NJ DEPT OF ED HONORS LINDEN AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

Submitted by Gary Miller

The New Jersey Department of Education has awarded a Certificate of Appreciation to the 21st Century Community Learning Center, an after-school and summer program serving the students of Soehl Middle School.

The award recognizes the 21st Century program and Director Isabella Scocozza for completing five years of successful grants management. The program is funded through a grant from the New Jersey Department of Education for $425,000 a year, which covers the costs of staff and supplies, as well as a daily snack of a sandwich, juice and fruit for the students. Soehl just completed its 14th year in the program and its most recent five-year grant award.

"I am honored that our after-school program received the acknowledgement from the New Jersey Department of Education," Scocozza said. "Our program at Soehl Middle School services over one-third of the entire student population and provides a variety of extended enrichment opportunities for both students and families."

The after-school program runs until 6 p.m. each school day and includes an hour of tutoring and help with school work; an hour of enrichment in technology, the arts, and other areas; and an hour of recreation. The program also offers monthly family events and class trips.

In addition, the 21st Century program offers a summer STEM academy that provides enrichment programs and character education for about 60 students. The summer program runs four mornings a week for four weeks and is funded through the state's 21st Century grant as well as an additional IDEA Supplemental Grant Award of $35,000.

"Congratulations to Miss Scocozza and the 21st Century program for this well-deserved honor from the Department of Education," said Acting Superintendent Denise Cleary. "The program is such a positive influence on students throughout the school year and into the summer. It boosts student achievement and enhances the family atmosphere at Soehl Middle School in so many ways. We are thankful to have this program."

Scocozza said the honor is a recognition for everyone who helps to support the program each year.

"This award represents the hard work and dedication of our staff and stakeholders in order to ensure a high-quality and well-rounded after-school program," she said.

The Linden Police Department is hoping people will take notice as they unveiled their new Community Policing vehicle.

“This car is designed to get people’s attention,” said Police Chief Dave Hart. “It will be used at various events, and we hope that when people see this car it at various community events they remember our commitment to serving our neighbors.”

The new Ford Escape was purchased and equipped using part of a $52,044 from the Columbia Bank Foundation. Other projects made possible by the grant include a community smart board, a donation to the Linden Police Youth Academy, and a new recreational scoreboard.

“We are pleased that the Columbia Bank Foundation was able to support several projects for the community of Linden,” said Thomas J. Kemly, President and CEO of Columbia Bank.

“We are confident that the donations will touch the lives of many.”

The Columbia Bank Foundation was created to serve the needs of local communities, and provide grants and contributions to organizations recognized as tax-exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Columbia Bank Foundation actively seeks to provide support in six major areas: affordable housing programs, community investment and economic development opportunities, financial literacy and educational opportunities, health and human services, food pantries, and the arts. Special consideration is always given to programs that provide a measurable community impact. LINDEN SENIOR MEN & WOMEN'S CLUB CELEBRATE 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Submitted by Steve Zielinski

The Linden Senior Men & Women's Club, formally known as The Linden Retired Men's Club, celebrated their 60th Anniversary at The Grand Banquet Hall, 12 North Stiles Street, Linden, New Jersey on Sunday, June 9, 2019.

The club was organized on February 3, 1959 and is the largest and most active in the State of New Jersey. It has been highly successful for the past sixty years.

There were 107 members and guests attending the event and enjoying the buffet catered by T & L Catering of North Plainfield, New Jersey.

Linden's Mayor Derrick Armsted congratulated the members for keeping the club active and enjoyable for Linden's Seniors.

There was plenty of dancing to the music by Tony Rigano of Jades DJ/Entertainment. A fabulous show was presented by Stiletto & The Saxman of Arminio Entertainment. Also, a PowerPoint Slide Presentation of the clubs "60 Year History" was enjoyed by all attendees.

Congratulatory letters were received by the First Lady Melania Trump, Past Presidents and First Ladies Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter, and George and Laura Bush.

Wonderful contributions to the 60th Anniversary Celebration were given by: Metro Liquors, St. Georges Family Pharmacy, Northfield Bank of Linden, and Pinho's Bakery.

The club held their annual election of officers in June. The new slate for the 2019 – 2020 year are: Steve Zielinski, President; Dianne Spinelli, Vice President; Eloise Orange, Secretary; Dorothy Van Pelt, Asst. Secretary; Dolores Hynes, Treasurer; Evelyn Marchione, Financial Secretary; Gloria Nisky, Chaplin & Florence Stefanick, Shunshine Chairperson.

Meetings are at 1:00 p.m. every Tuesday at the JTG Recreation Center, from September through June. Any Linden Senior Citizen looking for many good times, come on over and join the fun!

BACCALAUREATE DIPLOMA GIVES TOP LINDEN GRADS A HEAD-START

(above) Recent Linden High School graduates Peter Zelazny and Muhsin Khan have been awarded the prestigious International Baccalaureate diploma.

Submitted by Gary Miller

Recent Linden High School graduates Piotr Zelazny and Muhsin Khan were honored on Tuesday, July 30, for attaining the prestigious International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma.

The IB diploma is the pinnacle of achievement in the high school's most rigorous course of study, offering those who achieve it up to a semester's worth of college credits.

This year's two winners are Muhsin Khan and Piotr Zelazny, who were also the valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the Class of 2019. Zelazny was recognized at the monthly meeting of the Board of Education. Khan was unable to attend.

"This is an incredibly demanding course load and Piotr and Muhsin deserve to be commended on this wonderful achievement," said Acting Superintendent Denise Cleary. "They each have a great head-start on their studies in college because of the credits they have earned, as well as the experience they have gained in the program."

Each was given a certificate of excellence and an engraved desk clock with a globe design, symbolizing the global reach of the IB program. Zelazny was joined at the meeting by IB teacher Anthony Fischetti.

Students in the IB program take two years of high-level classes in six subject areas. They must also complete a university-level Theory of Knowledge class; a Creativity, Activity and Service community service project; and an extended essay. To attain an IB diploma, a student must pass challenging assessments in all six subject areas, which are graded by IB instructors from around the world.

Several hundred students have benefited from the IB program over the 17 years it has been offered at LHS.

"Students who go through the IB program say they are better prepared than many of their classmates in college because of the hard work they have to put in over their final two years at Linden High School," Cleary said.

Zelazny is attending Steven Institute of Technology in Hoboken and studying electrical engineering.

Khan will attend Rutgers University to study bioengineering with the goal of becoming an oral surgeon. He starts with 17 credits thanks to his IB diploma.

LINDEN'S HARKINS FAMILY TO CELEBRATE 50TH ANNUAL REUNION

The Harkins family, which hails from Linden and now numbers in the hundreds, is celebrating its 50th Annual Family Reunion on Sunday, Sept. 1, 2019.

Members of the extended family live throughout Union and Middlesex counties, including Linden, Clark, Edison, and Piscataway, as well as out-of-state. They will gather at Brookside Park in Scotch Plains for a day of fun, food, drinks, reminiscing, and games – including their traditional volleyball matches.

Family members are the descendants of Bernard and Katherine Harkins, longtime residents of Linden, and their seven children. Today, the matriarch is Dolores Sisk, 85, a longtime Colonia resident who now lives in Edison. She is the daughter of Bernard and Katherine, who died in 1964 and 1977, respectively.

Bernard Harkins was a member of the Linden Board of Education and is still remembered on a plaque in the lobby of St. Elizabeth Church in Linden, where his children went to school and family members were longtime parishioners.

The family – which now includes great-great-grandchildren of Bernard and Katherine – began gathering yearly on the Sunday of Labor Day weekend in 1970 to keep everyone in touch as the family grew larger.

For the first 25 years, the picnic was held at the home of Barney and Elaine Harkins in South Plainfield, and since at various parks and family homes.

(above) Members of the extended Harkins Family at their 49th annual reunion in Brookside Park in Scotch Plains in September 2018. The family, originally from Linden and now spread throughout Union and Middlesex counties, will gather again on Sept. 1 to celebrate its 50th reunion.

LINDEN POLICE HOST ANNUAL YOUTH ACADEMY

The Linden Police Department celebrated the graduation of their 2nd Annual Youth Academy class on July 26, 2019. The week-long program included physical fitness training and drill instruction, as well as a series of lectures and hands-on skills demonstrations by Linden Police Officers and representatives from various state and county partners.

“It is amazing how much these cadets have grown in such a short time,” said Police Chief

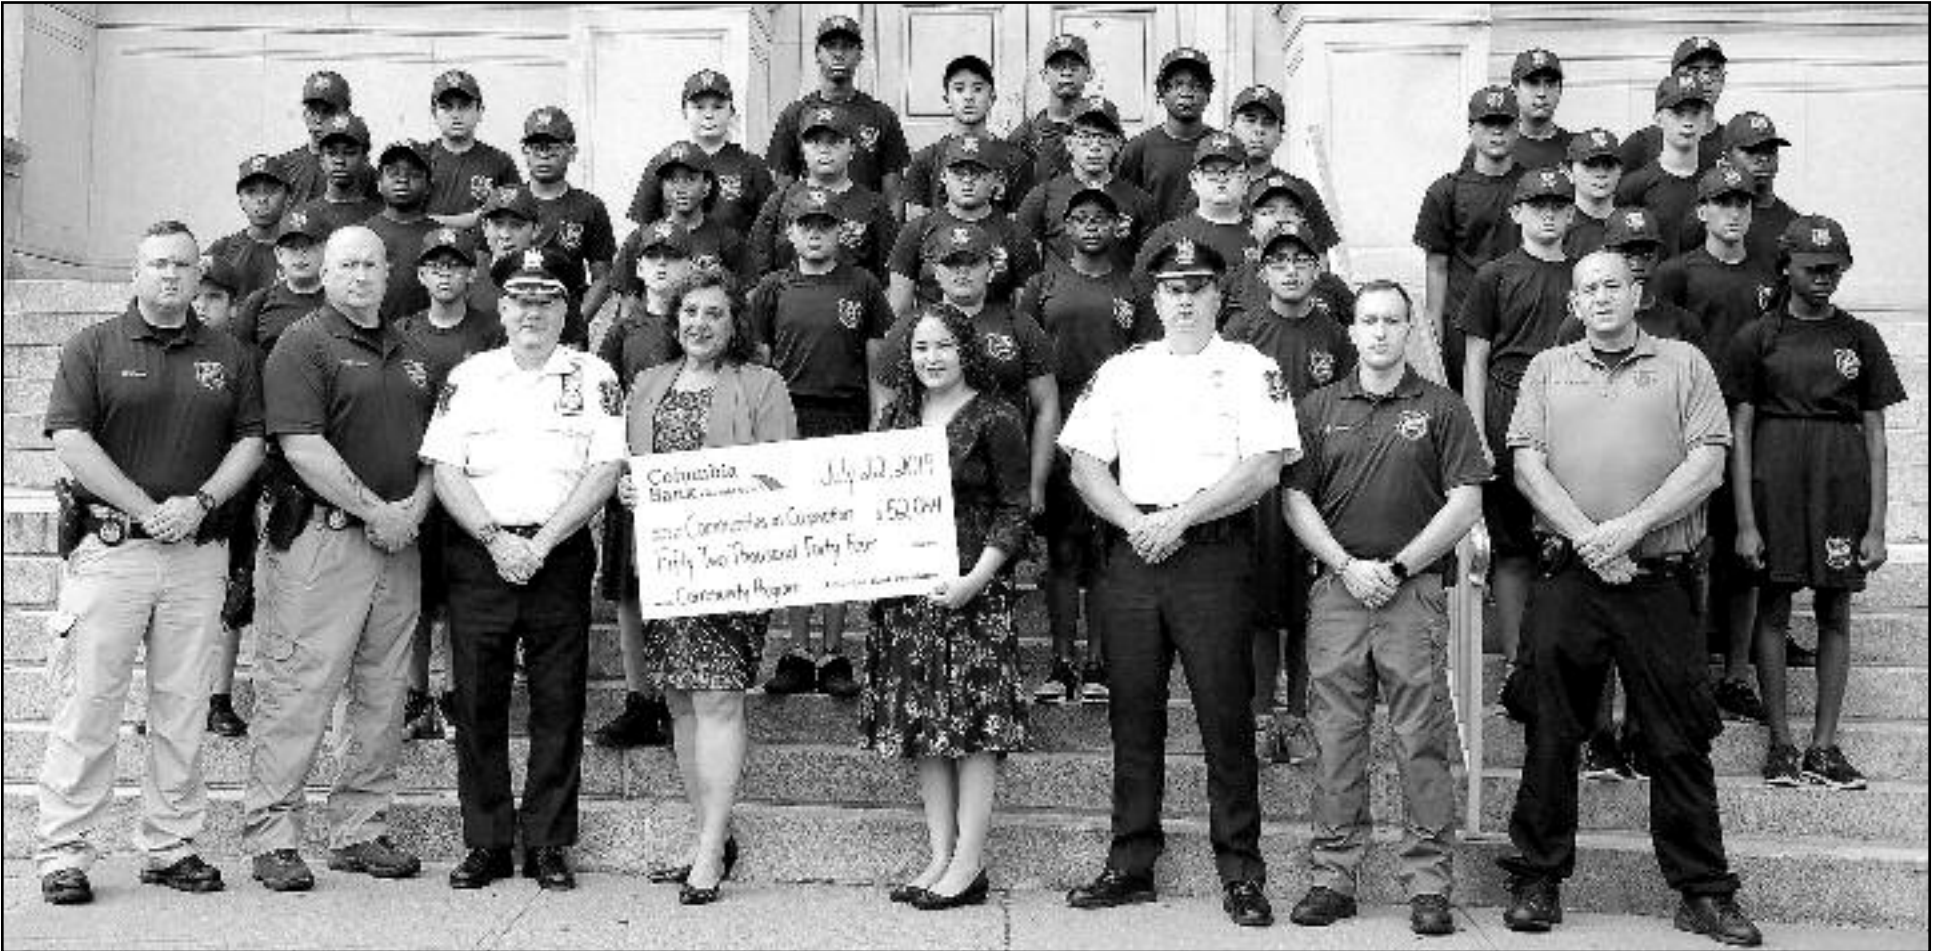

David Hart. “This is not an easy program, but they persevered and pushed through it. We are very proud of all they have accomplished.”

This year, the program was expanded to include an additional 15 participants, thanks to a generous donation by the Columbia Bank Foundation.

“We are pleased that the Columbia Bank Foundation was able to support several projects for the community of Linden,” said Thomas J.

Kemly, President and CEO of Columbia Bank. “We are confident that the donations will touch the lives of many.”

The Department would like to thank Linden Public Schools for their assistance in providing facilities for the Academy, the Linden High School NJROTC, who served as junior instructors, the Columbia Bank Foundation, and all the partner agencies who made the Academy an unforgettable experience.

NEW PRINCIPALS HIGHLIGHT CHANGES IN LINDEN PUBLIC SCHOOLS ADMINISTRATION

Submitted by Gary Miller

Changes in the Linden Public Schools administration for the 2019-20 school year include new principals at both middle schools and at two of the district's largest elementary schools.

"We are looking at the upcoming year as one of celebration of all of our students and their accomplishments, and we have a great team in place to help lead that charge," said Acting Superintendent Denise Cleary. "Change is good and it gives everyone a chance to recharge and see things in a new light. I know they will be fantastic in their new roles!"

Isabella Scocozza has been named principal at Soehl Middle School. She had been a vice principal at the school, while also serving as director of the 21st Century Community Learning Center, the school's after-school and summer program.

Richard Molinaro, former principal at Soehl, will be acting director of mathematics at the Linden High School Academy of Science and Technology.

Atiya Perkins will be the principal at McManus Middle School. She had been principal at School No. 2, the district's largest elementary school. She had previously served as vice principal at McManus.

The new principal at School No. 2 is Peter Fingerlin, who had been principal at McManus. It is also a homecoming for Fingerlin, who had previously been principal at School No. 2.

School No. 4 has a new principal and vice principal, following the retirement of longtime Principal Anthony Cataline. Former Vice Principal Suzanne Olivero will be taking the helm as principal, and Rosalia Kolibas, formerly the district's supervisor of elementary math, will be vice principal.

The new positions were approved by the Linden Board of Education on July 30, 2019, at its regular monthly meeting.

PRINCIPAL RETIRING AFTER 48 YEARS WITH LINDEN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Submitted by Gary Miller

In 1971, Anthony Cataline had just graduated from Newark State College and was a student teacher at Roosevelt School in Rahway. Then he got a phone call that would change his life – and the lives of thousands of students in the Linden Public Schools.

It was A.R. Taranto, who had just taken the helm as superintendent in Cataline's hometown of Linden, calling with an offer for the young teacher.

"He said, 'I've got a job for you at Soehl Junior High School. Take it or leave it,'" Cataline recalled. "I needed a job, so I said, 'I'll take it.'"

Forty-eight years later, Newark State is Kean University, Soehl Junior High is Soehl Middle School, and Cataline is just wrapping up a career in Linden in which he worked at four different schools under six superintendents. He has been principal at School No. 10, McManus Middle School, and most recently at School No. 4, from which he retired at the end of this school year.

Acting Superintendent Denise Cleary said Linden Public Schools won't be the same without Cataline.

Cataline spoke with love for the students and staff of School No. 4, as well as the staff and residents of the Linden Housing Authority, which is just across the street on Dill Avenue. He especially praised the parents, who he said have become more participatory since he became principal in 2005. Cataline created a Fathers Club to help ensure the dads get more involved.

Cataline couldn't have guessed what lie ahead when he walked into Soehl on that first day in 1971.

Cataline taught several core subjects at Soehl over the next 15 years, and was known by students as "Wolfman Jack," because his thick head of hair and full beard gave him a resemblance to the legendary radio DJ of the '70s.

He earned his master's degree in educational administration from Kean College in 1978, and in 1986 worked with school psychologist Tom Nappa on developing an alternative program for disaffected eighth-graders.

In 1986, he began a run where he worked at two schools he had attended as a student. He became an administrative aide at McManus in 1986, then in 1988, he became principal at School No. 10, where he stayed for 11 years.

While at School No. 10, Cataline introduced calculators and computers to the classrooms, was the first recipient of a family science grant, and supported the arts and the first social work program in Linden Public Schools. He was the first Linden principal to be appointed to the initial advisory committee for the Merck Institute for Science Education.

He returned to McManus as principal in 1999 and stayed there for six years.

In 2005, Cataline was named principal of School No. 4. While there, he established community partnerships with the Linden Housing Authority and Infineum in Linden. In addition, he developed the Kiwanis K-Kids program, Safety Patrol, and Student of the Month recognition program. He also revamped the school's holiday shop, giving all students the opportunity to experience the magic of the holidays without the need for money.

Photos by Linden Public Schools

Cataline credits his faculty and staff for implementing many of the advancements he has led. The feeling from the staff is mutual.

After 48 years of coming to work day after day, retirement is a big change. But after turning 70 in May, Cataline says it is clear to him that it's time to explore other adventures. And he says he never thought about trying to make it to 50 years.

He doesn't have a lot of plans, but he has a lot of options for his new free time. He's thinking of taking a class to learn Spanish, maybe getting his motorcycle license, or "just spending time on the beach with the binoculars and watching the dolphins.

But the outpouring of love and good wishes as he approached retirement helps to make the answer to that question clear.

There's the teacher from North Carolina who sent Cataline a card saying how much the time she spent with him when she was a student then as a teacher meant to her. "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be the teacher I am today," she wrote.

There's the Linden police officer who told him that after being disciplined by Cataline at McManus, he never got in trouble again.

There's the 140 staff members, family, and friends who turned out for his retirement party.

There's the seventh-grader from Pennsylvania – a former School No. 4 student – who took the time to send him a card to thank him.

"So I guess I can look in the mirror and say I did some good along the way," Cataline said. "I guess how I lived my life meant something to somebody. So I guess I can leave head held high, feeling good about what I did for the last 48 years.

"It's been a nice career. A very nice career. I don't have one regret."

THE ROCK OPERA CHESS WILL OPEN CDC THEATRE'S 102ND SEASON

The 2020-2021 season at CDC Theatre in Cranford will open with the complex rock opera Chess, with lyrics by Tim Rice and music by Benny Andersson and Björn Ulvaeus of ABBA fame. In the musical the ancient game becomes a metaphor for romantic rivalries, competitive gamesmanship, super-power politics and international intrigues.

The pawns in the drama form a love triangle: the loutish American chess star, the earnest Russian champion and the Hungarian American female assistant who arrives at the match with the American but falls for the Russian. From Bangkok to Budapest, the players, lovers, politicians and spies manipulate and are manipulated to the pulse of a monumental rock score that includes the international pop hits "One Night in Bangkok" and "I Know Him So Well".

"In addition to Chess being one of the most beautiful musical scores ever written, what excites me about the show is that it is at once a historical representation of the Cold War and a very timely exploration of US/Russia political relations given present day tensions," said director Edgar Hidalgo. "CDC Theatre is producing the original London stage version of Chess, with the addition of "Someone Else's Story" from the Broadway production. We are excited to be presenting Chess in association with the New Jersey City University (NJCU). Students and alumni of NJCU are represented on-stage and in the orchestra, and the university's musical theatre and music departments are providing support in other areas of the production."

Information on how to get tickets can be found by visiting cdctheatre.org, with the best selections and prices available on-line.
