There's no official crowd estimate, but it's safe to say the turnout was at least as good as last year's estimated 5,000 visitors to Fanwood's LaGrande Park for Fan Jam 2019. This third annual outdoor rock concert and food festival was blessed with perfect weather for the third straight year. Outstanding live music was provided by five talented local rock bands on an outdoor stage and enjoyed by fans who brought blankets, folding chairs and picnics. Several dozen food vendors included many ethnic dishes, Jersey standards like sausage, peppers and onions and the Sheelan's Crossing beer garden. The vintage car show, coordinated by Hot Rod Mike and several regional car clubs, was bigger than ever, taking up all of Marian Avenue and two full blocks of 2nd Street.

The Fan Jam is a production of the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, coordinated by Aimee Nuzzo, hosted by the Borough of Fanwood and supported by numerous local businesses. Fanwood Council President Tom Kranz officially welcomed visitors on behalf of Mayor Colleen Mahr who is representing Fanwood and the New Jersey State League of Municipalities at the annual conference of the U.S. Conference of Mayors in Honolulu that week. Thanks go out to the Fanwood Department of Public Works, Fanwood police and fire departments and rescue squad and the neighbors who live around LaGrande Park whose patience with the parking, detours and the many visitors really helped make the event go smoothly.

Jane Randall, an immigrant from Scotland who met her husband overseas then moved to the U.S. after World War II to raise a family, celebrated her 100th birthday at her home at The Chelsea at Fanwood on Thursday, July 18th, 2019.

Mrs. Randall spent her childhood and young adult life in and around Edinburgh, raised by an aunt and uncle. After graduating high school she learned to use adding machines called comptometers, the first mechanical calculators that were actually invented in the U.S. in the late 19th century. She became experienced enough to teach young women how to use them. She later worked as an accountant at a brewery. She has vivid memories of being on the roof of the building where they worked to wave at the royal family when they came to town, especially Queen Elizabeth II wearing her signature bonnet.

She met her husband Ronald, a U.S. soldier stationed in the UK, and they moved to the states, settling first in Chicago and eventually ending up in Cranford, NJ. She enjoyed living there and was active in the Episcopal church. She volunteered for 30 years at a local resale shop.

Mrs. Randall had four children. She has six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Her family celebrated her birthday separately. Her Chelsea friends celebrated with a cake and music.

STATION SQUARE FANWOOD

Submitted by Ellen de Havilland

The Arc of Union County is excited to share the newest developments opening up in Fanwood, New Jersey in the summer of 2019, with special thanks to a partnership between the Borough of Fanwood, Landmark Companies & The Arc of Union County.

Construction has been underway at Station Square Fanwood, formerly the "Dean Oil site", of two beautiful units that will provide accessible residential housing opportunities to individuals experiencing ambulation challenges. These new apartments will have 24-hour staff support services available 365 days a year, to safely accommodate and enhance community integration to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

The new complex has been developed by Landmark Companies with these fully accessible units at affordable rates, as part of the Borough's court approved Affordable Housing Plan. Station Square is just a piece of the new Downtown Redevelopment plan, and The Arc of Union County is proud to be part of the plan that expands opportunities for people with disabilities.

Isabella Nyabeta, Assistant Director of Residential Programs at The Arc of Union County, shared that

"The Arc's residential team works tirelessly to ensure quality of life for individuals served by encouraging them to participate in community activities and supporting them with learning different skills. These new homes provide a sense of independence and self-worth to the residents, while offering opportunities to integrate into the community setting. Residents establish connections with neighbors, they have a space close by to go shopping, visit the bank and participate in recreational opportunities."

This year The Arc of Union County is celebrating 70 years of providing services to individuals and families with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The Arc purchased their first group home in 1983 and currently operates 21 group homes and 2 supervised apartments, and has 4 new developments in the works, providing supportive housing for 100 individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Support for the development and furnishings for the new residential units in Fanwood and Westfield have been graciously supported by the Westfield Foundation, The Hyde & Watson Foundation, Union Foundation, E.J. Grassman Trust and The Division of Developmental Disabilities.

VOLUNTEER TUTORS RECOGNIZED FOR “SOWING THE SEEDS OF LITERACY”

Submitted by Nancy Lama

In July, a night of celebration and recognition was held for Literacy New Jersey's volunteer tutors at the Westfield Presbyterian Church. Over sixty tutors were recognized for years of service working with adults in Union County who struggle with reading, writing, and speaking English.

The theme of the event, “Sowing the Seeds of Literacy”, reflected how tutors cultivate a positive learning environment in which students grow their skills and achieve important personal and professional goals. Literacy NJ tutors help adults improve their language skills, enabling them to find better jobs, advocate for their children at school, earn a high school diploma, and/or prepare for college.

ESL students Ioannis Petrou and Flor Barrera spoke about their increased confidence communicating with customers, teachers, doctors, and friends. Charles Baldwin thanked his tutors for giving him his life back by teaching him to read, and HSE student Shawn Boatswain described his journey from a small Caribbean island to earning a Master's Degree from Kean University.

Literacy New Jersey offers tutoring to adult residents of Union County in three areas: basic reading and writing, English as a Second Language, and preparation for the High School Equivalency exam.

Tutors choose an area of interest and then typically volunteer two hours a week, working with a small group of students.

For more information about becoming a volunteer tutor, or the program in general, please call 908-486-1777 or email bhathaway@literacynj.org.

CHORUS OFFERS FREE SINGING SESSIONS

The Hickory Tree Chorus chapter of Sweet Adelines International invites women singers to register for its free "Summer Sing Series" to be held at The Shrine of St Joseph, 1050 Long Hill Road, Stirling, NJ.

You can come any Wednesday through September 11, 2019 starting at 7:15 p.m. for chord-ringing, fun-filled, four-part a cappella music.

Each week, guests will participate in vocal and physical warm-ups and work on songs with the chorus. The chorus sings a variety of music, including old-fashioned love songs, Broadway, Disney, Beatles, and more.

Pam Hegarty, whose first introduction to the chorus was through the "Sing A Cappella Series" stated, "If you enjoy singing and the idea of creating music with a group, try Hickory Tree Chorus. I was greeted with such friendly support and encouragement that I knew I'd made the right choice. I learned a lot about music during the series and continue to learn more now that I'm an official member. As much as music, this chorus is about camaraderie and joy. Join us!"

The award-winning Hickory Tree Chorus performs regularly throughout the community, produces an annual show, and awards an annual $1,000 scholarship to an area high school girl continuing her vocal music education in college.

For more information, or to register for the free "Summer Sing Series", visit hickorytreechorus.org, email info@hickorytreechorus.org or call 908-377-1399.

GET FIT WITH FANWOOD'S FINEST

The Fanwood Police Department, with the Fanwood Grant Writer, have secured a grant from the First Responders Children's Foundation. The foundation supports, promotes, and facilitates educational activities whose purpose is to benefit children or the community at large.

This grant will subsidize a program we will be offering to Fanwood and Scotch Plains students in grades 5 – 8 called Get Fit With Fanwood's Finest. Children will work out alongside our officers, some whom are trained by the Union County Emergency Response Team. The program will consist of a daily work out, a brief topical dialogue, and a few guest speakers.

The free program will run the week of August 26 – August 30, 2019, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Details and signups are located at fanwoodpolice.org. Please direct any questions that are not answered on the website to diannehowarth@fanwoodpolice.org.

NEIL ALEXANDER & NAIL - FUNKY WORLD JAZZ/FUSION PROJECT TO PERFORM AT NORTHERN NEW JERSEY'S MOST INTIMATE COFFEEHOUSE

The Salem Roadhouse Café proudly presents Nail, performing on Saturday, August 10, 2019.

2019 Marks the 20th anniversary of "Neil Alexander & NAIL", the Funky World Jazz/Fusion project of keyboardist and composer Neil Alexander.

Originally imagined as a punk/prog-rock outfit in 1999, NAIL has continued to grow and evolve, exploring and incorporating new elements thru many iterations and personnel changes. For the Salem Roadhouse performance, NAIL will once again feature Brian Mooney on bass and Steven Frieder on saxophone, with Danny Pagan manning the drum chair and special guest Monroe Quinn on guitar.

Focusing on original music, Neil remains the primary composer for the group with tunes like "Everyman", "The Stream" and "Earlier Still". There is also a smattering of funk arrangements of jazz standards, songs from the classic fusion catalog, and a choice rock and roll tune (or 2) rendered in classic jazz tradition.

This show will feature original artwork by The Roadhouse' summer resident artist Andrew Washington, with his works on display for all to enjoy and experience at the Roadhouse Gallery of Fine Art.

All ages are welcome. It's a wholesome show, so bring the entire family!

Doors open 7:30 p.m. The show starts at 8:00 p.m. Admission is $20. Proceeds help local charity Family Promise – Building Communities, Strengthening Lives.

About Salem Roadhouse Café

Dedication best defines the Salem Roadhouse Café: dedication to excellent music and dedication to the community. Well into its eleventh year, The Salem Roadhouse Café reaffirms its commitment to both.

Started in 2008 by members of Townley Presbyterian Church with a grant from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, the Roadhouse Café continues to operate as a non-profit that raises funds for several carefully chosen local charities. That may be its social mission... but the Roadhouse Café is and has been a solid performance venue beloved by the musicians who play there because of its special intimacy with the audience.

Church music, it's not

The Roadhouse Café has always offered its stage to local and independent main stream musicians. It's a clean, safe place for people who enjoy listening to live music, in a world of clubs and bars. Jazz, rock, folk and other groups have performed. During the past eleven years well over 100 different entertainers have appeared. Local fine artists also display their works. The musicians who play the Roadhouse often ask to return as soon as possible. The Roadhouse has given them a place with a beautiful stage, good acoustics, a live, attentive audience, and a sound system that is first class.

Community orientation

The Salem Roadhouse Café has raised funds for many carefully chosen charities. They include: The Presbytery of Elizabeth E-port Center, Center For Hope Hospice, Community Food Bank, Monarch Housing, Angel Paws Animal Rescue, National MS Society, Haiti Disaster Relief, Hurricane Sandy Disaster Relief, The Union County YWCA Domestic Violence Program, Making It Possible To End Homelessness, Camp Johnsonburg, The Music Institute, Groundwork Elizabeth, Union Twp. Police "Santa In Blue" toy campaign and others.

Thousands of dollars have been raised for these deserving charities.

Now nearly into its twelfth year of operation, the Salem Roadhouse Café features many of the performers who have graced the stage in the past, as well as talent that is new to the Café stage. The current season benefits Family Promise Union County.

Admission includes the show, art displays, snacks, beverages and desserts.

'REGISTER READY' HELPS RESIDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Are you a New Jersey resident with special needs? Do you have a family member or neighbor who may need special assistance during a disaster?

Register Ready gives residents with disabilities or access and functional needs and their families, friends, caregivers and associates an opportunity to provide information to fire, first aid and law enforcement agencies, so emergency responders can better plan to serve them in a disaster or other emergency.

The information collected is confidential and will not be available to the public; it will be held securely and used only for emergency response and planning. For more information and to sign up visit: <https://www13.state.nj.us/SpecialNeeds/Signin?ReturnUrl=/SpecialNeeds/>

For help registering, dial 211 (toll free) and an operator will assist you.

Registering on this website will not guarantee that responders will be able to assist you in an emergency, so personal preparedness also is strongly encouraged.
