ACTIVE RETIREES VISITED BY K-9 UNIT

At a recent meeting of the Mountainside Active Retirees (MAR), the board and members welcomed three representatives of the Union County Sheriff's Department, K-9 Unit: Officer Eric Ramires, Officer Angela Yasinski and Officer Sam, her narcotic detection German Shepherd.

Together, Officers Ramires and Yasinski explained the history and make up of the K-9 unit and the various investigations and tasks the unit is trained to carry out, such as patrol, explosive and narcotic detection and search and rescue missions.

Each dog is assigned to one officer and together both officer and dog are schooled in different specialties. The bond between handler and dog is strong and the team of human and canine partners will stay together after training, working together until one or the other retires.

As an example, a "stash" of drugs were hidden in the meeting room to show how the team of Officers Yasinski and Sam would go about searching for it. Within 60 seconds the drugs were recovered and taken away.

A lively question and answer period followed with applause for the Officers and a meet and greet with Officer Sam.

Upcoming MAR meetings are:

On November 12 Professor James Kane will be our guest speaker and the topic will be Mysterious China.

On November 26 Victoria Coglianese, nutritionist, will be our guest speaker on the topic of Myths and Truths About Nutrition for Aging Well: 3 Top Changes You Can Make Now.

The MAR club meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month at 10 a.m. in the Community Room at Borough Hall. If you are interested in any of the above speakers and are 55+, you are welcome to attend.

PIZZA HEROES UNITE!

Imagine's Team of Superheroes Raises Nearly $25,000

Submitted by Val Stierhoff

At this year's Downtown Westfield 5K & Pizza Extravaganza, Imagine, A Center For Coping with Loss, had a team of about 60 people, including approximately 20 children, who raised nearly $25,000 for the nonprofit. The event was B.Y.O.C.: Bring Your Own Cape, and all the kids wore superhero capes. The hero theme reflected Executive Director Mary Robinson's nomination as a CNN Hero of the Year, but more importantly, highlighted a theme near and dear to Imagine – that all children can be the heroes of their own stories if they grow up in an environment that is open and supportive. Imagine's goal is to be that place that supports children who have experienced traumatic loss – and to create communities that support children, listen to them, and let them know their grief matters.

"It was great to see the kids having so much fun while knowing they were raising money for an important cause," said Mary Robinson,

Imagine's founder and executive director. "We've participated in the run for five years now, and all proceeds raised go to support the kids and families that participate in our grief support programs."

ABOUT IMAGINE

Imagine, A Center for coping with Loss, a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization, provides year-round grief support for children and young adults using a peer-support group model. Trained adult volunteers and professionals provide children and teens with comfort and the tools needed to process grief resulting from death or life-altering illness. In addition to providing grief support at its two centers in Mountainside and Newark, Imagine provides education in the community, leading workshops and providing on-site support in schools and workplaces where traumatic loss has occurred. Groups, which meet on weeknights, serve children and adults from more than 55 New Jersey towns.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE FOR 21ST ANNUAL PIPES OF CHRISTMAS

The Pipes of Christmas will celebrate its 21st season with performances in New Jersey and New York this December. The holiday favorite opens on Saturday, December 14 at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, located at 921 Madison Avenue (at 73rd Street) for a 2 p.m. performance. The concert moves across the Hudson River on Sunday, December 15 to Central Presbyterian Church located at 70 Maple Street in Summit, NJ with performances at 2 and 7 p.m.

For those weary of the ceaseless stream of secular seasonal music from department stores to TV, the Pipes of Christmas offers a spiritual and traditional take on the season that connects concertgoers to the holiday in a fresh, meaningful way. The show features tunes such as, "Highland Cathedral," Joy to the World, and Amazing Grace, all performed live on pipes and drums, harp and fiddle, and organ and brass and more. Not only does the performance define Christmas cheer, but also it inspires those of Celtic descent to retrace and reconnect to their ancestry.

The 2019 production will also mark the world premiere of "Mystical Nativity," an original composition inspired by the 16th century masterpiece painted by Italian Renaissance master, Sandro Botticelli.

The concert presents the music of Christmas accompanied by readings taken from the Celtic literature of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Featured performers include singer Maddy Kearns of Glasgow, Scotland making her concert debut, James Robinson from the film "Braveheart," New England fiddle champion Paul Woodiel, champion harpist Rachel Clemente, and the Pipe Major Kevin Ray Blandford Memorial Pipe Band from Redlands, CA among many more.

PROCEEDS SUPPORT SCHOLARSHIPS AND MORE

Proceeds from the concert support an extensive music scholarship program, which includes the Carol Hassert Memorial Fine Arts

Scholarship at Summit (NJ) High School as well as annual gifts to the National Piping Centre and the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland (both located in Glasgow, Scotland) the Gaelic College of Nova Scotia and Lyon College in Batesville, Arkansas.

Proceeds also support the Society's sponsorship of the US National Scottish Harp Championship, the Gaelic Literature Competition at Scotland's Royal National Mod and an annual academic research prize at Sabhal Mòr Ostaig, Scotland's Gaelic college on the Isle of Skye.

Each year, concert highlights are webcast in hi-definition over the Christmas holiday to a global audience. In cooperation with HomeTowne Television, the 2018 production was the recipient of two prestigious Telly Awards for webcast excellence.

The concert is still accepting Title Sponsors as well as Program Ads. These gifts help offset production expenses and add help fund our scholarships.
