BRIDGET CUTLER RECEIVES MAKING A DIFFERENCE AWARD

Submitted by Jerusha Oleksiuk

Bridget Cutler of New Providence, NJ, was among unsung heroes from throughout New Jersey who earned recognition for their compassion and concern for others as part of the 23rd Russ Berrie Making a Difference Award ceremony at Ramapo College in May.

Established in 1997 by the late Russell Berrie, and managed and hosted by Ramapo College of New Jersey, the Russ Berrie Making a Difference Award honors Garden State residents whose outstanding community service and charitable contributions made a substantial impact on the lives of others. The top honoree received a cash prize of $50,000; two second place honorees received $25,000 each. Seven awards with a $7,500 cash prize each were also announced.

Bridget Cutler was awarded one of the $7,500 cash prizes for her outstanding contribution and commitment to Moms Helping Moms Foundation. Bridget Cutler is the founder and executive director of Moms Helping Moms Foundation, a baby supply and diaper bank located in North Plainfield, NJ providing essentials so all babies can have a safe, healthy and happy start. Ms. Cutler started the organization in 2011 to help low-income and struggling moms with basic baby items. What started out in Ms. Cutler's garage has grown into a nonprofit that distributes over 300,000 baby items to low-income families each year.

“It is a tremendous honor to be presented with the Russ Berrie Making a Difference Award,” said Ms. Cutler. “I want to thank Brooke Vuono from the Plainfield High School Teen Parenting Program - one of our amazing partners - for nominating me for the award. The cash prize will go a long way helping Moms Helping Moms support more families. I started this organization because I never wanted a single child to go without vital basics. Our organization is only able to do what we do because of the dedicated and committed supporters and volunteers we have who generously give their time and resources.”

Through partnerships with community organizations, social workers, homeless shelters, schools and others, Moms Helping Moms Foundation distributes diapers, clothing, nursing supplies, strollers and countless other baby essentials. The organization also has a dental program that distributes toothbrushes and toothpaste, and an early literacy program to encourage parents to read to their children.

LOCAL CHORUS OFFERS FREE A CAPPELLA SINGING SESSIONS

The Hickory Tree Chorus chapter of Sweet Adelines International invites women singers to register for its free “Summer Sing Series” to be held at The Shrine of St Joseph, 1050 Long Hill Road, Stirling, NJ.

You can come any Wednesday, July 10 through September 11, 2019 starting at 7:15 p.m. for chord-ringing, fun-filled, four-part a cappella music. On July 17 and 24 only, meet at the Chatham Municipal Building, 58 Meyersville Road, Chatham.

Each week, guests will participate in vocal and physical warm-ups and work on songs with the chorus. The chorus sings a variety of music, including old-fashioned love songs, Broadway, Disney, Beatles, and more.

Pam Hegarty, whose first introduction to the chorus was through the “Sing A Cappella Series” stated, “If you enjoy singing and the idea of creating music with a group, try Hickory Tree Chorus. I was greeted with such friendly support and encouragement that I knew I’d made the right choice. I learned a lot about music during the series and continue to learn more now that I’m an official member. As much as music, this chorus is about camaraderie and joy. Join us!”

The award-winning Hickory Tree Chorus performs regularly throughout the community, produces an annual show, and awards an annual $1,000 scholarship to an area high school girl continuing her vocal music education in college.

For more information, or to register for the free “Summer Sing Series”, visit hickorytreechorus.org, email info@hickorytreechorus.org or call 908-377-1399.
