(above) Long Hill's Girl Scouts and their family members created toiletry packs and socks bags for Bridges Outreach, which helps the homeless.

Submitted by Allison Kempe

Most Friday nights are spent going out and having fun with friends or just taking it easy after a long week. But not for many of Long Hill's Girl Scouts and their family members who took the time on a recent Friday to help the homeless who live under bridges in NY and NJ.

Organized and facilitated by the Girl Scout Senior Troops and the St Vincent de Paul Youth Ministry, toiletry kits (including shampoo, soap, lotion, toothbrushes and toothpaste) were sorted and packaged by the participants for the most vulnerable of the homeless. Individually wrapped snacks were also donated.

"It's so nice to see the kids come together to serve the community," said Lynn Vreeland, event organizer. "We made approximately 750 toiletry packs and about 150 sock bags. A lot of people in need will be positively affected and given a gift of hope. That is priceless!"

Bridges Outreach, Inc. organizes more than 2,000 volunteers each year who deliver 65,000 brown bag meals, 10,000 pairs of socks and underwear, 7,500 toiletry kits, 49,000 cups of soup, and literally tons of donated clothing to over 21,000 people in New York City, Newark and Irvington, NJ.

If interested, you too can be a part of this by donating the needed supplies by visiting perfectpotluck.com; Coordinator: Bridges; password: 2323

Submitted by Anitha Irakam

Deepa Irakam, a member of Girl Scout Troop 65512, recently earned the prestigious Gold Award.

Through her Gold Award, Empower Your Future, Deepa Irakam worked over 80 hours to address the issue of sexual harassment. She educated students, ages ranging from middle school to high school, as many of them have heard about sexual harassment but are still not quite sure what it is, and gave them an opportunity to learn more so that they understood what they can do to make sure it doesn't continue. In addition to working with students in group activities, teaching lessons, and creating discussions, she created a resource guide that included more information on sexual harassment and who to reach out to for help.

The resource guides were distributed to local community centers and schools as a way to spread awareness for sexual harassment education and empower students to speak out when they see something that isn't right. She also created a website with more information to help continue her education platform which includes a printable version of her resource guide. You can find her website at deepairakam.wixsite.com/empoweryourfuture.

Through the #MeToo Movement and the Time's Up Movement, it's clear that these platforms have started to create positive change to prevent sexual harassment from continuing. However, there is still work to be done. Deepa's project aims to educate students early on about sexual harassment affecting schools, communities, and the workplace, because education is what starts conversations and can serve as a force for meaningful change.

Her Gold Award, Empower Your Future, would not have been possible without the support of her advisor Dr. Susan Cooper, her Girl Scout Troop Leader Sonia Estevez, her Girl Scout Troop, and her Gold Award Team.

(above) Deepa Irakam of Troop 65512 received a Gold Award for her work on "Empower Your Future."

WHRHS CLASS OF 2020 COLLEGE SIGNING DAY

Submitted by Denis Kelly

Five student athletes in the Class of 2020 who play for the Warriors of Watchung Hills Regional High School (WHRHS) announced their intentions to matriculate and play intercollegiate sports at Division I colleges on November College Signing Day, Wednesday, November 13, 2019. As part of the same ceremony, two additional Warrior Student Athletes announced their intentions to matriculate and play intercollegiate sports at Division II colleges.

There are three College Signing Days throughout the high school academic year: November, February and May.

The students signing to matriculate and play at Division I colleges are: Chloe Ferreira, Monmouth University (Hawks), West Long Branch, Metro Atlantic Conference, Soccer; Laura Baeyens, University of Pennsylvania (Quakers), Philadelphia, Pa., Ivy League Conference, Cross Country/Track & Field; Bradley Jelmert, Arkansas State University (Red Wolves), Jonesboro, Ark., Sun Belt Conference, Track & Field; Mahogany Jenkins, University of Indiana (Hoosiers), Bloomington, Ind., Big Ten Conference, Track & Field; and Christopher Salkowski, Coastal Carolina University (Chanticleers), Conway, S.C., Sun Belt Conference, Track & Field.

The students signing to matriculate and play at Division II Colleges are: Kaitlyn Gully, Bentley University (Falcons), Waltham, Mass., Northeast10 Conference, Field Hockey; and Sophia Cicchetti, Adelphi University (Panthers), Garden City, N.Y., Northeast-10 Conference, Softball.

Both Bentley and Adelphi play in the Northeast-10 Conference, although the Warrior student athletes, Gully and Cicchetti, will play in different sports when they put on their new colleges' uniforms for Field Hockey and Softball, respectively.

And, among the Track and Field athletes, both Jelmert and Salkowski will play on Sun Belt Conference rivals, Arkansas State and Coastal Carolina, respectively, although they specialize in different Field events, Pole Vault and Javelin.

LONG HILL'S GIRL SCOUTS ANNUAL CAMPFIRE / SING-ALONG

Submitted by Allison Kempe

Long Hill Township's Girl Scouts gathered at Hicks Tract on Saturday, October 19, 2019, to celebrate the founder of Girl Scouts, Juliette Gordon Low's birthday (her real birthday date is Halloween).

Led by the Cadette Troops, the girls came together and learned how to build a fire...and with fire naturally comes S'Mores which is always a fun and entertaining event! Each troop led a song, including traditional girl scout songs, patriotic songs, and to be current, "Baby Shark"! Food was collected and donated to the All Saints food pantry, Twelve Baskets.

A big thank you to Lombardo Farms for their donation of the firewood. It was a fun time for all.

WATCHUNG HILLS PROJECT GRADUATION 2020

Submitted by Gina Strong

Watchung Hills Regional High School will be celebrating its 29th year of Project Graduation. Project Graduation is a series of year long, small events for the senior class, culminating in a safe, drug and alcohol free celebration on the night of Graduation.

WHRHS kicked off this year's Project Graduation 2020 on October 16. The Class of 2020 was presented their "Senior shirts" as the official Senior class yearbook photo was taken. The year's events will conclude with the final celebration held on June 21, 2020 at Dave and Buster's in Woodbridge. The Project Graduation committee, composed of parent volunteers, has planned school day activities for the entire year, plus this unforgettable night of fun for all members of the graduating class. The committee arranges for the venue, transportation, security and chaperones. The night will be filled with food, video and arcade games, and entertainment.

In order for every student to participate, the committee is reaching out to the community for support through a direct fundraising appeal. We need your assistance to continue this worthwhile program.

Please consider making a tax deductible donation today, to sponsor senior students. Checks should be made payable to WHRHS Project Graduation and sent to the school.

WHRHS

Attention: Project Graduation,
108 Stirling Road, Warren, NJ 07059
or via Venmo @WHRHS-Projectgrad

On behalf of the volunteer committee and the students who will benefit from your generosity, thank you for your support, from Project Graduation 2020 Executive Board.
