Submitted by Karen Giambra

Founded more than 60 years ago, the Chamber is a volunteer, non-profit organization comprised of business leaders. The Chamber's primary function is to support, preserve and develop business in Madison and their vital projects support both their members and the community. The Chamber seeks to preserve Madison and the surrounding area as an outstanding place in which to live, work and do business.

Membership includes the Chamber website, networking, ribbon cuttings, group advertising opportunities and lectures.

The Chamber produces the popular Loyalty Rewards Card Program, which offers special discounts and incentives from Chamber businesses, as well as, offers the Madison Gift Check program where gift checks can be purchased in any denomination at The Provident

Bank and used in any participating Madison business. The organization also produces the Nautilus Diner place mat program giving businesses an affordable way to market their business.

Chamber's programs and activities include: Easter Fun Fest, the Madison Car Show, Taste of Madison, holiday shopping promotions, Halloween Parade & Magic Show, and Fire Extinguisher Inspection Program. The Chamber also hosts a members only holiday party in January and the Annual Awards Dinner in June.

The Chamber actively partners with many other community organizations, including the The Borough of Madison, the Downtown

Development Commission, The Rotary Club of Madison, and the Madison P.B.A. 92.
