KIWANIS CLUB 7TH ANNUAL TASTE OF LINDEN

Submitted by June Lazaro

The 7th Annual Taste of Linden was held on October 29, 2019 at The Grand Banquet Hall. Our community dined and socialized. The evening was filled with local restaurants, supporting businesses, a guitar quartet and some spirits too. Such fun seeing so many neighbors' smiling faces. From 50/50s, sponsorships, ticket sales and donations to LINCS, another successful grand time was had by all at The Grand.

So many local eateries shared their delights. Cuisines included: III Amici Ristorante, Applebee's Grill & Bar, Caruso's Cotton Candy, Chevy's Fresh Mex, Gold Leaf Pastry Shop, Jersey Mike's Sub, Masala Twist & Grill, Meson Tropical, Metro Liquors, Olivia's Catering and Dining, Parkway Grille, Pied Piper Liquors, Primavera's Café, Ristorante, Pizzeria, Starbucks at Linden, T&L/Leon's Catering and Wing It On.

Over $4,000 was raised through our Sponsors alone which included:

Diamond: Linden Education Association
Platinum: Infineum USA LP,

Gold: Samsel & Associates Real Estate Services, SNS Worldwide Inc.,

Silver: Phillips 66 Bayway Refinery, Unity Bank, Uptown Linden Inc.

Our gratitude extends to Nicholas Kowalski for sharing his sound system and SuperFresh of Linden for donating water. Special thanks to the Linden High School NJROTC cadets and Leo from T & L Catering; they served with smiles and even stayed to assist with the cleanup. The City of Linden was a collaborative partner and their contribution is greatly appreciated. Mayor Armstead spoke proudly of The Kiwanis Club of Linden's contributions and community mindset. Ryan Sautner started the evening by singing our National Anthem and Mr. Matthew's Guitar Quartet from Linden High School added that special home grown classy touch to perfect the night. Donations received go towards scholarships, sponsoring of our Linden Public School K Kid clubs and other community projects.

Look for photos, video coverage on the City of Linden's website and the local Linden TV channel. See smiles on the Renna Media Life in Linden website.

Please consider joining our club, as members are aging and our youth is our future. For information on joining, contact me, Membership Chair June Lazaro, at 908-930-8310 or email junlazaro@verizon.net. The Kiwanis Club of Linden usually has Thursday luncheon meetings at Primavera's. "Like" our Kiwanis Club of Linden Facebook page and look for updates on our next Taste of Linden event.

The 7th Annual Taste of Linden truly was a success because of our community. After all was settled, I looked around and smiled thinking wow - what a great community gathering.

Thank you! Thank you!! Thank you!!!

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE WINS MEDAL AT NATIONAL ROLLER SKATING COMPETITION

Submitted by Gary Miller

A recent Linden High School graduate won a bronze medal at the U.S. Artistic Roller Skating National Competition this summer.

Jaclyn Beviano of the Class of 2019 took third place in the Women's Freestyle division in Spokane, Washington, from July 17 to 28, 2019.

Beviano, who is coached by Mary and Al Dunham at the Woodbridge Community Center, has been skating since age 8 and has competed in the national event three times. This is her first medal.

"I couldn't believe it when they called my name!" Beviano said. "I heard the announcer say from Woodbridge, New Jersey, but it didn't register right away. My coaches were already on their feet applauding, and I could see my family coming towards me, smiling and cheering. It took a minute to sink in!"

Beviano reached nationals after winning three gold medals in the Eastern Regional competition, held June 22 and 23 at Holiday Skating Center in Delanco, NJ, for skaters from New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania. Her medals were in Women's B figures, Women's Freestyle, and Women's Creative.

At nationals, she skated against 23 women who represented the best skaters from nine regions around the country.

STATE PD COLONEL CALLAHAN PRESENTED WITH HIS GRANDFATHER'S LINDEN PD UNIFORM

Submitted by Lt. Christopher Guenther

It's not an uncommon practice for police officers to pass down uniforms and other items to their children or other family members who choose to follow in their footsteps by entering into law enforcement. It's also not uncommon for officers to pass down uniforms to young officers they mentored or worked with either. Back in the 1980s, police uniforms were quite expensive for rookie officers, so it was common for senior officers to pass down their old uniforms they no longer needed to help a fellow officer. Such was the case for Captain Jeff Vitrano.

Not long after he was hired, Captain Vitrano was given a brand-new, hand-me-down dress jacket. This "new" jacket had been passed down through several officers long before he first slipped his arm through the sleeve. And although he never met the original owner, he discovered his name still visible on a tag sewn inside the pocket, which was marked with the name: F. Callahan.

When Patrick J. Callahan was sworn in as Colonel of the New Jersey State Police in 2017, Captain Vitrano learned that the Colonel's grandfather was retired Linden Police Officer Frank Callahan, who walked the beat in Linden for 32 years until he retired in 1975, whose uniform he was given as a rookie officer, and whose uniform endured through the years, still hanging in his closet.

Nearly 45 years after Frank last wore it, the jacket was returned to the Callahan family!

Last week, Linden Mayor Derek Armstead, Police Chief Dave Hart and members of Linden Police Department met with Colonel Patrick Callahan, LTC Fritz Frage' and Matt Callahan to present the Colonel with the uniform his grandfather proudly wore during his 32-year tenure as a Linden Police Officer.

Frank Callahan's uniform is officially retired and will now reside at Division Headquarters where it will remain for posterity.

HIGH SCHOOL MEMORIES RETURNED TO ALUMNUS ON HER DEATH BED

Submitted by Gary Miller

During renovations at Linden High School this past summer, administrators found a photo album containing items related to the Class of 1946. That sparked a hunt to track down its owner and ended with a beautiful gift to an alumnus on her death bed.

The album contained photos from the 1940s, programs from concerts, plays, proms and football games, as well as programs from class reunions as recent as 2001. How it ended up in a storage closet at LHS is a mystery.

Anthony Fischetti, teacher and coordinator of the LHS International Baccalaureate program, volunteered to try to find the owner of the album. Inside the front cover was written the name Helen (Brown) Veverka with a Clark address.

"I immediately made a correlation to photos and artifacts that were uncovered after my grandfather passed," he said. "To me it was so special to review all of these relics and learn things about my family that I didn't necessarily know about. After a few moments of flipping through the album belonging to Helen, I knew that there was a collection of photos, articles and memories here that were irreplaceable with tremendous sentimental value. I knew that the right thing to do was to attempt to reunite the owner with something they clearly curated for a lifetime."

When Fischetti checked, he found that Veverka no longer lived at the Clark address. But he found a listing and a phone number for Helen Veverka in Apollo Beach, Florida.

Fischetti called the number and got some good news, and some bad news. He talked to Gerry Munger, who identified himself as Helen's Veverka's partner. He confirmed that the book was hers and that she often spoke fondly of her wonderful memories from Linden High School. He was happy to hear that the book was discovered and appreciated that Fischetti planned to send it.

The bad news was that Veverka was under hospice care at the time, and she has since died.

Fischetti sent the album to Florida on October 8 after speaking to Munger. Munger wrote back to Fischetti with a letter of great thanks, saying that his "beautiful bride" had passed on October 12, just days after the album arrived.

"While she was unable to read it, she knew that it had been found, and through your kindness, returned to her," the letter said. "It was so thoughtful of you. In the days since her passing, her children and grandchildren have enjoyed seeing the pictures and clippings from an earlier age.

"Linden made a significant difference in Helen's life. She remembered her days at Linden and was still able to sing the school song!

"Educators DO make a difference!"

Fischetti said he was speechless after receiving the letter.

"I am so happy that I could reunite Helen with this scrapbook filled with memories from as far back as the 1940s," he said. "Having had the privilege to look through these pages and see how meaningful Helen's time at Linden High School was really helped to reinforce how big the impact is that we as educators have on the future leaders of tomorrow."

Among the items in the album are personal photos as well as a photo of Linden's downtown featuring the old Plaza Theater and A&P on Wood Avenue. There are pages from a program of a performance of "Pirates of Penzance," a cover from a Thanksgiving Day football game against Union, and a program from the All State Chorus and Orchestra signed by students from around the state.

There are also covers from class reunion programs, including one from the 20th reunion in 1966. The program notes that among the special guests in attendance were Lida M. Ebbert and Edward R. Cooper, two former principals who are now the namesakes of the school and athletic field, respectively.

We at the Polish Legion of American Veterans wish to acknowledge the tremendous contributions of three Linden companies that bring a bit of sunshine into the long and dreary lives of our hospitalized veterans and members.

Mary Phillips of Phillips 66, Lois Bass of Infinium, and Rose Bussicula of Epicor-Mercer generously supply us with funds, merchandise, and transportation which benefits the residents of Veterans Hospital in East Orange, Lyons and the Menlo Park Nursing Home with BINGO, pizza parties, Christmas and holiday presents, clothing and bus trips.

Their contributions give us a tremendous boost to our Welfare Fund as we go out before stores and businesses grinding out donations by selling poppies each May to keep our goals going forward.

THREE LINDEN SCHOOLS SELECTED AS APPLE DISTINGUISHED SCHOOLS

Submitted by Gary Miller

Three Linden elementary schools have gained recognition as Apple Distinguished Schools for their continuous innovation in teaching with technology.

School No. 6, School No. 8 and School No. 10 have been recognized as centers of innovation, leadership and educational excellence that use Apple products to inspire creativity, collaboration and critical thinking. They showcase innovative uses of technology in learning, teaching and school environment and have documented results of academic accomplishment.

"We're very excited to hear that three of our elementary schools have been recognized as Apple Distinguished Schools," said Interim Superintendent Denise Cleary. "Our district partners with Apple to make sure all of our students have the tools they need to prepare for tomorrow, and this recognition for School No. 6, School No. 8, and School No. 10 highlights the results of that districtwide effort."

"This is certainly a tremendous accomplishment for our school community," said School No. 10 Principal David Walker. "Everything we do is for the benefit of our amazing students. Our teachers are committed to bringing their very best each day, to delivering high-quality instruction, and to integrating technology in the classroom in bold and dynamic ways. It is great to be recognized for the innovative work that we do as a school."

School No. 8 Principal Michelle Rodriguez said she is incredibly proud to have been chosen once again as an Apple Distinguished School.

"Through this recognition, the school is celebrated for being a leader in innovation and technology coupled with quality instruction and student engagement," she said. "This speaks volumes of our school climate and commitment to the betterment of the system and student success."

School No. 6 Principal William Mastriano credited the school staff as well as the students' strong desire to learn.

"It is a great honor to be recognized as a school that continues to move forward with technology, engagement and instruction," he said. "It says a lot about the relationships between our teachers and students. Our School No. 6 learning community really worked together throughout this entire process. Students and teachers began with the end in mind and really showcased how our students take control of their own learning through the use of technology."

The three-year distinction for the three schools runs through 2022. This is the second time School No. 6 and School No. 8 have been chosen as Apple Distinguished Schools, having also been selected in 2017.

Linden's Technology One-to-One initiative is key to the success of students at all the Linden Public Schools, and School No. 6, School No. 8 and School No. 10 are models of that success. Each student is provided with an iPad tablet, and technology is infused into the curriculum in math, language arts, social studies, and science. The district's elementary technology curriculum was expanded in the 2018-19 school year make it a standalone class for all students in Pre-K through Grade 5.

School No. 6 and School No. 8 are each home to about 340 students, and School No. 10 is home to 260 students, all covering Pre-K through Grade 5.

The technology teacher at School No. 8 and School No. 10 is Kim Marie Kefalas.

"I could not be more proud of that fact that both of the schools I work at are recognized as Apple Distinguished Schools," Kefalas said. "This could not be possible without the dedicated vision of administration and the willingness of staff to constantly learn new things and enhance their instructional techniques. The students are the ones who benefit most. With the power of technology at their fingertips, they are becoming creators, innovators, and problem solvers, which are skills that are needed for 21st century learning."

Also on the Apple Leadership Teams are Daria Vala, Angela Paternostro, and Heather Astalos at School No. 8; Linda Burt-Moque, Karen Lapinski, Tara Ravkin, Laura Venezio, and Margaret Zucosky at School No. 10; and Kim Morek, Irene Feliciano, Maria Grillo, Linda Castaldo, Rachel Carson, and Melissa Higgins at School No. 6.

LONGTIME SECRETARY REMEMBERED AS 'THE SOUL OF SOEHL'

Submitted by Gary Miller

The Linden Public Schools family came together on Tuesday, October 15, 2019, to honor and remember "the soul of Soehl."

An electronic sign has been erected outside Soehl Middle School with a dedication reading, "In Loving Memory of Elizabeth Givens, 40 Years of Service," honoring the school's longtime secretary, who died on April 8, 2019.

"It is a great honor to have worked alongside with Ms. Givens at Soehl for over 20 years and most importantly to call her my dear friend," Soehl Principal Isabella Scocozza said in welcoming dozens of family members, administrators, staff members, retirees, and students who attended the dedication. "Ms. Givens was such an important part of our Soehl family and gave so much to both the students and the staff at our school."

Several members of Givens' family attended the ceremony, sitting before a poster-sized photo of Givens that the school had created. The photo is made up of hundreds of small photos of the students who attended Soehl last year.

"That is a true tribute to her, because she loved the kids," Scocozza said.

There are two copies of the photo: one was given to her son Steven, and another will hang permanently outside the main office at Soehl, where Givens started working in 1977. Through the 1980s, she served at both Soehl and McManus Middle School, before returning full time to Soehl in 1990.

Interim Superintendent Denise Cleary thanked Givens' family "for sharing Liz with us for all of these years."

"She was such a vital part of our Linden community, our school community, and important to everyone here at Soehl," Cleary said. "When I would call Soehl, she always knew what was going on and had her finger on the pulse of the school."

Board of Education President Gregory R. Martucci, who worked with Givens for years as a teacher and administrator, called her "the soul of Soehl."

"I've known Liz for probably 45 years," he said. "She was like a sister. She loved this school and she loved these kids. She was the heart and soul, the blood and guts. She enjoyed what she did. This was part of her life, and the tens of thousands of kids who cycled through she remembered as family."

Richard Molinaro, district math director who was Soehl principal for three years until this summer, said he was fortunate to have Givens as his secretary.

"She was a valuable resource on the ins and outs of Soehl Middle School," he said. "She always treated everyone with respect. In fact, you could say she was old-school in that regard." Molinaro went on to tell the story of his first days of working with Givens.

"Her first question to me was, 'How do you pronounce your last name?'" he recounted. "She tried, but she just couldn't get it. I told her, 'Just call me by my first name, Rick.'"

"Well, she looked at me with that look she could give some of us at times, and said, 'I've worked with a long list of principals, some long before you were even born, and I've never, ever called any of them by their first name - Rick,'" Molinaro said, drawing laughs from those who were gathered. "'So is Mr. M. OK?' I said, 'Sure.'"

Molinaro credited Business Administrator Kathleen A. Gaylord, Supervisor of Maintenance Lawrence Miranda, Scocozza, Vice Principal Gwendolyn Long, and all the staff at Soehl with making the memorial sign possible.

"After her passing, it was obvious that as a school we wanted to do something to celebrate her life and memory," Molinaro said. "We discussed planting a tree, building a garden, and a host of other ideas. However, with her dedication of 40 years and being one of the cornerstones of Soehl Middle School, it only seemed fitting to have her memory cast among and on top of the brickwork you see before you, for all to admire and celebrate for a long, long time."

The dedication ceremony concluded with a poem read by Elizabeth James, a crisis intervention worker at Soehl. The poem was "The House by the Side of the Road" by Sam Walter Foss, which included the following refrain: "Let me live in my house by the side of the road, and be a friend to man."
