SCHOOLS EARN 3 AWARDS FOR COMMUNICATION & OUTREACH

Linden Public Schools received three awards at the New Jersey School Communication Awards on September 26, 2019 – the only school district statewide to be honored three times.

The awards, given out by the New Jersey School Public Relations Association, represent the best work of school communication professionals in getting news and information out to students, families, and the community during the 2018-19 school year. There were 64 entries from 34 school districts. Entries were judged by 11 judges in four states, including professors and practicing communication professionals.

The honors were accepted by Linden Communication Coordinator Gary Miller at an awards ceremony at the Heldrich Hotel in New Brunswick.

“It was an honor to represent Linden Public Schools at the School Communication Awards,” he said. “Recognition like this serves to underscore how many great stories there are to tell about teachers, administrators and students in Linden Public Schools.”

Interim Superintendent Denise Cleary said the district is fortunate to have Miller handling communication and media relations.

“Mr. Miller’s stories, photos and media highlights get the word out on all we have to celebrate in the Linden Public Schools,” she said. “His stories are often picked up by larger media outlets, and he truly deserves the recognition from the New Jersey Schools Public Relations Association. Gary is an invaluable staff member and we look forward to more great things to come as he continues to keep us in the spotlight.”

Linden was honored with a second place in the electronic newsletter category; third place for media relations human interest; and third place for photography.

The electronic newsletter award was given for Superintendent’s Report, the district’s interactive newsletter that is sent out monthly. (The newsletter was recently renamed #LindenCelebrates for the 2019-2020 school year.) It has brief articles followed by links to longer articles and sometimes more photos and videos on the district website. The award was granted for the January and March 2019 editions.

The media relations award was given for a story about a memorial service at School No. 4 for kindergartner Sophia Thomas, who was killed along with her grandmother in a car accident last year.

The photography award was given for a photo of School No. 6 third-grader Adrien Williams on a day when representatives of Apple visited his school and School No. 8, both designated as Apple Schools. The photo shows Adrien displaying work on his MacBook Air laptop, surrounded by students and teachers, many from School No. 8.

“I’ve always liked that photo because it shows three things that are very important to all of us in Linden Public Schools,” said Miller, who took the photo. “Diversity, technology, and collaboration. It shows that we’re like a family in Linden, but also focuses on real academic achievement.”

The NJSPRA School Communication Awards were developed to recognize professional school communicators in New Jersey, and the products they develop that go above and beyond to disseminate important messages to their communities.

“Congratulations to Linden Public Schools for both the outstanding tool they have created for their audiences as well as setting a standard for all of us in this important field of school communications,” said Lori Perlow, president of NJSPRA and communications manager at Camden County Educational Services Commission.

SOEHL MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS BECOME IMMERSED IN THE HORROR LITERATURE GENRE

For a unit on reading the horror genre, Soehl Middle School teacher Jan Macha has pitched a tent in his classroom, dimmed the classroom lights, and turned on night sounds to immerse his students in the feeling of the horror stories. The students read horror stories in the darkened tent in their classroom on October 4.

"The purpose of the tent, dimmed lights, and night sounds is to create an atmosphere of fear.

This marking period is focused on horror narrative, so I wanted to create an environment in which students can get in that atmosphere via their senses, not just through text," said teacher Jan Macha.

"Students love it. Most of them have never been in a tent. Others dig in the horror genre with a new fresh look as the fear is not only on the page of their book but all around them."

(above) Students in Jan Macha's class were immersed in the horror genre of literature this marking period in a unique way: a tent in their classroom.

BEGIN HOLIDAY SEASON WITH IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE AT CDC THEATRE

The fully staged version of the classic holiday movie It's A Wonderful Life, adapted by Philip Grecian, will bring George Bailey, his family, friends and the town of Bedford Falls to life on the CDC Theatre stage beginning December 6, 2019. Located at 78 Winans Ave., in Cranford, NJ the theatre is celebrating its 101st season.

The beloved Everyman, George Bailey, who had dreams of adventure and travel has given his entire life to his community, only to have it unravel through the machinations of the selfish banker Mr. Potter. In his despair, George questions whether it would have been better had he never been born. Clarence, a befuddled angel who hasn't earned his wings yet, arrives to show him exactly what this wish might really mean.

When asked what inspired him to return to direct at CDC Theatre, Maurice Moran responded "I have always loved the movie version of this story – and the play follows that script very well – because I think it is important that we stop and take stock of our lives now and then. How did we get from there to here? Who changed our lives by a word or work? And more importantly, whose lives have we touched along the way? And, keeping that in mind, how do we continue to affect people we meet? When my parents passed away, I was comforted by those who attended the funerals, illustrating how much these two people touched so many lives from so many walks of life. And I thought, wouldn't it have been nice for them to see that, too? George gets to see that and discovers that we all make a difference on this earth."

Boasting a large cast that ranges from 8 to 80, including a children's chorus of carolers singing holiday favorites, It's A Wonderful Life is a great way to usher in the holiday season! Running from December 6-15, Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m. with 2 p.m. matinees on December 8, 14, 15. Ticket and group sales information can be found by visiting cdctheatre.org.

TWELVE UNION COUNTY P.O.S OFFER CONVENIENT PASSPORT APPLICATION SERVICE

If you live in any one of the 21 Union County municipalities and need to apply for a U.S. Passport, chances are there is a Post Office within an easy 5-10 minute commute that can accept your application. Twelve Post Offices throughout Union County offer convenient passport application service on behalf of the United States Department of State.

The Union County Post Offices that offer passport application service include: Berkeley Heights, Cranford, Elizabeth Main Post Office, Fanwood, Garwood, Linden Main Post Office, Netherwood Station in Plainfield, Scotch Plains, Springfield, Summit, Union Main Post Office, and Westfield.

Although some Union County Post Offices like Garwood, Netherwood Station, and Scotch Plains accept walk-ins, many Post Offices offering passport services require an appointment. For appointments during regular passport processing hours, the U.S. Postal Service has made scheduling easier with the USPS Retail Customer Appointment Scheduler tool (RCAS) at usps.com/scheduler.

The RCAS tool will display available appointment times for participating Post Office locations that offer passport appointment services within the selected radius. Users will receive notifications of their scheduled appointment via email or text.

Application forms and information on the costs and how to apply for a passport can be found at usps.com/passport.

The U.S. Department of State's National Passport Information Center is available to answer passport questions by phone or email in English or Spanish. If you have a question about passports you can call toll-free 1-877-487-2778 or email NPIC@state.gov.

The Postal Service receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR SHINING STARS GALA, CHRISTMAS SHOW

Shining Stars Network, a non profit organization shining the light on the special needs community through the performing arts and other activities, has two exciting events planned over the next few months.

Shining Stars will be hosting their inaugural “Reach for the Stars” Gala on Wednesday, November 6, 2019 at the the elegant Park Savoy Estate in Florham Park, featuring a 5-star dinner and show featuring the Shining Stars special needs cast members.

The night will feature a cocktail hour, dinner and a Venetian hour, all highlighted by a 45-minute performance from the amazing and talented Shining Stars cast, along with a 50/50 raffle and auction items.

“This is a night we’ve been dreaming of having for quite some time,” noted Shining Stars Network co-founder and President Mike Curci. “As we continue to expand our mission of providing opportunities in the performing arts, we felt a gala would be a wonderful way to introduce our special stars to the corporate community and other donors while raising funds that will allow us to grow our programs.”

Shining Stars Network is an expansion of the successful Shining Stars talent shows which began in Cranford more than eight years ago with 15 cast members. That number has grown to 50 and there are new requests each week from those who want to become a part of the Shining Stars family. While the majority of cast members live in Union County, there are cast members from seven different counties who have taken the stage.

“It’s an exciting time for our organization and we continue to receive requests from those who want to join our cast,” said Curci. “We know there’s a need for what we are providing and our goal is to continue our mission of creating even more opportunities to be on stage in the future.”

“Being on stage builds self-confidence and self-esteem, which is something our stars take into their everyday lives,” noted Shining Stars Network co-founder and co-director Sally Curci. “Friendships are built between cast members and our volunteer ‘buddies’ and these long-lasting bonds are just as important as the performing. Our goal is to provide more opportunities as possible for the special needs community.”

Tickets for the “Reach for the Stars” gala are available at shiningstars.booktix.com or you can email your ticket request to shiningstarsgala@gmail.com. The cost to attend is $150.00 per person.

“We are incredibly thankful to our gala committee members for their time and dedication,” added Mike Curci. “And we cannot say enough thank you’s to the local community for their continued support in helping our stars shine over these past eight years.”

In addition, Shining Stars Network is also excited to present their second annual “Christmas Spectacular,” a not to be missed evening of holiday favorites presented by their incredible cast and filled with sing-a-longs and audience participation, including the return of “The Twelve Days of Christmas,” which includes every audience member and instantly became an audience favorite.

Because of the success of last year’s show, this year’s “Christmas Spectacular” will be presented at the beautiful and historic Union County Performing Arts Center in Rahway on Thursday, December 5, 2019.

Tickets for the Shining Stars “Christmas Spectacular” are on sale now at UCPAC.org/events. There will be a 10% discount on tickets through November 1 by using the code “holiday stars.”

Also, mark you calendars for Friday, May 8, 2020 when the Shining Stars return to the UCPAC main stage for the third straight year. The 9th annual “Evening of Shining Stars” promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Shining Stars Network, Inc. is a registered 501(c)(3) non profit organization that shines the light on the special needs community by creating opportunities in the performing arts and other events. In addition, our Shining Stars Ambassadors basketball team travels to play local first responders and organizations with the goal of building friendships and understanding in an inclusive environment. The successful Camp Shine — a two-week special needs performing arts summer camp, just concluded their 3rd year.

THE PRESENT AND FUTURE OF LINDEN ATHLETES

The Linden High School Athletic Department invited the Linden Pop Warner Football and Cheer Organization to join them for their Annual Homecoming celebration. The Pop Warner organization connects with Linden Public Schools to ensure that all student athletes in Linden stay inspired to excel in academics and athletics. Athletic Director, Mr. Viana and Football Head Coach, Mr. Chiollah, have been avid supporters of the Linden Pop Warner Football and Cheer organizations. By allowing Pop Warner Football and Cheer to participate in pre-game warmups, team huddles, and locker-room prayer, they received exposure to the discipline, work ethic, and dedication demonstrated by the more mature athletes on the Linden High School teams.

B OF E HONORS TWO LITTLE LEAGUERS AFTER MAGICAL SUMMER

Submitted by Gary Miller

(above) Two McManus Middle School seventh-graders, LJ Aponte and Santi Alvarez, were the only Linden students who were members of the Elmora Troopers team that went to the Little League World Series in August 2019.

When Louis Aponte and Santiago Alvarez returned to McManus Middle School in Linden this September, no one needed to ask them how they spent their summer. Their adventures were on TV for the whole world to see.

The two seventh-graders – better known to their family and friends as LJ and Santi – were members of the Elmora Troopers team from Elizabeth that made it all the way to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA. The team won the New Jersey state championship, then the Mid-Atlantic regional championship to earn the chance to go against the best teams from around the country.

The Linden Board of Education honored the two boys at their regular meeting on September 26, 2019.

“It was just so much fun to be able to go as far as we possibly could with some of the best friends we’ve ever had,” LJ said during a recent conversation at McManus. “We left it all out on the field. We reached the top of baseball for our age. We played as hard as we possibly could and we made it as far as we could.”

Although the sporting world came to know the Elmora Troopers from Elizabeth, LJ and Santi were the only members of the team who are from Linden. And they carried that mantle with pride.

“Linden wasn’t getting much attention because most of the team is from Elizabeth,” Santi said. “But just to know deep inside that we were representing Linden was just amazing. We got to represent our hometown.”

Linden fans were among six busloads of spectators that followed the team to the regional championship game in Bristol, CT. Other fans traveled to watch the team in Williamsport, including some McManus classmates, as well as Vice Principal Wayne Happel.

Happel said he loved seeing the boys get the big-league treatment and that McManus couldn’t have asked for two better ambassadors.

“Santi and LJ are such wonderful representatives of what it means to be a student-athlete,” he said. “They excel in the classroom, on the field and all of their extracurricular activities. I am so proud of what they have accomplished and can’t wait to see the great things they do in the future!”

Since returning from their magical trip, the Troopers have gotten the celebrity treatment. They were given a welcome home rally and later a parade in Elizabeth; they went on the field before a Mets game at Citi Field; they were honored at a Somerset Patriots minor league game in Bridgewater.

LJ and Santi were given a rousing welcome at McManus on the first day of school.

“We walked into the auditorium and everyone was yelling ‘LJ! Santi!’” Santi said. “A bunch of kids came up to me and said, ‘We watched you on ESPN! Good job, you did great!’”

LJ added, “Everyone was saying, ‘Congratulations’ and ‘We’re so proud of you.’”

But they didn’t let it go to their heads.

“Then we went back to our day, going to classes and stuff,” LJ said.

When the boys were asked what their favorite subject is, LJ joked, “Does lunch count?” But then both said that they like history.

It’s a fitting answer for two boys who made a little history of their own this summer.

MESSY 'PIE THE PRINCIPAL' FUNDRAISER CLEANS UP

(above) Suzanne Olivero, principal of School No. 4 in Linden, waving after being hit by multiple whipped cream pies in the school's "Pie the Principal" fundraiser.

Photos by Linden Public Schools

Submitted by Gary Miller

School No. 4 Principal Suzanne Olivero took it on the chin for her students on September 20. And in the eyes, on the cheeks, in the hair...

Students were allowed to take shots at their principal during the "Pie the Principal" fundraiser, lining up to throw pies – actually Styrofoam plates of whipped cream – at Olivero.

The event raised $250 for the school's Positive Behavior Support in Schools (PBSIS) program, which rewards the students for good behavior and helps develop a family atmosphere at the school.

"Although the main objective of the fundraiser was to raise funds to update the game room," Olivero said, "I thought this would be a good way of showing the entire school community that I am 100 percent vested in the success of our students, and I am willing to do whatever it takes to ensure their overall success."

Students paid 50 cents to get a lottery ticket for a chance to throw a pie. The more they paid, the more tickets they got. Students were randomly selected from each grade level to throw a pie. Staff members made larger donations for the chance to throw a pie at their boss.

Olivero was protected by a plastic jump suit and goggles, but was nevertheless coated with whipped cream at the end of each of two sessions. The event was held in the school cafeteria on top of plastic tarps.

"Everyone from the students to the staff had a great time," Olivero said. "I think this event allowed for all to see me in a different, less serious light."

Before the main event, students learned about the PBSIS program. Staff members give out what the school calls "Victory Vouchers" to children for good behavior. The vouchers can be cashed in for trips to the school's game room or for items in the school store.

The students learned about the Six Pillars of Character on which the PBSIS program is based: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship. These traits will be reinforced throughout the school year at PBSIS events and in everyday lessons.

The school also created a "Buddy Bench" as part of the program. The Buddy Bench sits near the school playground, and students who are feeling lonely or need a playmate can sit on the bench to let other children know to invite them to play.

"Students are eager to exhibit good behavior and character, and reap the rewards associated with that," Olivero said. "I want the excitement to continue, and for all students and staff to put their best foot forward to ensure we have an amazing school year."
