agency members. Robert Griffin, an attorney and member of CAU's board of trustees, recounted meeting Blanchard when the latter was looking for a lawyer with condominium experience. Later, when the attorney was changing firms and Blanchard chose to go with him, Griffin asked him why.

Liz Blanchard spoke of her husband's courage to blaze trails.

Pastor Carmine Pernini of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church of Rahway and a member of the Union County Interfaith Coordinating Council, which Blanchard founded, presented Blanchard with a baseball bat representing his days as a union leader and thanked Blanchard for teaching Pernini about the power of organizing.

CAU members who helped found CAU's New American Movement for People with Disabilities (NAM) thanked Blanchard for all he has done for them, their families and the wider community of people with disabilities while Marguerite Modero, CAU's music director and the mother of a daughter with disabilities, explained what his work has meant for parents.

Blanchard, known for his selflessness and lack of ego, said listening to the accolades was difficult but also rewarding.

"Hearing all the people from NAM say what they said really makes my life," he said. "It's really about holding each person as a valued human being. We can't have a community unless we have everyone in the community. By treating each other with value and holding hands, we can build a community we all want to be part of. If we do that, we all can be successful."

Blanchard is not leaving CAU, but rather returning to his roots of community organizing on behalf of the agency, its members and people with disabilities throughout society.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MATTERS PRESENTED WITH UNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Nineteen individuals and four organizations were recognized by the Union County Human Relations Commission at the 18th annual Unity Achievement Award presentation held on Monday, May 6, 2019 at the Kean University STEM Center in Union Township.

The award recipients were nominated and selected for their philanthropic and volunteer efforts, and for fostering and promoting human rights and dignity among the people of Union County.

The mission of the Union County Human Relations Commission is to actively encourage, develop, promote, and strengthen respect for human rights and cultural diversity among the people of Union County.

The following is reprinted from the event's program.

Social Justice Matters -- Judge Leland McGee and Rabbi Joel Abraham - Recognition for its outstanding and extensive outreach to improve communication and relationships within the community.

Social Justice Matters (SJM) is a local grassroots organization in the Scotch Plains/Fanwood communities that was inspired in 2009 when an offensive and potentially inflammatory flyer was distributed on the lawns and driveways of local residents. Members of the community engaged in small group discussions about individual backgrounds and feelings about race. Following a group discussion, they decided the discussion should continue. SJF was born to ensure that this ugly seed would not have fertile soil in which to grow.

Social Justice Matters is committed to exploring the values and opportunities arising from these diverse communities, and to work together to foster equity, challenge racism, and achieve greater social justice.

Led by Judge Leland McGee and Rabbi Joel Abraham, the organization works to bring Scotch Plains and Fanwood residents of various races and religious backgrounds together, to actively inquire into matters of race in our society, to communicate in a way that promotes tolerance and heals injustice, and to work toward an equitable community.

Social Justice Matters provides a public forum for residents to hold these vital conversations, voice community concerns, and facilitate truthful and meaningful discussions and actions about race and related topics.

One of the organization's most visible contributions can be witnessed in the aftermath of offensive graffiti at the Scotch Plains Fanwood High School in October 2018. Both Judge McGee and Rabbi Abraham worked to address the issue, calm the community, and bring the community together to prevent this from happening in the future. They outreached with mayors, other local clergy, and worked closely with local and county law enforcement officials. High school students also invited them to speak at a student-organized rally against hate presentation.

Through the years, during and after unfortunate local and national events that threaten to polarize us and pull our community apart, Social Justice Matters, through the ongoing dedication, commitment, and tireless efforts of Judge McGee and Rabbi Abraham, have pulled the community together and provided a safe haven for difficult talk and forthright action.

SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

Submitted by Mary Ball Cappio, President

The Scotch Plains Fanwood Scholarship Foundation would like to thank the community for its support of our recent Dollars for Students fundraiser. We especially thank these local enterprises who assisted with our Canning Drive: In Scotch Plains: John's Meat Market, Massa Pizza, Bagels Plus, Dunkin' Donuts, Scotch Plains QuickChek, 7-11 and the Scotch Plains Post Office; In Fanwood: Fanwood Bagel, Fanwood QuickChek, the Fanwood Grille, the Railside Café, and the Fanwood Post Office. We also thank the high school students who collected funds.

As they have for the past 53 years, our community continues to partner with the Foundation to help our youth pursue a bright future built on higher education. In the past the Foundation has distributed $3,227,552 to 3,104 students.

We are grateful to be able to continue this proud tradition of scholarship aid to our young people.
